

September 18, 2022 Adoration Chapel

Hello my Jesus present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I adore You and I love You, my Redeemer. Thank You for the opportunity to go to Confession and Mass yesterday and for Mass and Holy Communion this morning. What beauty and richness! Thank You for the gift of the Sacraments and especially the Mass where we receive the most sacrosanct of all, Your very self-body, blood, soul and divinity poured out for us, Jesus. Thank You for seeing over 2,000 years ago that we would need You so desperately in the Eucharist. (You actually knew this before all time...) Oh, Eucharistic Lord, You are my all, my everything. That You provide such an opportunity for me, and for all Your children to adore You is richness beyond measure. Thank You, Jesus! Thank You for making Yourself accessible to Your Church, the Body of Christ. Lord, so many people in Your Church, laity, priests, religious, Bishops, etc., are in such a mess. Lives have been torn apart, families, neighborhoods, communities, parishes because of mankind's sinfulness. There is much confusion as a result, many lost souls, and so much collateral damage. Oh, Jesus please save souls. Pour out Your divine grace like torrents of rain on souls who are lost. Help them to open their hearts to Your love, Your mercy, Your peace. Everywhere I look when I am either at work or in a public place, I see bleeding, broken hearts hidden beneath facades. Some are cloaked in gender "confusion", some in wounds from child or spousal abuse, some from irregular unions, some have deep feelings of inadequacy, or overwhelming stresses and strains from financial concerns, loneliness and feelings of betrayal, rejection and abandonment. Oh, Lord everywhere I look people are hurting. We, Your children must all be 'walking wounded' Lord. We are all in need of being rescued and I see the Sacrament of Reconciliation as a sort of triage station for souls where we can receive first aid. There is nothing sweeter to me than hearing the words of a priest say, "I absolve you from your sins. In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Go in peace, your sins are forgiven." What mercy! Thank You, Lord for Your infinite mercy on humanity. Thank You for being the good physician and for not only knowing just what we need, but for providing it as well. How gracious You are. Please reach those who do not yet know or do not yet love you.

I pray for my cousin (name withheld) who died without the benefit of being in the Church. Have mercy on his soul, My sweet Jesus. I don't think he believed in You, though his father was a minister. Lord, have mercy on him. You know all things, Jesus and You knew his wounds and his entire life story. You knew and know his heart. I entrust him to Your merciful heart and hope that You revealed Yourself to him before his soul left his body so that he could genuinely and freely choose the Beloved God above all things. Jesus, I trust in You. Jesus, I trust in You. Jesus, I trust in You. There must be countless souls who live and die rejecting the one true, holy and all-powerful God. Give them miraculous graces for conversion, Lord. Send Your Holy Spirit and renew the face of the earth. Lord, please bless the youth who are often immersed in the culture of death and destruction. They are exposed to propaganda in the school systems, the media and have no grounding (many of them) in reality. Send holy mentors to them, Jesus so they will come to know and love You and in turn will understand the purpose of their lives, why they were created and the high calling You have for them. There are many sheep without shepherds, Lord and only You can protect them/us. Jesus, You have given us instructions for living in these times. I beg Your protection of our holy priests, many who are being persecuted. We need them to be active in their ministries, Jesus especially when there is such a need for them. Instead, they have been sidelined, benched, and it is time they re-entered the game, Lord. Please provide the avenue for this to occur. After all, this is Your Church, Lord and You are the great Shepherd.

"My child, My child all of these things are well within My power to do. More prayers, sacrifices and penance is needed for souls that are hardened and have only love of themselves. Offer Masses for them, Rosaries and Divine Mercy Chaplets. My little one, you are struggling with many concerns. I am working in the lives of those you are praying for. Be at peace. I encourage you and My son to be generous with your time. Allow space for those in need. I realize you have much work to do and that you are tired. Lean on Me for the strength needed. Trust in Me. Ask for assistance and guidance from My Mother and from St. Joseph. Pray for grace and direction. I am with you. Be at peace. I cannot stress this enough. When you are lacking in peace come to the fount of peace. Ask for My peace. Pray for the souls who come to you in need. Not all of these souls will ask for your help, but help them anyway. You often will not know how to best help them, but remember that I know what is needed. I will give you the words to say. I will prompt you when to speak and when to remain silent. Remember, My child that I too knew fatigue. I also knew what it was to be exhausted, but still needed by others. Do not be concerned about this trying time in your lives. Remember, My disciples carry Me to the world. The entire world is weary from sin and death. If you do not help these souls, who will? I ask this question of all of My Children of Light. Rest when you can so that you have more energy for prayer and good works. But, do not be self-focused saying, 'This is my day off. This is my time to sit and put my feet up.' I ask each of you, who gives you the chair to sit in, the bed in which to sleep, the clothes on your back and food for your families? All these things come from God, My children. You have what you need, because I provide for you. I allow others to go without because either they have made poor choices and have more to learn about love and sacrifice, or because those responsible for them are unable to fulfill their duties. There is no state in life that is such because of a lack of love from God. The poor are with you and in the world because of a lack of love from their fellow man. You have all the resources needed and more for every person created. There is plenty for all. It is only through greed, corruption, sin, pride, envy, etc. that there are poor and vulnerable. I did not create My beloved children to live in such a degrading state of sin and greed. I created all out of love and the generosity of a benevolent Father. You, My children cannot cure the ills of society by yourself, but working with God and by the graces and gifts of the Holy Spirit, hearts can and will change. What I call you to do is to love, to sacrifice for others, to look beyond your own situation and help others anyway. I am not only referring to giving money, My children. Even those who live in poverty give out of their need. Yes, not only do they give generously, they often are holy examples of living the Gospel message. Do not put such limitations on yourself saying, 'I don't have enough time, I don't have enough money, etc.' Say rather, 'Lord, how can I help? What would You have me do? Lord, I do not have enough energy to do one more thing, so give me Your energy. Give me Your desire. Give me Your Will.' My children focus too much on the obstacles facing them, than on the One who can do the impossible. I can do all things, My children and therefore when you are united to Me, I can do all things through you. Learn to live outside of your comfort zones, My children. A time is coming and will soon be here that will bring much change to your lives. Be open to change for love of God. Be joyful. Each difficulty includes a gift for you. It does not appear so at first but you will, through your 'fiat' to Me, come to know and understand what I gave you in return for each and every sacrifice done with love. Open your hearts, My children so that I can use you to touch the hearts of others. All will be well, My children especially so when you cooperate with the life of grace. I am in your midst. Love your neighbor for I am there in your neighbor. Love the poor, for I am in the poor. Love the one who rejects you and pray for those who persecute you. Your love and prayers will win their soul for the Kingdom and if they choose otherwise those blessings will flow back to you. Extend yourselves first for your family and then for those in need (not just your friends) even those who are unlovable. I will work miracles, My Children of Light when so much love is being given by you. Be of good cheer. This is a time of great grace and I am raising many saints. Focus on Me. All will be well. Pray for the world. Grand change is coming and I desire My little children, under the mantle of My Holy Mother Mary to be part of this change."

"This is all for now, My little lamb. There is one who needs you. Remember My words. All will be well. Be at peace. I am always with you, holding your hand and giving you courage. I bless you and My son in the name of My Father, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Go now, My child and live each day knowing that Your Father is the God of all and you are His precious child."

Thank You, my Lord and my God. Amen! Alleluia! Reign always, reign in my small heart, Lord. I love You!

"And I love you."
