

March 2, 2025 Adoration Chapel

Oh, my Jesus it is very good to be here with You in Your holy Chapel. I have missed our visits! Thank You for holy Mass and Reconciliation yesterday on Our Lady's first Saturday. Thank You for holy Mass today! It was magnificent and I am grateful. Lord Jesus You are all love and all goodness. You are mercy. You dwell here as a prisoner of love for Your people day after day. Thank You for Your love. You are the Almighty God, the One True God and yet You humble Yourself to become present to us in a piece of bread. There is nothing You haven't done for us, Your children. Beautiful Savior, thank You for Your passion, death and resurrection. As Ash Wednesday approaches help me to grow closer to You, Lord. Help me to grow in holiness, sweet Jesus. I know I will need many graces, but I also know it is Your will that all Your children become holy, so please, Lord may it be so. Thank You for providing opportunities this week and last to serve some people in need. Help me to be more aware of those in need in my home, in my family members, my friends, co-workers, and those in my environment whom I do not know. Thank You for allowing me to see You in the homeless woman this morning. Thank You, Lord that (name omitted) pointed her out to me. What a good young man he is. Thank You, Lord. Help her to know she is loved, Jesus. Help her to get the care she needs, Lord. Help me to notice people more, Lord so that I don't miss seeing You as Saint Mother Therese did in the distressing disguise of the poor. I wish I could have done more for her, Lord. Thank You for putting her in our path this morning. Forgive me for the times I haven't noticed or wasn't merciful, Lord. May I grow in this area, Jesus. Give me Your heart so that I will love You and my neighbor with Your love, Lord. Love through me, Lord. My heart is so small, so petty, so hard, Jesus. Give me Your heart, Lord so that I may love You as You deserve. Good and beautiful God, my beloved, make my heart a flame of pure love for You.

Lord, I know there are still things that are needed to prepare. Please show me what these remaining things are, specifically and what You want us to do. You know each soul who will be in need and what they will need. I feel very unprepared. Speak to my heart. Guide me in Your ways and in Your will. Think in my thinking and pray in my praying, Lord. I praise You in Your Divine Will, my Lord, and my God.

"My Child, you will have what is needed. Do all that I direct you to do. There are some specific items that have come to your mind. I confirm these for you. Continue to pray, my little lamb and I will provide for you."

Thank You, Lord. Will You please increase my energy level, Lord? There is still much to do. Help me to use my time wisely, Jesus, so that I can accomplish the tasks ahead with Your help. I can do nothing without You, Lord. Jesus, have mercy on this country. We do not deserve Your mercy, Lord but I am asking, nevertheless. You are an ocean of mercy and since You shower mercy on the worst sinners, it seems right to ask for Your mercy in the United States, so desperate for Your mercy. I know we need to be purified, Lord. It is obvious that we do. There is such corruption and sin. Lord, please purify us quickly and bring all people to repentance and conversion quickly so that we will once again be One Nation under God. What a mockery we have made of this line in the 'Pledge of Allegiance'. Forgive us, Lord. May this Lent be a time of reparation for the sins of this Nation.

"My child, My child, the world needs to be purified. You are correct in what you say about your country. It is necessary. My children who live in the U.S. have never experienced what will soon occur but take heart. I am with you, my children. Times will be very difficult, but I will walk with you. I have given this Nation great blessings and these have been squandered, misused, and misappropriated. The sins against my little ones both born and pre-born have been atrocious. Their pure little souls cry out to the Father for mercy, love and yes, justice. My little lamb, you know this to be true. You understand. The purification is necessary. Evil has been allowed and even encouraged. It is past the time for my people to awaken from their slumber and stop cooperating with evil. Some improvements are occurring and this is good. You said it yourself, My child that it will take an act of God to have lasting change, did you not?"

Yes, Lord.

"You see, my daughter, purification is mercy. Many souls will convert as a result. Others will be humbled and will realize they have gone too far. They will begin to think about God and their many sins will become more clear to their numb consciences. Then, when the Holy Spirit illuminates their souls, they will be more open to My movement of grace. All is part of my plan, My child and it is for the good of souls. Some will still reject Me. For these I am filled with sorrow. However, many conversions will occur. Be prepared to help souls who convert. They will have enormous sorrow for their sins. You and my other children, who are Children of Light must help them. I will direct you in what each soul will need. Be not afraid. There will not be much time afterwards, so take them to the churches where My holy Priest sons will apply the healing balm of Reconciliation. Many will need to be baptized first. My Child, the number of people in need of the sacraments will be staggering. My Children of Light, you must be prepared to assist your brothers and sisters who will be in a state of remorse. Some will appear to be in a state of shock. They will depend on you for help. I remind you, My little one of the young lady who fell from her bike and had a concussion, she was very dazed and allowed you to put her bike in your car and take her to the emergency room. She was in need but didn't know at that point what she needed. You gently guided her, respected her free will in the process, and took her for the care she needed. It will be similar, My child in the days to come, but this time my lost children will be dazed from seeing their souls as I see them and they will be in need of Spiritual care from My holy Priest sons. Be open to My Holy Spirit and like My most holy Mother Mary said at the Wedding Feast of Cana, 'Do whatever He tells you'. I will guide you. I will give you the graces needed for each task. Do not be overwhelmed. You will focus on one person at a time. My Angels will also be with you and with each soul. Be of good cheer, My children. Real holy change is coming for the good of all souls. You have been born and are alive in this time, My Children of Light, for this historic time in Salvation of this generation, to aid The Kingdom of God in returning the Earth to the world as I intended and as I created it, and man to union with God. This will be a fulfillment of the plan of God from the beginning. Do not fear. You will be given every grace needed. What you lack I will supply. Trust in Me. For now, focus with greater intensity on living holy lives. Be united to My Sacred Heart and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Be united to My holy will My children. We will walk together through these times of great trials to a time of holiness and peace. The Earth will be renewed just as I have foretold. Keep your eyes on Me, My children. In this way, you will not go astray. Ask for My direction and I will provide it. This is all for now, My child. Renew your prayer time and increase your fervor, for things will be happening more quickly with every passing week and every month. Pray the most holy rosary morning and evening as well as the Divine Mercy Chaplet, St. Michael and Guardian Angel prayers. Read Sacred Scripture. Pray from your hearts. Frequent the Sacrament of Reconciliation and holy Mass. Love one another as I have loved you. All will be well."

Thank you, Lord for Your words of life and Your lessons of love.

"I bless you, My (name omitted) and My (name omitted) in the name of My Father, in My Name and in the Name of My Holy Spirit. Go in peace and joy knowing that I love you."

Amen! Alleluia!
