

September 4, 2022 Adoration Chapel

Hello, my dearest Jesus present in this Most Blessed Sacrament. Thank You for the opportunity to be with You today! Thank You for Mass and Holy Communion. Thank You also for the encounter with You in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. I am grateful for Your infinite love and mercy. Lord, it's been a difficult week, filled with sorrow and many challenges, especially the death of our beautiful (name withheld). Jesus, I am also grateful to You and to (name withheld) that she was able to receive the Sacraments again and the Apostolic Pardon. How joyful she must have been knowing her soul was at peace and she would soon see You face-to-face. What indescribable joy she must have experienced when she arrived in Heaven reunited with her family members and friends and all who have been praying for her, not to mention being in Your presence and that of the Blessed Mother and St. Joseph. Incredible! So many mixed emotions, Lord; sadness, deep sorrow, gratitude, relief, concern, pain, confidence, etc. It seems like a roller coaster in some ways. (Not to mention all that is going on at work and the darkness surrounding us in the culture.) It seems to be 'everywhere' although I know that is not entirely true. It does seem so. Lord, please send Your Holy Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

"My child, My child, My little child, remember the parable of the cave and the light? My children are small and do not feel they outnumber those who are evil. They often feel the temptation to lose hope, to despair or to become indifferent. Overcome these temptations, My children. You feel this way because you have taken your eyes off Me. Focus on Me, on My greatness, My power, My wisdom, My knowledge, My mercy and love. Do not focus on the evil deeds. There is much going on beneath the surface that you do not know, that you cannot see, but in the end, all will be made visible. I see everything and I know everything, My children. Evil cannot be hidden from God. I see all good acts, also. These kind, generous, loving acts of My children are like refreshing, cool springs of water on the hottest of days. Give this to others, My Children of Light. Give them kindness, love, and mercy. When you convey generosity, kindness, mercy you are being messengers of hope. Remember, your help is in the name of the Lord and you must be this help to others. Be conveyers of the Gospel message and show even the most unlovable person love."

"My child there is much work to do, I realize. I know for I am asking that you learn how to grow food and preserve it in order to feed your family and those I send you. You are correct to consider adding another garden. It will be easier to do now than later. While I know there is much to do I also stress again to you that you must rest more. If you do not rest, you will not have the strength or stamina to do what I ask of you. You also need more reliance on Me, My child. I am your Father and I will provide. This does not seem logical in earthly terms; get more rest to accomplish more, but rely on Me versus your own strength. No, to the world this does not sound rational. I remind you that My ways are not the ways in which the world operates. However, this is precisely why the world is in such a state. Many have no idea how to trust in God, many do not even believe in God. Others have abandoned the Faith given to them by their loved ones. Some say that I am not real but a figment of peoples' imagination, or a crutch to lean on out of desperation. My Children of Light, you are not to live in this manner. You believe in God and love God, therefore live as if you believe and love Me. You must be different from those with no faith and it must be obvious to others that you are different due to your holiness and your love. I am calling you to be set apart from others but not to be looking down your noses at them, not haughty or prideful. It is by your goodness, your holiness, your love, compassion, and mercy that you are to be set apart. Do not snub the one who is homeless. Instead, offer a drink of water, some food, a smile, a prayer. Be kind, as if this is your brother or sister and you are happy to find them at last. Be welcoming in your heart, if not in your homes (which some of you are called to provide even lodging, but not all due to young children in the home, etc.) and be sincere for these really are your brothers, sisters, mothers and fathers. We are all family. God is your Father, My little ones and you are all very special to Me. When you love those who seem to be unlovable, you are showing love to Me, your Jesus. Remember this, My Children of Light. Do not be like the children of darkness who focus only on their self-centered goals, promoting themselves to gain more power, ignoring those in need around them because they do not wish to see something 'ugly' or someone in poverty. They focus on those who are wealthy, powerful and influential for they desire wealth, power, influence and fame. Little do they realize their souls become increasingly covered in the darkness of sin due to lust, greed, haughtiness and pride. Their souls become 'ugly' to Heaven and if it wasn't for My great mercy and love, many would be left alone to die painful deaths on earth and to live even more painful days in the pits of hell. This is not My Will, My Children of Light. I stand ready and waiting to welcome them into My holy arms, to forgive them and save them from eternal damnation. My Children of Light, this is where you come in. I choose you to participate with Me and My Holy Immaculate Mother Mary to bring the light of faith to them. It is through My people and up to My people to pass on the Faith to others. It is the Father's plan for salvation that you cooperate with Me to make My love known. If it were not so, I would not have established My Holy Apostolic Church. I would not have entrusted My Holy Apostles and My disciples to spread the Gospel, to preach, forgive and to show mercy. I would not have sent My Apostles out two by two to Baptize and forgive sins, to heal the sick, counsel and admonish the sinner, help the elderly, the orphans and widows."

"My children, I treated everyone I met with kindness and mercy. When met with resistant souls due to their evil cunning or their lack of faith, I lovingly and sometimes sternly corrected them or explained the truths of the Faith. Read the Gospels where much of what I did and said can be found. I say 'much' because I did even more but it was too much to record. My Apostles passed on what was needed and all that they could remember that was essential for My Church. It is the Word of God and contains much wisdom and power, yet is simple enough for mere children to understand. You see, I am approachable for the wise intellectual and also for the little babes. I make Myself approachable out of My deep love for My children. I love all of My children. I love each one of you, individually as if you were the only person on earth. I love even the hardest heart and the worst sinner. Please pray for souls who do not know Me, do not love Me. My poor, poor children who hurt themselves and so many people around them. They are very sad and angry. They have many wounds. They do not know what they are missing. If only they believed. Their lives would be instruments of hope and healing to others. They would be filled with hope and peace. My Children of Light, I am counting on you to bring Me to these. Be a witness to what a life in Christ is. Be a witness to the hope, the mercy, the peace, the joy. In order to be a witness, you must first be people of love. Emulate My life, My children. Pick up your crosses. Embrace your crosses. Walk forward in the footsteps of your Jesus and keep your eyes on Me. When you see one who is less fortunate, see Me in them. Some of the less fortunate are not impoverished materially but are less fortunate due to a lack of love. My children there are many who are in need and they live all around you. Some live in your own families. Be present to others, My children. You are preoccupied with many things and therefore you are unable to be fully present to someone sitting in the same room. My children, do not allow family members to feel all alone when you are sitting beside them. Speak with your family members. Find out how they are and what is concerning them. Speak with one another. Do not be afraid. I will guide you, My children."

"My little one, the storm is brewing. Please increase your prayers for those who have been and are being led astray. Prepare as I direct you. My son (name withheld) will be given graces for strength and perseverance as you finalize your preparations. I will send others to help as needed and you must also ask others. Be humble, My children. All of My children, you must know you cannot do everything by yourselves. I am forming you and will continue to form you to help each other and to live in communities of believers. This will dramatically change (and are changing) and it is time, if you have not already done so to reach out to those I have sent and have brought together. You know who these other Children of Light are for you have been identified as children of My Mother, other faith filled and wise souls who can tell the signs of the times. Begin to unite by helping one another. The Holy Spirit is at work among and in you so do not be afraid. You can do much more working together. Be wise, be humble, be confident in My assistance. All of Heaven intercedes for you. Graces flow from Heaven to you, My children. Be open. Be receptive to them. Be in a state of grace by frequenting the Sacraments and you will be much more disposed to receive the graces you are being saturated in, My children. Have trust in Me and live for your Jesus. All will be well. Let us begin this week anew. My angels are being sent like never before to guard and to guide you. I love you, My little children. Be meek and mild and anchored in faith, hope and love. Their lies your strength."

Go now, My (name withheld) and My (name withheld) to live in My love. Your sister (name withheld) prays for you. I bless you in the name of My Father, in my name, the Son and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Be at peace, My children. Be at peace so you may give My peace to others.”

Thank You, Lord. Amen! Amen! Amen!
