

September 11, 2022 Adoration Chapel

Hello my adorable Jesus hidden in the Most Blessed Sacrament. My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love Thee! I ask pardon for those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope and do not love Thee. (Fatima Pardon Prayer) I love You my Lord, my God and my All!

Lord, my heart was overcome with reverence and joy at the mystery of Your presence here and the interior 'awareness' that it is a great and unmeasurable grace to be present here in this place. I don't know why I don't sense this each time I come before Your Eucharistic presence. Perhaps these senses were evoked due to the activity that I observed upon entering the chapel. A fellow adorer who was concluding Her visit and realizing there were no other adorers present was just about to close the doors on Your humble yet majestic Eucharistic presence when She heard us open the door and enter. She quickly acknowledged us, looked relieved and left the doors open so that we could watch with You. Oh, Jesus it was then that the immense and impactful sense of awe, reverence and joy came over or welled up from within my soul. What an honor and a grace that such lowly subjects of Yours could be asked to watch with You for an hour or however long You deem appropriate. Jesus, my Jesus, I love You. Thank You for loving one who is so insignificant, so small and who falls so frequently. Because You are all good, benevolent, merciful and are perfect love, You love each and every one of Your children regardless of our unworthiness. And, as My grandmother would say, 'Yes, and we are all unworthy, except for the Blessed Mother and St. Joseph.' Still, You choose to love me knowing full well how many times (the number of which is unknown by me) I have and will disappoint You. I am sorry for the times I have sinned against You and my neighbor. I am sorry for the times I have failed to do as You and the Blessed Mother have asked Your children to do for love of souls. Forgive my unloving heart, Lord. Forgive me for the times I have not trusted You as You so well deserve to be trusted. Increase my capacity to love You more, Jesus. Give me graces for an increase of love. My heart is physically and spiritually too small to accommodate the depth of love I should have and that You so deserve from me. Therefore, Jesus either increase the size of my heart and fill it to overflowing with the love You desire in me, or fuse my heart so incapable of holy love, to Your Sacred Heart where it will be united to Yours and therefore can do nothing else but love, since then my small wounded, inferior heart will be united to Your infinitely large, perfect, divine heart full of mercy and love for mankind. Lord, please grant this prayer if it is Your Holy Will. I prefer the second request if You don't mind, because then I can remain humiliated in the Divine Presence, and also cannot fail to love fused to the heart of love itself. Oh, Jesus have pity on me. You know how many times I failed to love purely due to love for You and how easy it is for me to be self-centered, prideful and a seeker of comfort and human companionship (which in itself is a good but not when preferred to Your company). See, my Redeemer how much I need You in Your role as Redeemer. You must grow very tired of me and my many faults, especially when You have showered me with so many blessings. Jesus, my entire family from my grandparents, parents, siblings, nieces, nephews, my spouse, my children and grandchildren are such blessings to me. With such great love You placed me in the center of talented, gifted, wise, intelligent, handsome and beautiful family members who love You dearly. I really am the lowest of them all and yet they all treat me with equal love and respect. This is amazing, but it is also a lesson as they have shown me how we are to love all people as brothers and sisters. It is also a lesson in the love of our grandparents and parents who showed and taught by example how to love as You love. Why then, Oh Lord am I unable to love You and others as I should? Dear family in Heaven, who gave me every beautiful lesson on love, please pray for me. In the meantime, Jesus, I will lean on You knowing that Your precious and holy blood and water that gushed forth from Your pierced heart (on the cross) will cover me. In this way, when God the Father looks at me, You are all He will see. Hide me in Your wounds, my sweet Divine Jesus. Praise You for Your powerful love and mercy. All glory, honor and praise to You, my Lord, God and King.

"My little one, thank you for the heartfelt and sincere prayers. You are correct in what you say about being small. I so prefer smallness and humility to those who believe they are great. Recognizing your failures is being aware of your humanity and keeps a right perspective, that I am God and you are not. Of course, you fall, My child. Everyone who is a human being with the exception of My Most Holy Mother Mary has occasions of sin. Only She did not sin, due to a singular grace, She was and is the Immaculate One. God preserved Her from sin, My child due to Her special and unique role, to be the Mother of God and consequently the Mother of the Church. Out of God's great wisdom and love for humanity, Mary, My Mother was perfectly preserved from the stain of sin to be a spotless example to the world. She is completely human and yet perfectly lived each role, daughter, wife, mother, disciple, friend of God and friend to others while on earth and She continues from Her place in Heaven to fulfill each of these roles and more (Queen of Heaven and Earth, Co-Redemptrix, etc.) for love of God and out of love for all Her children. She is what I intended Eve to be, My child but because Eve chose sin over obedience, Mary, My Most Immaculate Mother received all graces to the full so that the human race would have a Mother. Most Holy Mary restored the maternal role empty and void since the fall of Adam and Eve in the Garden. I, Jesus, the new Adam came to redeem mankind. Mary, the new Eve came to usher in and to be the Ark of the New Covenant thereby restoring women to the role God the Father intended. My Mother is the perfect feminine role model, the perfect Christian role model for all mankind. If you only knew how much She has done for you, you would never hesitate to thank Her, to thank God for Her and to ask for Her intercession. She is the most favored One among all mankind, My children. Reflect on this truth and allow this to penetrate your hearts with reverence and love for God. All of this has been given to You, My children out of the deepest love and the mercy of God. Mary is Mary, not for Her sake, but for the sake of God and for the human race. Everything She does, every thought, action and desire comes from Her deep love for Me. For those reading this who do not understand My Mother's role in salvation, meditate on these things. Do not use your contemporary, secular mindset, but pray for the wisdom of the Holy Spirit, the Divine Spouse of Mary, My Mother and your Mother to understand. The more you come to an appreciation and understanding of the role of My Most Holy Immaculate and loving Mother, the more deeply you will realize the love of God and the deeper truths of what I, your Jesus experienced when I left the family home, separated myself temporarily from the most beautiful, loving, merciful and perfect Mother to face the ills of society, full of the putridness of sin to begin My ministry. Reflect on these things, My children, all of My children to grow in your faith and in the school of holiness. It is beyond time for all of My followers to accept the truth about My Mother so that you can become less like toddlers and more like mature disciples. This understanding is the beginning of a deeper relationship with Me, your Savior and Lord Jesus Christ. Think about this, My beloved, doubting children; when you have a close friend, one that you respect, enjoy spending time with and who edifies you in the Lord, do you not begin to desire to meet his or her family? Do you gain even better perspective when you learn about the way he or she grew up, their country or town of origin, their family life, etc.? Yes, in many cases, friends from childhood are even more precious precisely because you share a history, you share in the knowledge and often have experienced their interactions with their family members and perhaps they took you into their home, shared meals with you and perhaps reciprocated and brought your friend to your home. Do you see, My children? Did this take anything away from the love, respect and friendship you had for and with your friend? No, of course not. If anything, it added another dimension to your friendship. It gave you insight into your friend, his or her values, love of family, etc. It is the same with Me, My children. I love you so much that I shared My very own Mother with you from the cross. My most precious Mother is given to all My children and this is why you have Father (God) and Mother (Mary) and you are brothers and sisters to Me. I am all things to you, My children and I do not leave a void in the world, but give you My own Mother for your Mother. Even if you were abandoned by your earthly Mother, you have a heavenly Mother in Mary, most holy, most pure. She is Mother to you, My children. Do not forget, do not cease to give thanks to Father God for creating the Immaculate Mary. She takes nothing away from God for all that She is, all that She does points to God, leads others to Me, intercedes for you in Heaven, and all that She is and does gives great glory and honor to God, the Most Holy Trinity. Therefore, embrace My Mother as your Mother. I withhold nothing from you and I do not withhold the One who is full of grace from the children of God who are in such need of grace. My little lamb, thank You for following the inspiration of My Holy Spirit, and praying the Fatima prayers. Your heart leapt for joy and was overcome by such awe that you were open to the direction of My Spirit. As a result, you prayed as the angel of Portugal taught the three children of Fatima and as My Mother taught them the prayers of Fatima. Oh, how I desire mankind to return to these prayers so needed in this urgent time. Remind My children of these prayers, My little daughter and friend. Remind them and pray for a renewed fervor so that more and more people, millions and millions will pray these prayers and offer penance, sacrifices for love of those who have fallen into sin. If you are not acquainted with Fatima I urge you to learn about the messages from My Most Holy Mother, Mary. Learn also about why the three littlest children lived the message of Fatima. They responded to My Mother with heroic acts of love, mercy and compassion for sinners and spared nothing for the sake of their Jesus. Learn about this historic time, My children and begin to live the message of Fatima. Because mankind did not heed the messages given to the world by God, through My Mother, they are needed now more than ever. Sadly, not enough listened and even fewer acted upon the requests from Heaven and consequently the world is in the worst possible condition, the Age of Disobedience and rebellion against God. Children, oh, children awaken from the slumber of your souls, your hearts and your minds. Pray for the blinders to be removed from your eyes. Look around you. Do you not see the chasm between earth and Heaven growing wider by the day? Do you not know of the reign of evil being shoved down your throats? Do you not see the slaughter of innocents, the slavery of the most pure and vulnerable, the rhetoric and lies continually perpetuated and repeated by the serpent's followers? The words of the serpent exposed in the book of Genesis echo throughout history and are proclaimed more loudly now than ever before in history, 'You certainly will not die. If you eat of the fruit of the knowledge of good and evil you will become like gods.' Man repeats over and over again this act of disobedience and pride. Mankind lusts after power and wants to become like gods. My children, you were made in the image and likeness of God, the One True God, the Creator and Father of all. Listen, My children, My adversary lies. He is the father of lies, evil, deception. His kingdom is hell, eternal damnation. His mission is to lead as many souls as he can to eternal damnation and eternal separation from the Good, the Love, the Truth, the Beauty. He is evil, hate, falsehood and all that is ugly. Do not listen to his lies. I repeat, you were created in the image of God, which is why he wants you dead eternally. He hates God and therefore he hates My children. The way to become more like God, the Creator and Lover is to become holy, to become even closer to Me to emulate Me. Read Sacred Scripture. Read the Gospels. Read the lives of the Saints. Learn about Fatima, and then learn of the many apparitions when God the Father allowed Mary the Most Holy Mother to come to sinful mankind to lead you back to the heart of the Father. Learn, My blind children, so that you will begin to see and to understand the signs of the times. These are the most dangerous, most urgent of all times. If you do not believe this, do what I ask anyway for love of Me and soon you will see with the eyes of faith. I urge you, My little children to return to Me. It is not too late, but soon it will be too late for your precious souls. You know not the hour that your life will be required. Prepare yourself so that you will enter paradise, your heavenly home and avoid hell, the home of the evil one who was banned from Heaven for rejecting God's plan for salvation and for his pride in thinking that he was better and more divine than God, the One who created him. He did not want to serve God, knowing that I would create human beings in My image and likeness. He was jealous of you, My children and jealous that My Son would become man in order to die for you and before the creation he became so jealous and filled with rage that he incited rebellion in Heaven. Can you imagine? Yes, My children in My Kingdom, he-Lucifer had the gall to make war against God and the holy angels as if he could overtake the All-Powerful-All Knowing & Ever Present Triune God! Such pride! Is it any surprise that he incites rebellion, creates division and tempts mankind to war against life? Is it a surprise that he instills and tempts mankind to fall into the same sin as Adam and Eve, the temptation to be like 'gods'? Only God, the Holy Trinity can create something from nothing. Do not be deceived by the evil people who follow the father of lies. Open your eyes, My little children so you do not fall into his traps which are all around you. Protect yourselves and your families from the evil that lurks everywhere. Do not allow wickedness and sin into your homes through the media that has become corrupt and filled with lies. Do not allow sin to permeate the hearts of your children through false principles, lies, masked by seemingly good labels such as pro-choice theories which means killing of the innocents, diversity and equity which means hatred and racism and on and on. Protect your children from the evil predators who steal their innocence and turn them against the loving Father God. Arm yourselves with Scripture, prayer and the Sacraments. This is all My little lamb. Come to Me again this week. I bless you and My son (name withheld) in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Go in peace. Be love."

Amen!
