

November 13, 2022 Adoration Chapel

(Oh, Sacrament Most Holy. Oh, Sacrament Divine. All praise and all thanksgiving be every moment thine!) My dearest Jesus ever present in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar, I believe, adore, hope and I love You. Thank You for Holy Mass and Communion today. Thank You for Holy Mass, Communion and Confession yesterday. Praise You for the Sacraments. Thank You for this most precious means provided by You, Lord by means of Your passion, death and resurrection. Lord, Jesus please forgive those who do not believe in You. Forgive also those who believe in You, but do not believe in Your true presence in the Eucharist. I especially pray for those who profane the Most Holy Eucharist. Jesus, forgive, forgive, forgive. We love You, Lord present in the Most Holy Eucharist and thank You for giving Your life for us on the cross so that we may gain Heaven one day. Thank You my Lord and my God. Lord, bless all who are ill and accept their many sacrifices for the good of Your Church and souls in need. Bless all who have asked for prayers. Jesus, I am sorry for the many times I disappoint You. Continue to help me grow closer to You in spite of my faults and failures.

“My child, My child, do not fear to draw near to Me. You are aware that I ask much of you and My son (name withheld). Sometimes you grow weary that My expectations are high for you and for your family. It is difficult, I know. Draw ever near to Me and do not withdraw out of either fear or distaste for suffering and sacrifices. I understand that time seems to go on with so much darkness and yet it seems I wait too long. Is this not true, My child? You often feel left out because you choose to follow Me rather than following the path that leads to more pleasantries. I understand you are both weary. But, allow this to also be used as a sacrifice for souls far from Me. I ask that you renew your commitment to prayer and penance for those who reject Me, especially those in the Church. Pray more for the Pope, the Bishops and priests. Pray for them, My children. The time of purification draws very near. The time of chastisement has begun and it will unfold slowly until it reaches the climax. Do not grow weary. It is time to have a renewed spirit of loyalty and dedication to My Father and His work. All of My children, do not complain that I am a patient God. My Mother prays for you and intercedes to withhold the hand of judgement because of Her great maternal love for souls. This gives additional time for mankind to convert and for My holy ones to pray for others who would be lost but for your prayers and sacrifices. My children, do not allow yourselves to become complacent for that is exactly what My adversary and yours desires for you. Many souls are lost due to complacency among My followers. The time to work hard for the Kingdom is now, My children. Pray, fast, read Scripture and frequent the Sacraments. Love, love, love, My dear children and show your love for Me by being love to others. Ask Me to use you each day for the conversion of souls. I will use you each day when you request this and you will marvel at what I am able to do through each one of My willing children. Do not despair. My Mother and I have given you many means to assist during the coming calamities but the most important is what I continue to invite you—prayer, fasting, reading holy Scripture and frequent participation in the Sacraments. Lead holy lives, My children. Nothing else matters. My little lamb, I love you. I choose you. I choose each child of Mine and enlist them in a specific work for the Kingdom. Sometimes, it causes division in families and among friends for people misjudge one another. Do not give this much thought, My child. Concentrate on what I ask of you. Those who prefer others because they are more ‘fun’ will be thankful that you and My son (name withheld) have chosen the more difficult path when what you have prepared with My guidance provides shelter for them. Be of good cheer, My child. I am with you. Be mercy, be peace, be joy to others. I bless you both in the name of My Father, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit. All will be well. Trust in Me.”

Amen, Lord. Alleluia. I love You!

“And I love you.”
