Hello, Jesus ever present in the Blessed Sacrament. It is so good to be here with You I love and adore You, my Savior, my King. Thank You for holy Mass this morning and for allowing me to be there with my family. It is such a blessing. Thank You, Lord. Thank You for Your presence here in this beautiful Chapel.

“You are welcome, My daughter. It is good to be with you, also. I await My children’s visits and am grateful when they bring each burden to me. I am also grateful for even their silence as we sit and bask in our friendship. All of My children are welcome to be with me in Adoration, even those of My children who are not of the Catholic faith. All are welcome. Graces are available for all who sit with Me in Adoration. My child, do not be concerned with My use of the word grateful, for I have explained this to you and you understand that I am grateful. This is a difficult concept for you and for many, because I am God, and yet as God, I am often grateful to the children who love and follow Me. Just as any good parent is grateful for the love of his or her children.”

Yes, Jesus. I didn’t realize it was still difficult for me to write of Your gratitude, but I guess it is. It makes sense when You explain it in the concept of family life, of course. I have been grateful to my children many times. It just seems that You are constantly watching over us, caring for us, not to mention that You created the world for love of us, Your creatures, and yet we sin. You died to save us from eternal death, and there is nothing we can do to thank You, since everything we are and everything we have has come from You. Yet, You have said it is enough for us to give You our love, to follow You, to observe all You and Your holy church have taught us, and to be love to others. It is we who should be grateful to You, Lord in every moment of our lives.

“Yes, My child. What you say is true, and yet by loving Me, walking with Me, living for Me, My children become who they were created to be; My children. When one lives a true Christian life, and is loving, serving and praying for their brothers and sisters, their family, it is then that you are being true to your nature, your full humanity and what you were created to be My children. In this way, we become of one heart and one “mind” so to speak. This is a life long journey for most and one which only begins with your life on earth. When My children come to live with Me in Heaven, it is then that you realize true unity with Me. In Heaven, there are no barriers to unity with God, My child. It is this unity you must strive to realize on your earthly journey. This can begin to be accomplished by frequent reception of the sacraments, prayer to Me, your God, and by examining yourselves with the light of My Spirit. In this way all becomes clear regarding areas in your lives in need of healing, forgiveness, and also areas of behavior in need of improving. Many do not examine themselves and by ignoring this important spiritual exercise, do not realize the areas of sin, or are simply in need of improvement. It is by ignoring this important spiritual exercise, that many of My children backslide, or remain in the same state with little progress in spiritual growth. I invite My children to sit in quiet and reflect on their day. In which ways were you loving? Were there times you did not show love either in your mannerisms or in your tone of voice, or in your words or deeds? Were there opportunities to show love, mercy and kindness? If not, is it because there is too much noise, too much busyness? Perhaps, I, your Jesus, wanted you to show love or concern to someone but you were unaware for your mind was filled with the tasks on your own agenda. My children, I do not say this to criticize you, but only to point out opportunities for change. An open heart, prepared to serve your Jesus each day, can be very impactful to those in need. Most people need a kind word of encouragement, a smile, some of your time. Yes, I know how very busy you are. Are you busy because of the tasks I have given you or are you busy with tasks you have assigned to yourselves? Do not be concerned about what on your "list" goes undone for the day, if you have been serving your Jesus. Give Me your day, My children, and in this way, more hearts can and will be won for Heaven. Trust that I, your Jesus will help you accomplish what is needed for you and your families when you are helping Me to save souls. Come, children. Let us begin."

Thank You, Jesus. You always help to refocus us and put us on the right path; the path toward You and Heaven. I love You, Jesus.

"And I love you, My child."

Jesus, thank You that there are 3 families discerning the community. Thank You, Lord that they want to see the property (which is so very beautiful!) Lord, please come to our assistance and remove any remaining barriers to forming community (seen or unseen). Jesus, thank You for the opportunity to meet (names withheld) yesterday. They are beautiful Christian women, who love You and the Blessed Mother. It was wonderful meeting them and sharing our mutual love of You. I thank You that my sister brought us together. It is comforting to be with others who love and follow You, and who also share the Catholic faith. What a wonderful place it will be when all people are united in this way.

"Yes, My daughter. This is the way God the Father intended for your world to be, and how He desires His children live. It pleases Me to bring souls together who are serving Me and who listen to My Mother.

Thank You, Lord. I think this was a small example of what it will be like living in community. Jesus, if it be with Your will, please bring (names withheld) and other like them to live in our community, Your community. I am sure Our Lady is working diligently to extend invitations to many others. I sure do wish My brothers and sisters would decide for this, also (not to mention my children and grandchildren). Sadly, I know it isn't to be based on what You have told me previously.

"My child; Do not be discouraged. There will be visits and their hearts will become more and more open to the decision you and your husband have made, as time progresses. Do not be concerned, for all will be well. The community members will become your family, also. This is difficult for you to envision, since you have such love for your family of origin, and yet, it will be so. I have put this love for your family in your heart and I will do so for countless others. You will see My daughter. This grace will come to you, and still you must continue to pray for this gift, the grace to love heroically, for heroic love will be required of you to love and serve all I send to your home. The times will require all of My children to love and to genuinely live as in the days of the Gospel. Read My Word, dearest children of My heart. Read what I have said about sharing all you have with others. I do not refer to some "social system" forced upon you, but on truly living the Gospel. This means a willingness to share for love of one's neighbor. All comes from Me, My children, so do not be concerned if you are called upon to share the last portion of food or the last item of clothing or household goods on hand, for I am your Father and I will provide for My children. Did I not multiply the loaves and fishes to feed the multitudes? I did so because My children were hungry. They were not even starving, only hungry for they had spent the day listening to Me, Jesus. There were no stores as in these days, no convenience stores on every corner, and thus if I had not fed them, you would not have known that I have the power to multiply. You would not have learned of My then future act, to provide the bread that becomes My body, blood, soul and divinity to the entire world, many, many times over. Do not fear sharing the last item you have. Only fear what will happen if you do not share. How many lives will be impacted when you share the last piece of bread, for love of neighbor, and they witness the multiplication? More times than you will know, so many will understand the great miracle of multiplication and they will come to believe. Others will believe just because of the great love shown to them. Yes, My children of light, you will need to love heroically, and so I encourage all to pray for graces to love heroically, for that is what will be required for My children to assist others during the coming days.”

Thank You, Lord. All comes from You, Jesus. Lord, I’m sorry I stepped out for awhile but (name withheld) forgot to bring her cane and she doesn’t appear to be very steady, on her feet. I wanted to help her so she didn’t fall while waiting for her son to pick her up.

“That is good, My daughter. This is what I want all of My children to do. Be aware of those around you in need and show simple kindness to them. Even small acts such as helping her with her coat, as your husband did, or helping her get safely out the door, are acts of love. This is the way I want you to respond to all; especially those in your own families. Be love, My children. Be mercy. Be kind. Be patient. What you do for your brothers and sisters, you do for Me. Thank You, My child.”

Thank You, Jesus for the opportunity to help one who is so faithful to You, Jesus. It is a pleasure. My heart was here with You, though Lord and I found myself wanting to hurry back.

“But you waited My child and you listened with love. I thank you.”

Jesus, have You anything more You wish to say to me?

“Yes, My child. St. Pio has given good advice regarding your house. All will be well. Do as he suggested for his words are in union with My will as is all direction from the saints in Heaven.”

Jesus, I am concerned also with obtaining the construction documents. Will you please give those working on the final documents added grace to accomplish the work quickly?

“Yes, My child. Continue with what I am asking you to do and in the meantime all will come together just as My son, St Pio advised. I am with you and we work together. My daughter, I know of your fatigue due to trying to fulfill all of your commitments, and doing so in lieu of getting sleep. I encourage you to discern every commitment now and ask Me if it is something I want you to do or not. Perhaps it is something I desire of you, but perhaps there is a more efficient way of going about it. My daughter you are very focused and when something needs to be done, you stay on task through completion. This is a good trait and one I have instilled in you to accomplish the mission before you. Perseverance is a virtue, and yet at times there are tasks that can be accomplished over time, bit by bit, and in this way your sleep will not be compromised. My daughter, you labor hard for your Jesus, and this is good. Bring every task to Me so that we can determine the best approach. You also need rest, so that each day you are prepared to serve Me as best you can. I have observed your husband also, who is worrying so much that sleep is lost. My son, when you awaken at night because so much is on your mind, you must bring each concern to me right away. Worry is useless. What is needed is trust, My son. Pray the rosary for souls when you are unable to sleep. Otherwise, the time spent worrying is wasted and useless. There is no time to waste, My children. May everything you do, be with the utmost clarity. If you are unclear or unsure of specific tasks, bring this to Me in prayer where I can bring focus and help you prioritize. Souls are at stake, My Children of the Renewal, and yet many of you are still allowing countless distractions to vie for your attention and your time. If you could all see the destruction ahead, the many innocent lives who will be lost, especially those for whom My Mother sheds tears because they do not know and do not love Me, you would be much more focused in your daily activities. The care of your families, especially your children and the elderly comes first. Be present to them. Offer your day to Me, and all of your actions. Pray. Set time aside for family prayer. Be faithful to your duties at home and give the time—8-9 hours for work for those of you who are employed. Everything else must be for your Jesus. Ask Me what I would have you do, and then serve Me. My children, life as you know it is fleeting. When you come before Me, you will want to have lived a life pleasing to Me. Please live this way now, My children. Holy lives impact the world. This is an accurate statement, My children for I am God and I am truth. Live holy lives. I do not mean that you have no time for laughter and joy, for a true disciple has inner joy, and takes satisfaction in the simple pleasures in life, which are of the most value. For example, an infant brings much joy to families. Playing with your children is very important. I do not intend to give you the impression that all is work and drudgery. What I want to teach you is that you are giving your time to false things, things that are passing and have no worth, such as those of you who spend time drinking at bars and nightclubs. What is this doing to profit your souls, My lost children? How does time spent every week, watching television, neglecting your children and your neighbors, help the world? Could you not spend that time reading to your children, praying to your God or thinking of ways to help your neighbors? My children who say they have no time to attend Mass, or pray, spend hours on entertainment and pursuing material things that are passing. I invite you to learn to enjoy the things that have lasting value, like prayer and service to the Kingdom. Read spiritual books that serve to help form you versus books that hold no value, but keep your mind from focusing on Me. These worthless forms of activity are accurately referred to as “past time” activities that distract you from what is really important and before you realize it, much time has “passed” that you cannot regain. My children, live your lives in simplicity, focusing on your vocations, your families, your church and those in need. Be faithful to your spouse, your family, your God and in this way you will live holy lives. You will be detached from the noise and the clutter that tempts you and makes you run to and fro chasing that which is waiting for you at home, love. My children, wake up and see that the evil one wants nothing more than to distract you so that you do not spend your life living for Me, for love but chasing materialism, power, wealth, entertainment and everything that has no lasting value. What does it profit you if you gain this world and lose everlasting life, My children? You know the answer to this. I remind you to live your life for the Kingdom of Heaven. When you clean your house, do so for the Holy Family. When you care for a sick child, do this for love of them and for love of Me as baby Jesus. Look at your lives from a heavenly perspective and you will see things more clearly. I walk with you and this alone can give you joy if you but open your heart to Me. All will be well, My children, but you must do your part and cooperate with My plan. Imitate My most pure and holy Mother Mary. What would My Mother do, if she was invited to go somewhere that took Her focus off of Me, Her son? You are correct. She would politely decline. Model your lives after My Holy Mother Mary and St. Joseph. We will help you if you ask. We love you and want what is best for you and what will make you truly happy. Heaven will be the place of complete joy, love and understanding. This is what is best for you. I am speaking to My children who love and follow Me, but who have not given up the many attachments to the world and the things of the world. You know in your heart if this applies to you for you feel a slight pulling, at your heart. You feel a slight conviction. Do not dismiss these promptings of the Holy Spirit. Come follow Me, My children for I need your firm and complete commitment. Spend the rest of your days living beautiful, holy lives for this is what will change the world. Come, My children of light, be all that I have created you to be. You are future saints and I invite you to begin living your potential. With grace, all things are possible. If it were not so, I would refrain from telling you this. Your brothers and sisters, the saints in Heaven pray for you by name. Ask for their assistance and they will give it to you. They are active in worldly affairs now more than any other time in history, but you must ask due to your free will. I love you. Let us begin.”

Thank You, Jesus that You continue to call us into the light. Thank You for not giving up on us, Jesus. Help us to be all You created us to be. Bless our families, Lord and help us to protect our children from the lies of the culture of death. It is difficult to protect them, Lord since the lies of the evil one are so very insidious and have steeped into almost every aspect of our lives. So much so, Jesus that we are oblivious to it (unless it is obviously offensive as many things are).

“Yes, My daughter. What you say is accurate and this is why My Mother has instructed all Her children through Her messages at Medjugorje, to not allow satan access to your children. He is using this electronic age to have the greatest and easiest access to the hearts and minds of little children. He uses the images on the internet and television to permanently ingrain sinful acts and words in the minds of My little ones who are destined to be saints. Wake up children of the Age of Disobedience. You allow the enemy into your homes and bring lewd conduct that you would never partake in, to be a form of entertainment and laughter. You are to be role models of virtue and holiness to your children and to all who know you. You are called to be witnesses to My light and My love. Guard your children from those who are predators and from those who want to lead them into a life of sin. At the very least, the evil one wants to fill the hearts and minds of My people with anything and everything, but God. Wake up from your slumber, from your slothfulness and from your ignorance. See what it is that the adversary is doing and stop allowing him access to your children. This is possible, My children. You must be set apart from this culture that worships false idols and wants to put your children in hell. Be salt. Be light. Be leaven. Bring My love to the world, but you must begin with your own families and your homes, for the family is the domestic church. This is the foundation of holiness. Reflect on this, My children and you will know the answer to why My Holy Catholic Church is in need. My church is facing a crisis of faith because the family is in crisis. You cannot fix the world, My children for only I can do that, but you are not accountable for the world. You are accountable to Me for your family. Yes, I realize many of My holy children do not have spouses who are united in faith. Pray for them. Love them. Be love to your family. Leave the rest to Me. You will see changes in them when you begin to love them as if they were all saints. You must see what they can be and stop focusing on what they are not. Love them in their poverty of spirit. I will help you. By this love, their hearts will change. It will not be due to your fine preaching, My children, but by your love, your prayers, your sacrifices. This is how we will begin, My children. We will begin the renewal by renewing your families, let us begin right away, My children for time is of the essence. Do not put off your own growth in holiness because of resistance in your families, for this is your mission field. You have Me, and My Mother, St. Joseph and all the angels and saints to help you. Love will prevail. Let us begin.”

Thank You, Jesus. You bring such clarity and light to all of life’s problems. I love You, Jesus. Thank You for Your love and attention to every detail of our lives and especially for Your love and direction for us with our own families. You are so good to us, Jesus. We love You and desire this change, this conversion. Thank You that You will never abandon us, Lord. Help us, so that we never abandon You!

“It will be so, My daughter. I love you and I thank you for writing My words, for your suffering and for your love. Continue on the path I have set before you, and your family. All will be aided (each task) and all barriers removed. Set your face on Me. Let all else fall away. I love you, My son, and all your family. I am with you and I go before you to prepare the way.”

Thank You, Jesus!

“Enjoy your evening with My holy priest son. You may fast another evening but celebrate time with him tomorrow for one day this time will be but a fond memory. You will have the needs of many other priests before you as well as many children. This is a time of preparation, and I also want it to be a time of presence to others, for soon you will be moving and your time here will make way to the next phase in your journey. I love you. Rejoice in My love.”

Thank You, Jesus. Enfold us all in Your Sacred, Merciful Heart and in Your Mother’s Immaculate Heart. There is no other place for us, Jesus.

“Go in My peace, My children. You are in My heart and in the heart of My precious Mother Mary where all are safe. Go now, My child for you have much yet to do this evening with the food preparations and with sending this to (name withheld). I bless you in My Father’s name, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit.”

Thank You, sweet Jesus. I love You!

“And I love you, My little lamb.”

January 11, 2015, Adoration Chapel

Hello, my Jesus present in the blessed Sacrament. How I love You and am very honored and pleased to be here with You. Thank You for waiting patiently for Your children to visit You here. Thank You, Lord for Your presence in all tabernacles in the world. I think the world as we know it would end if not for Your holy presence. Jesus, I want to thank You for the gift You gave to the world in the “Poem of the Man God.” It is most beautiful. I read it so long ago that many of the details I have long forgotten. It was so incredible to read of the Magi’s visit to You and I have been thinking about Your words regarding the Blessed Mother and how She took Your little hand and made the sign of the cross over the heads of the Magi just before they departed. It has made such an impression on me, especially now thinking of Your pierced hands blessing us and how sometimes You must tire of blessing the world knowing so many of Your children are far from You. Jesus, to think that Our Lady intercedes for us and often “convinces” You to bless us, only because You do not want to refuse Your holy and pure Mother Mary’s requests. I am very grateful to the Blessed Mother for Her love and intercession. I shudder to think where we would be without Her and Her loving intercession for us. Thank You, Jesus! I was also considering the many times You have blessed my husband and me as we are kneeling and genuflecting before leaving You and leaving this chapel. I will never (I hope) take this blessing of Yours for granted knowing what I know now. Thank You, Jesus for all that You do for us, Lord either because of Your unfailing love and mercy for us, or because of Your Mother’s deep love for us. Thank You. I do not know how many things I unknowingly take for granted, Lord but please forgive me when I do. I trust You, Jesus and I think sometimes I don’t understand the value of the many graces You give simply because I don’t know about them. Help me to grow in the love I have for You. Help me to love You more, sweet Jesus. Help me to love others more, also.

“My daughter, you are growing in your love for Me and this is evidenced by the insights you had yesterday when reading My word. There were more connections for you, between the passage in the Old Testament and the Visitation account in St. Luke's Gospel. Were you not overflowing with joy in your heart at all the Holy Spirit revealed?

Yes, Lord. I was. Thank You.

"My child, I will continue to reveal Myself to all who seek Me. Just as the Magi sought Me, travelling very far, for many, many nights, found Me. So will all find Me, if you only seek Me. Many of My children on earth seek Me, though they do not realize it is I whom they seek. They seek forms of entertainment, sensuality, drugs, recreation, alcohol, and other harmful behaviors, when it is really God their souls are longing for. Their hearts are empty, cold, lonely and void of My light. They chase after something to fill this void which they do not recognize in their pain. My children, I am the only One who can fill the void you have in your life. I am easier to find than whatever it is you are pursuing. Don't you see My children, it is I who pursues you, for I love you. You have only to accept My love, and I will shower you with graces for love."

Thank You, that You patiently wait for us and even pursue us, Lord. Thank You for Your mercy. My Jesus.

"My mercy is available for all of My children. I am prepared to shower you with graces, My children. Only, seek Me. Seek My face. Speak with Me, children. Bring Me everything that troubles You and I will give you rest."

Thank You, Lord! You give us all we need. You are most generous, Lord and You have already given Your life for us, yet You continue to give more and more out of love for us, Your poor children.

"My daughter, you long for all to know and love Me. You long for the day when this will be so."

Yes, Jesus, though I hope and trust it will be so. If everyone loved You, Jesus this world would be the most wonderful place; all would be at peace. There would be no more war. Lord, I know that is what You intended for us. If we all would follow You, love You, even though we are sinners, we would do our best to love our brothers and sisters and make peace with anyone who wronged us. They in turn would be sorry for any wrong if we all loved and followed You.

"Yes, My daughter, it is as you say. This is My will. How I long for all of My children to love and follow Me, for to love Me is to have security; to have peace, to be one with all in Heaven and on earth. To reject Me is to reject all that is good, all that is truth, all that is beautiful. To reject Me is to reject life for I am the author of life."

Jesus, is the reverse true? If people reject life, are they also rejecting You? I know there are people who are for the "option" the "freedom" of those who want to choose abortion, while they still claim to know You. Is it also true that in supporting this—abortion, they are rejecting You?

"My child, for those who knowingly support abortion, this is true; they reject Me. There are some who really have not considered it (abortion) one way or the other, for their consciences are either not well formed, or they are improperly formed. They find themselves, either after being abused or taken advantage of or living a sinful life, with child. There are those who pressure and coerce them into having an abortion. They are conflicted and confused by the evil one who works through those living in darkness. These poor children of mine, though they are free to choose life, also often are more like victims of abortion themselves. Once they go through with this atrocious act of murder, they are plunged into deep remorse, sadness, hopelessness for deep within their soul, where they fail to go for prayer and union with Me, they did know this to be murder, however they had not considered the things of God, the questions of life so poorly formed were they. These people, My little one, are truly victims of an age of disobedience. I am all love and mercy. I will forgive them, heal their wounds and bring them ever so close to My Sacred Heart, so tenderly do I love them. Do not judge My lost little ones who did not realize what they were doing for they themselves are in bondage. There are those who make this sin of abortion their platform. They preach freedom for mothers to choose. I ask these haughty children, what it is My children are free to choose? Answer this question, My haughty, proud children who have led countless innocents astray. Do you claim any one of those I created have the freedom to choose to murder the most precious, innocent, children before they even have a chance at life? No! No one has this right, or this so called freedom, and you, haughty, prideful, arrogant children of darkness, know this! You claim this, only because you play at being God. I, the Lord God do not ever claim this so called right for I never take the life of any of My children who are growing in their Mother's wombs! Do you disagree? Some would disagree, My daughter for they would claim that a baby who died of natural causes in utero is God taking the life of that child. That is not true. I, the Lord God create each and every child for life. There are some who have diseases or birth defects and while they are forming and growing in their mother's wombs, I whisper words of love, of comfort, of consolation to them as they struggle. I assure them of My love. In their purity, they know Me, and in their infancy, they love Me in the most pure way. When their bodies do not form properly or are unable to sustain them to birth or for very long after birth, they are carried in My arms to live with Me for eternity. This is different than someone murdering an innocent child. Much different. My haughty children who preach abortion are preaching darkness. The father of lies speaks through you, for the evil one wants to snatch souls away that would be influential, would be followers of Me and would have great impact on their brothers and sisters. This is the truth of the dark side, of which abortion is one of the most sinister of plans. All will cease, when I annihilate this evil tactic of satan. Yes, My little lamb, you heard Me correctly, annihilate, for that is what I will do to the abortionists and those who support them. Those who see their ugly sins, their decayed soul during the Illumination, and refuse to repent will be annihilated. For those of you reading this who support abortion, be warned. I, God detest this most horrific of sins. You damage countless multitudes by your false platform of choice. You destroy, not only the innocents, just as Herod killed the holy innocents in Bethlehem, but you also destroy mothers and fathers. You impact generations of people by your pretense of being tolerant and giving choice for the lives My little holy ones would have influenced positively for My Kingdom, and the mission they had will never be replaced. This is the greatest evil of all, the evil of abortion. Do not be fooled any longer by the father of lies, who wants you in the dung heap. Repent. Change your wicked ways. I, Jesus the Christ will forgive you when you repent. You may not believe this, for you have listened to the evil one's lies for a very long time, and you are fearful that My wrath will consume you by My rejection. This is not true for My love and mercy is endless. I love the repentant sinner and heal you and bring you back to the family of God. You will be accepted by all. If you do not believe this, recall that I forgave those who crucified Me. I said, 'Father, forgive them for they know not what they do.' as I was hanging on the cross, bruised, beaten, tortured, bleeding, with wounds so deep My bones were visible. Yes, I asked My Father in Heaven to forgive My murderers. I will say the same when you cry out to Me for forgiveness. I will forgive you and present you to My Father in Heaven to forgive you. He will do so, for the Father and I are One. We act in One accord, in perfect unity for We are One. You see, My lost, blind children of darkness, you could easily become one of the children of light. The only obstacle is your own cold and hardened heart. Come back to the One who made you and who formed you in your mother's womb. She, your mother gave you a chance at life. Every child created deserves this chance, this right. Do not allow yourselves to be deluded any longer. Use the reason that I gave you and you will come to the same conclusion. All deserve the chance to be born, for I the Lord God say so. For My lost children who allowed the act of abortion to wreak havoc, death in your womb where your precious baby and in some cases, babies were growing, do not be afraid to tell Me, your Jesus who loves you, all about it. Yes, I know My lost little sheep, your innocence has been lost. Your joy for life has been extinguished. I know how your heart aches, how you wish you could go back to the few moments before the abortion and make a different decision. You long to have been stronger. To have stood up to your persecutor and to have said, 'No, I will not kill this baby growing inside of me.' But you did not, and you cannot go back and change the past. What you can do is allow Me to love you, to forgive you and in this way you can begin to live in the present. You are My child. I love you. I love you even when you are acting against Me. I forgive you, but you must ask for forgiveness. You must ask for healing. I will forgive, I will heal. If you are unsure, just try it. What have you to lose, My child? I will tell you. You have nothing to lose by returning to Me, for I will not condemn you. A repentant heart is of the utmost beauty to Me. Come, My child. Come to Me, your Jesus. Tell Me everything that those who did not love you, did to you. I am very sorry that they mistreated you. You will make better choices from now on, knowing that I am with you and that I love you. Come, your child, yes even those of you who have aborted multiple children, your children pray for you in Heaven. They love you. They pray for you. They long for you to return to Me, for one day they will see you in Heaven and they love you and want to live with you in Heaven. They forgive you and only want you to forgive yourself but you must first ask Me for forgiveness. This is the first step in your healing. Come, My child. I love you. Behold, I make all things new. Let us begin anew. Reach out your hand and take My hand in yours. Aw, I see. You do not trust men because of what those in darkness have done to you. Come then. Take My Mother Mary's hand. You are safe with Her. When you take Her hand, She will help you. She will send graces for love, for life, for healing to you that I have already prepared for you. When you begin to heal, when you allow My Mother to caress you, to dry your tears, then She will teach your sad weary heart about the love of My heart. You, My child are the love of My heart. You will begin to learn more about yourself; what caused you to make these poor choices leading up to the tragic event. You will see yourself in the light of My mercy. You will begin to see, in truth, what occurred in your life that created obstacles to Me. This will be very insightful, My child and you will understand yourself much better. Then, you will see that much of what has happened in your life was due to a lack of love. The people who were responsible for loving you and forming you did not do so. You see, My child, I know of your struggles, of the lack of love and in some cases the abuse you have suffered. You are not 100% to blame and yet you have assumed 150% of the guilt, the shame. Come, My child. Take My Mother's hand and take the step on the beautiful garden path filled with fragrant flowers and sunlight. Turn your back on the filth and stench of the evil one. My Mother is tender and gentle. She is loving and She does not judge you, nor do I. Return to those who truly love you and will never harm you. Your family in Heaven prays for you. They love you, also. This choice for Me will be the best choice you ever made. You will never regret it. One day, you will forgive yourself just as I forgive you. Then, your growth in love and holiness will help others who long to come out of darkness. You will be a source of encouragement for them. Come, you will see. Your life will have new meaning and purpose. Come, My child. I speak to you who reads this message. You think this is too good to be true and that I couldn't possibly mean you. I tell you, I do mean you, for I loved you before and I love you now. Quiet yourself and recall the time when you were very young and your heart was innocent. Remember how new the world seemed. Recall that even when others rejected and hurt you, you forgave them hoping they would love you better the next time. See how forgiving you were to those who never apologized? I saw this mercy in your heart. I saw your kindness, and how your little heart was broken time and time again. I, your Jesus saw everything. I do not approve of the way you were treated. Just as you forgave those who hurt you, and you who are only human forgave. Do you not think that I, your Jesus will forgive you, especially knowing (as I do) how very sorry you are? You know in your heart, that God is able to forgive, perfectly, and so you know I will forgive you. Come, bask in the light of My forgiveness and My love. Receive the kind of love and goodness you have always deserved but did not receive from so many. Allow Me to love you, child, for I am longing to love you and to receive your love, as well. Yes, I your Jesus long for your love, just as you long to be loved by Me. Come, let us begin. I will be patient and tender, just as My Mother is.”

Jesus, I sense the deep longing in Your heart. How much you love, Jesus. It is overwhelming and yet so very beautiful. You treat all of us with such dignity, Jesus. I love You! Lord, I am very sorry for those who have not experienced love, especially for those who were children at the time. How painful it must be for them. I was very blessed to have loving parents, Jesus. I will give them my love, Jesus though that is a small thing, especially knowing that they have Your love and the love of the Blessed Mother.

“My child, the love of a sister or a brother, is no small thing. This is how My children first experience the love of God; by being loved by others. For the love you give comes from the source of all love, Me. This is most important. I say this to all of My children of light. You must find those who are unloved and love them. Show them love, forgiveness and mercy. You must be love, for those caring for them have not done so. There are countless children suffering from a lack of love and attention. Even seemingly good parents, are often self-centered and neglect the formation of their children. There are also parents who truly sacrifice much, who are in poverty and working hard to support their children. Often, these parents are exhausted and do not have the energy to spend on their children, for they are trying to survive. These are often parents who have also been victims of one who did not love and therefore did not fulfill their commitment. You see, My children what a toll it takes on people when there is little love. Love, My children, is sacrifice. Love is commitment. Love is perseverance. Love is virtue. Love does not focus on pleasure, My children. Pleasure has very little to do with love. However, if one lives a life of love, life will have been a joy for them, when they live out their days and come to be with Me in Heaven. Yes, My children love is sacrifice. Look at Me and see that I showed the greatest of love by My sacrificial death for you, My beloved. You see, the world teaches the opposite, that pleasure is the center of all. I tell you, love is the center of all, and by this I mean love for God, love for your family, love of your neighbor followed by love of self. This world has you seeking all and everything for love of self. This is not love, My children. This is selfishness. True love is to lay down your life for another. True love is to be willing to die to self so that I can fill you with My life, My peace, My joy and in turn you can fill others in the same way for My love overflows the soul living for Me, and for others. The world teaches you the opposite. Come, read the scripture and specifically the Gospels to see My love, the love of God in action. This is a good place to begin for those unaccustomed to My Word. I love you, My children, but you do not know the value of My love for you do not know Me. Open your hearts and ask Me to teach you the meaning of love. True love does not leave you feeling empty and cheap. True love gives you joy and dignity. I am love. I am truth. Learn about Me and you will learn about truth and true love. Come, we must spread this message of love, for in this way the chains of hatred, self pity, loathing, and destruction will be broken. It is in this way that I set the captives (those in the bondage of sin) free. When you are free, you are free to love and be loved in the way I intended you to be loved. When you follow Me, you will have true freedom; freedom for love, freedom for truth. This is true freedom. It is not freedom, to live in sin. This is what My adversary and yours calls freedom, but remember this; he is the father of lies. What he calls freedom is actually slavery. He captures My children and makes them slaves to sin. I bring freedom, light, liberty to those in darkness. Follow Me, My children for that is true freedom. Then, when you have lived your life in pursuit of love, truth, forgiveness, mercy, you will come to My heavenly kingdom. Come, do not delay for the hour is short; it is late, and you do not know when your life will be over. Then, it will be too late. The time for conversion is now.”

Jesus, thank You that You set the captives free. Thank You that You forgive and call us Your children. I love You, my Jesus. Save souls, Jesus. Move hardened hearts, Lord. Bring those who have not yet experienced the love of God into the light of Your love. When one experiences Your beautiful, merciful love, one cannot choose darkness. Move the hearts of Your people, Lord. Bring them back to the family of God. We are missing so many brothers and sisters, Jesus. There are so many gaps. We need all of Your children, Lord to be part of Your family. You are our Savior, and therefore You must save us. Thank You, Lord God that You long to save all of Your children.

“My daughter, this was a most difficult message for you to write, but one that is necessary. It is a critical time, and this message is needed by many souls. Do not delay in having this message posted, for souls are at stake and time is of the essence.”

Yes, Jesus. As you say, it will be done.

“Thank you, My daughter, My little messenger.”

You are welcome, Lord. I will do anything for You, Jesus. I love You. Help me to love and when I am not able to love, love others through me. All love comes from You, Lord, whether I am able to love or not. Allow Your love to pass through my heart to others, even when and especially when I am unable to love. Do not allow me to be an obstacle to Your love just because of my weaknesses. Your love is more powerful and can overcome every weakness, every character defect, every flaw I have. Thank You for Your magnificent love, Jesus, my Lord and my God.

“My child, I do love you. Your confidence in Me has grown and you are beginning to trust as a little child. I know how very difficult today’s message was for you, for you feel the power behind My words. You feel the anger I have toward the evil one, and the longing in My heart for the children who are far from Me. No human being could feel the full force of My emotions, for I am the God Man. However, I allow you the grace to experience what you do, or I would be withholding the truth of My nature. Friends do not hide themselves from one another, and therefore I allow you to experience your Jesus, as I am. Only, I must put a veil over the fullness of My essence or you would not be able to live, let alone write My messages of love. Do you see, My little lamb?”

I think so, Jesus. It makes sense but I don’t think I fully understand the truth of this, however I accept what You say completely. Thank You, Jesus for allowing me, allowing all of us who are Your children, to participate in Your plan for souls. Thank You, Jesus again for Your love.

“You are welcome, My daughter. Have you anything you wish to tell Me, My child?”

Yes, Jesus but everything on my mind seems quite small compared to the message you have just given. However, You have said we are to bring all to You, and therefore I ask for Your divine assistance in carrying out the tasks before us that You have given us. Help us, Lord to do Your will. I also ask again for My daughter and my grandchildren. I pray for all of our children, Jesus.

“My child, have confidence in your Jesus. I pursue the family members of those who love Me, and I do so with the greatest concern.”

Thank You, Jesus. You are perfect and You never fail. So, when You say You pursue them, I trust You will “capture” their hearts. Thank You, my Savior for saving souls. I love You. Thank You for saving me! Help me to love and serve You, Jesus as You so deserve. I love You.

“And I love you, and your entire family. Go in My peace, My daughter. Go in My love. Be love. Be mercy to others. Thank you for offering your sufferings and your additional fasting, My children, for souls. Continue to offer as much as you can, for I take each offering and each sacrifice and use it for the good of souls. I ask My children of light to increase their sacrifices for your brothers and sisters in need. I love you. I bless you in the name of My Father, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit.”

Thank You, Jesus. Amen!

January 4, 2015, Adoration Chapel

Hello, dearest Jesus ever present in the Blessed Sacrament of the altar. I praise and adore You, my God and my all. I love You, my Jesus. Thank You that we are able to be here with You today, Lord. Thank You for holy Mass this morning and for my family. I am so blessed to have my family with me at Mass, Lord. Thank You, also for the time spent with (name withheld) yesterday. It was so good to be with her. Thank You, Lord for the work You are doing within her soul, and for the new little baby growing inside her. I am so very grateful for this new little gift of life. Thank You, Jesus.

“You are welcome, My child. New life is My great gift to mankind.”

Yes, Jesus. Thank You! Jesus, have You anything to say to me today?

“Yes, My daughter. Thank You for coming to be with Me today. I am grateful to you and your husband for your presence in this chapel, for your visit with Me, and for your prayers. You are concerned about the work remaining on your house, are you not?”

Yes, Jesus. We are concerned because we have not met the timeline You gave us. I am sorry, Lord.

“My child, I see your struggles and those of My son. He is working hard to get everything completed. The timeline is for your good and with good reason. (personal dialogue omitted)

Trust in your Jesus to provide for you and your family. I am God and I am a perfect provider. I ask for your trust in Me.”

Jesus, I trust in You. (personal dialogue omitted)

“I assure you, I am with you, My daughter.”

Thank You, Lord. I am very thankful to know You are with me. I love You, Jesus.

“And I love you. Thank you for all you do for Me, My little one.”

It is an honor to serve You, Lord. Jesus, thank You for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. I am grateful that we were all able to go to Confession yesterday. What a great gift the sacraments are, Jesus. Thank You!

“You are welcome, My child. My daughter, you have many concerns on your heart and mind. Bring all concerns to Me, Jesus and let us examine them together.”

Jesus, on this Feast of Epiphany when the wise men followed the Star of Bethlehem and found You, please bring many souls to search and find You, Lord Jesus. Please bring those who are away from the church back to You, Lord. I pray for many to attend the Catholics Returning Home program.

“Thank you, My daughter. Thank you for the Divine Mercy Novena you and My son have been praying for souls. I am well pleased with this decision and commitment.”

You are very welcome, Lord. Jesus. Have You anything more You wish to say to me? I am sorry for not being as focused on You, Lord. There are many distractions with people coming and going today.

“My daughter, My Mother’s community will come to fruition. When I use this word, it means more than saying something will come to pass. It means that there will be success. When a tree bears fruit, it bears good fruit. This community is truly a fledgling community and you are somewhat discouraged by those who have decided not to be part of it. Do not be troubled in any way by this, for others are also invited and when they give their ‘yes’ to My Mother, they will make a firm commitment. Do not be concerned about the small numbers for the number of families committed to the community will grow. My Mother has selected those who are needed for this community both now and in the future. She chooses well, and She is at work extending invitations to the chosen souls who will be in unity with those who have already accepted Her invitation and they will also have the talents, skills and gifts needed by the community. I have many good things in store for My Mother’s community, for this community has a special and unique mission to fulfill; one which will be most difficult, but so very important in My Father’s plan. I have revealed some of this to you, My daughter but not all. This work I do in forming you and My son is to prepare you for the specific role in this mission. I will prepare all who come to (name withheld) and as I have said previously, it takes time for hearts to change. It also takes time for hearts and minds to be formed and, though I could do this at once, it is My will to take the time needed for each soul to be formed, for I am forming all of you for the ‘long-haul’ so to speak. I am forming you for the near as well as for the distant future. My child, when I use the term distant future, I feel the weariness in your soul. You feel you have not yet begun this mission of which I speak, and yet you are tired already from the many years of labor preceding our work of formation. Yes, My child, you and My son, your husband have labored for your Jesus. You have served Me well, My children. I am pleased with the many sacrifices you have made, the many offerings of your days, your work, your prayers. You have gone nights with little sleep due to the added responsibilities thrust upon you, and which you willingly accept. Yes, I know how willingly you accept what is done in service to your Jesus, and yet I also know of your weariness, of your struggles. My children, all has been according to My Father’s plan. My Mother and I have been preparing you for years; even during years you were not aware were preparation. Let us review this together for clarity. My son, you served many years in the corporate world in leadership positions. You handled multiple problems and dilemmas, some which seemed to have no exit, and yet through working with your teams, using other’s input, accepting their ideas which came by treating all with dignity and respect, seemingly insurmountable obstacles were overcome with positive results. I guarded you from becoming too prideful, My son when your successful career suddenly ended as new leaders emerged who were threatened by your success and the vast number of loyal employees who loved and respected you. You see, My son whom I love, I am God and I know what the future holds for each of My children. I steer the course, even allowing events that seem like crises in worldly terms, so as to protect My children from spiritual falls, far worse in the perspective of the spiritual world. You gained much spiritually through this experience. You grew closer to Me, closer to My Mother, developed a love for the prayer of the rosary, gained a great deal of compassion for others and grew in humility. Had this not occurred, you were at risk for becoming overly confident, and prideful. Instead, your heart became open to Me. You used this time of transition wisely, My son by volunteering to help the poorest of the poor, and by serving those less fortunate with your talent for reading. My son, these years which you view as a very low time in your life, were most fruitful. These were gifts to you, from My heart, My son but I know it did not seem this way. Reflect on this, and you will be enlightened even more. You also found that, though you thought you had many friends, and you did, their friendship was based on your success and popularity. You have always been a loyal friend to others, and believe and see the best in your friends; however through this you found out much about worldly friends. Only a few emerged as true friends, nay even fewer than few.... My son, I say this, not to cause dismay, but to give you encouragement. Has not your Jesus provided more friends, new friends who love you for you and not for worldly success? Did I not reveal the one who loved you for you in the process? Have I not provided a sacramental marriage, your heart was longing for, after many years of prayers and tears? You eventually gave up on this, My son, but I did not forget. My son, all has been for your spiritual formation, for your healing, to prepare you for My Father's most important mission. I love you My son and I continue to walk with you and to direct you. Have confidence that you are well prepared and that I, your Jesus continue to prepare you, as in the fasting I have requested. I assure you, you have gone through much more difficult obstacles, and challenges in your lifetime than fasting one additional day a week. I know you will do this for Me, because I know you. I created you. Though you are resistant in your heart, once you commit to your Jesus, you will follow through, for you are My loyal friend. I created you with a loyal heart and have given you the sword of righteousness. You do not fully understand this gift, nor does My daughter; however one day you will. Then, you will see how much I have entrusted to you, My son. My daughter, you have just been given a flash of insight about this gift which you may share with My son. Though you do not fully understand, either you now have some initial grasp of this gift. My son, you prayed for years to know My will for you. You mentioned this to My daughter not long ago. I gave you this recollection, for I wanted you to realize how far you have come. Yes, more growth is needed; however occasionally it is good to reflect on just how much grace has been given to you. The Holy Spirit is active in your life, My son. Thank My Holy Spirit for the movement in your life. Pray for an increase of faith, hope, love and holiness. Pray for the wisdom of the Holy Spirit. Remember, your patron saint, Saint Joseph. Ask for his guidance and assistance in everything related to your family, the home preparations, providing a place for all of you to live after your home sells. Spend time speaking to him even as you go about your day and your work. I trusted St. Joseph to provide for Me, even when there was no place available to us in Bethlehem; and even when we fled to Egypt. You must learn to trust My earthly father, St. Joseph who is a model of the love and provision of My heavenly Father. Go to him often for he has a special role, and has been given much power to intervene in worldly events for My church militant. His role is especially designed to be prevalent in these times with My Children of the Renewal."

Thank You, Jesus for this insight, for your lesson and for revealing so much to help us, Lord. Thank You for this beautiful message for my husband, Lord. He was becoming discouraged and I know this will be a treasured message for him. I love You, Lord and continue to be overwhelmed by Your deep love and concern for every detail of our walk with You.

“My child, you have both sensed the need to contact the builder to initiate the process of obtaining the permit, and to begin working with him on the building. This prompting is from My Holy Spirit. Follow through on this as well as the conversation needed with (name withheld). Trust these promptings I give you and when you are not sure they are from Me, bring them to Me in prayer.”

Yes, Lord. Thank You for reminding me of this! Jesus, (name withheld) seems to be very ill, from the report he was given. Please heal him, Jesus. Lead him to physicians who are the best to treat his condition if you do not desire to heal him at this time. Your will is perfect, Lord. I often do not understand it, but I have learned to trust your holy, perfect will. You know how much (name withheld) is needed for you have involved him in such important work, establishing and building the refuge. He has also helped countless people to prepare other places of refuge and even assisted (name withheld) when they were fairly new. I have a hard time believing You would bring him this far, and then allow his health to fail. However, as I said, Your will is perfect, and I do not see the big picture as You do, for I am not God. Lord, I do pray You heal him, and give him many more years of service to You, Lord. We need him, Jesus to help those coming to the refuge, and to establish the community there that will follow. Please, Lord.

“My little lamb, I have specific plans for My son that will continue to unfold, and will not be compromised. My faithful son does all that I ask of him, and he does so valiantly and with a joyful heart. I will protect him as I have always done. He has been called upon to suffer for souls, My child, and his suffering is fully known to only My Mother and I. Do not worry about what will become for him, for I am with him and I only allow what is best for his soul and for the souls of others. He has a specific mission to fulfill and will spend his days fulfilling this mission. Let your heart be at peace. All will be well with him.”

Ok, Thank You, Jesus.

“My child, I know your heart has much love for your friends. I, too, love My children. Continue to pray for those you love, but also have confidence that I love them even more than you do, as I created My children. I am a proud ‘Papa’ who loves and protects My children. I allow suffering when it will benefit their souls and the souls of others as I have illustrated in My message to your husband. You may rest easily knowing that I, God have all under control. As things in your world begin to deteriorate, remember this. All is within My loving care, no matter what it appears to be. Place all under My care, My child. Give your entire family and all of your friends to Me and I will watch over them, guide them and protect them. You know this now, and yet a time is coming that will cause even the strongest to wonder, to doubt. To doubt is human nature, but cast out all fear and doubt and remember; I love and protect My children. If you, My children of light, continue to follow Me, and to ask for My Mother’s help and intercession, your lives and more importantly, your souls will be under Our loving care. No harm can come to your souls even if it does to your bodies, My children. This life, this earthly life is fleeting. Heaven is eternal and when you come here, My children of light, your earthly life will seem so brief in comparison. You will not regret for one moment, the service to Your Jesus, the sacrifices, the masses attended, especially those prayerfully attended. You will rejoice in your service to Me and to your fellowman, My children. I assure you, even the most difficult times you have faced on earth, would gladly be repeated once you realize how much your sacrifices please your Jesus, and how much your lives have been of assistance to your brothers and sisters. Continue to follow Me, Children of the Renewal. Continue to live out the Gospel message of love, of sacrifice, of light. Every prayer, every act of love in these days, in this age of disobedience, brings much more grace and merit; so much more than the same acts done in past times. This is so, because of the great darkness that is present in the current age. This age will give way to the Triumph of My Mother's Immaculate Heart. Rejoice My children, that you have all been chosen to be part of Her little, powerful army to usher in the Triumph of Her Immaculate Heart. These are the times spoken of by My earlier prophets and My holy son, St. Louis de Montfort. Read his words which he penned under inspiration of My Holy Spirit. This son of mine was and is a warrior for My Mother. He prays for you now, Children of the Renewal. Continue to serve Me. Continue to love Me. Continue to act in faith. My Mother is leading you to a new way of life. Follow Her. Read Her words for they are given on behalf of My Heavenly Father. You are living in the age of disobedience, yes, but rejoice My children for I have chosen you, each one of you for a special mission that is destined to be fulfilled only by you—each individual. If you choose not to do My will, your mission will go undone. This was not so in ages past, for there were many more followers who would pick up the load that another brother or sister had dropped. This is not the case today, My dearest children of light. Those who follow Me in this age are fewer and fewer and therefore I, your Jesus am counting on you. This is My plan, that we all work together to bring about the renewal. Pray to seek My direction. Ask, and I will direct you. This is true for all of My children. Come, My children let us begin anew to usher in the new time, the time of My Mother's triumph and the time of the Era of Peace. You were chosen, but you are free to decline or to give your 'yes.' Remember, if you decline, much work will go undone and the negative impact will be vast. I also remind you that in your 'yes', you imitate My beautiful Mother and become part of Her army and this army will usher in Her triumph. Choose light. Choose life. Choose Me, My children. You will be very glad with making this wise choice."

Thank You, Jesus for this exciting confirmation that we can be part of your Mother's army and usher in Her triumph. Praise You, Lord for taking your poor, small children and allowing us to be part of Your plan for the world. Help each and every one of us, Jesus to be faithful followers of You. Jesus, there is nowhere else to go if we do not follow You. You are God! You are life. All else is death, Lord, for eternity. I choose you, my sweet Jesus. I never want to be parted from You, my Lord. Thank You for the gift of the Catholic Church, for the gift of the Incarnation. Thank You for the example of the Magi. May we search, seek and find You as they did, offer our gifts to You (our lives) and be open to your direction, as they were when they returned via a different route to avoid Herod. May we also avoid the Herods of our times. Keep us safe, within Your Sacred Heart and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Help us to always keep our eyes on the Star, your Mother who leads us to You, our Savior. I love You, my Lord, my God and my all. Jesus, I offer my aches and pains to You. Use this small suffering for the benefit of others if it be Your holy will.

"Thank you, My daughter. I accept your gift. I also ask you to suffer awhile longer."

Yes, of course, Jesus. Your will be done.

"Thank you, My beautiful little lamb. I am the Good Shepherd and I love My flock. My sheep hear My voice and recognize their beloved shepherd. All will hear My voice in their hearts, as you do, for one day all will need to hear My voice for very specific direction. Some have this gift earlier, to prepare My other children. All is done in love and according to My will, which is for the good of My children. I love you, all of My children. My daughter, My son, I love you. Give My love to your children and grandson whose birthday you celebrate tomorrow. The angels and saints will be celebrating with you. This is true for all of My children's birthdays, but even more so for their baptism day and for their birthday into Heaven."

Thank You, Jesus! I am so happy to know that You participate in our celebrations of life in Heaven while we are celebrating on earth. Thank You for Your words of encouragement and for teaching us, Lord. Praise You that You love us so much and You prepare us for what is to come. I love You, Jesus!

"And I love you. I bless you in the name of My Father, and in My name, and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Go in peace. Be light. Be love to a darkened world. All of My children of light—be light. Your Jesus is counting on you. Much is at stake."

Thank You, Lord!

January 1, 2015, Adoration Chapel

Happy New Year, Lord. Happy Feast Day, Blessed Mother! Thank You, Lord that You are present in the Blessed Sacrament of the altar, my Lord and my God! Thank You, also for allowing us to visit You, here. Lord, praise You for Your great love and mercy. Jesus, my friend just informed me this morning that her daughter died. I am sure this was unexpected and though I didn't know her daughter or much about her, she seemed to be a very good daughter. Please help my friend and her family in this time of tragic loss. I am terribly sorry for her. Please take her daughter to Heaven. I also pray for my grandson, Lord. He is still sick, though a bit better. I am grateful for the doctors and for antibiotics. He doesn't seem to be responding very well, though. Please heal him, my Jesus. Lord, there are so many needs and concerns on my heart. You know everything, Jesus and You know all of my concerns. I give them all to You. I trust You, Jesus. Thank You for the call from (name withheld) just after I had asked You to let (name withheld) know I needed prayers. You are so merciful and kind, Jesus. I love You and I thank You. Jesus, please bless and protect (priest's name withheld). It is so good that he comes to be with You in Adoration. I know he must love You, so very much. Please protect him from the enemy, my Jesus. Lord, I trust in You for all things and I ask You to increase my love for You. Have You anything to say to me, Jesus?

"Yes, My child. I thank you and your husband for your visit today. I know how tired you are and that you would have preferred to stay home and rest rather than spending time here. I am glad you chose Me especially on the first day of your New Year. Thank you for listening to your husband and the prompting of My Holy Spirit. I placed this in his heart for I desired to be physically present to you both."

Thank You, Jesus. You know I preferred You to staying home and resting. As soon as he shared with me about coming here, I jumped at the chance. It only crossed my mind briefly that I wanted to stay home, but then I thought of You here waiting and I want to take advantage of every opportunity for Adoration; especially since we may not have this wonderful opportunity in the future. I don't want to take Your presence here for granted, Lord. Jesus thank You for inviting us to be here with You today. It is still amazing to think You want to be with us in this way, our King of Kings and Lord of Lords. I adore You, my God and my all!

"Thank you, My little one. It pleases your Jesus to know that you and My son prefer visiting Me to almost anything else you could choose. I love you. Your Jesus will always be grateful for the time you spend with me and for choosing Me over the world. Your choices for Me over things of this world, I notice; even those choices made on a daily basis. I am grateful for even the small things you do each day that demonstrate your love for Me. Do not think, My child that I do not notice your little sacrifices, your small choices for I notice everything and I am well pleased. I do not mean to say that you are perfect, child, and I know you are thinking that I notice each poor choice. You are correct, but I am very pleased with each decision for Me. You are growing in holiness, as is your husband. Continue on the path and follow Me, your Jesus. We work together.”

Ok, Jesus. If You say so, I am glad. I do not see this, but what matters is what You see. You know everything, Lord so You know I love You, though I am still so far from where I desire to be; completely united to You. I suppose I would be in Heaven, though Jesus and I realize there is more work, more growth You want from and for me. Jesus, I am sorry I did not feel like writing, today. I wanted to simply sit here and adore You without writing anything. Please forgive me for being lazy.

“My child, you are not lazy. Perhaps you hesitated slightly for you long to have a ‘normal’ time in Adoration. I understand that it is ‘work’ to write, and that your fingers and hand hurt. I understand. As soon as I asked you to write, you picked up the notebook and pen right away. Your willingness to please Me, pleases Me.”

Thank You, Jesus. Lord, I don’t mind writing so much. It’s just that it seemed to change when You informed me you wanted these conversations posted for others’ to see. I prefer to remain hidden and have things just between us, and yet I know that is being selfish on my part. You are to be shared with the world, Lord. I am Your simple servant and will try to do anything You ask of me. (though I fail many times)

“My child, you are a willing servant, not only that, but also My daughter and My friend. I understand that this feels more like a chore, now as you are not as free as you were; however, it is very important to spread My light to as many of your brothers and sisters as possible. When you were younger, and the time was different in your life, I did not expect you to share My words. You have been and are being formed and brought to a new point in your journey, and consequently it is time now to share what I speak to you for the good of others. Have no concerns about remaining hidden for this is not completely possible for many reasons. My child, I will protect you so that you will remain partially hidden, however there is not any concern on My part for I am with You. You have valid concerns, My little lamb. You may trust that I have all under My control, little one. All will be well. It is time for this message and My words to be shared, and just as My son (name withheld) told you, the way in which I communicate with you is different than the way I communicate with him and others. The words are the same, but the style and tones vary in order that more of My children, your brothers and sisters may be reached. You wouldn’t wish to remain completely hidden knowing that your work to reach souls was going undone, My child, would you? Of course you would not. We both know this, and yet I understand your hesitancy and at times doubting that this is My direction. You are examining your motives and this is good. Would that more of My children did this spiritual exercise. Please, My child continue on no matter the times of discouragement until I, your Jesus tell you otherwise, for there is still much work to do. If it were not so, I would tell you, My little lamb. I assure you that many hearts are being touched and that through these conversations, many children of mine have learned how to pray from the heart. They have learned they can converse with me, their God as you do and for this I am grateful. I love for My children to approach Me in prayer as they do their other friends; having a friendly dialogue. This is very important, for then,

I am able to infuse My love and pour graces into their open hearts. I only need a small opening for My light to penetrate. As more of My children begin to pray, to talk with Me we begin a real relationship and I draw My children closer to My Sacred Heart in this manner. You, My child have no idea the affect on others for this work, but I do and this is why you must continue to trust in Me.”

Ok, Jesus. Thank You. I am sorry for even thinking about this. I should trust You more and I will of course continue for as long as You allow. Jesus, I thank You that You have provided (name withheld) to help me, as she is so good and yet so busy. I know that you put us together, so to speak, for this purpose as well as to give me another beautiful, spiritual friend. I am sorry for the feeling I have sometimes and I ask You to remove this attitude since it is nothing at all, really (not really work on my part) and it is such a joy to know and love You. You really are our entire life, my husband’s and mine. Thank You, Jesus. We love You.

“My child, what you say about Me bringing you and (name withheld) together is true. I have many reasons for this, one of which is this important work. I also bring people of like minds and hearts together, as does My Mother Mary, for We are forming Her army. You and others (names withheld) are to support one another in prayer, to love one another as dear friends, sisters and brothers, in the way My children were intended to love. This love, this friendship is preparing you for the mission My Father has for this world and also preparing you so that you are all comfortable when you come to My heavenly kingdom, for this is the way all of your family in Heaven loves. You must practice loving this way now. All those in Heaven understand one another fully and love one another unconditionally. My children in Heaven feel the deepest love and friendship for one another in Heaven for once in Heaven, you are in the presence of the One who is love. There is only one ‘agenda’ in Heaven and all are united in this, and that is love of God and love of neighbor. All in Heaven, love. This is why, My children must learn to love on earth, for if they do not love on earth, My children will not want to live in Heaven where all is love, truth and beauty My children, it is most important for you to bring My love to others, for many are unloved and do not know what true love from God is. Sadly, many of My children have never experienced love, even from their parents. For those of you who walk with Me, I encourage, I ask, I solicit your demonstration of love to your fellow man. If it is something even as small as a smile at one you pass, give them My smile. Be kindhearted and loving to all you meet even if they do not return your love, your smile, your kindness. That should make no difference to you for it is in giving that you will receive. If you do not receive kindness in return, you will receive a return of thanks from Me, your Savior. Give My love and give it in generous supply, for My gratitude will be returned to you one hundred fold. Children of the light, you know your Savior loves you. What more is needed? If those on earth do not appreciate love it is because they are unaccustomed to being shown love without there being ‘strings attached’ as you say. Believe Me when I say, the love you show others will touch their hearts. Perhaps not right away, or perhaps not when you will know of it, however love does touch almost all hearts. Your kindness, your love provides the movement of the heart in others that grants Me an opportunity to water the seeds of kindness you have planted. A softened heart is more open to the love of God. I need My children to be about the work of softening hearts. Be the balm that soothes the wounded hearts of your brothers and sisters, My Children of the Renewal. This is not the time for debates or arguments with others, but the time for unconditional love. By this, I do not mean one shouldn’t speak up in the face of wrongdoing or incorrect information. No, that is not what I am saying, My beautiful children of the King. What I am asking of you is to be the light of Christ in a darkened world, darkened from sin. When a correction is needed, I expect you to do so, but to pray first to My Holy Spirit and to speak My words, in love. Firmness is often needed, in fact more so now than in days past. Firmness is always correct when done with love. It is not being firm when words are spoken in haste and in anger, for that is called lashing out at others. My children, do not lash out at your brothers and sisters who have wrong attitudes or incorrect thinking, for that is to rub salt in an already open, wound of the heart. You have learned the way I speak, in truth and in love. In this way, you too are to speak for you are My ambassadors that I send to enemy territory 'so to speak'. My children, you are behind enemy lines, but you are ministering to your wounded brothers and sisters who have fallen during the battle. There are many reasons people fall during battle, and usually it is because they are wounded. Some continue on in their woundedness and others fall under the weight of their crosses for they do not look to Me, their Jesus for aid. Therefore, I am counting on you, My children of light to carry your wounded brothers and sisters to safety. Many will not wish to get up and walk for they feel, in their pain, they are better off where they are. You would not leave a wounded soldier to himself behind enemy lines, now, would you? Of course you would not, and therefore you are to bring all manner of assistance to them. But, Jesus, you say, we do not have the expertise to help our wounded brothers and sisters for we are not doctors. To which I say, of course you are not, but I am the Great Physician and I always know what is needed for each and every soul. This is why you are to pray first, then act. Always, always ask your Jesus what I would have you do, and then act. I will guide you. Some may only need a compassionate smile, some a pat on the arm and a simple greeting. Others will need you to listen with love and concern, or to simply sit by their bed as they lay sick or dying. Others perhaps could use a meal cooked and brought to them, or to be invited to your home for dinner. My children, I am asking you to do what sounds simple, and yet I tell you, these simple acts of kindness are few and far between in this world in which you live. Stop and take notice of your neighbors or those with whom you work. Speak with them. Acknowledge them as fellow human beings. My children are hurting and they are not loved. Please be love, My children of light. Your small acts of kindness are very big to a hurting soul. Light beams of love shoot up to Heaven when these acts of love are shown and as I have said on many occasions, the world is in darkness. This should serve to tell you that there are few acts of kindness being done in love. My children, your God will bring about the renewal, but I ask for your assistance, your cooperation with Me in bringing about the renewal. Be love. Be light. Be mercy. Open your eyes and take notice of those around you. Speak to them. Acknowledge them as the worthwhile children of the living God that they are and many hearts will be open and receptive to Me. Come My children, let us begin anew. Bring Your Jesus to a world in darkness. I love you. I ask much of those I love."

Thank You, Jesus. We will begin anew. It is a great time for us to do so, being January 1st. Mary, Mother of God help us to be more like You. Help us to live the Gospel of Jesus. Thank You for being the perfect model of a Christian disciple. Help us, Mother Mary to be little apostles of Yours, pointing the way to Jesus. Give us graces, dearest Mother Mary, for love, for joy, for bearers of the light of Christ. Help us during our pilgrimage on earth to reach Heaven, bringing many, many brothers and sisters with us. Holy men and women of Heaven, all you saints, pray for us. Help us with your prayers to be all that Jesus desires of us. Thank You, Jesus for Your love!

"You are most welcome, My beautiful daughter. I bless you in My Father's name, in My name, and in the name of My Holy Spirit, go in My peace. Go in the light of My love."

Thank You, my Jesus. I love You!

"And I love you, daughter of My heart."
