

February 26, 2023 Adoration Chapel

Hello, my Lord and my God present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. Thank You for the opportunity to be here, Lord and to praise You face to face. I love You, my Savior and my King! Thank You for Holy Mass and Communion! Thank You for the incredible weekend filled with so many gifts! I am unworthy, Lord but in spite of my unworthiness, You continue in generosity and kindness. Praise and thank You my Lord, God and King!

Thank You for each person I encountered this weekend, Lord. So many people too numerous to list each one. (Personal dialogue omitted.) Thank you for Father's homily and for (names withheld) who attended the Liturgy. It was marvelous having all of them present. Please protect these good and holy priests, Lord. Blessed Mother, cover them with Your mantle and protect them in the refuge of Your Immaculate Heart.

I pray for all who have left the Church, for their quick return home; for all who are ill, especially those with cancer, dementia, Alzheimer's, MS, MG and all kinds of nervous system disorders and autoimmune diseases, heart failure, liver problems, etc. Heal people, Lord like never before in history (by the magnitude/numbers). Heal all emotional and mental wounds Lord, all wounds of the heart, mind and soul. Lord, Jesus bless and protect all who have requested my prayers. Please see to all spiritual, emotional and material needs of our children and grandchildren, especially those who are outside of the Church. Thank You for the chance to speak with (names withheld), Jesus what a beautiful weekend it has been.

Lord, Jesus will You please tell me more about the interior vision (name withheld) had concerning my hands?

"My child, through the works of your hands you will bring My love to others. You will show My love. You will bear Me to others. Recall the interior vision (name withheld) had of your hands (being like) with water flowing from them? I am the water of life. Your hands are to bring Me, the living water to My children in need. My child, I will send My graces through your hands to calm and reassure, to console and bring peace. I will do this through you, My little lamb."

What does the color gold mean, Jesus? Anything besides 'light'?

"Yes, My child. In addition to light, it is also the color of royalty. In this case, the Prince of Peace and your hands will by My grace bring peace to troubled souls."

Thank You, Lord. Praise You for Your willingness to work through such a broken vessel. Thank You for allowing Me to present Your love and peace to others.

"My child, remember it is love which will be victorious over evil. Love is the answer. I am love! With love, My children will slay the dragon which seeks to devour My Church (My children) and all that I created. The father of lies (also the father of death) is the dragon. I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. Trust in Me. Follow Me. All will be well."

Lord, thank You for providing me with insight and meaning so to understand the vision you gave (name withheld). Thank You for Your goodness, Your beauty, for being the Light of the World, the peace that passes all understanding, for being mercy and love! Praise and thank You, Lord! Jesus, I give all of my concerns to You. I give you each loved one, all relatives and friends and pray for Your abiding presence and peace in their lives. Give graces for conversion to those in need of faith. Jesus, I pray for all who are discerning their vocations. You knew each child of Yours before they were conceived and You placed their eternal life's call within them at the moment of their conception. I realize You give each person free will to either answer Your call or to do their own will. I pray each grandchild discerning Your Will come to know what that is from You and that they will accept it for Your glory. I know they will only be fully at peace and filled with joy when they are doing Your Will. If there are any being called to the priesthood or religious life, please let them hear Your voice and answer as You Will. Lord, my heart is so full from the encounters with You over the past few weeks. Thank You, Lord. I can't find words that adequately express my gratitude!

"My child, you are welcome. I love you. I am pouring out spiritual gifts upon My children who are open to Me and will accept them. As I told you, there are still more gifts waiting for you to be opened and they will be when the time is right. I am preparing My children first to help those who will come to the knowledge and love of Me soon. I want My children prepared. I invite each one of My Children of Light to enter more deeply into this Lenten Season. Seek Me and you will find Me. Ask Me to reveal your sins, your shortcomings and all that is in need of purification so that you may be cleansed of your sins, your faults and will have more room for Me to penetrate your souls with My love. My children, the world has impacted all of you in some way. Ask Me to show you how you have been affected. I will direct you and enlighten you. I want to heal your woundedness so that you have the capacity to carry My love (more completely) to the world. When you are healed, your rough edges are smoothed, your hearts become more tender, welcoming, less judgmental. You will have much greater ease to be open to the love when I heal your wounds. Do not be afraid. Only I can do this for you but you must be willing and step out in faith. Enter into the silence of your hearts and speak with Me, your Jesus. Ask Me to reveal Myself to you. Pray for healing for forgiveness. Allow Me to whisper My words of love and truth to you which will shine like a beacon of light in your weary, sad, discouraged heart and give you a new sense of hope and purpose. Wait on Me, My children. This is a process, this healing of wounds and memories, but it is necessary so that you can draw closer to Me without these obstacles. Once you have experienced My pure love for you, it will flow easily from your heart to others. Only with My love, can you begin to love like Me, but many, many are in need of a healing of your own heart first."

Thank You, Lord. I am beginning to sincerely understand these words, not just intellectually, but in my heart. You are all goodness, truth and beauty, Lord. Thank You for Your love, for Your unconditional love. Thank You for showing me a glimpse of the Father's heart. Jesus, I trust in You! I love You!

"And I love you. I bless you and My son in the name of My Father, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Go in My peace, My children. Be love to others. Be mercy. Be joy. Be peace."

Amen, Lord. Amen!
