

February 5, 2023 Adoration Chapel

Hello, my adorable Jesus present in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I adore You, I love You, I praise You and thank You for all You have done for me and for the entire human race. Thank You for Your love and mercy. Thank You for Your passion, death and resurrection and for the Church and Sacraments. Thank You for Holy Mass and Holy Communion. Oh, Lord how I love Your Holy Church. Thank You for the beauty of creation and for the beauty of the liturgy especially the Mass of the Ages. Truly, You have given us everything, even Your Most Holy Mother Mary. You hold nothing back from us. Thank You for Adoration where I can sit in this profound quiet and gaze at You. Lord, I am lost without You, but at Mass and in Your Adoration Chapels I feel at home. Indeed, I feel 'found' by You. I love You, Lord. Jesus, show me how I am to serve You each and every day. Give me Your orders, Lord or simply take my hand and lead me where You will. I don't even need to know where it is You want me to go. It is enough to walk together. Never allow me to be separated from You, my Lord, my God, my King and my Friend. Jesus, I give You each loved one, each dear one and ask You to take care of each soul. I entrust each one to You. In this way, I know they will be safe and secure near Your sacred, merciful, loving heart. Bring out each person's potential, their God-given talents, their hearts, minds and souls to union with You. I ask this for all of my friends and family members (relatives), and for every Christian. May each one of us have a share in Your Heavenly Kingdom at the end of our earthly pilgrimage. Lord, You know everything and You are all powerful. Bring the whole world through the fire of Your love so that we will attain our intended union with Your Divine Will. Thank You Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Thank you Blessed Mother and St. Joseph for your beautiful, perfect holy lives and your witness through your quiet, beautiful lives of love and discipleship. The perfect disciples, St. Joseph and Mary most holy. Keep us safe, Holy Family as we face the perils of this age. Protect us, as You protected Jesus when you fled to Egypt to avoid the horrible wrath of King Herod. Thank You for showing us the way to Jesus. I love You!

"My child, My child, you are growing in your knowledge of yourself, the ways in which to die to yourself in order that I can fill you more completely with My healing love. Allow this process to continue, My child. I am bringing you along with patience, gentleness and like a surgeon with precision. Allow Me to excise the wounds and pour My healing balm over you. You will be stronger in your ability to contain My love as a result. I realize this makes you feel vulnerable, but in this way, your weakness is transformed by My strength just as My Apostle Paul wrote in Scripture. This is the process I Will for all of My children, but they must be open to it, desire it of Me out of love and a willingness to become like Me in any way the heavenly Father Wills. My children, with this pruning process, you grow more beautiful, blossoming into the Child of God you are intended to be. Ask Me where change is needed. Ask Me to show you the reason or the cause for any wounds you have. It is only through My transforming power of love, you will overcome the consequences of sin that you committed or that others committed against you."

"Some of you reading these words are thinking, 'I am fine. I go to Confession regularly and I'm past this now.' If you really have brought each and every wound to Me, even those you do not remember, that is excellent. You are well integrated by the power of My Holy Spirit and rarely sin, either in thought or deed and you live fully in My Divine Will. Since there are very few people who have approached this level of holiness, it is safe to assume you have not gone through this level of healing. My children, you have nothing to fear. Healing, My healing is desperately needed and because I love completely, it is My desire that each one of you allow Me into this process of your healing. We will speak more in depth about this at another time. For now, pray to be aware of an area in your life in need of healing. Begin reflecting on your childhood, your earliest memories and ask Me to show you where or by whom you were hurt. My children, I also want you to know that I was there with you. I was holding your hand and gazing lovingly into your eyes. I did not approve of the actions others took that caused you pain, emotionally or physically. I held you in My arms and assured you of My love. I let you know that one day you would be ready to remember these wounds to bring them to your Jesus for healing. Then, you will also see that you will be made even more beautiful than you ever would have been without experiencing these wounds. This may not make sense to you, but I will bring great beauty to your soul upon your healing and you will shine for all of Heaven to see. This is a gradual process, My children. I could make this happen all at once, but that type of surgery is painful, especially when one has suffered many types of injuries over an entire lifetime. It is better for you if we work together slowly but in a continual fashion. It will also help you to grow in your trust of Me. You will come to really know in a very deep and real way that I love you and I desire only that which is good for you. One day, I will send others in need of healing and you will know just what to do, what to say and how to patiently and gently help these souls I will entrust to you for assistance. When the Illumination occurs, many will have a very bright light from God shining on all sins and consequences of sin. The light of truth illuminating a soul in darkness can be shocking, My children. This will be like undergoing surgery for multiple, grave wounds of the soul. This is My loving act through My Holy Spirit to heal mankind and provide every means for souls to choose Me. Imagine not knowing Me, never having set foot in a church, living life completely for oneself, and undergoing this Illumination. You are My friends. You are My followers. I am your Lord and your teacher. I am also the Great Physician. I know each person's needs. I know everything about you and I desire all that is good for each one of you. So great is My love that it burns inside My heart, longing to burst forth to purify each child of Mine and to make of you great saints. I can only do this with your 'yes' your willingness to allow Me to heal your hearts. I invite you all, each one to respond to My desire to perfect your souls. Let us begin this work now, My children. Then when the Illumination occurs you will already be very close to the holiness I desire for you and you will be very ready to assist your brothers and sisters in need. Let us begin, My little Children of Light. You have nothing to fear. Do you see how much I love you? Do you see how much I trust you to be like the early church, forging the way for others to come into the Church, into the Body of Christ? This is what I want for you. This is what I need for you so that you can take your places in these great voids of light and be Christ bearers."

"My children, I am calling you and I am counting on you. Pray for your shepherds. Pray for all who harm you, persecute you, and all who reject or betray you. Pray for them. Forgive them. Remember what I suffered for you, for My Bride, the Church. Pick up your crosses and with great joy follow Me. I love you. You are a friend of the King and your Savior loves and protects you. Follow in My footsteps, walking on the same path the saints did in their lives. Do not be concerned that you can't do this walk with Christ. That is not true. That is a lie from the enemy. I created you for greatness, but you will only become great by first becoming very small, very weak and fully reliant on Me, your Jesus. Then My strength will be able to operate fully through you and then—watch out darkness. My Mother will crush the head of the serpent using Her heel, the power of the Holy Spirit in Mary Most Holy, the Immaculate Woman, Mother of God and with Her little children who follow Me. Hold fast to the hands of My Mother. She followed Me perfectly and She knows just what to do. I invite you to this healing process, My children and I assure you I am very gentle and you are safe with Me."

Thank You, my Lord and my God! Thank You for Your words of encouragement and hope.

"You are most welcome, My little one. Remember, I want this for each of My children. I want this also for the final preparation for the missions each one will have to bring about the Kingdom of God in the world, as it is in Heaven. Recall that I have already told you the people who will come to you and My son will have many wounds. The priests will also come to find respite for a short time while they will be serving My children and bringing the Sacraments at great risk. It is My Will, My daughter that you discern this invitation to serve My priests now. It is part of My plan for the role you and My son will have during the Time of Great Trials. Trust in Me. Bring each problem and concern to Me first, My child. I am reminding you to do this, especially for the future problems and challenges. A gentle reminder so that when troubles come, and they surely will, you will remember these words and enlist the help of your Savior right away. This is for all of My children, also. It will save much time, My children if you rely on Me immediately. I love you. This is all for now, My little lamb."

Lord, be with me tomorrow as I complete another challenging event. May it go according to Your Will. Use me, Lord in Your service and may each meeting with others be a meeting with you. I love You, Lord. Help me to convey this love to others. I am unable to do this alone, Lord. Work through me, even though I am a poor instrument. You can do all things, even with little to work with. (loaves and fishes-remember...)

“Yes, My little one. I remember. I love that you are reminding Me, though. This is exactly how I work, My child to show the glory of God. I am with you. I bless you in My Father’s name, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Go in peace. All will be well. Rest in Me. Be mercy. Be joy. Be love.”

Amen, Lord. I love You!
