

May 17, 2015 Adoration Chapel
Feast of the Ascension of Jesus (observed)

Hello my dear Jesus present in the Blessed Sacrament of the altar. I am very glad to be here with You today. Thank You for making it possible for us to visit with You. Thank You for Your presence in all of the tabernacles in the world. Happy Ascension Day, Jesus. I love You, my Lord and my God! Lord, please be with my children this week in a special way. Help my daughter as she begins her new job. I wish she could stay home with her children, but understand that at this time she is providing for her family. Please help her husband find a job and enable her to stay home with the children. Bring her back to the Church, Jesus. Lord, my son has a swollen lymph node and I am concerned that he may have something serious. Thank You for the doctor who is helping him even though my son has no medical insurance. Please heal him, Jesus if it be Your holy will. Lord, thank You for the positive changes You are bringing about in my son's heart. I praise You for this spiritual transformation!

Lord, please help (name withheld) as she continues to heal. Help her to get stronger so she can have the second operation, as well. Help her financially, also since she cannot work during her recovery and she has no benefits through her place of work. Lord, I praise You and thank You for Your many blessings. We are most grateful! Lord, I also ask for protection of (name withheld) while he is travelling. Please bring him into the Catholic faith, as well as his daughters, and all our grandchildren. Jesus, I lay every burden and concern at the foot of Your holy cross and ask for Your will to be done in each person and in the way You know is best. I love You, Jesus.

"My daughter, you have many concerns for your Jesus. I love you and I care about each concern of yours, just as you care about each concern of mine. I love you and your family. I love My children. I will help them. Give each child and grandchild to Me. Give each concern to Me."

Yes, Jesus.

Lord, thank You for holy Mass today. It was beautiful, as always. I am very grateful that I have family members to sit with at Mass. There are many people who attend Mass and are alone there. Whether their spouse is of a different denomination or if they are widowed or single, I noticed several women and some men sitting alone. Help them to know they are not alone. If they would linger awhile after Mass we could speak to them, but they must leave promptly after Mass as I don't see them afterwards. Please bring them consolations, Lord for coming to Mass on their own and alone. I know that we are never alone since You are always with us as is our guardian angel but we can often feel alone. Jesus, have You anything to say to me today?

"Yes, My child. There is much to say and much work to do. Continue packing and working to prepare for your move. Do not be concerned that you haven't shown your house. All will come to fruition, but simply prepare as you would if you already knew someone was buying your house. All will be well. The more you prepare now, the easier things will be later. I have everything under control. Stay in alignment with My will and all will be to your satisfaction."

Yes, Jesus. Thank You!

Jesus, my friend wants me to ask You for confirmation and direction regarding an offer she has to work half time. Is this Your will for her that she take this offer or do You have something else for her? Lord, I do not know anything more about this, only that she is seeking Your direction. Do you have anything to say about this, Jesus?

“My little one, tell My daughter to continue to pray more and seek My direction. It is My will that she be more available to work for Me, for there is much to do to prepare for the times coming that have already just begun to show the evil one and his plans of destruction. My little daughter works hard for her Jesus and gives her ‘yes’ without hesitation. I will direct her footsteps, but she must continue to seek My will and wait upon Me to provide her guidance. All will be well. Trust is what is needed.”

Thank You, Jesus. I will convey this. I do think she is hoping for something more specific but You always know what is best and what each soul needs, Jesus. Thank You for Your guidance and Your love.

“My child, it is good to seek My direction for all decisions in life, no matter how large or how small. I often provide direction that encourages more trust, for that is how souls grow closer to Me and grow in holiness. My timing is perfect and I did provide specific direction, My child. Just because it isn’t what you or anyone else wants to hear or hopes to hear, does not mean it isn’t specific.”

You are God, Jesus and of course You know what each soul needs. Your will and Your ways are perfect, Jesus. You are right about My expectations and interpretation. I have no idea about any of this, Jesus, but You are God and You know everything. Thank You, Lord! I’m sorry for being so bold.

“You are welcome, My child. You do not need to apologize for being forthright with your Jesus. We are friends and I have said I want My children to bring all concerns to Me for clarity. I corrected My Apostles on many occasions, of which some are recorded in Scripture. Be assured that I correct all those I love for to ignore and overlook something that is important to one’s growth in holiness, is not love. Friends share one another’s joys as well as their concerns. You are free to speak with me in this way, My little lamb. You did not offend Me by stating expectations. Now you will have a deeper understanding that things are not always as they seem, My child. My direction to one soul may be quite vague to another but in actuality to the soul My direction concerns, it will not sound vague. If at times it does, it is due to My timing or the soul’s growth in prayer and in trust. I assure you, I am at work in the lives of My children who pray and follow Me.”

Yes, Jesus. Thank You, Jesus.

“Now, My child, let us discuss the Ascension, My Ascension and what it meant to My Apostles and disciples. As you heard and read in Scripture, My Apostles were looking up in the sky after they could no longer see Me as I ascended to My Father. An angel of Mine appeared to them asking what they were looking for and continued to tell them to be about the spreading of the Gospel, baptizing in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. My Apostles were sad to see Me leave the earth. I needed to leave so that I could send the Paraclete, My child. I needed to leave so they would continue to grow in leadership and holiness as well as in trust of Me. Their time of formation with Me directly, in the physical sense, was fulfilled and the new time, the time of My Church and its establishment was beginning. There are some who say, My Apostles were not sad, for they awaited Pentecost with joy. It is true they were awaiting Pentecost and that they awaited in joyful hope. It is not true; however to say they weren’t sad. Of course they were sad. Some wanted Me to stay on, teaching and instructing them as I had during those 40 days after My Resurrection. They did not understand everything, My daughter. They carried on in faith, trusting that I would direct them from Heaven and through prayer. They did not understand many things, My child, things that the Church teaches today that are taken for granted. The understanding evolved over time, as the Holy Spirit addresses questions of the day. “

“This time will be better understood later, in retrospect much more than is understood now. It is enough to live in each moment and in each day with trust in Me. Live in My will. Pray for guidance and step out in faith and trust. Read Holy Scripture and frequent the sacraments. Bring each and every concern to Me. Pray for guidance. Come to Me in Adoration. I will direct the steps of My children. I love each one individually and specifically. I love you all, My children. Walk in My light. Trust Me to direct you but pray, pray, pray and also wait upon Me to provide direction. Petition the saints in Heaven to pray with and for you, also. They have complete access to Me, so asking for their intercession is a wise course to take. All of Heaven is united to My church militant. Make recourse to the saints who are your brothers and sisters. You must step out in faith in the way My Apostles in the early days of My Church did. These times call for heroic acts of faith, hope and love. Read the Acts of the Apostles and learn from them. Read of the way in which My Holy Spirit directed and guided My Apostles. My Holy Spirit is unchanging and will direct you now just as He has always directed My Church. Have faith. Trust in Me, your God.”

“These days are like no other in that there is much more sin, much more evil and because of this I provide much more grace. I provide My little children of light much more light because the darkness is deep and vast and more light is required to illuminate the path to holiness. My grace is abundant, My children. Ask for this grace. Ask for an increase in faith, hope, and trust. Ask for an increase in love, joy and peace. Bring Me to the world so steeped in evil and darkness. Bring Me to the world, to souls who crave My love, and do not know Me. You must be filled with love, peace, and joy, My children to attract souls who are without these fruits for they live in darkness. Many live in darkness through no fault of their own, for they were never presented with the Gospel. They have not been exposed to truth, only falsehood and the father of lies. Some are open to Me but have never knowingly met a true Christian. Be that for them, My children. Do not hide your faith in Me, for how will they ever know if you hide your faith as if it was something to be ashamed. You have nothing to fear, My children of light. Do not miss the opportunities to show My love to a world in darkness. It was for this reason I brought you into the world during just this time in history. Be love; be light, be mercy. I tell you again, do not be afraid of being known as a Christian, for to be afraid is exactly what the adversary desires. He wants My children to live in fear, for when you are in fear you do not witness to the love of God. When you live in fear, you begin to fear your neighbor. You hide your faith out of fear of retribution. I tell you, hiding one's faith is what has brought you to this place and time. Do not fall into this trap, My children. Stand up for Me, your Jesus and I will fill you with the graces needed in each moment.”

“There is nothing to fear, My children of light for even if one's physical body is harmed for love of God, you will be victorious in Heaven. In many cases, I will not allow harm to come to you, but if it does, remember that no one can harm your soul. If you die for Jesus, you will be brought immediately to Heaven where you will be filled with complete peace and utter joy. Your lives are but a moment, My children. They are very brief, even if you live 100 years on this earth you will look back at your time here and realize how brief it was in comparison to eternity. So live today for God as if it were your last and reach as many souls as you can, working with Me. I love you and I am counting on you. Souls are hanging in the balance. Live for Me, your Jesus. Love your brothers and sisters. Be love. Be mercy. Be light in the darkness.”

“My child, thank you for the kindness you showed to My daughter (name withheld). Thanks to My little (name withheld) for opening the door for her. Your angel guardian was looking upon you with such love and admiration because of your gentlemanly qualities. Continue doing small acts of kindness, My brave little one for the world needs souls like you. You must continue to work for your Jesus and grow in virtue and holiness, My child. I love you, little one.”

Thank You, Jesus. You certainly notice everything, Lord and care about the smallest of kindnesses shown. I am very glad to know that you see all of our good acts, but I know this means You see all of our unkind acts. Help us, Lord when we are unkind and do not love in the way You want us to love. Help us to love more, Jesus. Bring all of Your children into the abode of Your Sacred Heart and the Immaculate Heart of Our Lady. Jesus, have You anything more to say to me?

“My child, tell My children there is very little time left for neutrality. Choices must be made now. Decide for Me while there is still a little time for to wait or put off your decision to follow Me will be too late. Decide for Me now. If you do not, your soul is at risk. If souls continue to sit on the fence, while they think there is still a little time, for pleasure and self-centeredness they are sorely mistaken. You are in a vulnerable position and are at risk of losing your soul to the evil one. Do not be one who is in darkness when the Illumination of your soul occurs for you may not be in a position to, turn to Me. Do not make this final mistake. Do not be caught in complete darkness. There is no need for that, My poor lost children. If you are in the dark now, there is at least a bit of light. In the future, the dark will be so heavy and penetrating there will be no visible light to be seen at all. The only light that will emanate from My children of light will not be visible to you then for it will be as though you are blind. Choose life and light now My poor lost souls for there is still some time left for conversion. I say again that you know not the day, nor the hour that your life will end. Choose life while you can still choose. That is all, My dearest little lamb. I have said all there is to say about this. For those who choose to remain in darkness, there is nothing more to do. Hearts are growing even harder in these last days.”

Jesus, on one hand You encourage us, Your children to reach souls, but on the other hand say there is nothing more to do. Please explain this, My Jesus. I think I understand, but want to be sure as it sounds contradictory, but I know You never contradict Yourself. It is just that I am simple and do not always understand.

“My child, I am speaking of two types of people in darkness. There are those who unknowingly live in darkness for they were not taught about God. Indeed, there are some children who are even being raised to worship My adversary. These children, through no fault of their own live in darkness. They have free will and they also have My image engraved on their hearts, but they are being taught falsehood, lies, deception. They are taught to hate Christians, and all that comes from God. Some of these children long to be loved; long to know love. They are often witnesses of love, either by a kind neighbor, or loving teacher. At times, they question what their parent is teaching them for their little heart knows otherwise. The more souls treat them with love and kindness, the more they begin to question what they are being taught. Some of these little ones, break away from their oppressive parents in time and come to experience the love of God through My children of light. It is these souls I encourage you to reach. The souls who know nothing of God, often become the strongest disciples for they know what it is to live in darkness. These are the souls who, through no fault of their own live in darkness. The more

My children reach out to those around them with love, the more souls will experience the love of God. It is then they are open to change and open to the Holy Spirit. The other souls I spoke of, have hearts of stone. They have cut themselves off completely to the love of God and in most cases work against Me. They are not content with being miserable alone, but seek to pull as many other souls to hell with them. These are the souls that I refer to as having hardened hearts. These souls choose to remain in darkness, for they prefer darkness to the light. They could still repent and return to the Father, but choose not to repent. Woe to these souls during the Illumination of Souls, for it will not go well for them.”

Jesus, will they still be able to repent after the Illumination?

“Yes, My child, but many will become filled with even more bitterness toward Me. There will be cursing and wailing and all out hatred for God by many of these poor souls. Others, who are in darkness but did not understand what they were choosing, will repent. These souls will need much guidance and assistance from My children of light. They will be in shock at the condition of their souls and they will be filled with anguish and remorse. You must encourage them and be patient with them. Assure them of My great mercy and My love. Be patient and kind and give them the answers to questions but do not overwhelm these fragile souls. Patience and mercy is what will be required; Love, patience and mercy. They will be in need of teaching, specifically catechesis after a time; Slowly, My children. You will overload and overwhelm them if you do not go slowly. Pray for guidance, and guidance will be yours. Reach as many of these souls now so they can experience My grace and mercy now, for it will be much more difficult later.”

“I know this makes you weary, My little lamb. You feel your heart is weak, but I tell you I am making it strong. Do not be burdened by those who will present themselves to you for specific needs. You will have every grace needed and I will provide others to assist you. I will give you unfailing strength to serve Me, for you are human. You are only human, and therefore I, your Jesus will give you every grace needed. All will be well. Live for your Jesus. Give all to Me, your Jesus. I love you and I am counting on you. All of Heaven prays for you, My children of light. You are in good company as you bring My love to others. My little lamb, the days are growing darker. There will come a time when you will wonder where your Jesus is, and yet you will recall what I have told you. You are to say, ‘My Jesus warned me about these days. He is still with us and He is in control.’ You will call out to My holy Mother Mary and ask for Her covering. You will be shielded from the evil days of darkness and you and your family; your entire community will be in prayer. You are to pray the entire time, as darkness covers the earth. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth and the air will be filled with sounds of the underworld. You are to remain at peace, your rosaries in hand, praying for those whose lives will be lost during those days. Some will be martyrs and will join Me in Heaven. Others will be purged from the earth and cast into hell. You and your family are to remain steadfast. I will prepare you for these days and this is one reason I have asked for more prayer. Become accustomed to prayer for it is your lifeline to Heaven. The sacraments provide direct grace from God, but in those days prayer will be your only line of defense. My Mother’s mantle will protect you and all of Her children will be covered and protected. Only some will be martyred and those will be living outside of community and outside the protection of the refuges. As I have said, those who love and follow Me have nothing to fear for if they lose their lives for Me, they will be taken immediately to My kingdom. Those days will be shortened, as foretold in Scripture, for My remnant. You will then live in the Era of Peace, following the purification. This purification must occur to rid the earth of evil, My children. You will understand this more fully when you enter the Era of Peace and the Age of Obedience. You will rebuild My Church and populate the earth teaching My children about the power and love of God. Life will be simpler and more pure. Food will be restored to its natural health and vitality to nourish My people as it was intended. Man and his selfish, lust for power has tainted nature itself and there is little remaining that is as God created it to be. All of that will change when the earth is purified. Read Scripture, My children. This is not new information, for it has all been foretold in Holy Scripture and written of by the Fathers of the faith. Your holy Fathers in the faith have written much about this, but even the teachings found in My Word have been twisted by those who want to lead you astray. This is why you must cling to the true teachings of My One Holy and Apostolic church, My children of light, for there you will find truth as handed down by Me to My Apostles. I call upon all of My children of light to be little apostles. Go now and spread My love to all you encounter. Give all of yourselves to Me and together we will win souls for Heaven. I love you. I am with you. Go now in peace, My children. I bless you all in the name of My Father, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Go in peace, giving all for your Jesus. There is little time left, My children. Do not waste one moment on disagreements or matters that are trivial. Put everything aside now if it does not lead you closer to Me. Every hurt, every offense, anything that keeps your focus on yourselves must be offered to Me. Time is of the essence. Prepare for your move, working together in unity. Live for the kingdom. I love you and I go before you. You must die to yourselves so that you can truly and whole heartedly live for Me. My Holy Mother Mary and St. Therese will assist you in this now. My saint of the little way had a most sensitive heart and she learned to perfect herself, all for her Jesus. Be like her now, in simplicity and love. Make yourselves very little indeed, so that I, your Jesus can become larger within you. See how much I love you and trust you to carry Me to the world?"

Yes, Jesus. Thank You for Your great love which has no end. Help us to die to ourselves so that You will live within us and increase in us. Thank You, Jesus for Your lessons of love and Your words of life. We love You, Jesus. I love You, Jesus.

"And I love you. Thank you, My child. Go now in My peace. You are in My Sacred Heart as requested."

Amen!

May 10, 2015 Adoration Chapel

Hello, my Jesus ever present in the Blessed Sacrament. I adore You, I praise You and I love You, my God and my King. Thank You that we are here with You today, Jesus. Thank You for holy Mass, for being with my husband and our family at Mass. Lord, I am very grateful for the visit from my daughter. It was such a pleasant surprise to have her come over today. My heart leapt with joy when I opened the door and saw her standing there. Thank You, Jesus! Thank You, Blessed Mother. What a great blessing having all three of my children in my home at the same time. I am most grateful to You for Your mercy and kindness. I love You, my Sweet Savior. Happy Mother's Day, Blessed Mother! Happy Mother's Day, to my earthly mama. How I miss you, Mama. I love you! Jesus, have you anything to say to me today?

"Yes, My child. There is much to say."

Speak then, my Lord. Your servant is listening.

"The earth is groaning under the heavy weight of mankind's sins, My daughter. Heaven is still with anticipation. Do you sense this My child?"

Yes, Jesus. I do now that we are speaking. I noticed this when You did not answer immediately when I asked if You had anything to say today. You paused for a time. It seemed as if time stood still to me and all was very quiet.

“Yes, My daughter. All is quiet in the heavens. All are in a state of ready.”

What does this mean, Jesus?

“The earth is preparing to undergo major changes of a magnitude not experienced since the great flood in Noah’s Day. There have been many disasters and calamities of nature recently and these will continue to escalate, My child. The earth is truly groaning and earthquakes will occur. Many areas, large scale in nature will be impacted by earthquakes, such as never before experienced by mankind. There will be wide scale destruction and many, many lives will be lost and will come before the Father, Creator of all. You must pray for the souls who will perish in the coming calamities. You are praying, My child; however you must be more fervent in your prayers. Do not miss even for one day praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet, for souls as I requested you and your husband pray. You may pray more than one Chaplet during the day, but it is of the utmost importance that you pray the rosary and chaplet as a family. There is even more power in prayer when prayed in families which are the domestic church. I realize this makes you weary, My little one, when I speak of destruction and death. This is a heavy cross for you to bear and yet your knowledge of this and your prayers for your brothers and sisters who will be affected, console your Jesus. My child, all who read this message, take it to heart and pray for conversion. Console My Sacred Heart. My children, do not lose your fervor in prayer for I, your Savior and Lord, come to ask you for your prayers now more than ever. My Mother requests your prayers, also. Console My Mother’s heart with prayers for those who will die during coming calamities. Pray, pray, pray dearest children of My heart; for many lives will be lost, and many souls living in darkness will choose hell.”

“I know, My children that this is difficult to understand or believe, but it is truth. Many prefer darkness to light. Many souls prefer the darkness to light. Your prayers and those of My children of light open the hearts of your unbelieving comrades just enough for My light, My graces to shine through. Your prayers do have an impact My children, though unseen by the human eye, it is noticeable. One day in Heaven I will explain all to you. For now, it is enough to believe. My little lamb, I realize you are celebrating Mother’s Day in your land, and that this is a very severe message on a day which is intended to acknowledge and celebrate mothers. This is ironic is it not?”

Yes, Jesus it is. I understand, I think.

“Yes, My child you do understand. In a land that murders it’s most innocent; those in the womb, it is truly a stark contrast to celebrate those who have born children. I support celebrating motherhood, My child. This is very appropriate. What I do not and will not support is the holocaust, the genocide occurring with free reign in this country. The final insult to God, the final assault against the very nature I created is to condone abominable marriages. Any other culture who has done so, has been lost. Your country is headed down a dangerous path, My child. I must not be silent on this, My child. My Mother has been coming to earth for years to warn Her children. Few are listening to Her call. Fewer are heeding to and responding to Her calls and to Her invitation. I have sent many prophets to mankind over the years. My Mother has appeared in multiple places in the world. Still the world and its people continue on the path of sin and destruction.”

Jesus, what about the people who are praying and are trying to follow Our Lady? There are people fasting and praying. Are those of us who try to follow Our Lady helping in any way, Lord?

“My child, there are not enough of Our children responding. My Mother pleads with the Father to continue Her apparitions, to reach out to Her children, and He appeases Her due to Her goodness, Her purity, Her love. Your prayers and those of My other faithful children make a difference and help to open hearts to love. You are helping individuals to either convert now or to convert during the Illumination. In some cases, the prayers and fasting will prevent souls in darkness from going into complete despair after the Illumination of their darkened souls. These prayers are needed. The calamities, of which I speak now, however will not be averted. Individual souls will be saved; however and this is the most important thing. This is why the purification time will come, to rid the earth of evil, yes, but also to bring My children who are lukewarm to their senses, and to open their hearts to Me, their Jesus. This is why your prayers and those of all of My children are needed. This is an urgent request of your Jesus. I am a God of mercy and compassion. I am also a God of justice. The cup of My mercy is overflowing on the world as I pour out graces for conversion. My justice is being constrained by My Holy Mother Mary and Her children.”

“A time will soon come when there will be no more time for My justice to be withheld. My daughter, we have discussed this previously, but I remind you that the longer My justice waits, the more momentum the adversary gains and so this waiting period can only go on so long. You understand this, My daughter and yet I understand your sense of being caught in the middle. You long for the Era of Peace, and yet you also do not desire to enter into the time of great trials. You long for this era of disobedience to end but cannot bear the thought of so many people’s lives lost, or the magnitude of suffering I have shown you glimpses of. My little lamb, I understand all of these feelings. I, too experienced this dilemma as I awaited the time of My Passion. I dreaded the pain, the torture, the betrayal, but I also longed for the Resurrection and the redemption of My people. I dreaded what this would do to My Mother and My Apostles and yet I longed to send them My Spirit.”

“I enjoyed healing, teaching, preaching and loving the poor, the suffering those who hungered and thirsted for righteousness and love, yet I knew My Apostles and all of My disciples to come would benefit greatly from the Holy Spirit, the Paraclete, for until My Spirit was dwelling within, there was very little understanding of My teaching, and very little clarity. My child, do not be concerned that you often feel caught between this time of transition, the status quo, and the horrific events to come, for I, too experienced this. I, who Am the Great I Am experienced this in My human nature. What is needed now, My child, is trust in My Father’s great and loving plan for mankind. Trust in My Holy Mother Mary who leads Her children in the perfect way to Me. Hold fast to Her hand. Remain on this course, the course on which My Mother is guiding you and you will weather the turbulent storms.”

“My children, remain at the ready. Remain on high alert with your prayers, fasting, Scripture and the sacraments. No matter your age, be it young or old, frequent the sacraments so that you are always in a state of grace, for you know not the hour or the day when your lives will be required. Prepare now and remain at the ready, so that you can freely live out the days ahead in peace, joy and love, always with love. I do not call you, My children of light for nothing. You are to radiate My presence, My peace in this very dark time. Children, you are in My Holy Mother Mary's army. I give you a Spirit of courage, fortitude, perseverance, truth, knowledge, wisdom and discernment. Do as My Mother tells you and all will go well for you and for your families. I give you My love and My guidance. I give you My Holy Mother Mary to lead you. Take Her hand, dwell under Her mantle. This is a time like no other and you were all chosen to live in this time, to be about your Father's business. You know that your work is the work of the Gospel. Live the Gospel, My children. Be the salt, the leaven of the world. Live My Mother's messages. Pray, fast, read Holy Scripture. Frequent the Sacraments. Above all, love. This means you must love even your enemies. In this time I say, love especially your enemies, My children. For this, you will need heroic graces for love. Ask for the graces to love heroically, for these will be necessary to live the Gospel."

"You are living in the end times, My children, lest you were unsure. By this, I do not mean the end of the world, for this is not the end of the world. I will clarify. You are living in the age of disobedience. This time is full of evil and darkness. Those who truly follow me and live My Commandments are few. Evil wants to destroy you and the earth that I created to support life. Those who follow the adversary cooperate with him and in his destructive and diabolical plans. Those who follow Me, and who are My Mother's Apostles resist evil and literally put up the resistance to evil through prayers, fasting, love, mercy, good works and through your fervent participation in the Sacraments of My Church. In this way, My Mother's Immaculate Heart will triumph. In the meantime, the evil must be purged from the world and the world and those remaining will be purified. The time of great trials are the ongoing calamities leading up to the final purification. All of this, My children is what is referred to as the end times. This means the time of the age of disobedience will finally come to an end giving way to the Era of Peace and the age of obedience."

"My Mother's Immaculate Heart will triumph and reign during the Era of Peace when all peoples will worship the one true God and will be united in faith. The Era of Peace will last for many years, even centuries. This does not mean the world will be devoid of sin, for mankind has been given a great gift in the gift of free will. This gift of free will was given for man to freely choose to love, serve and follow Me. This is a choice, however and by loving you unconditionally and giving you this gift of free will, it also means My children have the option not to choose Me and in doing so can choose eternal death. Many people in past times chose Me. Those who did not know Me, still chose goodness and mercy for all God's children have been created with the light of love from their conception. This love is Me, for I am all love and all love is Me. Now, however the majority of peoples in this day choose evil, material pleasure, greed, licentiousness, and moral decay. My children of light, you are now in the minority and the scale of good and evil is heavily weighted on the side of evil. Many more follow the adversary than those who follow Me. Many, who do not think they are choosing evil, still follow the ways of the evil one. He is so deceptive; they think they are living for themselves, when they are actually living for My adversary. This is why, dearest children you must not be lukewarm, for in your lukewarm nature you are actually following the evil one."

"The end times are the times in which you are living that mark the end of this era of disobedience. It is the sins of these days that caused the most distress to My heart in the Garden of Gethsemane for I saw all of My beloved children's faces, though you had not yet been born. I saw the precious faces of the innocent victims of this age of the holocaust of the preborn who are murdered in their mothers' wombs. Repent, oh My lost children living in darkness. Repent of your abortions and weep for the children torn apart in your wombs. Cry out to Me for mercy and forgiveness and mercy and forgiveness shall be yours. I am all merciful. I will forgive you of all of your sins, but you must tell your Jesus you are sorry. I will cleanse you and hold you in My embrace. Come, follow Me. You will work on My Mother's team to defeat the evil one whose tyranny and oppression wants to kill everything created by God. I created you for love. You will be loved, forgiven, and be called My daughter. I am speaking especially to those women who cooperated with the atrocity of abortion. You also were often the victim. I know all, and I know your heart. You did not realize how terrible this act really was for you were deceived. Do not let your guilt condemn you, for I am God and I do not condemn you. Come, while there is still a little light. Seek My mercy and you will have it and much more. Come, child, daughter of Mine. We will enlist you to work in My kingdom of light. There will be many orphans as a result of the coming calamities. There are many now. I will heal you and you will be given the opportunity to love again. Come, daughters of My heart. Serve your Jesus and you will be restored to your maternal role so desperately needed in this age. My Mother will help you. You need not fear for all of Heaven loves you and prays for you. We do not condemn you. Do not condemn yourself but seek forgiveness. Come into the light. I love you, My children. There is nothing so terrible that you have done, that I your God am unable to forgive. I long to forgive you. Read Holy Scripture especially the Gospel of St. Luke. Read and meditate on the story of the prodigal son. I am the good Father and I not only wait for your return, but go out to meet you. Come, now and do not delay. I am Jesus and I am mercy. I love you."

Thank You, Jesus for these words of mercy for my sisters who do not know of your love and mercy. Blessed Mother, pour out graces for forgiveness upon my beautiful sisters, whoever and wherever they are. They do not love or forgive themselves and they have bought into the deceiver's lies. Give them graces of repentance and conversion. Give them courage to seek the face of Jesus. He is so loving and beautiful. He is meek and mild and will rejoice in their return. Oh, dear Jesus how will they know of Your deep love and mercy if they do not have anyone who loves them in their lives? Show them Your love through one of us, Jesus. Lord, we do not know who needs Your love, but You know all things. May every small act of love and kindness each one of us do, be a beautiful blessing for Your hurting children, who are our brothers and sisters. Lord, I offer each action, no matter how small for conversion of the forgotten, the lost, the destitute souls who do not believe there is any hope for redemption. The evil one is a liar and he condemns Your lost children. Break the chains of oppression, Jesus, Messiah, who came to save us, and who continues to pursue Your beloved children until the final decision is made. Thank you for Your endless pursuit of the lost lambs in Your flock, my Jesus. Give us the graces for love and mercy so that Your love will flow through us and reach those in need. Jesus, may even this act of writing be for Your glory and the conversion of poor souls. I love You, Jesus. Use me if You will in any way You desire, Jesus. Give me a love for souls Lord like the love Your Holy Mother Mary has for all of Her children. I love You, Jesus. Help me to love You more. Oh, my beloved who is also my God, make my heart a flame of pure love for You.

"Thank you, My little lamb. I love you, My daughter. I love all of My children and My heart burns with the desire for each one of My children to be safely with Me in Heaven one day. This is My desire. But first, I must call, invite, plead and beg if needed for all to repent and experience My mercy. For those who follow evil, your days are numbered and your evil acts will be burned and will be blown away with one breath from the mouth of God. Evil will be squelched and stomped out like a small fire that burns in a waste can. Evil has no power over My Mother or My Mother's children. Take heart children of the light. I, your Jesus am with you. I will never leave you and for this reason you have nothing to fear. But be about the Father's business. Do you know what your Father's business is? I remind you that He is in the business of souls and saving souls. Work alongside My Mother and cooperate with Me in this business of salvation. I have paid the price, it is true, and it was a very high price. Now I ask you to pick up your cross and follow Me. Love your neighbor and follow your Jesus. We will save souls (God) and you, My children will cooperate in this most important work. I tell you there is nothing more important than this work and for this you must pray and fast and pray some more. Be devoted to your daily duties and put others' needs first. In this way you will glorify God and be a witness by your life. I love you, My child, My daughter. Go now in peace. The work for today is complete and I desire that you rest. I love you and I thank you for writing My words. These words of Mine have the power to save and I, Jesus thank you for your service and to the one who prepares and distributes My words. Your Jesus is grateful. Do not be concerned about the times ahead. Focus on today and live My Mother's messages. All will be well. I bless you and your husband in My Father's name, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit. I bless and thank all of your family for visiting Me in My hidden presence in the Eucharist. I gave them graces today out of gratitude, as I do all of My children when they adore Me in the Blessed Sacrament. Tell them, My child of their God's gratitude. Tell them about the graces I dispensed on them during their time here with Me. I gave each one specific graces needed for the coming days. I am counting on you, My children to live as if you were living in Heaven now. This is the kind of love I would like to give you and is yours for the asking. Only, ask. Now, children of My heart, go in peace and bring My light to others. All will be well."

I love You, Jesus!

"And, I love you."

May 3, 2015 Adoration Chapel

Hello, dearest Jesus ever present in the blessed Sacrament. I love You, adore You, and praise You. It is good to be here with You, my Jesus. Thank You for allowing us to visit You in this little chapel. There is so much peace here, since You are present. What a relief to be here again with You. Thank You for holy Mass, Jesus and for enabling my daughter to go to Mass. It must have been difficult and painful for her, but I know she loves holy Mass. Jesus, thank You that (names withheld) were with us, also. Be with all of my children, Lord. Thank You for the job opportunity for my daughter. Help her to recover fully from her illness and for her husband's migraines to be relieved. Thank You for my little granddaughter, Jesus. She is such a gift. Be with my grandson as he adjusts to his new little sister. Lord, (name withheld) seems to be struggling this week, more so than usual. He is suffering so, not being able to see his children. Please reunite them, Lord. Help him to continue to make progress in the spiritual life. Thank You for the many blessings You have given him and the graces. He has come very far with Your grace and Your assistance. Thank You, Jesus.

Lord, You know all things and You know each and every burden, but still I lay all of these at the foot of Your cross and ask for Your guidance and assistance. We can do nothing without You nor apart from You. Through You, all things are possible. I have seen many miracles of grace from Your loving, merciful hands and I trust You for all to work to Your glory. Jesus, I trust in You. Use our struggles, our burdens as You will. Thank You for Your presence in our lives, and in each person's life. I entrust my family, my friends, and the entire world to You and Your Mother Mary. Thank You for loving us. Thank You for all that You do, and for all that You are. You are the one true God, the blessed Trinity, my God and my all! I love You, my Lord.

"My daughter, it is good to be here with you, also. Thank you for coming to visit with Me; especially on a day when you might prefer to be outdoors enjoying the sunshine."

Jesus, I prefer being with the Son of God. I do so appreciate the beautiful warm weather, Lord but it comes from You. You can give us other beautiful days if You choose, but I am not always able to be with You in Adoration and I do not want to miss any opportunity I have. All comes from You, Jesus and so, I come now before You, the source of all. My Jesus, what can I give You? What can I do for You, Jesus? All that I am, and all that I have is like dust in Your presence and yet You are beautiful, kind and merciful and You seem to love even the dust that I bring You. My adorable Savior, what can I do for You, Jesus? I am often asking You to help my family members, my friends and others in need, but Lord what is it that I can do for You? Is there anything that one of Your creatures can do for You, the God of the universe?

“My little one, I love you, also. Your thoughtfulness and your gratitude pleases Me. Your love for Me and your concern for Me consoles Me. You give Me your love and your friendship. You turn to Me with your concerns, your joys, your sadness and your sins and this is what I ask of you. We are friends and each day, you remember our friendship. Your love for Me is all that I ask of you and of each of My children. We are friends, you and I. Friends speak to one another, share concerns, encourage and console one another. We are friends, and this gives Me joy. You care about what I care about, My little lamb and though I do not desire that you know of all that concerns the heart of Your Savior, the fact that you do care about what concerns Me, brings much consolation to My heart, and soothes Me. Some will scoff at My words, but that does not concern you for you understand now that, though I am God, My Sacred Heart is so full of burning love for My creatures that the love from My children is all that can quench My thirst for souls. My love is a flame that does not consume, but purifies. Only love can quench this burning love that comes from My heart for souls. Thank you for your genuine love, My daughter. I will grant your request, and I will increase your love for Me. This is a worthy prayer, My daughter and it is My will. You understand that the more you love, the more you will feel pain, suffering, and the price for love? My child, I know you accept it, though you do not fully comprehend and yet you have already experienced suffering due to love. My child, love is worth the sacrifices it brings. I am love; all love is Me. To grow in love is to grow closer to Me.”

Yes, Jesus. This is why I ask You to increase my capacity for love, for when You give me greater capacity to love, I will love You more and by loving You more I will be more like You; able to love and serve my brothers and sisters in the way You have called all of Your disciples to love and to serve. I recognize that You are the source of love and there is no access to genuine love without graces from You for love. I think You must pour out many graces for love since You have asked that I pray for these graces, but I wonder if my capacity to love is so small that I am unable to contain the many graces You give me. Jesus, my heart is too small. My mind is too small. I am unable to contain the graces to love heroically that You requested I pray for, and yet I believe You are giving me these graces. Perhaps my “container” is too small. Please increase the capacity within me to be able to accept these graces for love. Allow these graces to fall on good soil, Jesus so they will grow and consume me. I want Your love to choke out all the weeds in my heart, all of the pride, selfishness, irritability, judgment and intolerances I have to be completely consumed by Your love, so there is no room within me for anything else but love. Jesus, Your heart is all love and mercy. Take me into Your Sacred Heart in a real physical and spiritual way so that I am so close to You that Your resemblance marks every part of my soul. I belong wholly to You, Jesus. Please belong totally to me and take up residence in my heart, my life, my soul.

“My child, you are within My Sacred Heart. Come, relax in My presence where all is mercy, all is grace. I am a refuge for you, My daughter. Place yourself within this refuge often, so as to find rest for your weary, fatigued, heart. Tell others about this place of refuge for My heart is available to all of My children. I am a sanctuary for My children. Return to the source often, so that I can refresh and replenish you.”

Thank You, Jesus!

“My daughter, you ask what you can do for Me specifically to advance My Father’s kingdom and that is what we will discuss today. Writing My words to advances My kingdom. Getting these words out to those in need touches souls and therefore advances My kingdom. Answering the call of My Mother’s to be in Her community will also advance My kingdom. Living in peace with your family members advances My kingdom. Praying and reading Scripture advances My kingdom. All of these things, when done in love, help to advance My kingdom.”

Jesus, what can I do for You? Sometimes I feel caught between the life I am living and the life You are calling me to live. I can’t explain this, since I realize each day is a gift from You and we are all called each day to live for You. It’s as though I just can’t quite grasp how to be what You want me to be, in the way that You want, and I can’t do enough for You, my Jesus. Just when I have a sense of peace about things even in the midst of this current age, just when I feel You have used me to love another, I realize I have also disappointed You in some way. Lord, it isn’t that You turn away from me, but that I understand even in the little things, how easy I fall into a spirit of uneasiness, stress over deadlines at work, listening but then chiming in with another who is complaining. I don’t understand why I so easily fail You, more times that I can count. How is this possible when I have so much desire to please You, Jesus. How do I so quickly forget this desire?

“My daughter, you are learning to see things as I see them. I realize you do not understand this completely, yet I will explain. You are becoming more aware of your flaws. You are seeing how easy it is to succumb to the ways of the world. I have increased the sensitivity in your heart to My love, and therefore each time some previously minor offense occurs, you now view this as something major. The closer one comes to Me, the closer one resides near My heart, the more one longs to be in union with Me. The more this longing increases, the more one’s shortcomings become obvious. Where before faults were viewed dimly; now faults are seen with a glaring light shown on them. It is like seeing a room in dim light. The room appears to be neat and orderly. It appears to be a cool and refreshing place to sit and rest for awhile. When the sun comes from behind the clouds, however and begins to shine brightly through the windows, it is then one notices all of the dust that has settled on this room’s furnishings. The dust was there before, but in the dim light, was not noticeable. When the sunshine poured through the windows and illuminated the room, the dust became very apparent. Such is the way with souls. “

“When one is walking towards Me and the journey is new, all appears to be beautiful. As souls walk toward their Lord, they begin with excitement and anticipation. All is new and exciting and souls are filled with graces of joy and love. This grace gives souls the desire to continue on the path to Me, Jesus and to grow in knowledge of Me, knowledge of My church, knowledge of Scripture. I infuse souls with an appetite for holiness. As the journey progresses the soul begins to realize the way which was at once thought to be joyful and exciting has become more challenging. The soul realizes the journey is a bit longer and more difficult than initially realized. I provide graces for perseverance and fortitude. I provide companions to encourage and assist. The soul who decides to continue the walk toward Me, is now truly choosing me, for My sake and not just for the consolations and good 'feelings'. From this choice, I provide more grace and though I provide consolations, they are not as frequent as in the beginning. This is done so that souls merit Heaven, for if it was easy from a heavenly flood of consolations, what merit would a soul have in that? Do you see, My little lamb? Then as a soul progresses in the spiritual life, they approach the path that goes uphill and is more difficult to climb. By this time many other souls have decided to leave the path for they decide it is too difficult and they have listened to the voices in the world who criticize them for following the path to Jesus. They think their lives were much easier before they decided to take this holy journey and convince themselves that they can leave the path to holiness, and still be My disciple. They fool themselves and accept the rationalizations of others. "

"The soul who decides to continue on realizes there are fewer companions but those who do remain are much better companions. They have been tried, also and can encourage one another with more sincerity and from a deeper conviction to the truth. And so, the soul continues the climb. As the soul goes further, the view is more vast. One can see the town, the city with greater perspective, the soul realizes at this point, the places at the bottom of the hill are quite smoggy and have a pollution they were unable to recognize before. 'Perhaps I saw this everyday and never really noticed' the soul thinks. 'Or perhaps, it can't be detected until one reaches a certain altitude and is looking down on the town.' The beauty around this soul becomes even brighter as each detail is crisper and more colorful. 'This hillside is quite lovely,' thinks the soul who continues to climb! The flowers are more fragrant, the sun is brighter and warmer and I can now see how beautiful creation is. My God must be a master artist to create such beauty. I want to be even closer to Him, and so the soul continues the climb. The path is rocky, the plants begin to be less dense and more dry. There are thorns on many of the plants and there are fewer trees to provide shade. The climb becomes gradually steeper and it is more and more difficult to continue. 'I wonder why the path is so steep now?' the soul thinks. 'Perhaps I shall sit down for awhile and rest. I shall sit and rest and pray for guidance from My Jesus. I had no idea the way would be so difficult and yet I cannot turn back now. I have come too far. I am no longer the same person, so I cannot return to what I was; in fact I have no desire to; however I do not think I can take one more step. The way is difficult and I am too weak. If I had known the path was so rough, so rocky, so steep, I would never have committed to this journey. But, it is too far to turn back now. I must continue. I am sure Jesus will not abandon me. In fact, I am sure He will help me.' With that, the soul receives graces to continue the journey. The soul rises and continues, more slowly now, for the way is quite steep and the path is not as clear. "

"From My viewpoint this soul is very close to Me now. The steeper the soul climbs, the more difficult the path and yet this soul has decided for Me. This soul, despite the lack of consolations, the lack of confidence within the soul of its own strength, has chosen Me. In this way, graces for fortitude and perseverance are given. Consolations are fewer, but graces for strength and stamina are infused in this soul who is actually quite close to Me, though it feels very far from Me. With each step, the soul becomes painfully aware of his shortcomings, his faults, how ill prepared he really was for the journey and yet due to this realization, this little soul of Mine realizes I will provide what is lacking. The higher the soul climbs the more graces are provided to sustain this little soul. Upon reaching the summit, there is great joy. There is union with Me, God. The journey has ended; the reunion is joyful and exhilarating. The peak reached is Heaven, My child, and complete union with God. "

“Do you see My child, what this lesson is teaching about the spiritual life? One who continues the climb, will encounter every kind of snare, every kind of difficulty. These are to be expected. More faith and trust is required as the path becomes more difficult. This kind of trust is required later in the journey for one who is just beginning their walk does not have these spiritual gifts, yet. They must grow and mature and when they have done so, then they are ready to meet the challenges that help them grow even more. The beginning of the journey is always easier for I do not set My children up for failure. I remind you that I never do so, and even when the way becomes rough, I provide the graces needed to continue. The closer one comes to Me, the more difficult the path can seem. Continuing on in faith merits much beauty in souls. We walk together. We are true companions on the spiritual journey, and though the path becomes difficult, I assure you it is worth the effort. You see also, My child that if the way becomes easy, the soul is not really advancing, but perhaps resting in place. I do not tell you this to dissuade you, but to encourage you and all of My children. Remember, it is acceptable to rest, but do so within the heart of My Mother, or in My Sacred Heart. Then, your resting will be peaceful and I will infuse you with graces for love, graces for mercy and graces for sacrifice. All will be well, My children of light. “

“When you arrive in My heavenly kingdom, there will be great rejoicing. Your journey will have come to its conclusion, but life in My kingdom will just begin for you. You will not have to undergo the trials that you endured, any longer. All will be peace. All will be joy. All will be love and complete acceptance. Your family and friends will rejoice at your arrival. Take heart when I tell you, the journey is worth the effort. I walk with you. Your angel guardian walks with you. Holy companions accompany you, as well. Much joy comes on the path even when it is rocky and difficult for you do not travel alone. I urge you to continue and to assist your brothers and sisters, also. Assist them with your prayers, with acts of kindness and mercy and with compassion and a joyful heart. Look around you dearest children and notice those who travel with you. Are they struggling? Are they having difficulty walking? Perhaps you could offer a drink of cold water to them, a smile, a helping hand. Perhaps you could carry them for awhile. Do not give them a heavier burden, because you are tired and irritable for this may discourage them. I call you to be people of light. Lighten another’s burden. Walk with them, just as I your Jesus walk with you. “

“The journey is difficult, yes but are not all difficult journeys more enjoyable with joy, laughter and good humor? Such is the spiritual life. Be a people of joy. Do you think that when I walked your earth I complained, argued and was gruff? Do you think I was sarcastic and irritable? I can assure you that I was tempted to irritability especially when those who came to listen, with hard hearts, challenged Me. I resisted this temptation and responded with love, always with love. Even when I corrected someone in firmness, it was always in love, never out of annoyance or anger. Be like Me, My children. I will help you. That is all for now, My little one. Go in My peace. Take My love to others. Be love. Be mercy. Be joy.”

Thank You, my Jesus. I love You. Thank You for giving Yourself, to us in the Holy Eucharist. Thank You for Your words of life and Your lessons of love. I love You. Thank You for walking with me and my family in this journey.

“You are most welcome, My darling. I love you My daughter, and your husband. Go in My peace. I bless you in My Father’s name, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit.”

Thank You, Jesus. Amen!

“Remember, My children that I your Jesus am with you in all things. Seek My direction and I will provide. Trust in Me. All will be well, even when it does not appear to be so. You are climbing higher.”

Thank You, Jesus. I love You!

“And I love you.”

April 26, 2015, Adoration Chapel

Hello dearest Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament. I adore, praise and love You, my Jesus. Thank You for allowing us to be here with You today. I am grateful to (name withheld) for offering to come stay with our daughter for a couple of hours so we could come visit with You. Lord, he offered without us asking and that was very thoughtful. She is doing well, Jesus. Thank You for being with her during surgery. Thank You that things went smoothly. I know she is in pain, Lord and I pray You will move her swiftly toward renewal and healing. Thank You, Jesus Help (name withheld) also. He has struggled lately, Lord. I lay all of these concerns at Your feet, Jesus. Please also help (name withheld) to find a job, Lord. Jesus, thank You that my daughter has the worst part behind her and is beginning to feel better. Jesus, I am sorry for my sins and for anything I failed to do, Jesus. Lord, I am also sorry for being so drowsy. I am very tired from everything going on, but don't want to be so in Your presence. Please give me the graces to stay awake and watch for an hour with You. Jesus, have You anything You wish to say to me?

“My daughter, the events You heard about through one of My other messengers was really from Me. You have asked Me about this and wondered about something so difficult to accept and to believe that you haven't even mentioned it to your husband, My son. My little one, this crisis in your country will come to pass, as much as I know you do not want to believe or accept it. Much prayer is needed and needed now to avert this violence from those who are following darkness and the evil one. It is not My will, My dearest daughter. It is not My will that this occur. Urge others to pray, My little lamb, for prayer, especially that of the Mass and the rosary can cause wars to be averted. Many times throughout the history of the world, prayer has averted calamities, disasters of various kinds and mitigated damage inflicted on others from war, pride, evil, greed and other sinful motives.”

My child, you must understand that sin wants to rule this world and all of My children. Many lost children of Mine cooperate with sin and allow evil to use and take control of their lives. In this way, the plan of My adversary unfolds. It unfolds in this age of disobedience as in no other age. Yes, at other times it appeared to be so, however I tell you in this current age, evil has spread throughout the entire civilization like never before. This is not by God's design, My children of light. God's plan is peace, unity, love, and the instruction of children in the love of God. God's plan is for My children to thrive and prosper spiritually and to be fruitful and multiply. Instead, this sinful age is the epitome of war, impurity, immorality, the worship of false idols, materialism, hatred, greed and the violent crimes committed against My little ones who have not yet been given the chance to be born. So many of My children mock Me, and even teach their children to follow evil. For those who are the majority, they seldom give one thought to the spiritual life, or even consider there is a God who made them and loves them. They dwell on the things of this world which are passing. “

“My children, look around you. What do you see? Do you see a world full of love and compassion? Do you see the world at large as a friendly, neighborly place where your children can play without you fearing for their safety? Do you feel the need to lock your homes and automobiles each time you leave them, and even when you are inside for your own safety? This is not the kind of life that I, your Savior want for you. You, who are good parents want your children to be safe and free from fears. You want your children to thrive and grow physically and spiritually, breathing the air of freedom. Good parents desire this, work for this, for their children. Even, or especially, in countries where there is extreme oppression and where generations have never experienced freedom and liberty, parents long for this very thing for their children. I, your God, the perfect Father want much more for you, My children. I died for you so that you would be liberated from the oppression of sin. I died that you could live in true freedom; the freedom to love Me, and to live with Me one day in My Kingdom. I know that all good parents want what is best for their children. This is a reasonable and a holy desire. How is it, then that you so easily accept this culture of death, where not even the babies in their mothers' wombs are safe? Do you not see how far from God your civilization, which is quite the opposite, uncivilized, has gone? Amen, Amen I say, no time in the history of the world has there been a peoples such as this. Not even in the days of Noah before I sent the flood, nor in the land of Babel where the tower to the adversary was built out of worship of the demons and the demonic was there such widespread evil. Not, My little lamb, even in the days of Sodom and Gomorrah was there such widespread evil. The evil and abominations of Sodom and Gomorrah were restricted to those areas, and upon their destruction, the land was purged and purified of such evil. “

“My child, when a race of peoples, and nations upon nations become evil, sinister and corruption has permeated every facet of life, even the earth that I created is in need of purification. Much as a house needs to be blessed to rid it of oppression and protect those who dwell there, so too does the world often need My blessing. Before I can give My Divine blessing, I must first cleanse it of evil. My children, you must turn back to Me for My love is strong for you. No matter what you have done, return to Me for the hour is short. Many are those whose lives will be required. The end will come for many when least expected. Do not believe the lies from the father of lies that you have time to put off your repentance and conversion. This is no time. You must return to Me now. You do not know if you will have tomorrow. Do not be haughty and think I speak to others and not to you. I am speaking to each individual person living a life apart from Me. Repent, for you know not the day, nor the hour that your life will be required and you will then stand before One who is all truth and all knowledge. You will not be able to defend yourself when you have lived a life of sin and selfishness. There is no defense for truth. Be one who is sorry for living without love, who returns to the Father with tears of repentance and who is welcomed with open arms and a loving embrace. One who repents and converts, who is sincerely sorry for sin and for offending Me, stands face to face with me and is in no need of a defense. I see all. I see directly into your heart. I know those who follow Me, or who have returned to Me, and I know those who want nothing to do with Me. There is no escaping from what is true, for I am truth. “

“My children, I love you and I am merciful, however there will come a time, and there is a time, when My divine justice prevails. Come, this is the time for My mercy. Turn your hardened hearts toward Me, the source of life, love and truth and I will transform your hearts of stone. I can do all things My lost little children. I can change even the hardest heart, but you must repent and invite Me to change you. The only thing you should fear is remaining as you are. Do not fear the life and breath of the Holy Spirit, for God loves you. If it were not so, you would not have been created, for from love I created you. Even if your parents had no love, still, I created you due to My love. Come. Follow Me. I will show you this truth, and many more beautiful truths which will be a new world for you. I have so much to offer you and the one you follow has only death to offer you. Everything else you are promised by the evil one is false and he only leads you on in order to use you. When he has no more use for you, he will cast you into the pit of hell. I, on the other hand, only speak truth and truth in love. I want nothing from you other than your love and I long to give you My love; if only you would receive it. I wait patiently for you and I oversee all you do waiting for an opening to flood your soul with graces for love. Oh, My wounded one, do you not yet see how great is the love of your Savior? “

My Jesus, you are very sad; almost forlorn. What can I do, Jesus? How can I console your grieving Sacred Heart, pierced out of love for us, your children?

“Being here with me, consoles Me, My child. Writing My words, consoles Me, for I know the one who will change as a result. I know each soul that will be touched by this work, and that consoles Me. I heard your prayer today at Mass and I am pleased by your request, My little lamb. You may write this, My child, that from this day forward, I give you the grace you requested. It will be an ongoing process, My child. We will be united.” (I asked Jesus after receiving Him in Holy Communion, that when I consumed the Eucharist, instead of me consuming Him, that He consume me, that I become so enfolded in His Sacred Heart as to be consumed by His love.)

I pray this, Jesus, just as the Apostle Paul said, ‘It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me.’ This is my prayer, Jesus my Lord and my God.

“I have heard your holy request, and I will it.”

Thank You, Jesus. I love You. ‘Create in me a clean heart oh, Lord, put a steadfast spirit in me.’

“My child, this is good. You must continue to read and to study My Word, for when Holy Scripture is uttered, demons flee for cover.”

This is what Fr Blount said at the Women’s conference and this is evident in Scripture, Jesus. Thank You.

“Yes, My child. What you say is true and yet many fail to read My Words in Scripture. Just the very reading of My Word, has the power to transform hearts and minds.”

Thank You, Jesus!

“My daughter, I know what a burden having this knowledge is for you and yet it will be no less a burden later when the great calamities are upon you and death and destruction is visibly near you. Better to know now and to be somewhat prepared than to be caught off guard. I need My children of light to be praying now. Add more prayer time to your days, My children of light for these prayers will provide grace to others now and for yourselves and your families. The times of great trials are just over the horizon. You who are people of prayer see this, know this. You must prepare even more for the battles that are waging for souls. You wouldn’t think of going into battle with no protection, and with no weapons to defend yourselves. You must think of the rosary as your weapon. Take up arms, your rosaries. Read and follow My Mother’s messages given to the world through Medjugorje. These messages from Her come directly from God, as they are united to My perfect will since My Mother’s heart is perfectly united to the blessed Trinity. Heed Her words, for they are the final announcements given to the world from the throne of God. She has been given this time from God the Father, for if the Mother is unable to reach the children, woe to them when the Father is left with no other choice but to purge the entire world. My children of light, do not fear. For you who love and follow Me, there is nothing to fear. For those who follow evil there is everything to fear for the evil one is death; death to the human soul created by God for life. Do you not, by now see the difference? Do you not, by now believe that I want only your good?"

"My daughter, there are many who will not realize this until it is too late, and yet there will also be many conversions. I will pour out My Spirit as foretold by My prophets, like never before in the latter days and a new Pentecost will occur in your midst. My children of light must be open to receive these new followers of mine who will have new hearts and who will be hungry for every morsel of information about Me, their God. They will have hearts burning with love for Me and for My church. You must teach them, My children. They will rely on My purified church for the life of their souls. I am depending on you, My children. After this time period of the new Pentecost the renewal will come. The new springtime which My beloved son, St. Pope John Paul II spoke about will come. This time period will be known later as the Age of Obedience. Peace and unity will then be the norm and all will worship in Spirit and in truth. Have hope, My weary children of light. All will come to pass as I have foretold through My many prophets, through Holy Scripture and from My Holy Mother Mary. I tell you this to give you hope, and trust in Me, your Jesus."

"Prior to this many, many hardships will come, many calamities, wars and disasters in nature. The church will go through its fiery purification and will be tried and persecuted, but will come through this trial clean, purified and without stain. Though smaller, the church will be pure. Do not fear the trials, and the hardships, My children of light, for the world will then be as I intended it to be. You will then fall down on your knees, praising Me for providing you and your offspring a world known only to God and to your first parents, Adam and Eve. Yes, My children, see what hope and joy the Renewal will bring. Remember this when you are in the midst of the time of great trials. Focus on living for Me regardless of what is around you for it is in the darkness, My light shines the brightest. My light is always bright, but in the darkness the contrast is blindingly bright. Many souls will be attracted to this light, that is My light within your souls, and will come to know the love of God. Take heart My children, for I am with you always."

Thank You, Jesus! Jesus, we are now here with You 'alone', as the person scheduled to be with You this hour has not yet arrived. How fortunate we are to be with You and have You all to ourselves. This sounds very selfish indeed. It is just that this little chapel is frequented by so many, and while this is what You desire, it is not as private as we would like. And yet, I know this is such a contradiction for it is Your will that more people come to adore You in the Eucharist. Thank You, Lord for this chapel, and many like it all over the world. Thank you for the graces You so lovingly dispense to souls in Adoration. You are all good and worthy of all of our love. Thank You for my family, Lord! Thank You for the miracles You are working in the hearts of My children and those You will work. Jesus, I trust in You. Jesus, I hope in You.

"My child, you are welcome. I am pleased to bring more and more unity within families. Continue your family prayer time. I know of your trials for I walk with you. Your Jesus is aware of all that you and each family member are enduring. I allow these trials, these burdens to prepare you. I do, at the same time, provide you with graces and with joy. One day, you will reflect on this time, this most difficult time that has been a journey of several years of trials, as the time of grace for you and your family. I continue to work in each one of you, even when you are often unaware. Continue to be faithful to Me in prayer and in love. Let all things be done and said in love. Be love. Be mercy. Bring Me to others by your love, for I will be loving through you. My child, you and your family are nestled within My Sacred Heart and that of My Immaculate Mother Mary's Heart. I hear your daily prayers for such and as I will it and as you have willed through your 'yes' to Me, all is going according to the plan of My Father, carried out perfectly by My Mother through our children and especially through those who are known by Me as Her children. You have been sealed with My name. You reside under Her mantle and though storms rage around you, you will not be harmed. Stand strong against the currents of this world which pull much more against your souls than the undertow of the ocean sweeps unsuspecting swimmers out to sea. My Mother will help you. Learn from Her for there was no greater disciple on earth than My Holy Mother Mary. She is the excellent teacher. Be formed in Her school, so that you are all prepared in the best possible way for what is to come. I love you. I bless you in My Father's name, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Go now, My children. I bless those who are home and could not be here as well as those who made it possible for you to come to do this important work. I give My special blessing on those who support this work and that of all of My messengers for this would not be disseminated in the way I will it, were it not for My humble, faithful warriors who fight with their prayers, their faithfulness and their love to win souls for Me. I bless you, My children of light. You are marked with the seal of My Holy Name. Go in peace. Be love; be joy."

Thank You, Jesus. I love You.

"And, I love you!"
