

November 20, 2022 Adoration Chapel

Hello, my adorable Jesus present in the Holy Sacrament of the Altar. Thank You for making it possible to be here with You today. Thank You for Confession, Holy Mass and Holy Communion! What a blessing to receive You in Holy Communion. Praise You, my Lord, God and King! All honor, glory and praise be to You, Lord Jesus Christ.

Lord, please be with (name withheld) as he goes through the week and Thanksgiving holiday without his sons beside him. This is a suffering for him. Help him not to become too discouraged, Lord. It is difficult to be separated from our loved ones during the holiday season. Please help all those who are struggling with these challenges so that they do not feel alone and isolated. I pray this also for those who have lost loved ones from this world that they may be reunited in Your Kingdom. Send family or friends to cheer them and guard them closely while they are experiencing sadness. Jesus, I pray for those who have left the Church and bring them home soon. Jesus, I ask for healing graces for (name withheld) and for his parents who are so very concerned about him. Transform him, Lord and may Your holy name be praised by many non-believers as a result. It truly would be a miracle!

Dear Lord, bring all souls who are estranged from You back, as only you can intervene, Lord. May Your warning do this (reunite souls). Lord, is there anything You want to say to Me?

“My child, My child please pray more for souls who are not living in a state of grace, and are far from Me. Please increase your prayers.”

Yes, Lord.

“Souls who know Me yet choose to live in the world and to disregard all that their parents taught them grieve Me greatly. Those who intentionally battle against humanity cause Me the deepest sorrow. They who rage against My little children and My children of faith invite the wrath of God to visit them. I do not wish to lose one single soul. Pray for those who choose evil over good. Live a holy life, My child and all of My children. Be pleasing to God. Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you. Return evil with good and holy actions. Pray, pray, pray My children. Pray for souls outside of the Holy Catholic Church and for all souls. (for their salvation) The world is a dangerous place.”

Lord be with us as we have had such a busy weekend with many commitments. It's exhausting, especially after having worked all week. Be with (name withheld) as he plays during the concert and help him to use his gifts for music to bring more glory to You, Oh Lord. Help him during his last semester of high school. I pray this for high school seniors that they will make good and holy choices about the universities they will attend, the friendships they will make. May they be holy examples of faith.

“My children soon the line of demarcation will be present. As this age becomes more rebellious and evil is fueled by a lack of piety, not choosing holiness will be choosing evil. There will be more visible signs of evil. The good people will shine like the sun attracting attention because of their goodness. Holy people, by their very nature which is an emulation of Me, are irritants to those who are evil. It reminds the evil one and his followers that I am still on the throne and in control and this causes much anger and pride to manifest in dark and sinister ways. Do not be concerned when evil becomes even more aggressive. Continue to pray and do all I have taught you. (Read Scripture, do penance, frequent the Sacraments, pray and fast.) Have no fear, for I am God and you unite yourselves to Me. This means that you and I are one in Spirit and we are in the Body of Christ. I am the head and you are My body, therefore have no fear. I tell you these things so that you will recognize the times for what they are and understand that evil will have its hour but the Son of Man will triumph. Allow Me to triumph now in your hearts. Allow Me to reign within you, My children and nothing will harm you. Yes, there will be martyrs but they will be given every grace needed at the appropriate time and then they will come straight to Heaven. This is, after all the goal of every Christian so do not be sad when this occurs. Remain steadfast and unshakable, even when the world shakes for you stand on the secure foundation—Christ. Therefore, be as the early Christians, prepared to suffer all things for the sake of the Gospel of Christ.

You will witness many miracles of healing and protection. Allow these miracles of healing and protection. Allow these miracles to bolster your trust in Me, but do not look for signs and wonders. You will see them but do not look for them. Be discerning and test everything. Bring each question and decision to Me and I will give you direction. You will have great clarity in this day, for clarity and wisdom will be needed in this age now more than ever. Therefore, I tell you, do not be deceived by the evil one who wants to control you. He wants to control every action you take. In order to do so, people will give up the gift of their free will. This is very important My Children of Light. Do not surrender this most precious gift of free will given to you by My Father. The gift of free will is what, dear children, makes one human versus a robot or an animal. The gift of free will allows My children to choose good over evil. It allows humans to use their reason (rational minds) and their faith to discern the right path toward God. Only when your conscience has become numb due to constant or grave sin does the intellect become darkened. Then it is most difficult if not impossible to choose the Light. Through miracles of grace, souls can still convert that are dwelling in darkness but few souls ever make this choice for God at this point. Therefore, be alert and do all I offer to you to be holy and pure. Rebuke all forms of worldly entertainment for this has become an avenue of great temptation to worship idols. It is always subtle at first, My children and appears harmless but a small concept contrary to My Kingdom is introduced into a television show, music, comedy, etc., and it is dismissed as being harmless because everything else seemed 'so good.' This is the plan of the father of lies. He always plants a grain of evil or falsehood in order that My children will accept it. Over time, he inserts more and more (little by little) and one day the entire civilization is corrupted by every sort of sin. Do you not see how this has occurred in this very generation? I tell you, it is time to turn one's back on all forms of worldly entertainment that is devoid of Me, devoid of the Christian message. It was not this way in past decades for some things were still based on Christian values. Now, it is very rare to find even one program that is Godly. This sounds severe, I know, My children but I tell you for your own good. Pay attention. Souls are at stake."

"Once again, I remind you to choose prayer, and Holy Mass. Choose to read holy books and other programs about the saints, heroic love (Christian, Christ like love) and about Me. I am raising up Christians in every sphere but realize the entertainment industry is full of evil men, evil spirits, hedonism, grave sins of every kind of perversity, drug addiction, etc. It is difficult to find programs devoid of such depravity. Keep your minds and hearts pure. Reject these things and do not allow the constant barrage of sin to cause your souls to fall. Protect yourselves, your families, your children and your spouses from exposure to unholy things. It is necessary. I ask the heads of the families to be courageous and protect their families from evil. Pray, pray, pray. Fast, do penance and frequent the Sacraments to preserve your beautiful souls for the Kingdom of Heaven. This is all My child I love you. I bless you in the name of My Father, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Go in the peace, love and mercy of God. All will be well. I am with you."

Thank You, Lord. Amen! Alleluia! Be with us all, dearest Lord and Savior.
