

November 6, 2022 Adoration Chapel

Hello, my Jesus present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You, 'hidden Jesus' under the appearance of bread. My Lord and my God, Creator of all that is. You brought the world and every living creature into being and yet You humbled Yourself to become this small wafer or actually to make the wafer of bread become You. You do this during each consecration in every Holy Mass at the hands of Your priest sons because You long to remain with us and know that our small, imperfect, sinful souls are in need of Your physical presence in the world. Oh, how many graces You shower upon souls who love You. Thank You for Your love and the gift of Yourself in each Eucharist. How deep Your love is for us, sweet Jesus. It wasn't enough for You to suffer and die on the cross for our sins and to rise again. You love us even more and never want to be separated from Your children. You love us in spite of our sins, our ignorance, our indifference. Oh, Lord! What an amazing God Man You are. Who can fathom such love? Thank You, Lord, my God, my All! What can we do for You, Jesus who has done everything for us?

"Pray, my daughter. If you love Me, My little one, love also the souls who cost so much that I poured out everything for love of you and them. Pray for those who reject Me and for those who do not know Me, though I have done everything for My beloved children to know and love Me. I wait patiently for souls to return to the arms of the Savior and Redeemer of the World. One day soon, it will be too late, and so you must help Me by praying for lost souls. These are your very brothers and sisters, mothers and fathers, sons and daughters. Pray, dearest children of My heart. Pray, pray, pray. Offer sacrifices for souls, My dear ones. Even small sacrifices, done with love bring about graces of conversion. The most important thing is your intention. Be mindful of so many souls; they are all around you, crying out for your help. Their cries are silent, My children for they come from their poor souls who recall the love of God even though some have rejected with their hearts and minds and have even repressed all memories of God, their souls do not forget. They desire and long for God. Help me with this important work of salvation, My children. What else is more important than saving the eternal life of the soul? Always be attentive to your daily commitments that flow from your vocations. If you are married, there is much to do for your family. Do everything with love and offer your work for the conversion of sinners. This holds true for priests and religious, also. There are duties that must be performed as a faithful priest and religious. Do all of these for love of God and offer these beautiful acts out of love for poor sinners. It is that simple, My children. But your minds are pre-occupied with so many things. You seldom think of offering your work and your suffering for souls. Be aware of this work that I have called you to for it is the work of your Father in Heaven. You may think of this as the family business, My children in which you are invited to participate to build our Father's Kingdom. This is a serious responsibility, My children and one you must not take lightly."

"Thank you for this visit, My children. I know being here each week is a blessing to you but also a sacrifice. I thank you for your faithfulness. I am grateful to each and every son and daughter of Mine who spend time adoring Me in My Eucharistic Presence. You are indeed changing the world one soul at a time by these visits. You do not see the impact now, My children but one day you will know. I invite all of My children to 'sit' with Me in this way. I invite even My Non-Catholic children to be present in the adoration chapels all over the world. Come to this peaceful place to pray and to be with your Lord and Savior in the Eucharist. Even if you do not believe in My true presence, come. Pray and speak with Me about all that concerns you, all that brings you joy and even that which causes suffering. Bring everything to Me. I am here for you, also. I will not reject you. Come and be with your Lord in the only place I am physically present in the world—the consecrated host. If you do not believe, come anyway. I will bless you abundantly and I will give you faith. All will be well. If you are afraid, I tell you—do not fear. If I am truly present you will receive many graces. If I am not? What can a piece of bread do to you? You see, there is nothing to fear. It is not a sacrilege to come to a peaceful place in silence to adore God, to pray and to read Holy Scripture. Come, My children. Allow Me to fill you with peace, so that you may go forth into the world so in need of My peace. Be carriers of Christ in your hearts and bear Me to the world."

"My child, My child, pray for your separated brothers and sisters. It is not God's Will that there is disunity among believers. Pray for all believers to be one. My children should be of one heart and one mind and embrace the faith I have given to you. The adversary brings division. God brings unity. The adversary breeds discord. I bring peace. Evil is hate. God is love. Come now. Draw near to love, mercy and peace and you will be like Me and then you will spread My love, My mercy and My peace. The world is fallen, My children and is in need of redemption. Open your hearts to the love, for this will bring about true conversion. Walk with Me, My children. It is very important that you use every moment for the Kingdom. This sounds complicated but it is only a spiritual practice. Before too long, through practice and being aware of My presence, you will incorporate a 'habit' of thinking of others and seeing the world through spiritual eyes. Do you understand, My children? I am inviting you to live, truly live for the Lord God. Love others as I have loved you. This will bring a sense of purpose to your lives, My children for this is why you were created; to love God and to love others. Now you are beginning to see how simple it is. Love God. Love others, as I love you. When you truly do this, you will know the deepest peace and inner joy. Oh, how I love you, My children. I want you to learn to love as I love."

"This Time of Disobedience brings many an increase in suffering. There is much discord in the world. I know that while conceptually it is simple, putting this love into practice is not easy. There are many distractions. There are many commitments. Simplify your lives and it will be easier. Pray as I have asked and invite Me to work in your lives. Frequent the Sacraments and you will have every grace needed. Live your faith with every fiber of your being. Will people call you zealots? Perhaps, but that would be a compliment. Will you be censored? Perhaps, but I am the Lamb of God who opened not His mouth, but first, I taught, I witnessed, I listened, I healed, I worked and I prayed. Do as I did, My children. I will transform this world and I invite you to do your part to bring about this transformation. Co-operate with Me, My children. I am depending on you. Ask My Mother and St. Joseph to assist you. Do not neglect to petition the saints in Heaven for their intercessory prayers. Come now be about the work of My Kingdom.

Peace be with you. I bless you, My children, in the name of My Father, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Go now in My peace. Be love and mercy."

Amen, Alleluia! Thank You!
