

March 9, 2025 Adoration Chapel

Hello my Jesus present in the most holy Eucharist and in all tabernacles in the world. Praise You, Lord for this opportunity to be here with You today. Thank You for Mass and holy communion this morning. Thank You for time with our friends after Mass. Lord, please be with (names omitted) who are both battling cancer. They are such beautiful women of faith. I know they are offering their pain and suffering for souls. Still, I ask for Your miraculous healing. Jesus, I pray also for (name omitted), for healing of his eyes and that he may also walk. Please bring all those in my family who are away from the Church home, Jesus. You know everything, Lord and all that is going on in our country. Give our leaders the gifts of wisdom, prudence and fortitude to do what is good and right in Your will. Protect the President, Vice President, cabinet members and all their family members. May there be a great outpouring of Your Holy Spirit in our country with conversions. Please drive sin and corruption out, Lord and change hard hearts. Have mercy on us, Oh, Lord. All glory, honor, and praise be to You, King of Kings and Lord of Lords. Bless our youth and renew their zeal for You, Oh God.

“My child, I receive your prayers and hold them close to My Sacred Heart. There are many intentions in your heart and on your mind left unspoken. I know each concern, My little one. Give each one to Me.”

Yes, Lord. I surrender myself and every intention to You. I place each one, each person I love at Your feet, Lord. Your love is perfect, holy and pure and much more powerful than mine. Heal, restore, renew each one, Jesus as only You can do.

“I do love each child of Mine and each one is in My will. This should give you consolation, My daughter. Allow Me to do the heavy lifting. It is good that you bind your children and grandchildren to My Most Holy Mother Mary in the Rosary. She will do much work in their hearts. Continue this practice, My child.”

Yes, Lord. I will try to remember this. Guardian Angel, help me to remember to bind my children and grandchildren to Our Lady in each rosary. I forget often due to the many intentions we have. I remember to pray for them, of course but I don't always remember the binding prayer. Blessed Mother accept us into Your School of Love. Help us all to follow Your Son and to love Him with Your love.

“My child there are many graces My Mother wishes to bestow on our children, but She is unable to do so for hearts are closed, and people are very distracted by the world. So few ask Her for graces. Remember to do this. She is willing and waits for each soul to request something from Her Motherly Heart. Approach Her, My Children. Do not waste time but draw from the treasury of heavenly graces.”

“My little one, it is time to finish the project of readying your house. Clear the needed space as soon as possible. Do not be anxious and have no fear. I am asking this of you for your benefit and that of those who will need refuge. Do something each day, no matter how small it may seem and before long the work will be complete. Go about this work with a joyful heart. My children, you have been preparing for a long time, this I know. You are growing weary. Trust Me when I say that soon the time will come that you will rejoice and thank Me for all I inspired you to accomplish. One can always do more but remember I am God and there is nothing I cannot do. I will take your ‘little’ and will multiply it. Trust in Me. I ask that you do your part. Allow Me to do the rest. All will be well.

My child, as the things are being moved, removed, cleaned and so forth, I will give you and My son (name omitted), the insight regarding what is needed for the children. You have what you need regarding this and I will give you My thoughts, My vision as I know each child who will come to you. Be of good cheer. I know this responsibility weighs heavily upon you. I am with you. I will also send the people needed based on their needs and their skills. Each refuge will be provided for. I have known each one, each refuge and each person meant to be there all along, for I AM. Be confident, My children. All is in My perfect will. Make this a priority, My (name omitted) and My (name omitted). The long waiting has made many of My children weary and some have become complacent. They do not realize that all is in My will and in My time. The delay gives more of My children the opportunity to convert. Converting before the Illumination is preferred. Think about the many souls going through classes to come into the Church at Easter. These children of mine delight Me. Do not look at My timing with earthly eyes. See through My lens. I understand that isn't always easy, but with more prayer it will be easier. Pray My children. I want each person, each child of mine to speak to Me and allow Me to speak to your hearts. I love each one of you. You were created for love. You were created to love God. I have loved you even before you were born. Love Me in return, My children. Together, we will teach others to love and follow God's ways. I am all love. I want each person to be with Me one day in My heavenly Kingdom. But My lost little children you must repent and return to Me. Turn your heart toward the one true God who created you for love. The love I am referring to is first the love of God. Then, by loving Me you will love your neighbor and yourselves. It is important to love yourself, because I created you and you were made in the image and likeness of Me. Each person has been created in My image and therefore you must love each person and yourselves. There is a proper order, My children, because I am the God of love and also of order. When you witness chaos, realize the father of lies is at work. Be at peace. Be peaceful. Others will draw from your example. I am the Prince of Peace. If you do not have peace, ask Me for peace and I will give My peace to you. I have an endless supply so do not hesitate to approach Me. The world is lacking in peace. You, My children must bring My peace to the world, one person at a time. Pray for the grace to remain at peace. It is important to be recollected and allow My direction, My peace, My love to flow through you. You will be able to receive direction from Me when you are recollected. This is important to remember My children especially as times become more tense. Respond to all situations with calmness, prayer and trust. I can do great things when your hearts are at peace, and your minds are focused on Me. I will lead you, My children. Allow Me to lead you. I am the Good Shepherd. My Sheep hear and know My voice. My Sheep who are listening, I might add. Quiet the noise of the world. Come away for a few minutes each day to pray and to be still with Me, Your Jesus. All will be well. Hold these things in your hearts. Put them into practice each day, even now when your time seems 'normal'. There is so much occurring below the surface, unseen by you. Keep this in mind, My children and finish your preparations. I also request that My children get more rest at night. The days are very busy. Much prayer is needed and each one has a vocation to tend to. I know all of this, My children. I know how much energy the world takes from you. This is why you need more sleep at night. It will enable you to replenish your energy stores and provide you with internal balance and well-being. You will 'be at your best' so to speak. This is needed each day from now forward. There will come a time when you will not have the luxury of long periods of sleep. I will give you the graces then that you need but this is the time to regulate your sleep, My children. It is more important than you realize. I love you and I want what is best for you. Trust in Me."

"My Child, I see each act of love you do for My children. Continue growing in Charity. This is good for all of My children to do. Make acts of love, even small acts. Everything one does to build up the Kingdom of God, the Kingdom of love has much more merit than you can possibly fathom. Even the smallest of tasks done with love for Me and your family or for someone in need is multiplied by Me for souls. Live the Gospel, My children. Be generous and give your love to others, beginning with your family. The more you give the more I give to you and the cycle continues. I am infinite and My gifts never 'run out'. Come to Me and I will give each of My children all that is needed. I love you My (name omitted) and My (name omitted). I bless you in the name of God, the blessed Trinity. Go in My peace and in My joy. Bring Me to all you meet. All will be well."

Amen! Thank You , My beautiful Jesus!
