

March 5, 2023 Adoration Chapel

Hello, my Lord and my God present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. All praise, honor and glory to You, Lord Jesus Christ. Thank You for Holy Mass and Confession yesterday and for Holy Mass today, Jesus. I am very thankful for the great opportunity to receive You in the Eucharist. Praise You Lord for Your willingness these 2,000+ years to condescend to the altars all over the world during the consecration and change the simple humble piece of bread through the hands of our priests into the body, blood, soul and divinity of You, our Lord Jesus Christ. What an amazing, incredible miracle, Jesus! Thank You for Your presence at each and every Holy Mass. Thank You for the angels that surround the altar glorifying You at each and every Mass, filling in where we fall short, Jesus to give You proper praise and glory. Oh, Lord Your patience and mercy, Your kindness and generosity is difficult to fathom, but I trust in You and believe in You, the very essence of love. Oh, glorious, beautiful truth, perfection and wisdom, You, Word of God who speaks and the heavens and earth obey. You become this humble piece of bread to be not only available to Your people, but one with us. My little mind cannot comprehend this, and yet I do believe. I believe in You, Lord and all that has been revealed by You through the Holy Catholic Apostolic Church and through Sacred Scripture, codified by the Church. I love everything about You, Lord and all that You teach through Holy Mother Church. Oh, Lord protect Your Church as You have said You will, so that the gates of hell will never prevail against Your Church. We are sinful people, Lord but Your Church is holy. Give us more grace to withstand the pressures of this age and to be a holy people set apart from the world. Set apart only because of our gratitude and our faithfulness to the One who gave His life for us, who birthed the Church after Your resurrection and the descent of the Holy Spirit. Set apart because by Your grace we choose to follow You and though I often fail and fall, You provided the way to be reconciled to God. Set apart because we receive the divinely instituted Sacraments to assist us on one earthly pilgrimage. What haven't You thought of, Jesus? You have thought of everything and give every help needed for us mere sinful creatures to get up after each fall, be reconciled to You, receive Your holy body, blood, soul and divinity so that we may once again be united to God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. What an incredible gift to be a Catholic, my sweet Savior. Thank You, Lord. Jesus, I am going on and on when really my words are inadequate to properly praise and thank You. Great Saints and Doctors of the Church who were given incredible intellects and heroic virtues have praised and adored You exponentially better than I can and yet You know my heart. You know what I am trying to say and I pray that will be acceptable and 'enough' considering this small-minded creature of Yours. You know I love You, Lord and I am inadequate in my attempt to praise You. Mere words could never do justice to You, Oh Blessed Trinity, divine loving Mystery. Oh, Lord, my Father in Heaven I am very small and inconsequential and yet like St. Therese of the Child Jesus, I too want to raise my arms to You. Jesus, lift me in Your arms and hold me up to the Father. Take me to spiritual heights that I am incapable of reaching, but through and with You, in Your Divine and Holy Will, hidden in Your arms I can attain. Sweet Holy Spirit, purge my faults, purify me of all sin and each consequence of sin; take my stony heart and replace it with one that is on fire for love of God. In Jesus' name, the name above all names, I pray.

"My child, My child, My little child. Oh, how I love you. Thank you for this sweetness and for your humility. You are learning what an obstacle human pride is to growth in holiness. I am pleased that you are also learning to recognize the signs of pride so that you can call out to Me for assistance to resist temptations to pride. This is a great time of healing in you, My little lamb, and I will continue this work as You have requested for several years. Do you see My hand in this work and in the circumstances that have brought you to this point in time?"

Yes, Lord. I only wish it hadn't taken me so long, but that can be attributed to my stubbornness (and pride of course). I am a slow learner, Lord but You are an excellent teacher. Your patience is endless. Your mercy infinite!

"My daughter, each one's journey is unique. It takes what it takes depending on the wounds, their type, their affect on the soul, the other circumstances such as traumatic events, etc., and a host of other factors including one's personality and sensitivities. Each soul is unique, My daughter but I am the great physician. I know exactly what has occurred and what is needed for healing. This is a process, My child but every step forward is an advancement in holiness for barriers and obstacles to holiness are removed as wounds are healed. Each child of Mine is in need of healing since all have sinned (except Most Holy Mother Mary) and sins have consequences. Sins wound the soul My child. They wound the one who sins and those around him/her. Sins wound families, communities, states, nations and the world. I am the answer, My child. I can heal all wounds and bring about reconciliation. I can do all things. Believe in Me. Have faith, My Children of Light. Ask and believe in Me, the giver of every good gift.”

Thank You, Lord!

“My child the shaking has begun, as you are aware. Recall I told you this. There have been numerous earthquakes, My child, many go unreported. There are those like the one in Turkey and Syria that are too large not to report. It has impacted this region of the world (the one in Turkey and Syria) that will be remembered through history due to the resulting chasm created. It cannot be denied. The world will continue to experience this shaking, My child in order to bring Mine back to Me. This is a beginning, little one.”

Jesus, there have been many earthquakes throughout history and even recent history. Some of these have been quite strong, Lord. I realize the shaking has begun but I wondered if shaking meant not only earthquakes but a shaking of our perspectives, of what we thought was true (based on what we have been taught all our lives and lately have learned otherwise) and a shaking of false belief systems. I am not real sure what is meant by this ‘shaking’.

“You are correct, My child. The earthquakes are a visible, physical sign of this shaking which includes all you have mentioned as well as false perspectives, a lack of morals and virtues, and false precepts. Mankind possesses many fallacies, My child and these will be shaken to the core in order to purify hearts and minds. This shaking will enable people to begin to see and recognize the truth (God is truth) but in order to see clearly the scales must be removed from the minds and hearts of My children. The shaking, in multiple forms will be useful in this process. In some cases, lives will be lost, just as has occurred in the earthquakes. But, My child resist the temptation to see the world from a human lens. What is life worth materially if one loses his or her soul. Many came to faith in Me just before they died and are now with Me in Heaven. I am giving graces for conversion to those who are mourning the loss of loved ones. I am Father to the orphan and I care for those who feel lost or abandoned. I am close to the suffering and to those who mourn. Often, this is the only time hearts are open to Me. I use every opportunity to draw souls close to Me to impart My unconditional love and peace to their precious souls. Pray for all who have died and for those who will die. Many lives will end due to evil plans of men, through senseless wars and man’s inhumanity to man, but I am merciful and kind. I will gather souls to Me and bring good out of each situation for those who allow Me to work in their hearts. My child, I repeat what I have told you many times; all will be well. All will be well. Remain with Me and do not fear. Be filled with My peace which passes all understanding, but is real and can be obtained by merely asking it be given to You. I am the source of all peace. I will soothe the broken hearted and gather My little children under My mantle of protection. Trust in Me. I will bring you through every adversity, My children either in this time on earth or in your entry into Heaven. All will be well. Follow Me. Pick up your crosses. Have no fear. Follow Me.”

Thank You, Lord for Your words of life and Your messages of love. Praise You, Lord!

“My child, I want to tell My children to stop judging one another. There is much condemnation and misguided thinking about your brothers and sisters. You must stop this. Realize there are traps being set for you by the evil ones and those who cooperate with evil. They want division and many are falling into the traps set for My children. Recall the words of the Gospel, you are to love your enemy and pray for those who persecute you. It is good when truth is exposed and evil deeds brought to the light, however this gives My children the opportunity to pray for those who are revealed as the enemy of My people. Their hearts and souls are in grave danger. I created them as well and I want them to be saved. Pray for them, My children. In this way you imitate Me when I asked the Father to forgive those who crucified Me. My children, hatred is from the devil, Lucifer. Love is of God and God is love. You cannot hate your fellowman and enter the Kingdom of Heaven. Pray for conversions. Pray for their repentance. Pray for them to experience the love of God. It is not too late for evildoers to change, but they must change quickly. Many, many prayers from the heart are needed to move strong hearts. Won't you assist Me in this great work of salvation? I came to set captives free. You must help Me to do so now during this time. There is no greater work, My children. Pray and offer penance for these wayward children. I love them also My children. I want them to turn their backs on sin and turn toward the Son of Man. Be conduits of grace and love in the world, My children. Be love; be mercy; be peace; be joy, bring them to Me, the life, My children. All will be well."

Thank You, my Lord and my God. Praise You, Lord.

"You are welcome, My child. I bless you now in the name of My Father, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit. All will be well. I love you, My children."

I love You, my Lord and my God, my All. Thank You, my beautiful Savior!
