

August 3, 2014, Adoration Chapel

Hello, Jesus ever present in the Blessed Sacrament and in my heart. I love You, praise You, and adore You hidden in the Holy Eucharist. Thank You that we are able to be with you today, Lord. Thank You for holy Mass this morning. Thank You for the many blessings You give us and for giving us holy priests, Lord. Thank You for this sunshine and beautiful weather. I love You, Lord.

“Thank you for being here with Me today My little one. I know you wanted to stay home and enjoy the warmth of the sun and yet you heard My quiet invitation to come visit Me in Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament where I am present to all of My children. I love you, My child.”

I love You, Jesus. Thank You that You wait for us here . Thank You for Your presence in the tabernacles all over the world. You are most merciful and generous with Your love and presence, Jesus.

“My child, I love you and all of My children in the world. I desire all be saved and for none to perish. My children must turn their lives around and come back to Me before it is too late. Time is growing short and I have said through many of My messengers, mankind must repent or perish. Each person will stand before Me for their individual judgment and this has been the case ever since the gates of Heaven were opened by Me. What I am saying now, though, pertains to these times which are like no other. Do not allow evil to rule in your hearts, My lost children. While you are living in these days of grace, return to your Jesus. I will forgive everything and take you into My Sacred Heart. All will be made clean and you can begin anew to walk with Me, Your Jesus, Your Savior. Do not wait for you do not know the hour that will be your last. Turn your heart toward Your God so that you can share in your inheritance, which is My heavenly kingdom. My little ones, you live as if this world was what is the most important thing in your lives. You live as if there was ‘no tomorrow.’ This is a lie. Do not allow yourselves to be deceived. One day, your life will end and what will you say to your God when you are standing face to face with complete truth? What will you say when you have to give an account of your life? Will you say you lived your whole life for yourself and for every pleasure you could extract from worldly pursuits? Will you say you lived for your career, for promotions, money, power, and a life of being entertained? Will you say you lived to cheat on your spouse to use them for your own gratification, only to toss them aside when a younger more attractive person came along, and then another, and another with no concern for the little children I gave you until they, longing and desperate for your attention got caught up in a life of misery and drugs looking for anything that they could find to soothe their lonely confused hearts? Is this what you want to say when you are standing in My presence? Keep in mind, My lost little wayward ones, you will not be able to lie to your God when you are standing before Me. For in the presence of the essence of truth, one is unable to lie. Every heart and every soul will be laid bare before the Lord God at judgment time. Walk with me now, My children. I have mercy and compassion for My prodigal ones who are washed clean by their tears of repentance and the blood which I shed on Calvary. Take heart. It is not too late if you only ask Me for forgiveness now while you are still living. All can be and will be forgiven if you only desire to change and have true contrition for your sins. Aren't you tired of living a lie, My children? It is a lie for you to live as if there is no tomorrow, for there is a future to be lived in Heaven or a future to be lived in hell, the eternal fire that is an eternity of suffering, hate, and misery. Choose life, My children. Come out of the darkness and into the light, My children. This is what was intended for you. You were meant for Heaven and before you reach Heaven, you were meant to walk your earthly journey with Me, your Jesus of mercy. I am love, compassion, mercy, joy, hope, and I am your friend. Come now, do not turn your back on the best friend you could ever have because of your pride. No,

My children, do not do this, for to reject your Jesus is to reject all love, all life, and to reject your inheritance, which is Heaven. Your rejection of Me, your rebellion, your selfishness, and greed grieves My Sacred Heart and My Mother's Immaculate Heart. She sheds many tears for you and prays you will return to Me. Oh, if you could only hear how My Mother, who is beautiful, holy, pure, and so warm and loving cries for you it would melt your heart of stone. You have only to return to the safety of your heavenly family by asking Me for forgiveness and then clothing yourself in humility and virtuous living. In this way you can live as one of My true disciples and take My good news to others. You will then be part of My mission to save souls, dearest little one, for there is much work to do and so many in a serious state, themselves. I need you, little wayward soul to help Me rescue your brothers and sisters from perdition. There are not enough warriors for Christ. Decide for Me today, for tomorrow may not come. Do not waste another moment, but hasten to return to me. The hour is short and darkness is upon you. My adversary gives you power but only the kind that destroys you. The power I give will renew your heart and soul and spill out on the world for others. My graces are for love and life and in the process of bringing your darkened soul back to the light, others will be saved as well. My power seeks out the lost and brings him back to the fold. My power brings restoration to families, brings those who were once dead back to life. My power does not destroy, it restores, renews, refreshes your important work for God on earth. I bring you to Heaven to rejoice for all eternity in My Father's kingdom. Choose life, My children. Come, join your brothers and sisters of the light. They will welcome you with open arms. You will be accepted as part of My Father's family if you only repent and walk the road of conversion. You will not walk it alone, so do not fear. I will walk with you and I will send others to keep you company and provide you with support on your journey. I love you, My children and I am sad without your love. Console your Jesus by returning to Me. I love you. All of Heaven awaits your return to Me, your Jesus of Mercy."

Thank you, Jesus, for Your mercy, for Your love, and for Your pleas for all to return to the safety of Your Sacred Heart. Lord, You are our only refuge and hope. Jesus, I am sorry for the times I have disappointed You, for the times I have not had the sense of urgency to pray for those who have not experienced the love of God, or who have turned their backs on You. Your pleas reignite My understanding of the urgency of the times and the need for continual conversion. Help me to do all that You ask. Help Me never to forget my brothers and sisters in need of prayer. I love You dearest Savior of the world. Thank You for Your love.

"My little lamb, all is forgiven. I plead with My children of light to pray for their brothers and sisters, to offer sacrifices and fast for their return to me, their God. Pray the rosary and Divine Mercy Chaplet. Have Masses said for the conversion of the lost little ones. Be kind to those you meet. Pray for those who persecute or offend you, for in this way you return unkindness for love and My grace is poured out through you. Do not underestimate the value of one act of kindness, or even one smile. Your prayers go before you and prepare the way, just like rose petals strewn upon the aisle in preparation for a bride who will join her groom to be married on their wedding day. Your prayers, and those of all My children of light, prepare the path on which acts of kindness and mercy from My children will travel to My lost, wayward children in desperate need of love, of My love. Prayer, sacrifices, kindness, and mercy will open hardened hearts even by just a crack and then My graces can be poured into hearts, soothing and refreshing and shining the light of faith. Children of the Renewal, you must work in the vineyards for Me, your Jesus. Your nightly prayers, especially the family rosary is a weapon in the Lord's army. The holy Mass, the most powerful weapon is saving souls every time a Mass is said in the world. This is why My adversary and yours wants to stop the Mass. Yes, My children of light, satan wants to close every church on earth and stop the dispensing of graces to My children in need. This is why I have said, and continue to remind you that the gates of hell will not prevail against My church. Dearest children of My heart, wake up and see the meaning of this statement. Reflect on it. When I say the gates of hell will not prevail against My church, do you see that I am also saying satan will rage against you? My adversary wages war against My church as he attempts to do his evil deeds to bring death and destruction to the world and to every soul created in My image and likeness. The gates of hell will not prevail against My church, but this also means the gates of hell will try to prevail against My church. For this, you must pray, fast, offer sacrifices, and offer masses for My church, and for all living outside of My one, true, Apostolic church. My children, those who love and follow Me do not become complacent just when times are the most urgent. Do not become too weary to fight the great battle for souls, for it is now that your Jesus is in most need of your assistance. Come, My children of light; pray, pray, pray. You do not see how very effective your prayers are and those of your children, but Heaven knows and sees and urges you on. You are nearing the time when there will be nothing more you can do and God will step in and purify the earth. You will not want to make it safely through this time, knowing you could have done much more to help those who will wail and gnash their teeth. When you come to Heaven, you will be glad you did all that you could within your state in life to help your Jesus. I have said all will be well and it will, however I am counting on My children, My remnant to take up your cross and follow Me, Jesus. In this way, you share in My Passion, but you also share in My Resurrection. Continue on now My children while there is still time for the lost to be found. I am counting on My holy remnant to be light to souls in darkness. This darkness covers the earth like never before. It is difficult for My children of this generation to understand the perilous state of the world for they have little with which to compare. My holy souls of previous generations shudder to think that you are exposed to so much evil of which you are gravely unaware. I call you now to attention and to engage anew in prayer and a life of faith. Make the church, the sacraments, especially the Eucharist your life. Begin anew a life of prayer. Renew your fasting. Read the scripture and begin family prayer. 'But, Jesus', you say, 'we do not have enough time to do all that You ask.' Then, I say, you are too busy with nonessentials. You must examine your daily life and see what can be eliminated in order to make space for living for Me, Jesus. Your souls and those of your children and your brothers and sisters are at stake. Time is growing short. Your many activities, sports, entertainment and your social life will not save you or the souls of your children. I am calling you to examine every activity of your family and of your life with Me. I will show you what is important and what needs to be eliminated. Come, My children, if you do not live holy lives, lives with meaning and purpose, lives of simplicity, how will your lost brothers and sisters know how to do so, or even where to look for holy examples? Children, take your rightful place in God's family and return to a holy example of My domestic church. You, My children of light are to shine for others to see. You are not to blend in to the culture of death and run yourselves and your families ragged aspiring worldly accolades, that glitter now, but fade and tarnish with your earthly lives. No. You are called. You are chosen. You are to be set apart. You are in the world but not of the world. Examine your lives with Me. I will give you clarity to see where changes are needed. This is a war for souls, My dearest children of the light and I need you prepared for battle. You must first change your way of life, removing the noisy distractions, and begin to pray. Simplify your lives so you have room for prayer. Anything else is of no use. I am begging My children to follow Me on the narrow path. This path is narrow for your own protection, so you do not stray from your Jesus. Keep your eyes on Me, dearest children of My Sacred Heart. My Mother will help you if you ask Her. She modeled a perfect life of holiness and virtue and she is a perfect teacher. She is your Mother and Mine. I share Her with you, as you all need a Mother who will lead you to Me. What better person in the world to lead you to Me than My own Mother who knows Me more intimately than anyone. She is in perfect unity with the Most Holy Trinity. If you are unsure of the way, ask Her to take your hand and guide you to Me. She will not refuse one request for guidance from Her children and Mine. She waits for you with an open heart, Her Immaculate Heart, and open arms. Come, children. Do not waste another precious moment. Time is of the essence in this battle for souls. My child, this is a most difficult message for you for you feel My pleading, My longing, My sense of urgency. Continue to write My words, for there are many souls in desperate need of prayers. Many will die this very night with no one praying for them if My children fail to pray. Do not underestimate the value of your prayers, My child. All of My children's prayers have much power to save souls, for I will it. This is the hour of grace. When these days end, and I tell you they will for the Age of Disobedience is coming to an end, there will be no more time for the souls who choose darkness. The time of the greatest trials and the following purification are upon you. Walk toward Me while there is still time."

Jesus it seems there is so little time and yet You have asked us to begin communities and for those preparing refuges You have asked them to do so quickly. Lord, in my human mind, which cannot see time as You do, I do not see how we can begin a new community and have all in place in time for the time of great trials and the purification. Please, intervene with Your power, Lord, and set things in motion from Heaven so the approvals and permits are obtained. Lord, you said the delay would work in our favor to keep us hidden a bit longer and then all would proceed quickly and I believe You, Lord. Due to Your sense of urgency and that there is so much work to do (that hasn't even begun) we need You to intervene, Lord. Go before us, Jesus like You did for the Israelites when You lead them out of Egypt. Go before us with your fiery light and power of the Holy Spirit and secure all that is needed to proceed with haste. Lord, we Your children are trying to follow You and Your Blessed Mother to form communities. Many people labor to jump through every worldly hoop to do Your will and yet we feel as though we are spinning our wheels. Lord, if this is Your will, so be it. If it is Your will that we form communities, then please remove the obstacles so we can do all You are asking us to do. We love You, Jesus and want to do Your will. If time is of the essence as I believe it is, then make haste to help us to do our small part to form communities under the Blessed Mother's mantle. If You are only testing us, and making us stronger in our faith and trust, so be it. Do what You will with us Lord, for our lives, and those of all You say You will send us are in Your hands. If You do want us to form communities, and You must for Your Mother and You have said so, then please intervene in human affairs with Your Divine grace and power to remove every single obstacle to the accomplishment of Your will. We are mere humans, Lord and there is only so much we can do. You, Lord can do all things. We need You for everything, Lord. We are even unable to do Your will unless You help us to do so. We are weak, but You are all powerful. We are simple minded, but You are omniscient. We are finite and only able to make small steps on the road of progress. You, Lord are infinite and brought the entire world into being by willing it, Lord, there is nothing You can't do and I ask You, as my Lord, my King, and my God to build Your community that Our Lady desires. Help us to see if we are missing something obvious. Remove every barrier, Jesus and bring Your plans to fruition, Lord for You say the hour is short and darkness is upon us. Then, You must help us and help us now to build the communities You so desire, for we are helpless without You, Lord, but we are trying to follow You. Help us, Jesus. There is nothing we can do on our own, but with You everything is possible. Regardless, Jesus, Your will be done. I accept and trust in Your holy, precious will.

"My child, your prayers can melt the very heart of God for your love and sincerity to please Me and to follow My will for your life. You long to begin the mission I have entrusted to You and My son and to the entire community. This fledgling community, that will be a unified family and will bring many souls into the Era of Peace is My will and is a special plan in the heart of My Mother, who also waits patiently for Her Son to remove all obstacles so that her little flock can begin to build this community so special in Her sight. My little lamb, I am working, though you cannot see this. To you it appears little progress is being made and yet I am laying a firm foundation. In your work, you often tell people the planning phase of any project is the longest phase of the entire plan. However, with proper planning and the right attention to detail, the rest of the project phases progress smoothly and efficiently. Risks are mitigated and reduced with proper planning and you assure others that this lengthy planning time will be well worth the outcome. My little one, I assure you in the same way. If it takes one to two years to implement a large project, how much time does it take to plan for, build, and establish an entire community. I assure you, it doesn't take your God anytime at all, however, I must first work in the hearts of stubborn community leaders, who have small vision and do not understand the ways of God working through His people, let alone the signs of the times. This takes time and your God is a patient God for I pursue the best possible outcome for all involved, including My children who are leaders of this community. Take heart and know that your Jesus is at work. Soon after your meeting, you will see much progress and this is why I stress the importance of preparing your house to sell. Trust in Me, your Jesus, to bring My plans to fruition in time for you to prepare for and accept My priest sons and the little children in need of a home and loving parents. My child, My longing for souls is one that you share and this is why you are anxious to begin and yet I know the many tasks you have to do to prepare your family. I love you and I remain involved with your life and that of your family. Many things, that you cannot see, are beginning to fall into place. My child, I am working out the details in the lives of all of My children of the Renewal to prepare them for the missions that I and My Father in Heaven have for you. Take heart, pray, trust, receive the Sacraments, remain in a state of grace, be love to others, and trust in your Jesus. I love and protect you. I provide for you. All will be well and all is progressing according to My plans. Continue to do all I have asked of you so that you are ready at a moment's notice. I ask this of all of My children. Be ready, so that you can move to the next area of holiness, the next physical area of your family or your personal mission to bring about My Father's kingdom. Again, I say for those of you who are unsure what this is, you have only to ask Me and I will tell you. This is a great time of grace. Does this sound like Jesus contradicts Himself? You know that I do not. I will explain. This time is like no other one in history. The evil that has prevailed in this century has been like no other time in the history of the world. Therefore, I your Jesus bestow graces like no other time in history. Yes, My children of the Renewal, believe Me when I say, I bestow graces like no other time in history. You must ask for these graces for when one gives a gift there must be willingness on the part of the recipient to receive and open the gift. You must ask for these graces, but they are there for the asking. So few of My children ask and so there are many graces going unused. Ask Me. Ask My Mother. Ask the saints in Heaven for they are also involved with dispensing My graces for the world. You will need these graces, My children to live through the coming time of great trials and to help your brothers and sisters who do not know as much as you for they have been too preoccupied with worldly affairs. Many will repent and convert back to a holy way of life, but will not have taken the time to prepare for what is to come. Therefore, My children of the light who listen and follow Me, you will need to help them. In order to do so, you must be spiritually and physically prepared (in this order). If you can do nothing else, prepare spiritually for I will take care of the rest. You will be led to My children who have prepared. They are the ones who filled their lamps with oil as they waited, watched, and followed Me. I love all of My children and will not abandon you but prepare now so it will go well for you and your family. In this way, not only can you help your family but others I send you who are less prepared or who have been less fortunate in the material things in life. I do not refer to money, My children when I say material things, for money will do you no good in the times to come. I refer to their preparations for food, water, housing, and a new way of life. These are the material goods to which I refer. I have also asked several of My children, who obey My every request to prepare for the spiritual needs of My church, for the structures, the buildings. The openness with which you worship now, will change. There are many children who prepare for this, so that My church and the Sacraments are still available though hidden. I also ask many of My children to prepare for those who will be hungry, by tilling the soil, planting and growing food so you do not starve, though many of My poor children will, but not all. I prepare through some of My children, for those who will be wounded in certain parts of the world, for there will be physical atrocities aimed at killing all the people of the earth. This will not occur, though for I will not allow My children to become extinct in this world, though My adversary and yours will try. Many will die and be taken to Heaven and many will be lost. Many will be wounded and for these I have asked some of My children to prepare. My children of light, I tell you this to assure you that My plans are for your good. The evil one plans to destroy you. I plan to provide safety and security amidst the evil. I promise you that I will not abandon you, My children, My remnant. Yes, you must be prepared so that you can assist your brothers and sisters, some of whom will convert at a very late hour. They will be baby Christians new to the faith, and will also be caught unprepared. The more My children of the light prepare now, the more I can help through you. You are all very important to My plan and that of My Father. Do not take My trust in you lightly. You see My children of the Renewal, your Jesus is counting on you. Your Jesus trusts in you and so I ask you, do you trust in Me? Will you help your Jesus? Will you do your part to help your families and those I send you? I ask you for your yes. You are very important to My Father's plan and He created you in this time of great duress to fulfill an important mission for His kingdom. I tell you, My little remnant, you will not regret one prayer prayed, one drop of water given, one embrace for a little child of mine in need of love, when you are in Heaven, so great will be My gratitude to what you have done for the least of your brothers and sisters. If you do not hasten to prepare yourselves, instead of being of assistance, you will be in need of assistance. Those of your brothers and sisters who work tirelessly for Me, their Jesus, will be less burdened and more able to care for the multitudes if you do your part. Come, there is much work to do, but we work together. I love you, I thank you, and I walk with you. Go out into the world carrying My love and My light to others. I bless you in My Father's name, in My name, and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Go, children. Serve those in need. Pray, pray, pray and I will guide you. All will be well. Be love, be peace, be mercy, be light, be joy. Bring your Jesus to the lonely, the hurting, the lost, and My light will begin to shine more brightly for others to see. In this way, My renewal can begin. I love you. I bless you. I go before you. All will be well, but begin now to serve your Jesus."

Thank you, Lord, for Your words of life and Your lessons of love. You are all good and deserving of all of our love. Teach us to love, Jesus. Teach us to forgive. Enlarge my heart, Jesus, so that I am filled with more of Your love. Thank You, Jesus that You include us in Your plan to bring about Your kingdom. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Amen, Jesus. Amen!

(After praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet for the family who experienced a horrible tragedy)

Lord Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament and in my heart, I love and adore You. You are my God and my All, the Alpha and Omega, King of Kings and Lord of Lords. Jesus, my Savior, I am most concerned for the two little boys who witnessed the horrific tragedy that took the lives of their mother, and then their father. Please, Jesus, protect these innocent children who are now orphans. Thank you, Jesus that they have their grandparents, but I am concerned for them, also and what they witnessed. Jesus, we also learned our friend has bone cancer and then today, one of our friends fell and broke her wrist. I know that You know all involved when the tragic events occurred and when our friend fell and the other learned of his diagnosis. Be with them and all who are suffering tonight. Jesus, have You anything to say to me?

“Yes, my daughter. I love you tenderly and I know of these events and problems in every person’s life who is suffering tonight. I, Your Jesus am with each one, loving and consoling them. I am with the two boys in a special way, as they are in such misery. I, Your Jesus suffer with them for the lives of their parents, taken before it was My will. I grieve with them and with their grandparents whose hearts are broken from grief. Thank you for your love, concern and for praying for them. The [1]Chaplet of Divine Mercy is a powerful prayer, as this prayer recalls My passion and death and calls on God to have Mercy on all mankind for My sake. The power of My death and resurrection is incomparable to anything on this earth, with the exception of Holy Mass. [2]One might say, they are one in the same, in a manner of speaking, since the Mass is a re-presentation of My sacrifice on Calvary to God the Father. My daughter, have Masses said for (name withheld) children. This will be the most efficacious prayer and will serve to facilitate their healing and that of their grandparents.”

Yes, Lord. Thank You. Lord, it feels as if there is so much more evil occurring lately, and of such a violent nature. Jesus, what is happening that seemingly good people resort to such extreme violence? What causes such evil to prevail in the hearts of men, Jesus?

“The adversary, My child. It is plain and simple. You do not wish to write this, My daughter and yet in your heart you know already.”

Jesus, my friend mentioned that there are chips in people already that have been implanted and that through these chips, people’s minds can be controlled. Is this already happening, Lord?

“Sadly, yes My daughter. There are some people implanting chips especially in elderly. There are also some being implanted in the military under the mis-information that it will help the military to locate lost or missing soldiers. This is true, but that is not the only reason. (to locate lost soldiers) I have asked many, many times, through My messengers and through Scripture for My children to refuse such a thing, but many are they who will not listen.”

I’m sorry, Jesus. We should listen to You. I am sorry for the times I listened and then promptly forgot what You asked me to do.

“My little one, forgetting some of the many things I say, the details, is one thing. Forgetting that I said not to take the Mark of the Beast; not to take the chip is quite another.”

Yes, Lord. I see that this is very different. Lord, I know we are called to pray. What else should we do?

“You are to love and be love to others. Show others My love. Show your concern as you did today when you made the phone calls to those who were and are hurting. Ask others you know to pray. It is not necessary that you know the details, simply ask for prayer.”

Ok, Lord. Thank You. Jesus, please help (name withheld) to get through this time of suffering.

“Yes, My little one. I will help to console little (name withheld) and My Mother will also.”

Thank You, Jesus. Lord, I thank You that the work due this week, earlier than planned, was finished on time. It was most difficult, and yet with You, we managed to complete the work within the newly imposed timeframes. Lord, it felt like agony and yet You were there to help me and for that I am very grateful.

“You are welcome. Are you feeling more at peace now?”

Yes, Jesus. I am and I am also feeling very drowsy. Jesus, I also pray for the Christians in the Middle East who are undergoing persecution, and who are being slaughtered and made to flee their homes. There is so much evil, Jesus and yet there is also good since Your holy feet touched the earth, and You sanctified it by Your holy presence and that of the Blessed Mother and Saint Joseph. Lord I am sorry for my weariness. I wasn't feeling tired earlier and now feel overcome with exhaustion. Help me to remain awake with You if You so will me to. Lord is there anything more You wish to say to me?

“My daughter, you are weary and though it is early in the week, you have put in many hours and much effort to complete your assignments. My children know weariness if you are living a holy life and serving Me. I love you and I kiss your sweet forehead.”

Thank You, Jesus for Your tenderness, and Your sweet love.

“You are most welcome, My little lamb.”

Jesus what would you say to me about the state of this sorry mess we are in? I long for Your world to return to the way it was intended by You, filled with lives of simplicity and holiness. I long for this way of living myself. I want to get off the roller coaster culture we live in and simplify our family life. I know it will be difficult work, but work that we can do together as You intended for families like in the days of old. It will be most difficult, but You will be evident in everything, Lord. May the entire world one day walk with You.

“This is a worthy and fitting prayer, My child; A prayer that seeks and longs for unity with God, Your Creator. Would that more of My children longed for this, and yet many do, but do not know how to express it. My daughter, do not allow evil to discourage you, for I am truth, I am hope, I am life. Remain focused on Me, and not on the evil. Yes, this is difficult in the face of such a tragedy, and yet this is the only way through such a thing. Ask Me each day, what it is I would like you to do to serve Me and bring My light to others. Keep your eyes on Me and ask what it is I want you to do for those who have witnessed such horrible atrocities. I will direct You, and in this way new light can be shed in the darkness. Those who are desperate and most in need will see merciful deeds done in love, and it will be like water being poured out in the midst of a parched, drought stricken land, for such is a land without the love and mercy of God. Such are the fragile, innocent hearts, grief stricken almost to the point of utter despair. I love you and all of My children. I have come to bring life and life to the fullest. Bring My light, My love, My mercy to those most in need. Small, simple acts of kindness are like a spring rain that cleanses refreshes and slowly brings flowers out of the hard, cold, winter's ground. This is what My love and kind acts of mercy can do for hardened and grief stricken souls. This is what My children of light are to be to the world. Be salt, be light, be leaven, be love, My children. Come now, My little lamb. You will see more evil like that which was perpetrated against My little (name withheld) and her boys. I do not will this; I am only speaking to prepare you. You must remain steadfast and seek Me, My words of guidance, for I am with you and My children of the renewal.”

Lord, it just dawned on me that You are calling us to renewal because we are living in the opposite of renewal, the dying process. If something is old and diminishing or dying, it needs to be renewed to be brought back to life. You want us to come back to life – to You – which is renewal, and that (renewal as an event) is some time in the future. It is yet to come. You are calling us out of a culture of death and dying so that we might live until You bring about the time of the renewal. Lord, it certainly appears to be the time of the tribulation and yet You speak about the time of great trials as if it has not yet come. What do you say to this, Jesus?

“My little lamb, you are correct and on the edge of seeing this truth with clarity. I call you “Children of the Renewal,” because you are indeed. You are being called what you will be. I am outside of all time and so while this event has not yet occurred, I already see it as it is present to Me in one continuum of time. You are not yet living in the Renewal, and yet you will be. This current age is coming to a close and will be no more. In a way, one might say that this Age of Disobedience that is coming to a close is “dying,” albeit a seemingly slow death in your perspective. In the meantime, my children of the renewal resist this age of disobedience and fight back in the battle for souls. This requires much energy, suffering, wounds from the battle, and casualties, as in the events of recent days. You are to pick up the lantern and continue to forge ahead on the path I have laid out for you and each one of My children. Care for those innocents who are wounded in battle. This is a foreshadowing of the type of casualties you and My son, your husband will care for and I allow you to know about this through My (name withheld) so you can be somewhat prepared, though nothing will completely prepare you for this, My little lamb. You see in the picture your friend gave you, that I am carrying My little lamb on My shoulders. I carry you in this way, also and if it were not so, you would not be able to follow Me, since at times the path is too difficult that you cannot make it of your own strength. Allow Me to carry you, My child. You must trust Me and learn to trust Me more so that you will be more prepared when the darkest hours are upon you. My child, I remind you that you will not be abandoned, for I your Jesus am with you. Remember what it is I told you before, that you are to tell the children in your care who will also be orphaned and will have witnessed horrible atrocities? These children will feel guilty that they lived when their parents did not.”

Please remind me, Jesus of what You would have us say to them.

“You are to love them, allowing space and time for them to grieve. When they are grieving, you are to hold them when they need to be held, sit quietly with them when they want to be silent, and give them space when they need it, but never for very long, for too much isolation only feeds their feelings of being deserted and this breeds depression. You must quiet your soul and your heart from its own grief in order to sense and pick up on the queues their grieving souls give you, to know when your actions of embracing, or quiet presence, or space and time to be alone are needed. Pray and seek My guidance and My Holy Spirit will direct you and enlighten the situation for I know exactly what each soul needs. When they are ready to speak and question things you may remind them that Jesus did not want their parents to die either and that Jesus is also very sad. He did not want their parents to be harmed in this way, or for His little ones to be robbed of their parents. He does not take back the gifts He gives to His people, though and free will is a great gift He has given to every human being. Some people abuse this great gift and hurt Jesus’ children and His grown-up children. He does not like this behavior and He asks each person abusing His great gift of free will to beg Jesus for Mercy. For some, it is too late to change, as they have perhaps ended their journey on earth. For the little ones left without parents, He provides others, either in their family, or good people He personally chooses to provide a home and love and care for His beautiful children. God draws the line in some cases with regard to man's free will by protecting others from their path and from their sight. In this way, He neither violates man's free will, nor imposes Himself on him but hides others from sight, so they do not think about harming these little ones for they did not or could not see them to desire to hurt them. Jesus does this with most of His children and has prevented many tirades from inflicting death on others. You do not see the many times I have created a barrier to one's "line of sight" so to speak, or caused a distraction so that evil loses focus on its intent. In this example, an act of kindness was enabled for the mercy of those left behind. You see, My children, even in the case of grave injustices, I am there providing mercy, love and kindness in ways only I can do and still respect the gift of free will I have given. My children still wonder why I don't intervene all together and prevent the victim from dying and I tell you if they, the innocent victim was not prepared to come to heaven, I would not allow their death. Instead I focus on preparing their beautiful soul to come to heaven, though it wasn't My will, or the right time for them to do so. Instead, because of My preparation, often times with great infusions of grace, these souls come straight to heaven, and I carry them there Myself. I have very special and significant missions for the children of these souls, and I and My Mother watch over them with the utmost of care. Given the right space and patience for healing of their emotional wounds, I pour out graces for compassion and understanding and they in turn become sources of healing and light for other souls who will go through similar trials and suffering. Someone who has walked a specific path of intense pain and suffering is often the only one who can provide hope and comfort to My little suffering souls. My children of light and of my renewal, Your Jesus has all under control even when things appear to be the opposite. Trust in Your Jesus who heals all wounds, shelters the widows and orphans, frees the prisoners, heals the sick, makes the lame to walk, and forgives sinners with My Divine Mercy. I am Your Jesus of Mercy and I will make all things new. Trust in Me, even when times are dark, for My Sacred Heart illuminates the way for you and I stand like a beacon of light to show you the way of love. I remind you, My child, Who it is you serve. Go now and rest. Wake up with a renewed sense of purpose for Your Jesus, for there is much work to do, in such little time, and so many in need of My love and Mercy. Give Me your sadness, My children. Immerse it in My Sacred, Merciful Heart. For in My heart there is an ocean of Mercy where your sadness becomes lighter and more bearable. In this way, you may be freer to receive My graces for joy. Ask Me for these graces, My children, for they are desperately needed by others. Take My peace, My joy, My mercy to this lonely, love deprived world. I love you. I love you. I love you."

Thank You, My Jesus for giving me Your words of life and Your lessons of love to share with my brothers and sisters. I love You also, My Jesus. Teach me to love You more. Amen, dear Jesus. Amen!

[1] The Chaplet is a prayer using rosary beads in which one prays; "Eternal Father, I offer You the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your dearly beloved Son, our Lord Jesus, Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world." This prayer is then repeated 10 times; "For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world." Followed by "Eternal Father, I offer You the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity, of Your dearly beloved Son...."

[2] Jesus is not saying that the Divine Mercy Chaplet is as powerful as Holy Mass, but that they are closely linked since the Mass is a re-presentation of Jesus' suffering and death for our redemption. The Chaplet is a plea to God the Father to show mercy on the world as a result of Jesus' Passion and death for us. )
