

November 27, 2022 Adoration Chapel

Hello my Jesus present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love You and am glad to be here with You today. Thank You for this opportunity. Thank You for Holy Mass and Holy Communion. Thank You for every encounter with people You put in my path last week. Thank You for my friends and most especially for my family members. It was so nice to be with many of them this week, Jesus. We missed those who were not able to be there. Bless all those who have lost loved ones, Jesus and take the souls of all who died this year to Heaven. I pray for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory. Please allow many to be released from Purgatory to join their angels and saints in Your Kingdom. Lord, I pray for all young people, especially those who have not yet been baptized. Pour special graces out upon them and upon their parents so they all desire and are able to receive this important, this crucial Sacrament. Do not allow the little ones to be deprived of their birthright, Lord. I pray for all who are separated from the Catholic Church for various reasons. Please unite all Christians in the Church You established on earth, Jesus. Lord, I pray also for those who do not know the love of God and for those who reject Your love. May their hearts be open to receive the Good News and may they long to hear it. Jesus, please help all who are called to be priests, hear Your call and answer You with their fiat! Protect Your holy priest sons and all religious brothers and sisters from the enemy. Lord, the faithful are being persecuted. Your Church is in the Garden and is beginning to undergo the Passion. May we walk faithfully and courageously in Your footsteps, Lord. Give us courage, temperance, fortitude and make us faithful even to the end. Be with us, Jesus. We have no one else but You, however You are all we need. Jesus, I trust and I hope in You.

“My child, My child, stay the course and continue doing all I have asked. Pray each day as I have requested. This is for your protection and that of your entire family. Do not become weary of prayer. I know My children are physically tired, but you must not become spiritually tired. Do not give in to the temptation to think your prayers don't matter. They matter to Me and to all in Heaven. They matter to the souls in Purgatory. One day you will be shown how much your prayers affected those on earth. Pray, My children, pray and do not stop especially now when they are so desperately needed for souls. My children, this is what it is to be spiritually mature. It is like other responsibilities you have in life. A mature person works, even though it isn't always pleasant, or the thing you want to do on a certain day. However, when it is time to work, you do so regardless of how you feel because it is a responsible thing to do, to support one's family. You may not want to get out of bed at night when one of your children is crying, but you do so anyway out of loving concern. This is how you must also approach prayer. Do this even when it seems dry and obligatory. There will be times it will be a joy for you, but these joyful times filled with consolation will be even sweeter because of the times you prayed when it seemed like work. The times of sweetness will certainly not come if one never prays, or prays infrequently. Learn to pray from your hearts. Bring your concerns to Me, My children. Think of My life and the many events revealed to you in Sacred Scripture. Reflect on the times in My life that are unknown or 'hidden' and not recorded in Scripture. I experienced some of the same struggles you experience. Reflect on these, My children. I am with you and I understand the hardships you face, the loneliness, the grief when a loved one dies, the rejections, betrayals, the laughter of children, the warmth of family and friends, longing for souls who rejected God, the desire for their conversion, and many other trials you face. I understand, My little children and yet you will also experience the resurrection by being faithful to all that was handed down to you. Continue to follow Me, My beautiful Children of Light. I assure you, you will not be disappointed when you enter My Heavenly Kingdom. Remain steadfast, My children. Souls are in need of your holy examples of love.”

Jesus, I pray for Holy Mother Church, she is being attacked, Lord and many people have left or are leaving. Please open the eyes of those who are blind and do not see what they are doing to Your Church. For those who are aware but have evil intentions, change their hearts, Lord. Work miracles in the souls who reject their vocations and choose to live double lives rather than shepherd Your people. Heal them, Jesus for many of them have been wounded by others. Forgive them, Lord and give them graces for conversion that they can no longer refuse. Jesus, help them to choose You, our highest good.

“My daughter, My daughter, My little one, thank you for your prayers for the shepherds. Some will change, My (name withheld) but many will not for they are too mired in sin and corruption and they have no desire to humble themselves. One who follows Me is a servant to others. The ones who cooperate with evil are filled with pride and they have no desire to change.”

Lord, won't they change even during the 'Illumination of Conscience'?

“Some of the shepherds who have become corrupted by evil will, but most will not. My child, this is difficult to understand for My followers, but you must realize that even I could not change Judas' heart because he would not allow it. He would not humble himself to accept My forgiveness and My assistance. He chose instead to serve the evil one who fed his own pride. Even at the end when he realized what he had done, he did not desire repentance and conversion for that was too humiliating for him. He was instead in complete despair and did not have any faith in God. He focused only on himself, even to the end and did not lift his eyes toward Heaven. He could have run to one of his brother Apostles and begged for mercy. They would have forgiven him and taken him into the circle of love, but he did not want to be humiliated (or be humbled). You see, My child this is why My children must not wait to repent. Some wait too long and then they only hear the voice of the tempter. They no longer know or hear My voice. This is another reason why you must never stop praying. Be close to Me, My children for My very name will give you strength and protection. I love you and I gather My children all over the world to My Sacred Heart, your refuge. My Mother encloses you in Her mantle of protection and holds you closely to Herself. The evil one dare not approach Her, so you are safe with My beautiful, holy Mother. Allow Her to teach you how to be a good disciple. She was and is the perfect one. She knows Me better than anyone else and She is a good Mother and teacher. Ask Her to teach you to love Me as She did. She will never disappoint you, My Children of Light.”

“This is all for now, My little lamb. Be at peace. I desire you and My son (name withheld) to pray for joy in the midst of the storm. This will give others confidence. Pray for light hearts. I know there is much asked of you and often the load becomes heavy. Come to your Jesus and ask for My help. I will at times lighten your burdens or send others to help you carry them. Learn to do all things with joyful hearts, My children. This you must do to emulate Me, your Jesus. Know that I am with you at all times and I see everything you are going through. Things are not so difficult when your best friend is at your side, isn't that so? Remember this, My children for I walk with each and every one of My friends. Go now in My peace. I bless you in the name of My Father, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Be mercy. Be peace. Be love. Be joy. I am with you. All will be well.”

Thank You, Lord. Amen! I love You!
