

April 19, 2015, Adoration Chapel

Dearest Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament of the altar, it is good to be here with You, my Lord, my God and my All. Praise You, thank You for this time today. My husband and I missed being with You last weekend in this holy little chapel. It was nice to be with our friends for the wedding of (names withheld), but so difficult not being home, where we could keep our "hour" with You. Thank You, Jesus that we had access to visit with You there in the church's Divine Mercy Chapel. It wasn't much time, Jesus but so wonderful to have even a few minutes.

Lord, I thought about what You have told me that one day we would not be able to adore You openly in the Holy Eucharist. It was difficult for us that one weekend. I can't imagine (nor do I want to) what it will be like in the future without easy access to Adoration. We are so very blessed, Jesus to have several Perpetual Adoration Chapels in our city. Thank You, Lord for Your goodness and Your mercy. I love You, Lord; hidden in the Eucharist. I love You in the holy bread that is Your true presence, body, blood, soul and divinity. Thank You for the miracle, of the Eucharist where You remain physically with Your bride, the Church.

Jesus, my daughter is facing surgery this week, as You know. She is somewhat anxious and even unsure she should go through with this. I understand why she feels this way, as I would be nervous, also and yet I don't see that she has any choice. Her condition continues to worsen. If she doesn't have the procedure, short of being healed by You, she will get to the point of not being able to walk. Lord, she is concerned about the time off work, her job, the second surgery she will need later, and so many other things. Jesus, You know everything. You know what is on her heart and her mind. Lord, what would You say to all of these concerns, I know they are normal and yet so very real. Do You have anything to say to this, my Lord and my God?

"My daughter. Tell My (name withheld) to trust in Me. I will be with her while she undergoes this needed surgery. My little one, cast all of your burdens unto Me. Allow Me to care for and to provide for you. I will guide the hand of the surgeon. This will be a most difficult time for you, the time of recovery, but I will draw you to Myself. Take My hand and let us walk this difficult journey together. We must get to the other side of this process by walking through the desert. Allow your family and friends to minister to you. In time, you will be doing the same to and for others. Going through this experience will prepare you in the best way, My little one. Having been on the receiving end, you will be in an excellent position when you are ministering to others who are physically poor and in need of care. Who better to care for those in need of care, than one who has experienced the good care of others in her time of need. Come, My child, I am a good Savior. I have also walked My time of suffering, My passion. I know what it is to suffer. You will not be abandoned, for I never abandon My children. I will watch over you even where your parents who love you, cannot. I go where they cannot go. I will remain with you. I will protect you, My child. You belong to Me and I to you. My little one who so lovingly, yet fiercely defends Me to others, would I, your Lord and your God not do likewise? I will answer this for you with an emphatic-Yes, of course I would and I will. My little one, all will be well. You must lean on your Jesus and those I have given to you as family. Remember that St. Paul said, 'It is in weakness that He is strong?' Yes, My child, often My creatures need to understand what it is to rely completely on your Jesus in order to see firsthand that I am a trustworthy, faithful God. I am true to My word. Yes, you believe this, but this will be a time of experiencing this. I know, you have experienced My love before and have relied and trusted in Me, and this is good. I am calling you to an even deeper knowledge of My love and a deeper level of trust. Do not be afraid for I am one upon whom you can rely. Be confident in Me, My child for I am your God. I am your Jesus. I love you. Rest in My love."

Thank You, Jesus for Your direction. You are so wonderful and engaged in our lives, Jesus. Thank You for Your reassurances. Praise You, Jesus! I marvel at Your kindness and tenderness toward us, Your people who do not deserve You, Lord and yet You love us so intimately. Thank You for Your love, Lord. Jesus, we are still struggling with getting everything accomplished to begin showing our house. It is on the market of course, but still we haven't really pushed it or tried to "market" it. There is always so much to do, and something major that needs to be done. Or, maybe not major, but lots of things that add up to major work. My husband continues to work so hard on it and though we know it doesn't need to be perfect, we continue to see flaws and things that could be issues to perspective buyers. Are we completely outside of Your will, now Jesus? You said previously that we would sell in the spring, but perhaps we haven't really cooperated with Your plan? With so many medical issues, I am unsure of the timing now. I am not questioning You but that we did not fully cooperate as You requested. How do we balance what needs to be done, versus how we want to leave things for the family who will purchase our home? We want things to be beautiful and in good order for the family who moves in to our home. We want to do Your will, Jesus and need Your guidance with the details. What would You have us do, Jesus? It sounds like such a small thing, but since this affects the Mission and timing of events that only You know, we are not in a position to determine our next steps. Please Jesus, help us to do what it is You want us to do.

"My child, I have already given you the answers to these questions. Focus on selling your home so you can move to the next phase of the journey. I do not desire you spend countless hours on additional work. I already know the buyer and this is the house they need for their family. Suspend the other items on your list of things to do for the time has passed for all to be as you and My son desire. My children, I know of your good intentions. You must, however trust that I, as God, know the best course. I have said you must finalize all preparations. My timetable has not changed and therefore you must begin packing your things and showing your house. If there is something more the buyer wants you to do specifically, that can be worked out later. You do not know their tastes or their preferences. What you think is perfection, will not matter to them. You are focusing on the wrong things. Focus your energy on preparing to move and by that I mean packing your belongings, beginning the build of your new house and preparing to move. That is enough to occupy your time while people begin to view your house. It will not be long once you begin showing your house before a buyer will emerge. Remember that you are to hold firm to what is needed financially for the right buyer to emerge. I am directing this process, but you must follow through as I have said, for your free will can change the outcome. Trust in Me, Your Jesus and do as I say. Recall that you bought a house that was far from perfect, knowing there would be work to do to fix it up. That did not stop you, My child. The same will be true for the family that buys your home. More trust is needed."

Yes, Jesus. Thank You, Jesus. Lord, please be with (name withheld) who lost her to a car accident. Be with their children, who are suffering this great loss. Please comfort and console them, and also (name withheld) who is so very sad. She cannot travel to be with the family, Lord and this is making her even more sad. Thank You that we were able to talk today, Jesus. Thank You for using me to console her in some way.

"Thank you, My child for allowing Me to work through you. You were merciful and compassionate, taking the time to sit with her. I, your Jesus was pleased. I am with them, My child. I walk with (name withheld) and her children and (name withheld), too. I will continue to work through (name withheld) and her family. Trust in Me during this difficult situation. I have been a stranger in a foreign land myself when My family fled to Egypt to avoid Herod. I am working in this situation and I will guide (names withheld) on the path they should go. There will be unity one day with them and with their family.”

Thank You, Jesus. You are amazing and good to us beyond measure. I love You, my Lord and my God. Thank You for the love You showed us from the cross and that You continue to demonstrate to us on a daily basis. You truly give us everything, like the good father in the story of the Prodigal Son. You share everything with us! Thank You good and gracious God. We love You.

“My little lamb, the time has come today for us to discuss what is to come. The earth as you know it will go through many changes. Some of these changes will be from man’s doing and some from God. My adversary will wreak havoc upon the children of My Mother and also upon the earth. You have experienced this, from the adversary already, of course, but the events will occur more frequently and will escalate in severity. All of the immediate or the first long phase of events will be from the evil one. These events will include “natural” disasters as well as battles and skirmishes fought by those who want more world power. Lands will be taken over and My church will suffer more persecution. This persecution will serve to both purify and cleanse the church as well as to root out those who are against the church. When you see all of these things take place, you will also begin receiving My holy priest sons and many children who will have escaped and in some cases survived great atrocities. The time of ministering to them and giving them your home for respite will be an extended period, My child.”

“Suffering, as you have never experienced will show up on your doorstep, and will require much focus, attention, love and care from your family as you cannot yet imagine. I will give you the graces necessary to love heroically and to expend your energy, and your very hearts on loving and caring for these people of refuge who will be innocent victims of the evil ones who will inflict much damage and chaos on your land. Yes, My children, it will seem at times to be almost overwhelming and yet through love, unity and prayer this time of service, this time of pouring out yourselves for My children out of love will bring you joy, love and a new and larger family. Those families My Mother has selected to be part of Her community will also serve in specific plans I have. Each family is an integral part of My plan and that of My Mother’s. This is very important to the future, My child. My Father has willed this from the beginning.”

“Each person alive in the world today and following Me has a very important role to play in this, most urgent time in the history of civilization and by that I mean, all of history since God created man. My child, this is a grand plan; one which none of My children can even begin to comprehend. Later, one day those who have gone through the Time of Great Trials will understand how momentous the Father’s plan is for humanity and will know deeply in an intimate way, the provision of the Father. Were it not so, all and I say ALL would perish and the world would cease to exist. As I have said before, this will not occur for the Lord God is the Creator of the universe. It is He who is in control, not the adversary. However, once again our Children have strayed very far from God and by doing so, have mocked Me, the Savior who died to redeem mankind. Each individual has been redeemed at the highest price, the life of the Son of God. I gave My life, children for each one of you. I freely, gave My life, out of love and so you, also must freely choose Me, your God.”

“Since the time of My death and resurrection, many souls have followed Me. Many have served out of love, out of mercy. Many saints shed their blood for My Church, of which the entire world has taken advantage of and has prospered from both materially and where most important- spiritually. Yes, children, the world has received benefits from Christianity. Even those who are not Christian have benefitted greatly from a just society. All benefit by following the Commandments of love given to Moses by My Father. Reflect on this truth and be grateful to God. My children however have not spread My Gospel in fullness and have not lived the way I taught My disciples and Apostles to love. Some have but not enough. You have grown weary of your God and the life of love I call you to for your good and the good of your souls. Therefore, My Father sent the best from Heaven, My Mother due to Her incessant pleading on your behalf. Over and over He has consented to allow Her the time foretold in Scripture, and the time She has continuously pleaded for you so that She could teach what has been forgotten and in many cases neglected. She has been tireless in Her work on the earth to lead Her children to conversion of heart, to prayer, to love of God and fellow man, but few have listened and fewer have responded.”

“Time is running out My children. The time that was already an extension from the Father, due to the great love, purity and humility of My Most Holy Mother Mary, is coming to a decisive end. I say decisive because the children of this world, by turning a deaf ear to My beloved Mother, your last chance for large scale warnings and conversions of heart, have given their ‘no’ decision. This is the same as the pride of Lucifer who said, ‘I will not serve.’ He was referring to his unwillingness to serve Me, Jesus, who would become human in the incarnation. He felt he was too good, as a creature of light, an angel to serve Me like the Son of Man, true God and also true man. And, so he fell from grace once and for all and willingly so.”

“Is this not what My stubborn, hard hearted children, who know Me and refuse to follow Me are saying? Not all have the knowledge of Me, of course and so are not as culpable, but all of My children are made in My image and likeness and have My image engraved on their hearts. Some who do not know Me, still serve the truth and goodness that was planted in them as a seed at their conception and in many ways are more holy than those who learned about Me in their youth and rejected Me for the trappings of the world. Turn back to your God while there is still some time, My lost children for time is running out for you and for the current ways of the world. The world as you know it is about to change in unheard of ways. For many, the outcome of the changes will be justice, mercy and looked upon as long-awaited changes. Woe to you who refuse to serve Me, though for you refuse to serve the truth and the life and all that is good. By doing so, in your refusal, you are choosing darkness. There is no more time to sit on the fence, dallying in this worldly sin and that, while knowing in your heart that I AM is God. The time has come to choose. You must choose life, or choose death, and by this I am referring to eternal life or eternal death. Choose life, My children for you were created for Heaven and not for hell.”

“My daughter, My little lamb, you are weary from this sinister world and all that it entails. I know that the more I emphasize the darkness, the more weary you become. I see how fatigued you are on a daily basis, and yet I am your God. I love you as I love all of My children, each one and so I continue to pursue, tirelessly until My children make their final decision. I do not desire that even one of My children perish, and so I continue to plead, to invite, to pursue, to present the truth, for I am all truth and all truth is Me. My daughter, many will read this message and it will be the first message they read. I remind you that you have been with Me on this journey for many seasons, but for some this will be the first time they have heard these words from Me. Do not be impatient with writing My words for many souls are at stake.”

Lord, Jesus, I will write anything You ask of me and as many times as You dictate the same words. I am Your servant, Lord Jesus. I sigh only because of the heaviness I sense from Your beautiful, Sacred Heart. Your love is so tender, so vast, so deep and people choose something that is trash (in choosing worldliness) versus choosing the most beautiful valuable treasure known to mankind—God and salvation. I sigh because we should be worshipping at Your feet, adoring and praising You out of our deep gratitude and love for You and yet we turn our backs on the greatest good. Because of Your goodness, mercy and love, You are left to go as a beggar after Your spoiled disobedient, sinful children. You are the perfect Father who loves and protects His children and yet we prefer digging in the garbage to being in Your heavenly kingdom. This is why I sigh.

Jesus, I have been blind, myself and I am a sinner, also, I sigh at my own foolishness and especially the sins of my youth. You are perfection, beauty, truth, freedom and perfect love. How is it that Your creatures, created out of love could be so foolish to follow the evil one who only wants our death and destruction and yet I realize that when people wander away from You, it is so easy to be led astray. Help us, Jesus to open our hearts, see the error of our ways and return to the refuge of Your Sacred Heart. Help us to listen to Your Mother and ours who only wants what is best for us—You. Remove our blinders, Jesus and infuse us with knowledge of You, knowledge of truth. Jesus, I know we have free will, and it is a great gift. I can't help but think of how tainted we are from living in this valley of sin. Perhaps man's minds have become so tainted, so darkened from all that surrounds him, that he is unable to detect even the bright lights that come from Your merciful heart. Jesus, You can infuse mankind with knowledge of You so that at least we are confronted with the full knowledge of You. Many, I think multitudes will convert once they have full knowledge of Your love, Your light, Your truth. Please pour out Your Spirit Jesus and renew the face of the earth.

“My child, you have written your prayer which is holy and true and comes from My Spirit, for this is exactly what I will do when I illuminate the hearts of all mankind. All will have knowledge of Me and will see My light in the fullness, such that their sins, the state of each person's soul as I see it will be revealed to them. I have heard your prayer for one of your family members uttered to me during Mass, My child. The answer will come. Trust in Me for I will pursue each of My Mother's and My apostles' children and family members in such a way that it will be difficult for them to refuse. I will not convince all, for that would require that I do violence to some people's free will, but My child do not worry for those I pursue who have a faithful family member will receive graces from the prayers of their faithful family member. This is why it is very important to grow in holiness for the fragrance of each soul who is holy, spills out onto the world and specifically onto their family and friends. Decide for holiness, My children of light for you are benefitting many souls by your living example. My child do you begin to see how vital each person is to My Father's plan for His kingdom and the life of the world?”

I think so, Jesus. At least in the way that I can with my limited human capacity to know what You tell me. I love You, my Jesus. I love You. Help me to do Your will; to love and serve others in the way You desire. Please forgive me my many faults, shortcomings and sins. Renew me Lord, with zeal for You. Make my little heart burn for love of You.

“All is forgiven, My little lamb. Begin anew and move forward with a sense of purpose for the mission which My Mother is leading is before you and your family. All will be in motion now, My child and you must prepare as I have asked you, for your family's flight into Egypt. I know how very difficult this will be for all of you. Yes, My little darlings, your Jesus asks much of you and all of My (community name withheld) of Mary. I ask much of those I love and of those who give Me their 'yes.' I ask much, but I also give much. Do not be concerned if you believe you have little to offer for it is not the amount you have, nor the skills, nor the talents, but that you serve Me with all that you do have. Only give Me your daily 'yes' and My Mother and I will provide the rest. We will 'fill in the gaps' as you say. In fact, the less you have, the better, for in that case you rely more on Me, your Jesus and on My Mother Mary to supply all that is needed. So, you see this is why I usually call those who are very small in the world's eyes. Take courage for your God goes before you and My Holy Mother Mary sees to each and every detail with loving perfection as only She can do."

"My children (of the community), you must pray more, trust more and decide to love more for that is what is needed and with My Mother guiding you, it is all that is required. Strive now for the utmost unity. Strive now to put every difference and every wish for yourselves aside for the plan of My Father who is your Father in Heaven. What is most important is love, prayer (which fosters and builds the love), unity (which is built on a foundation of prayer and love) peace and trust. Trust in Me for all things. If there are any needs for families or for the community to be built and formed take all to My Mother who will add Her graces and present your petitions to God the Father. We will not resist the requests of our Mary. Take all to Her for anything that is needed, for in this way, whatever She requests will be granted. My children who do not know My Mother will wonder about this, and so for this reason I repeat: My holy and most pure Mother Mary is in the heart of the Blessed Trinity and everything that We will is what She wills. Her will is in perfect unity with God's will. Yes, you may say, but all in Heaven are in union with God and so all are united with the perfect will of God; to which I will say, YES! However, She, My Holy and most pure Mother Mary is the only person created who lived Her life on earth in perfect union with the will of God. This is why She is the most holy, most pure, Immaculate Virgin Mary, Queen of all saints, Queen of Heaven and earth and Queen of the Church. So you see My doubting children who do not yet understand My Mother's role in salvation, this is why you must take all of your needs and requests to My Mother. Every Queen Mother in the Holy Scriptures pointed to the Woman, My Mother, the handmaiden of the Lord, who gave Her pure 'yes' to the Angel Gabriel, My archangel to become Mother of Me, the Messiah. She did so at the cost of Her life as stated when She asked Her most holy and innocent question, "How can this be when I have not known man?" since She understood the act of conception and Her state of perpetual virginity. She was not questioning the possibility only wondered how it would come to pass. This is the difference between Her question and that of Zechariah, who doubted the ability of God to bring about the conception of a child in his and his wife's old age. My Mother never doubted God and gave Her full 'yes' to God, but only wondered and reflected on how such a beautiful, amazing act of God would occur in Her state in life. She asked out of a pure innocence and wonderment, not at all out of distrust or doubt. My children who follow Me, but do not care to pay attention to My Mother, you must pray and ask for the grace to understand My Mother's role in salvation, for when you do, you will be more confident in asking for Her help which you will sorely need during the time of great trials."

"Enough said about this. Each one must pray to comprehend and must seek. I love each one of My children and I desire you unwrap the great gift given to My children, My Most Holy Mother Mary. You have much to be thankful for and should show your gratitude to the one human being on earth, the only one who opened the way for the incarnation, the Messiah to come into the world to redeem mankind. Yes, she is fully human, and yet her 'yes' gave you the Messiah, the Savior. Yes, My children, I gave My most precious gift to you even while I was dying for you, My Mother to be your Mother. I am God, and I know what I am doing, even from the cross, I had full use of My faculties and I gave My life for the world and also gave the world My Mother. Do not be too prideful to go to Mary, for if I deigned to need Her, who are you to say you do not? Ponder this. Reflect on this. Pray to Me for wisdom and I will bestow wisdom upon you to recognize the great gift of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. I tell you this, because it is most important for you to know. I give you every help and every grace needed to win the prize of Heaven. I gave My life to bring you the Holy Spirit, the Church, the Sacraments, the Body of Christ and your family in Heaven, the saints. I withhold nothing, not even My beautiful Mother. Which of you would give what I have given? Would I withhold My most prized possession? No, you know I would not and yet you decide what it is you will choose to accept? Many reject My Holy Church, all 7 of the Sacraments, or some of them, and reject My Mother. This is not fullness of truth. My children who strive to follow Me but remain in your personal comfort zone, pray to know the truth and I will answer you. Seek with a sincere heart. All of this is important My children. It is not a matter of picking and choosing your opinions for what you will wear, what you will eat, what type of car you will drive. This is a matter of salvation and the eternal life of your souls.”

“You will need to be armed with every gift from Heaven for your spiritual weapons. In the battle forthcoming, your arsenals need to be full. I offer all to you. I offer everything that is best. I offer the choicest of wines. Do not settle for the cheap wine, for that will not fortify you for the war that the evil one wages for souls. Choose all. Say; ‘Yes, Jesus I accept every gift You have wisely chosen for me for the good of my own soul and the good of my brothers and sisters whom I choose to serve out of love for You, my God, my love, my Creator, my all.’ In this way, you will be well equipped for the war that wages. Follow Me. Take My Mother’s hand and follow Me. She has navigated perfectly through the snares of the enemy lines. In choosing Her, you are choosing one who has already navigated the snares of the enemy and She did so with perfect love, peace, and charity, always putting Me, Her Lord first. This is what you will want to learn and so I give you the best teacher, your Mother and Mine.

“Now, My little lamb who is My faithful secretary, you may go. Go in peace My sweet daughter. Go in peace, My faithful son. Do not allow anxiety room in your hearts for I desire to fill you with the grace of My peace and My love and also My joy. You must make room for that which I desire to give you for your journey will be much more fruitful with the graces I desire for you. Cast off all fear, all anxiety and do the will of God. All else will fall into place for you serve the King of all nations, your Jesus Christ the Returning King. Bring about My Kingdom, My children of light by doing your small but important part.”

“That is all: I bless you in the name of My Father, in My name, and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Go in peace. Be love. Be mercy. Be joy.”

Thank You, Jesus for Your love and mercy, for Your kindness and for the gifts You give us in Your Word, the Sacraments and in Your Holy Mother Mary. Give us grateful and trusting hearts, Lord so that we can love You and Your Mother as You desire. I love You, Jesus!!

“And I love you. All will be well. Only trust.”

Yes, Jesus. Thank You! Amen!

Palm Sunday, March 29, 2015, Adoration Chapel

Hello, Jesus ever present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love, adore and praise You, my King and my God. Thank You for the gift of holy Mass this morning, Jesus. Lord, I bring my sister-in-law to You and lay her at Your feet. Lord, she is so ill with breast cancer. Please help her, Jesus. Heal her, Lord if it be Your divine will. Be with her and give her Your peace, Lord. Comfort and console her as she begins the chemotherapy treatments. Be with her husband, also. Jesus have You anything to say to me today?

“Yes, My daughter. There is much unrest and discord in the world. More prayer is needed. More fasting is needed to prepare for what is to come. My Mother has asked for fasting on Wednesdays and Fridays for years and few are those who take Her seriously. There is a reason My Mother has asked for this and continues to ask for fasting, for the world has become a dangerous place. I do not wish to alarm My children, however if you are praying you will already know this.”

Yes, Jesus. Thank You. Lord, my daughter asked me to seek direction from You regarding her job and to ask if You have advice for her regarding the interview tomorrow. Do You have anything to say, Jesus?

“Yes, My child. Tell her to stay true to Me, her Savior. She is My daughter and she has dignity as do all of My children. She is My ambassador and she is to take Me into the world, the lonely, destitute world. She is to be My light, My love, My peace. There are those who need Me and she will bring Me to them.”

Thank You, Jesus. I think she wanted to know something specific regarding her current job. She is suffering physically, Lord with health problems, and she is also suffering from persecution at work. What should my sweet daughter do about this, Jesus. Do You wish her to remain where she is, Lord?

“My daughter, she is to remain where she is for awhile longer. Souls are at stake and if she leaves now, whom will I send to be My living witness of joy and love. It is not only about those who work there, but also about those I send, invite, inspire to walk through the doors of this establishment. I send those who are lonely, hurting, rejected, far away from Me, Jesus. I send those who have not experienced My love for their hearts are hardened, cold and unloved by mankind. Some have suffered abuse, some have been overlooked. The attention, the smile, the kindness from your daughter causes the warmth from the Son to begin to thaw their frosty hearts. This is what it is I need from you, My dearest daughter who is My delight.”

“My (name withheld) you are being persecuted, but nothing will harm you for I send angels to guard you as My dearest, little lamb. I will protect you. I guide you. The enemy despises the children of the light for he knows his days are growing short and there are many souls he wants to snatch from Me. You, My child are precious to Me. More precious than gold. He cannot harm you, therefore, he does try to make your life miserable to dissuade you from serving Me. Do not be concerned or anxious My darling for nothing can harm you, if you do not allow it to harm you. I say this because nothing from without can harm you for I will not allow it, but you must give Me each and every trial, issue, concern, obstacle and problem. Release it to me, for only when you give it to Me completely, trusting in Me with great confidence can I begin to act as your Lord and your God. You see, daughter of My heart when one focuses constantly on the many concerns of life, trying to analyze this solution and that, this outcome and that, one is giving power to the enemy. When one accepts life’s challenges, brings each one to Me and then trusts Me to guide, guard and direct, never worrying and fretting, one gives power to Me, God. I do not need power, for I am all power, however I will not act and engage My power, My life force until My children grant Me free reign for I respect the gift of free will that I created within you. Do you see, My child? It really is that simple. As to the interview, go where I open doors for these meetings (for there will be more) are also to bring My light to souls. Continue to trust Me, for that is essential. I will lead you. Have no fear. My angels surround you. My Mother keeps Her watchful eye on you for you have given your ‘yes’ to Her, as well. You are important to Her plan, My child. There is much work to do, My daughter and during this transition time, remain at peace. All will be well. I love you. My Mother loves you. You are surrounded by a loving family and friends. Bask in Our love. That is all and that, My dear is everything.”

Thank You, dearest Jesus for giving my daughter so much beautiful insight. You are most kind and loving. Thank You, Jesus!

“You are welcome, My child. I love you and all of My children more than you can possibly imagine. I am always available to My children. I invite all of My children to bring each and every difficulty in life to Me. I am the Savior of the world.”

Yes, Jesus. You certainly are. I love You, my Savior, my Lord and my God. Jesus, what should we do about our plans, Lord? (for the house) Should we continue working with the architect or should we stop now and ask for guidance from someone who works with the builder. It is becoming very expensive, Lord. What is the best path forward, Jesus. We are unable to see the future, and You know everything, Lord.

“My child, what you and your husband discussed this morning is for the best. Make the last few modifications and leave the rest for later decision. Time is of the essence now, so bring this to closure and begin the process of building.”

Alright. Thank You, Jesus.

“It is important to finalize the plans, getting what is needed to begin the build. Some things can be decided later. The structure is important for that will be more permanent. Other changes or decisions can occur later. Move forward as I have asked for all will begin to fall in place soon.”

Jesus, I have not been able to complete what (name withheld) has asked of me, for the retreat. Please intervene for us with regard to the initial steps.

“My daughter, you have done all that has been requested, have you not?”

I initiated, Lord but the tasks have not been accomplished.

“My child, completing your part is not the same as accomplishing the part of others. You did what you were asked. The others will need to follow through. You cannot control the actions of others, My daughter. You have followed through. Now you must let go and trust in Me. All will be well. Read the words I conveyed to you about this retreat and My Mother’s involvement. Allow Her the latitude to work.”

Yes, Lord. Thank You, Jesus. Lord as we begin this most holy of weeks, bring us close to You, Jesus. Help us enter into the events of holy week, and enfold us in Your sacred, merciful heart. We love You, Jesus. What can I do for You this week?

“Meditate on My passion and death. Stand by Me at the foot of My cross. Comfort My Mother. Comfort Me. Come with Me to the cross and be with Me.”

Yes, Jesus. I am here with You now. Give me the strength to remain with You in Your agony, Lord. It is difficult seeing someone you love suffer. It must have been excruciatingly painful for the Blessed Mother, St. John and St. Mary Magdalene. Help me to be like them, Lord. They not only gave You their 'yesses' but they stood firmly, rooted in You, at Your side during the most difficult time in history when God was murdered in the flesh. I don't know how they did so, except by the graces poured out upon them. They love You well. The Blessed Mother loved (and loves) You perfectly. I love imperfectly and yet I do not want to abandon You, Jesus. I want to proclaim my love for You, to witness to Your goodness, Jesus even if the world abandons You. I am weak, though and I do not have the love, faith, courage and mercy that St. John, St. Mary Magdalene and the Blessed Mother have. Give me the graces to love heroically, Lord; to stand rooted in Your love and to be unmovable in the face of trials, persecutions and evil. Give me Your peace, Your love, Your mercy. I want to be like Your Holy Mother Mary. I cannot unless You grant me graces for holiness that come from and through Her.

"Yes, My daughter. I understand. I will that you stand with Me, My daughter and for this I will give you every grace needed to grow in My love. Your desire consoles Me, My child. This week will be a week of emotional suffering for you as you share in the events of My passion. Do not be concerned, My daughter for we will walk together toward Calvary. Remember that joy comes in the morning and with the Resurrection. Do not be afraid, for I am with you. When you feel alone and isolated as I did, I will send one to console you, to pray for you, My little St. John. He is a great saint now."

Yes, Jesus. Thank You, Jesus. This is a great gift, Jesus. I do not deserve this, but I am grateful, Lord. Jesus, have You anymore to say to me today?

"My child, you are tired again and are not resting as I have asked. This week you will need to abide by the work schedule as I have outlined for you and all will go well. Join in the events that lead up to the death and Resurrection of the Savior of Mankind."

Yes, Jesus. I will do better this week at leaving on time, Lord. Thank You for reminding me, Jesus. I will join in the sacred events this week, Jesus. I love You. Thank You, Jesus for the good people who come here to be with You in Adoration. They are so dear. Please help (name withheld) to recover fully from his surgery. Please be with (name withheld) and help her son to be more attentive and willing to help her. Lord, please continue to be with my family and protect them in the days ahead. I am concerned for those who will not be prepared, Jesus. Help them to get to a safe place, Jesus when the time comes. Please keep all of our family & friends (my husband's and mine) safely under Your Holy Mother Mary's mantle of protection.

"My daughter, you have heard recently about what is being planned by leaders of foreign nations, as well as your own country's leader. This will come to pass, My little one. Trust in Me, your Jesus for all to go according to God's plan. You are to remain at peace, trusting in Me. You will be in the community of My Mother's prior to the most serious events, with time to prepare for those I send you. Continue to grow in holiness, reading and reflecting on My life, passion, death and resurrection. In this way, you will have the strength to endure. My Mother and I are with you."

Thank You, Jesus. I love You, my Lord, my God and my all! Jesus, have You anything more to say to me?

"My child, tell My children to be alert for they do not know the hour I will call for them. Your lives are short, My children. Live for Me. Live for your neighbor, those in need. Follow Me. Time is passing and the days are growing short. Turn your backs on your sinful lives, you who live for the world and for worldly pursuits. Live for Me. Live for the Kingdom of Heaven. Be mercy.”

Jesus, forgive me of my sins and cleanse my heart, Lord. I want to live for You, my Jesus. I love You.

“And I love you, My daughter. I forgive you. I desire this Mercy Sunday be the feast in which the most children open their hearts to receive the ocean of mercy I pour out upon the world. This feast was given to the world for this period of history when so many souls are in danger of perishing. I am all goodness, love and mercy. Mankind is in need of Me, of My mercy and yet the majority are not open to receive the gift of My mercy. The majority of souls alive in the world do not love Me, do not love one another. My creatures lack faith in their Creator and they walk about as bodies devoid of souls.”

“You have souls, My children. Do not act as though you are the walking dead for I breathed life into you. All of My children were created in My image and were and are endowed with a soul. This is what you take when you go to Heaven; your soul. Cleanse and purify your souls, My children in the sacrament of My mercy, reconciliation. Go to the well frequently to draw the water of My mercy. This water is free for the asking. There are no strings attached, My children. I give this water of forgiveness to you, out of love, out of My merciful heart. Do not leave this gift of mercy unopened. Feast on this banquet of Mercy. Go now in peace, My daughter. You are My little lamb and for this, I give you My thanks.”

Jesus, we love You. We give You our gratitude for everything You have done and do for us, Lord. I love You. My husband and I love You, Lord. Help us to enter into this holy week with You in Your final hours before the Resurrection.

“Go now and be at peace My son and My daughter. I thank You for visiting Me in the Blessed Sacrament. I bless you in My Father’s name, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Trust in Me. Be at peace. All will be well.”

Thank You, Jesus. Amen!

March 22, 2015, Adoration Chapel

Hello my Jesus Christ ever present in the Blessed Sacrament of the altar. I love, adore and praise You, my God and my King. Thank You for inviting us to be here with You today. Thank You for holy Mass this morning, Lord, for the beautiful inspiring Women’s Conference yesterday. It was such a gift, Jesus. Thank You for all those who planned and worked so hard to bring about the conference. I am grateful for the sacramental nature of this beautiful holy event. Thank You for the priest who heard my confession and for the opportunity to be with You in Adoration yesterday. Two days in a row, Jesus! How good You are to me, Lord!

Thank You for the priest, Father (name withheld) who was with us during the conference, for his faithfulness, his great way of presenting the truths of our faith and for the spiritual gifts You have given him for Your church, Lord. Praise You, Jesus now and forever. I love You, Jesus. Thank You for Your love! Thank You for surrounding me with so many holy women yesterday, for (names withheld). Jesus, thank You for the grace of meeting (name withheld) today and sharing with her the Precious Blood Chaplet. You have given Your church so many gifts, Lord Jesus. Thank You!

“My daughter cast off your worries and leave them here with me. Your heart is burdened with many things, My child and though important and serious, I prefer you allow Me to carry these burdens and instead be filled with trust in Me.”

Thank You, Jesus for reminding me to give everything to You. Give me Your peace, Lord Jesus. Help me to remember that there is no need for worry, that what is needed is trust.

“You are welcome, My daughter. I am pleased that you answered My Mother’s invitation to attend the conference, for there were many graces made available to all who attended, and also for their families. Thank you for being with Me in Adoration yesterday, and for deciding to be with Me today, even though you spent time in Adoration yesterday. Many would have stayed home if they had been in Adoration the day before. “

“I love you, My daughter and appreciate the faithfulness and devotion to Me that you and your husband have. I am your friend and you are Mine. Friends spend time together. Friends talk with one another, and share their problems and joys. This is what I desire all My children to do and in this way souls can be formed. This is not the only way, My children but this is a most efficacious way. My daughter, you read the prophesies of Barnabus given to him to warn the world and also to give My children a powerful method of prayer. Do not be disturbed or troubled by what you read, My child. I grant you My peace and assure you of My protection and that of My Mother.”

Jesus, is it true what is reported to have been said by You to Barnabus (about the priests)?

“Yes, My child. All that I said to Barnabus is true and will come to pass. My child, My child, I have told you many of these things and so why are you allowing this to upset your peace?”

Jesus, how can it not disturb my peace? The part that is most upsetting is about the priests. Jesus, spare them. Protect them from harm, Jesus. Please, Jesus. We need Your priests. Jesus, please protect them; hide them under Your holy Mother Mary’s mantle. If there is a shortage of priests now, Jesus, what is to become of us when so many perish?

“My little lamb, I, the Good Shepherd will provide. I entrust many of My holy priest sons to you and your husband and this is why your mission is vital to the region where you are going. You will be responsible for those I send to you, as will your community in doing what they can to protect them. However, I remind you that My holy and most pure Mother Mary will cover Her community with Her all encompassing mantle of protection. All that is required is your ‘yes’ to My plan. I will always protect My church from the gates of hell and as you know this does mean that the gates of hell are trying and will continue to try to prevail against My one true holy and Apostolic church. My child, this has always been true since I established My church and it will be so until the end of time. I, however will not allow hell to triumph, for My Mother’s Immaculate Heart will triumph.”

“What is needed of My children of light? More rosaries; more Divine Mercy chaplets. This is what is needed, for these are the weapons in the hands of My little children who support My Mother Mary in the greatest war ever foretold in the history of the world, when My Mother and Her little army of Our children defeat My adversary. Little children of My heart; all of you, you are Her army and a great battle is being waged for souls. These are not merely hollow words, My children. This is a real battle and the evil one wages it for your souls. You must take up arms, and by that I mean the holy rosary and little Faustina’s chaplet which I gave to her for these times. Be sure to clean the homes of your souls through repentance, confession, Mass and seeking forgiveness from anyone you may have offended or harmed.”

“My little ones, My church has the answer to safeguard your souls, for I have given this answer to My church. The sacraments fill you with saving graces, which I obtained for you at Calvary. Through My death and resurrection, these graces were made available to all who believe in and follow Me. If you are one who is not within the walls of My church, I have provided a way for you, also. Pray to know the truth; the fullness of truth. If you seek Me, you shall find Me. Knock, My children, and the door of My heart will be open to you. I will not refuse anyone who earnestly seeks Me.”

“I love you, My children. I love all of you and I love each one infinitely more than you can imagine in your humanity, for only God can love you in this way. You will understand this more when you reach Heaven. For now I ask only that you say ‘yes’ to Me and I will provide all that is needed. I desire all come to the fullness of truth, that is found in My holy and Apostolic church. Do not be concerned that it is impossible for you to be in union with My splendid church or think there are too many obstacles to be in union with My church, for I am God and nothing is impossible for Me. Nothing. If you do not will to be united in the faith I left with the Apostles, so be it. I will continue to love you, regardless, however I want what is best for you. I provided what is best and for My children, I want nothing less than the best. Graces are still available to those who stand outside the church, for they flow out from My church and into the world. However, I desire My children to be carriers of My graces. I desire you have the protection that My church provides. If you are seeking My will for you, and are open to My direction in prayer that is all I need to lead you to My holy church.

To My children who doubt My church due to the weaknesses and sins of those who represent My church, I say this—all have sinned and fallen short of My glory and yet My church is holy, and by that I refer to the teachings handed down by My Apostles. Again, I say seek and you will find Me. My children who are not united with My church, earnestly seek with an open heart and return to Me. Come, My children and do not delay for I have invited you and I issue a standing invitation to you to My holy banquet, which is offered at each and every Mass. I pour out Myself to you in the Holy Eucharist and I give Myself to you so that you can be united with Me in a complete and substantial way.

A good and holy spouse is not stingy, picking and choosing which part of his life he will share with his bride. A good, holy, loving spouse holds nothing back, gives all, shares all and gives his entire self to his bride. You are My bride, My church and I am the Great Bridegroom who holds nothing back. I share everything, My entire person with you, My human and My divine nature and I did so at Calvary and have done so from the moment of Consecration on that first Holy Thursday with My Apostles, and at every Mass said throughout the world ever since. I withhold nothing from you, My children, but you must be present at the banquet at My table to receive. Come, My children. Explore the richness of the one true faith. My daughter, many are invited but few are chosen, and this is because so many refuse to answer My invitation. If the bride does not come to the wedding she cannot be united to the bridegroom. Do you see now My daughter?”

Yes, my Jesus. Thank You for explaining this. I never fully understood this scripture passage. It always seemed as if some were selected but not all, and that didn't seem like You, so I often wondered about this passage. Now, I understand that You invite everyone created to the wedding feast, to the table of the Lord to receive Your body, blood, soul and divinity in the Eucharist, but the ones who refuse to “come to You in the Eucharist” cannot be ‘chosen’ for they do not desire to be. They do not ‘RSVP’ so to speak, or they decline the invitation. Please inspire more people to seek the truth that is found in the Catholic Church. I long for all to come to know You in the Eucharist, Jesus. You are so beautiful, hidden in the bread of the altar. I love You, Jesus! Thank You for giving Yourself to the world in this way. You are all love and all love is You.

“My child, I draw your attention, yet again to the message you read earlier today given to My son Barnabus. You had a brief moment that deeply disturbed you, as My Spirit infused you instantly with the knowledge of what is to come as it pertains to My holy priest sons. I allowed this for you to remind you to take seriously what has been conveyed to you many months ago, so you will be reinvigorated in your zeal to pray for your shepherds, for My priests. These are special sons of My Mother’s and She is pleading with Her children for more prayer. This prayer will provide protection for My church, for without My priest sons, there can be no sacraments available for My children. Do you see the importance I am placing in your prayers. I say this to all of the children of light, as well as to you, My little lamb. More rosaries prayed from the heart are needed. In battle, it is often true that reinforcements are needed. Often, supplies are depleted and more supplies are necessary, as are more weapons. This is the case now, My children and more rosaries are needed. I understand that you all feel you do not have time to add another rosary to your day. “

“I ask you then to examine what it is you could stop doing to allow time for another rosary. Perhaps you could rise 30 minutes earlier or go to bed 30 minutes later in order to do as your Jesus asks of you. Perhaps you will stop watching television or doing something else that is useless in order to save another soul for My Kingdom. Your time is precious, My children of light. The hour is dire indeed and yet many of My children are still using precious time to watch television, or to play games, or idly chat about unimportant things via the telephone.”

“Wake up My children of light. Your brothers and sisters are literally drowning in a cesspool of sin and evil while you sit idly by paying no attention. Pray and pray My children as never before. You do not see what is going on in your world for you are numb to the needs of your brothers and sisters. If you do not think others’ problems are your problems, think again. No man is an island unto himself, My children. All are connected. All are spiritually related through God the Father, the Creator of all. Do not act like the son of Adam who said, ‘Am I my brother’s keeper?’ Do not behave like one with no regard for his brother’s life. You are your brother’s keeper and you are your sister’s keeper. It is your responsibility to love your neighbor as yourself. Which one of you would ask a friend for prayer if you had a life threatening illness? Which one, My children of light? All of you! All of My believing children and even some of My unbelieving children would ask faithful friends to pray for them if they learned they had cancer or some other illness that consumes the flesh and life of the body. You cannot fool Me, for I know your hearts.”

“Again, I say you are to love your neighbor as yourself. Love your neighbor. Pray the holy rosary for conversion of those who do not know or have not been aware of My love. This is the mission of the baptized, to pray for conversion of your brothers and sisters. This is the least you can do, and I would like to ask you to do more as you are sent forth from prayer. However, without prayer the actions fall short and this is why, My children the evil one has gained so much ground. Pray, pray, pray and again I say, pray, pray, pray. This is why My Holy Mother Mary has said, ‘speak less and pray more’ for many souls are in danger of falling into the fires of hell. This is all I will speak of this subject today, My little one for nothing more can be said.”

Yes, Lord.

“My daughter, I return to the most disturbing topic for you of the violence and persecution that will be carried out against My church and My holy priest sons.”

Must we discuss this, Jesus?

“Yes, My child for it is My will that your family be as prepared as possible. You will provide for those I send you and you will be ambassadors of love, protection, provision and above all humility. You are to be humble servants to those in need. I call you all to be prepared to bind and dress wounds, wash feet, provide meals and clean clothes and to do all that is physically required to care for My sons. Without your family, without your community and those My Mother has personally selected throughout the world not even ¼ of their lives would be saved. My little lamb, you must not cry now, for I need you to write what your Jesus has to say, for this is a critical message to the world that is to My children of the Renewal. That is better little one. I have given you My peace, My graces. Are you feeling better now?”

Yes, Jesus, a little. This must be prevented, Jesus. I beg of You. Please, Jesus. We need our priests and they do not deserve to be treated in this way. We love You, Lord and we love Your priest sons.

“Yes, My little child. I understand more than you can know during your time on earth. My child, you have often meditated on My passion with a desire to console Me, your Jesus. I ask you to continue to meditate on your suffering Christ. See with what great love I poured out Myself for the life of the world?”

Yes, sweet Savior. You love like no other, for You are our Messiah, the Son of the Living God.

Yes, Jesus. That is so amazingly beautiful and why I love them so very much for saying ‘yes’ to Your invitation, to their vocation of love.

“Well said, My child. Now, who will the adversary attack first and with great violence? I will answer for you, My darling. My adversary will attack My church and this you have already begun to see and to witness in your lifetime. In order to attack My church, he attacks My priests, for by doing so he is attacking the closest ones who resemble Me, the high priest. When he inspired men to kill the first born sons of Bethlehem, he did so to kill Me, the Son of God, the Messiah sent to save all men. He wanted to take My life to prevent Me from laying it down to save all. He hates My holy priest sons more than anyone else, other than My Most Holy and Pure Mother Mary. He sees My priest sons as many, many little Christs, those who imitate Me and carry on the life of grace, the life of the church, for they are My hands, and My heart for My children of light. They are the ones who snatch souls from hell as they allow Me to absolve the sins of My children in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. They are on the front lines of the battlefield for souls, My daughter. You and My son, your husband, are to be the medics for My wounded warriors. My (name withheld) community will be their way station and your family will serve them directly. I intend to pour many graces out through the spotless hands of My Mother Mary; Graces of heroic love for which you pray, graces of hospitality, graces for courage, fortitude and perseverance, graces for protection and discernment of spirits. You will need each one of the graces dispensed by My Mother for Her community. You will all be well disposed to receive these graces for I am forming each one, even the youngest of the members within the (community name withheld) family for you must be prepared for what is to come, and I assure you, all will be prepared. I will never set My children up for failure and I do not ask of you that which you are ill-equipped to do.

You must increase your trust in the one true God for all life will be hanging in the balance. My Mother tips the scales for goodness, truth and beauty and the more children she has listening to Her and doing all that She asks, the quicker the enemy will be defeated. The enemy, of course will be defeated for this has been foretold from ages past and even before the creation of the world, was the plan of God the Father. The speed to which this occurs will depend on the strength of Her army and this army is constituted by Her children Her apostles. Have no fear, My children, children of My Most Holy, Most Pure Mother, the Immaculate One, for those who follow her will be protected under Her mantle. Do as She tells you, for She is perfectly united with Me, with the Most Holy Trinity. Her will resides within My will and is in union with the will of the Father. Do as She says, so it will go well for you. This is My plan. This is My will. Take Her hand and do not let go.

I encourage all of My children now to consecrate yourselves to Me through My Most Holy Mother Mary for this is the battle plan. Consecration is a powerful instrument of God and causes all who consecrate themselves to act with precision and in unity with Me. Have no fear My children. I am with you. Put Me in the first place well above the things of this world, for the hour is late and there will not be much time to prepare if you do not begin now. Begin by going to the sacrament of forgiveness. Begin by reading My Word, the Holy Scripture. Begin by praying for your brothers and sisters in need. Pray for your shepherds. Pray for the elderly and the pre-born. Be love to others. Be mercy. You are all in the trenches together and your survival depends on Me, My Mother and on one another. We are all in this together, My children of light and we go forward with you.

You have legions of angels protecting you and the saints in Heaven who love you and pray for you. Do not hesitate to call on the angels and saints for they are also working on your behalf. It is time now to realize you are children of the living God. You must begin to behave like the children of the King, for this is who you are. Care for one another. Share with one another. Trust in Me to provide for the needs you will have and which you do not know now. All will be well, but you must pray. I am counting on you, My children. Live the Gospel message now and live it when the times grow even darker, for many souls will turn to My children who follow Me and I am asking, and I am expecting those who love Me, to love their brothers and sisters in need. These are times like none other in the history of the world, and I have decided those who would say 'yes' to Me to be those who would learn of and come to understand the gravity of the state of the world. You are reading this, and have understood My word and My Holy Mother's appearances at Medjugorje, Lourdes, and Fatima and the preparation, formation, and warnings She has lovingly given to Her children. You, My Mother's Apostles, have been given much, and consequently much is expected of you. In order for you to respond to the needs of My lost children, I shower graces upon you and My Mother dispenses them to each one of Her children according to the need and to assist with each one's mission for My Kingdom.

So have no fear. You have and will have all that is needed as it is needed. I do not expect you to know what to do in all situations, but I do expect you to pray for direction. Follow My Mother. Follow the plan which I will reveal to you as time progresses and all will be well. I love you and I am counting on you to respond to My Mother's call to pray more and speak less. My children, I cannot overemphasize Her words for when you pray more and speak less, you are able to hear My whispers of love and direction. You are more sensitive and open to the promptings of My Holy Spirit. This is critical for your preservation, both spiritually and physically. Listen to My Mother for this is Her time and this is why I, Jesus Christ say, listen to Her. God the Father Himself has entrusted His creation to the daughter of His, the Mother of the Most High, the Queen of Heaven and earth, Mary of Nazareth. Do not be puzzled by this statement, you who have hardened hearts toward My Mother. Did I not trust Her completely to nurture Me in My humanity while I formed in Her womb? Did I not trust Her, I the Son of God, to nourish Me with Her milk, to shelter Me in the embrace of her arms, within Her cloak, keeping Me safe and warm? Did I not entrust Her with helping Me learn to walk, to speak, to change My soiled diapers? If I, your God, your Savior, your Lord decided to trust the Virgin Mary, who are you to distrust Her? Children, use your gift of reason and if this is being blocked by your intellect, than ask for the gift of faith.

If I needed a mother, do you think I would leave you motherless? I, who share all with you, who gave all to you including My life, who continues to see to all of your needs, share even My Mother with you. I am the perfect example for you. Imitate Me, and love My Mother. Remember to call on St. Joseph, for he is the guardian of the Holy Family, the guardian of My church, and he will protect you. You have only to ask for the help of Mary and Joseph and they will hasten to your side.

Remember all I have taught you, for you will also need to teach others who are yet to be born or who are still young. You, My children will need to catechize those who convert to My church during the time of great trials for they will have no formal means of catechesis. All will be well. We will get through this together and My Mother's Immaculate Heart will triumph in the world. She will triumph over My adversary and Hers. Life will be beautiful after the triumph of Her heart and it will have been worth every sacrifice, every prayer, every suffering when you see what God has planned for the time of the renewal. My son, My daughter, continue on in faith, hope and love. Be encouraged knowing My Mother will work beside you and will walk beside you. Her community will come to fruition for this is My Father's plan. He wills this for My Mother and for Her children. Allow Her to guide you in everything, even in the smallest of details. Thank you for your love. Thank you for your sacrifices. Continue the fasting I requested of you, My son and My daughter, for in this way you are helping to open the hearts of My priest sons to receive graces of protection, graces for conversion, graces for love and this (love) is desperately needed at this time. Go now in My peace and in the Heart of My Immaculate Mother. I bless you in the name of My Father, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Go in peace. Be love. Be mercy. Be light."

Thank You, Jesus. We love You!

"And I love you."

March 15, 2015 Adoration Chapel

Dearest Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, I adore and praise You. Thank You that we are able to be here with You, Jesus. Thank You for holy Mass this morning and for making it possible to go to confession yesterday. Thank You for (priest name withheld) who is so good and merciful. He is truly a blessing to our parish, Jesus. Thank You for good and holy priests, who teach and speak the truth that is You, Jesus. Praise You, Lord God of all, maker of Heaven and earth. Thank You for the gift of life and the gift of salvation. You paid the highest price to give us this gift of redemption, Lord. Please keep me free from sin and enfold me in Your precious, Sacred Heart. I want to follow You and You alone my sweet Savior, my Jesus.

“My daughter, I am glad you and your husband are here, adoring Me in the Sacrament of the altar, My presence in the Eucharist. I also died and rose again to leave this Sacrament, the Sacrament of My body, blood, soul and divinity for you and all of My children. I leave My presence with you with each Consecration, as I am deposited into the holy dwelling place, the tabernacle. My presence among you is a living witness to My love for My people. Graces are present, yes even abundantly so for those who come to adore Me in My Eucharistic presence. All are invited to join Me, to visit with me, to pray and to receive My direction in My Eucharistic presence. I desire that My children come to Me in the sacrament of the altar. My heart thirsts for My children and burns with a holy desire for all who are distant from Me. Console Me, My children of light by visiting Me in Adoration, where I wait patiently for My children. Come, you will learn more about My love by sitting in silence with Me. Those who seek Me will find Me. Come, My children.

This world is full of distraction, noise, and clamors for your attention. It is in silence that you will find rest from all that makes you weary. It is in the silence that you will learn to hear My still small voice. I do not try to compete with the noise of this world My children, for I am not of this world, and yet I created the world in which you live. I do not need to compete with something I created, and yet the world I created was filled with beauty, stillness, peace and joy. Man has corrupted the earth and the skies with his pollution, noise, stench of power, greed and every sort of lewd conduct, materialism and hatred. Even the earth groans for My second coming. It is not yet time for this second coming of Mine, no. If I descended upon mankind at this time in history, too many souls would be lost forever. In this age of disobedience I am sending a tidal wave of graces for conversion. Conversion will be offered for all who are alive and in this final phase of the Age of Disobedience many souls will be converted. For those who refuse this final moment of incredible grace, they will discover they are left in the open during the darkest of nights. They will be filled with terror, while My children of light are filled with the greatest peace and serenity. My child, this is most difficult for you to write and yet this does not come as a surprise to you by now. My child, why does this still cause you to dread? Do you not have complete trust in Me, your Savior?”

Yes, Jesus. I trust in You. I shudder for those who will be caught unaware. Jesus, I am so much more aware of Your gentle love, Your tender heart and deep mercy. When You allow me a glimpse of Your justice, I do shudder. Your power is masked and I sometimes forget how terrifying it will be during the days of extreme darkness.

“Yes, My little lamb. I understand, and yet it is out of love that I warn My lost children. I do not want to lose one single soul to the enemy, and yet to watch what My children are doing to one another, to the poor and vulnerable, especially those in the womb, is an abomination to the Most High God.

First, My people will experience My mercy. Renew your hearts, children of the world. Repent and return to the Lord, your God. I will forgive you. I await your return with open arms. This is the season of My mercy. Open your hearts and receive My mercy which I long to pour out on you; each one of you. If you do not accept My mercy. You will soon experience My justice. My justice is also mercy; for those who live in My light and My love, experience My mercy, but also My children of light experience the sins of their brothers and sisters and the filth of the evil one who wages war on My Mother's children. For My children of light, My justice will also be Mercy for they do not deserve to live amongst such evil. I will purify the earth with My fire, which is the fire of My justice and the fire of My love. I will renew the face of the earth.

First, My children, I am coming to renew your hearts. I set your hearts on fire with the fire of My love and in this way, My renewal will occur. During this season of lent, reflect on My passion and death, the great love of the heavenly Father who sent Me, His only son to ransom the world. Meditate on My passion, children of My heart. Carry your crosses and follow Me, your Jesus. Many abandoned Me during My agony and death. Do not abandon Me now, My children. I, your Jesus need your love, for I will to need your love. I will this, because I first loved you, and a heart that loves as My heart, yearns to be loved in return. You are My bride, My holy church, My people. I love you. You are Mine and I am yours. We belong together, but only if you choose to follow Me. Only if you choose to love Me. I accept love only on these terms; for I respect the gift I have given you, that of your free will. If one does not love freely, then it isn't love at all, but a type of bondage. I created My children to love freely and I invite you to love Me as I love you. I laid down My life so that you could live; and live in the fullness of truth and love. I will not force My love on you, but I offer and I invite. I pursue you with My love. I call you into a relationship with the Creator, with the Trinity; the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Walk with Me, My children and you will have My life within you."

Jesus, I love You. Forgive me for the times I have not loved well. Forgive me for the times I have failed to show love to my neighbor. Jesus, our friend (name withheld), died. I know that You prompted me to call him and talk to him, and I did not follow through. I am very sorry, Jesus that I did not recognize these promptings as coming from Your Holy Spirit, or if I did, I did not take them seriously, but put this off thinking I could call him later. I didn't realize he was dying, Lord though I should have followed through regardless. I need to be more aware of Your 'Divine Directives', Jesus. Please forgive me and accept my prayers for the repose of his soul.

"My child, all is forgiven. I know of your love for My son and he does, also. It is not My will that you flog yourself with missed opportunities. I gave you these promptings so that you could be a blessing to (name withheld), and for your own sense of closure on a life well lived. My son knows you love him. Now, I ask that you pray for him and for (name withheld). That is what I desire."

Yes, Jesus. I will pray for them. Please give him my love. Jesus, may I ask You for direction regarding something (name withheld) has asked?

"Yes, My child. Let's discuss this."

Jesus, (name withheld) asked me if my husband and I would plan the retreat for the community. I think he wants to have something soon, and it seems we should say 'no' since we will be moving soon. There is so much, yet to do. I don't know how we can plan this and do it well with so much going on and when/if we do something like this, we want to give our full attention to it so that we are open to Your direction and Your Spirit. Jesus, it seems like the timing is wrong, but we do not want to say 'no' to him, either. Lord, You know my tendency to take on too much at one time. This is something I continuously struggle with. I also love planning events, so I am really unsure as to Your will. Jesus, what would You have us do in this situation?

"My daughter, I would like you to agree to plan the retreat for I desire to bestow many blessings on My Mother's community. I have already infused you with ideas for providing access to the Sacraments to further unite My Children of (community name withheld). You recognized these ideas as coming from Me and yet I know of your reservations. My child, I have prompted My son to invite you to do this. My daughter, what is needed is more trust in Me for I will assist you. My Mother will assist you and therefore it will be a grace filled, holy time. I desire this time for My children, for there is much in store for My Mother's communities and this is a time of purification and a time of preparation. I want My children to be fully prepared for the mission ahead of them. My child, I know that you will not refuse Me and yet you are free to say 'no'."

My Jesus, I will not say 'no' to You. I give You my 'yes.' I also do not want to disappoint You, Lord or fall short when this is so important. I don't want to let You down or my brothers and sisters. Jesus, the timing is what concerns me most. How are we to plan this sacred event during our relocation?

"My little one, you are focusing on the wrong thing, the timing. Do not constrain yourself with timing. I am outside of time, for I created time. Trust in Me, My daughter. Everything is under My control, if you only give it to Me. Ask Me for direction in all things and I will give you direction."

Yes, Jesus. Lord, my husband and I were talking about this and I wondered if we could hold the retreat in the fall instead of the summer. Summer may be what is best, though Jesus.

"You have only to give your 'yes', to seek My will in prayer and to trust Me to provide everything. It will work out and will be the best of all timing, My timing, when complete trust is given to Me."

Alright, Jesus. Thank You, Lord.

"You are surprised by My reply?"

Not really, Jesus. I guess I was hoping You would tell me I was taking on too much or that I wanted to say yes to (name withheld) because I was doing 'my will' and not yours. There is a part of me that is happy but I have mixed feelings because of all that is going on in our lives. I also know that things will not slow down for a very long time, and we all really need this retreat to provide an open time to learn, pray, receive Your graces and to draw closer to Your Mother's Immaculate Heart which will serve to unite us even more as a community. I look forward to this time together and ask You to help us to do all that You will, Jesus. My husband and I want to be open vessels for Your will, and to be more aware of what it is You and the Blessed Mother desire for this retreat. Above all things, Lord I want to please You. I want to provide everything You want for Your children, but am so limited in what I can do. Please guide (name withheld) in his role as founder of the community and help us to be humble followers of Yours, Jesus. Your plans are so much bigger than anything we can see or know, but we are so grateful to be part of Your plan in whatever way You allow us to participate. Give us graces to do Your will Jesus in all things.

"My little lamb, this is precisely why I have invited you and your husband to plan My retreat. You recognize this is My Mother's plan, My plan and you are willing to do your small part without even knowing or considering what this 'part' is. This is what I desire for you; to follow Me though you do not know specifically where or what that will bring. This is trust, My child and you are growing in the area of trusting in Your Savior. This process is one of small steps, and yet you make progress even with small steps. This will be a time of great grace for My Mother's community, as she is forming each one of Her children. The retreat will be a time of special closeness; closeness for all of you, to one another and also a special time of closeness to My Holy Mother Mary. She will guide everything that is to occur down to the smallest detail, for this is Her community and she is keeping a watchful eye on everything, even the smallest detail which goes unnoticed by everyone. All is going according to Her plan, to My plan and all is within the will of My Father.”

Knowing this, my Jesus takes much of the anxiety away. Lord, I am very grateful that You are giving us so much grace as a community and I thank You that Our Lady is keeping a watchful eye on us. She is the best Mother. All good mothers keep an eye on their children, not allowing them to stray too far, or venture into harm’s way. Our Lady does everything with excellence, so if She is going to guide everything that is to occur, as You say, then our part will be easy. Thank You, Jesus for reminding me that our ‘job’ is to say yes and to do our small part. You do the heavy lifting for us, Jesus when we allow it. Thank You, Lord. Praise You, Jesus!

“My child, all will be well and yes, all will be excellent since it will go according to My plan. One other thing I ask of you is to remember this. Remember that it is My plan, even when things seem challenging or do not work out in the way you had hoped or expected, for I have a better plan, one which will exceed your expectations. I am with you. I am with your husband. I will guide you, as will My Mother as you work with (name withheld) to plan this time of prayer and time of grace. I desire this be a sacramental time, as well for in that way, the closest unity will come to pass, for everything begins with and ends with Me. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. My child, what is at the center of everything?”

I’m not sure what You mean, Jesus. For me, the center of everything is the Sacred Heart and Your Mother’s Immaculate Heart. I sometimes picture myself asking You to enfold me in Your heart and then somehow, in My heart I feel You taking me in, embracing me, and wrapping me closely with love. Everything is immediately peaceful, safe and secure. So, for Me, Your heart and the heart of Your Mother is the center of everything.

“Yes, My little one. This is precisely the answer. I am the center of all that is, and My Sacred, Merciful Heart is at the center of the center. It is at the core. This is truth, My child. My Mother’s heart is perfectly united with My heart, for She is within the Blessed Trinity, within the very heart of Me, Her Son. If you enter into My Mother’s Immaculate Heart, you are in essence dwelling within My heart and vice versa. So, this is why your answer that both of Our hearts are the center, is correct. I desire each child of Mine to take up residence in My Mother’s Immaculate Heart. As each one does so, you are united, not only with Her and with Me, but with one another. This is why you must love your brothers and sisters for if one does not have love for one another, there is no place for them in My Mother’s heart which is all love. My Mother’s communities are to be a model of holiness, which is to say, a model of love. In order to love in the way I desire, you must be open to receive My love. I will shower you with graces for love when you open your hearts to Me, My children. My Mother will guide you in this. Ask Her to show you, to teach you how to love and She will do so. She is waiting for Her children to ask Her for Her motherly guidance. She is longing to form Her children, to guide you so that you become the most beautiful children of God. Take My Holy Mother Mary’s hand and do not let go of Her. She is the sure way to Me, My children. She is the first disciple, and the first to be filled with My Spirit. She is the one and only spouse of the Holy Spirit. All others imitate this union as in the holy, consecrated children of Mine. My Mother is the model for all of My children. Emulate Her and ask for Her instruction and formation. My daughter, I desire that My children of the community continue to request this of My Holy Mother Mary. Remember, you belong to Her community. It is only proper to ask the one who leads you, to form you.”

Yes, Jesus, of course. Are we falling short of this, Jesus?

“My child, I remind you and all of My children so that you continue to request this of My Mother. This is to keep you all within Her heart and under Her holy mantle. This is of the utmost importance for all that is to come, which will be impossible for My children of (name withheld) and all of My children, if you do not hold fast to My Mother. A time is coming, and for this I Prepare you, that will try My children as in fire. Through this trial of fire those, who are united with My Mother’s Immaculate Heart, will come through this time, shining like the sun and in this way will be a holy example, a holy witness to the world.”

Jesus, this seems far beyond me, but I believe You. The ‘world’ is certainly a big scope and yet I know Your Mother has said we cannot begin to comprehend how important our role is in Your plan. I am paraphrasing and I hope I am not misquoting Her, Lord but I know we are to pray more, for direction and guidance so that we are open to Your holy will and the plan You have for us.

“Yes, My daughter. Prepare yourselves completely now for your move. Finalize everything, for things will begin to move quickly for you. Soon the final requests will be made and approval granted for the community. Afterwards, things will move quickly as I have told you previously. All is going according to plan. My Mother is assembling the remaining families for the first phase of Her community. There is much work to do to build and form community. This is why there are others ahead of you, who can show you the way and who will help you and come to your assistance. This is why some of My refuges have been prepared, also. They are now in a waiting period and able to offer their assistance. The community will come together quickly now, according to My plan and unity is of the utmost importance. I urge all members to remain focused on Me, on why they have accepted My Mother’s invitation, during the busy times ahead so as not to lose sight that this is God’s will. This is My Mother’s community and you are Her children. Many eyes will be upon you and I desire all to see a community of believers, united in My Mother’s heart, a light for others to see what it is to love one another. Be love. Be mercy. Be forgiveness. Be light. Be salt. Be leaven for the world. All of My children would do well to follow My Mother.”

Thank You, Jesus! Lord, help us to do Your will, and not our will. Give us the graces we need so this is possible. Lord, my daughter is still suffering. Please help her to get well. Please heal her, Jesus. We love her, Lord and I beg You to help her. Give her graces, Jesus to carry this very heavy cross. Help her, console her, and encourage her, Jesus. She has had so much suffering in her young life, Lord. Please keep her within Your Sacred Heart. Protect her, and give her all that she needs to continue on in this most difficult journey. Help us to assist her, Jesus and to be open to what it is You want us to do to support her during this time of suffering. Thank you for her witness, for her joy and for her love. She touches many hearts for You, Lord. I am grateful for her, Lord. Thank You for my son, too and for the progress You have made in his life. Help him to continue to follow You, Lord and not to be discouraged. He is grateful for all You do for him, Jesus. Lord, I ask for Your blessing and protection for (name withheld) as she nears the time of her daughter’s birth. Keep them safe, Lord. Please heal her husband’s migraines, Jesus. He has suffered for so long with no end in sight, Jesus. Please give him relief from this lengthy ordeal. Thank You for protecting my husband and for keeping him free of a pulmonary embolism. Please heal him, also Lord. Jesus, I don’t know where we would be without my husband. Thank You, Lord for giving me such a devout, faithful husband, who is our spiritual leader. Lord, You have blessed me in countless ways. Thank You. Please keep all of my family, my dad and my siblings and all of my friends safe during the coming turbulent times. You have described these days ahead as the times of great trials. Hide us within Your Sacred Heart and keep us all hidden under Your Mother's mantle of protection. Most of all, Lord help us to do Your holy will, no matter the cost. May I live for You, Jesus so that one day I can die for You. Thank You for St. Padre Pio's assistance, Lord and his ever watchful presence in my life and in my family's life. Thank You for reminding me to ask for the intercession of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton and St. Anne. Jesus, have You anything more to say to me today?

"My daughter, remember all that I have told you regarding your family's mission which will unfold for you when you are safely embedded within My Mother's community. I say this so that all you endure will serve to prepare you for the mission within a mission. Many lost little ones will be in need of an anchor and I desire your family to be this 'port in a storm' for them, as well as for My holy priest sons. Look at everything that occurs, no matter how large or how small as a preparation for My Father's plan. Pray the prayers I have given you each day for they will serve to open you more fully to My direction and to My graces. All will work to prepare you and your family for your role in My plan. Go now in My peace. I am with you. My Mother is with you. Be of good cheer, regardless of the suffering, for all serves to form you into My Mother's apostles. Go now in peace, and in joy. Be love. Be light. Be mercy. Thank you for the mercy you showed yesterday when you witnessed to My forgiveness and the joy of My Sacrament of Reconciliation. I am pleased and I am grateful. Continue on the path I have laid out before you. I walk with you. I bless you in the name of My Father, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit."

Thank You, Lord Jesus. I love you!

"And I love you."

April 19, 2015, Adoration Chapel

Dearest Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament of the altar, it is good to be here with You, my Lord, my God and my All. Praise You, thank You for this time today. My husband and I missed being with You last weekend in this holy little chapel. It was nice to be with our friends for the wedding of (names withheld), but so difficult not being home, where we could keep our "hour" with You. Thank You, Jesus that we had access to visit with You there in the church's Divine Mercy Chapel. It wasn't much time, Jesus but so wonderful to have even a few minutes.

Lord, I thought about what You have told me that one day we would not be able to adore You openly in the Holy Eucharist. It was difficult for us that one weekend. I can't imagine (nor do I want to) what it will be like in the future without easy access to Adoration. We are so very blessed, Jesus to have several Perpetual Adoration Chapels in our city. Thank You, Lord for Your goodness and Your mercy. I love You, Lord; hidden in the Eucharist. I love You in the holy bread that is Your true presence, body, blood, soul and divinity. Thank You for the miracle, of the Eucharist where You remain physically with Your bride, the Church.

Jesus, my daughter is facing surgery this week, as You know. She is somewhat anxious and even unsure she should go through with this. I understand why she feels this way, as I would be nervous, also and yet I don't see that she has any choice. Her condition continues to worsen. If she doesn't have the procedure, short of being healed by You, she will get to the point of not being able to walk. Lord, she is concerned about the time off work, her job, the second surgery she will need later, and so many other things. Jesus, You know everything. You know what is on her heart and her mind. Lord, what would You say to all of these concerns, I know they are normal and yet so very real. Do You have anything to say to this, my Lord and my God?

"My daughter. Tell My (name withheld) to trust in Me. I will be with her while she undergoes this needed surgery. My little one, cast all of your burdens unto Me. Allow Me to care for and to provide for you. I will guide the hand of the surgeon. This will be a most difficult time for you, the time of recovery, but I will draw you to Myself. Take My hand and let us walk this difficult journey together. We must get to the other side of this process by walking through the desert. Allow your family and friends to minister to you. In time, you will be doing the same to and for others. Going through this experience will prepare you in the best way, My little one. Having been on the receiving end, you will be in an excellent position when you are ministering to others who are physically poor and in need of care. Who better to care for those in need of care, than one who has experienced the good care of others in her time of need. Come, My child, I am a good Savior. I have also walked My time of suffering, My passion. I know what it is to suffer. You will not be abandoned, for I never abandon My children. I will watch over you even where your parents who love you, cannot. I go where they cannot go. I will remain with you. I will protect you, My child. You belong to Me and I to you. My little one who so lovingly, yet fiercely defends Me to others, would I, your Lord and your God not do likewise? I will answer this for you with an emphatic-Yes, of course I would and I will. My little one, all will be well. You must lean on your Jesus and those I have given to you as family. Remember that St. Paul said, 'It is in weakness that He is strong?' Yes, My child, often My creatures need to understand what it is to rely completely on your Jesus in order to see firsthand that I am a trustworthy, faithful God. I am true to My word. Yes, you believe this, but this will be a time of experiencing this. I know, you have experienced My love before and have relied and trusted in Me, and this is good. I am calling you to an even deeper knowledge of My love and a deeper level of trust. Do not be afraid for I am one upon whom you can rely. Be confident in Me, My child for I am your God. I am your Jesus. I love you. Rest in My love."

Thank You, Jesus for Your direction. You are so wonderful and engaged in our lives, Jesus. Thank You for Your reassurances. Praise You, Jesus! I marvel at Your kindness and tenderness toward us, Your people who do not deserve You, Lord and yet You love us so intimately. Thank You for Your love, Lord. Jesus, we are still struggling with getting everything accomplished to begin showing our house. It is on the market of course, but still we haven't really pushed it or tried to "market" it. There is always so much to do, and something major that needs to be done. Or, maybe not major, but lots of things that add up to major work. My husband continues to work so hard on it and though we know it doesn't need to be perfect, we continue to see flaws and things that could be issues to perspective buyers. Are we completely outside of Your will, now Jesus? You said previously that we would sell in the spring, but perhaps we haven't really cooperated with Your plan? With so many medical issues, I am unsure of the timing now. I am not questioning You but that we did not fully cooperate as You requested. How do we balance what needs to be done, versus how we want to leave things for the family who will purchase our home? We want things to be beautiful and in good order for the family who moves in to our home. We want to do Your will, Jesus and need Your guidance with the details. What would You have us do, Jesus? It sounds like such a small thing, but since this affects the Mission and timing of events that only You know, we are not in a position to determine our next steps. Please Jesus, help us to do what it is You want us to do.

“My child, I have already given you the answers to these questions. Focus on selling your home so you can move to the next phase of the journey. I do not desire you spend countless hours on additional work. I already know the buyer and this is the house they need for their family. Suspend the other items on your list of things to do for the time has passed for all to be as you and My son desire. My children, I know of your good intentions. You must, however trust that I, as God, know the best course. I have said you must finalize all preparations. My timetable has not changed and therefore you must begin packing your things and showing your house. If there is something more the buyer wants you to do specifically, that can be worked out later. You do not know their tastes or their preferences. What you think is perfection, will not matter to them. You are focusing on the wrong things. Focus your energy on preparing to move and by that I mean packing your belongings, beginning the build of your new house and preparing to move. That is enough to occupy your time while people begin to view your house. It will not be long once you begin showing your house before a buyer will emerge. Remember that you are to hold firm to what is needed financially for the right buyer to emerge. I am directing this process, but you must follow through as I have said, for your free will can change the outcome. Trust in Me, Your Jesus and do as I say. Recall that you bought a house that was far from perfect, knowing there would be work to do to fix it up. That did not stop you, My child. The same will be true for the family that buys your home. More trust is needed.”

Yes, Jesus. Thank You, Jesus. Lord, please be with (name withheld) who lost her to a car accident. Be with their children, who are suffering this great loss. Please comfort and console them, and also (name withheld) who is so very sad. She cannot travel to be with the family, Lord and this is making her even more sad. Thank You that we were able to talk today, Jesus. Thank You for using me to console her in some way.

“Thank you, My child for allowing Me to work through you. You were merciful and compassionate, taking the time to sit with her. I, your Jesus was pleased. I am with them, My child. I walk with (name withheld) and her children and (name withheld), too. I will continue to work through (name withheld) and her family. Trust in Me during this difficult situation. I have been a stranger in a foreign land myself when My family fled to Egypt to avoid Herod. I am working in this situation and I will guide (names withheld) on the path they should go. There will be unity one day with them and with their family.”

Thank You, Jesus. You are amazing and good to us beyond measure. I love You, my Lord and my God. Thank You for the love You showed us from the cross and that You continue to demonstrate to us on a daily basis. You truly give us everything, like the good father in the story of the Prodigal Son. You share everything with us! Thank You good and gracious God. We love You.

“My little lamb, the time has come today for us to discuss what is to come. The earth as you know it will go through many changes. Some of these changes will be from man’s doing and some from God. My adversary will wreak havoc upon the children of My Mother and also upon the earth. You have experienced this, from the adversary already, of course, but the events will occur more frequently and will escalate in severity. All of the immediate or the first long phase of events will be from the evil one. These events will include “natural” disasters as well as battles and skirmishes fought by those who want more world power. Lands will be taken over and My church will suffer more persecution. This persecution will serve to both purify and cleanse the church as well as to root out those who are against the church. When you see all of these things take place, you will also begin receiving My holy priest sons and many children who will have escaped and in some cases survived great atrocities. The time of ministering to them and giving them your home for respite will be an extended period, My child.”

“Suffering, as you have never experienced will show up on your doorstep, and will require much focus, attention, love and care from your family as you cannot yet imagine. I will give you the graces necessary to love heroically and to expend your energy, and your very hearts on loving and caring for these people of refuge who will be innocent victims of the evil ones who will inflict much damage and chaos on your land. Yes, My children, it will seem at times to be almost overwhelming and yet through love, unity and prayer this time of service, this time of pouring out yourselves for My children out of love will bring you joy, love and a new and larger family. Those families My Mother has selected to be part of Her community will also serve in specific plans I have. Each family is an integral part of My plan and that of My Mother’s. This is very important to the future, My child. My Father has willed this from the beginning.”

“Each person alive in the world today and following Me has a very important role to play in this, most urgent time in the history of civilization and by that I mean, all of history since God created man. My child, this is a grand plan; one which none of My children can even begin to comprehend. Later, one day those who have gone through the Time of Great Trials will understand how momentous the Father’s plan is for humanity and will know deeply in an intimate way, the provision of the Father. Were it not so, all and I say ALL would perish and the world would cease to exist. As I have said before, this will not occur for the Lord God is the Creator of the universe. It is He who is in control, not the adversary. However, once again our Children have strayed very far from God and by doing so, have mocked Me, the Savior who died to redeem mankind. Each individual has been redeemed at the highest price, the life of the Son of God. I gave My life, children for each one of you. I freely, gave My life, out of love and so you, also must freely choose Me, your God.”

“Since the time of My death and resurrection, many souls have followed Me. Many have served out of love, out of mercy. Many saints shed their blood for My Church, of which the entire world has taken advantage of and has prospered from both materially and where most important- spiritually. Yes, children, the world has received benefits from Christianity. Even those who are not Christian have benefitted greatly from a just society. All benefit by following the Commandments of love given to Moses by My Father. Reflect on this truth and be grateful to God. My children however have not spread My Gospel in fullness and have not lived the way I taught My disciples and Apostles to love. Some have but not enough. You have grown weary of your God and the life of love I call you to for your good and the good of your souls. Therefore, My Father sent the best from Heaven, My Mother due to Her incessant pleading on your behalf. Over and over He has consented to allow Her the time foretold in Scripture, and the time She has continuously pleaded for you so that She could teach what has been forgotten and in many cases neglected. She has been tireless in Her work on the earth to lead Her children to conversion of heart, to prayer, to love of God and fellow man, but few have listened and fewer have responded.”

“Time is running out My children. The time that was already an extension from the Father, due to the great love, purity and humility of My Most Holy Mother Mary, is coming to a decisive end. I say decisive because the children of this world, by turning a deaf ear to My beloved Mother, your last chance for large scale warnings and conversions of heart, have given their ‘no’ decision. This is the same as the pride of Lucifer who said, ‘I will not serve.’ He was referring to his unwillingness to serve Me, Jesus, who would become human in the incarnation. He felt he was too good, as a creature of light, an angel to serve Me like the Son of Man, true God and also true man. And, so he fell from grace once and for all and willingly so.”

“Is this not what My stubborn, hard hearted children, who know Me and refuse to follow Me are saying? Not all have the knowledge of Me, of course and so are not as culpable, but all of My children are made in My image and likeness and have My image engraved on their hearts. Some who do not know Me, still serve the truth and goodness that was planted in them as a seed at their conception and in many ways are more holy than those who learned about Me in their youth and rejected Me for the trappings of the world. Turn back to your God while there is still some time, My lost children for time is running out for you and for the current ways of the world. The world as you know it is about to change in unheard of ways. For many, the outcome of the changes will be justice, mercy and looked upon as long-awaited changes. Woe to you who refuse to serve Me, though for you refuse to serve the truth and the life and all that is good. By doing so, in your refusal, you are choosing darkness. There is no more time to sit on the fence, dallying in this worldly sin and that, while knowing in your heart that I AM is God. The time has come to choose. You must choose life, or choose death, and by this I am referring to eternal life or eternal death. Choose life, My children for you were created for Heaven and not for hell.”

“My daughter, My little lamb, you are weary from this sinister world and all that it entails. I know that the more I emphasize the darkness, the more weary you become. I see how fatigued you are on a daily basis, and yet I am your God. I love you as I love all of My children, each one and so I continue to pursue, tirelessly until My children make their final decision. I do not desire that even one of My children perish, and so I continue to plead, to invite, to pursue, to present the truth, for I am all truth and all truth is Me. My daughter, many will read this message and it will be the first message they read. I remind you that you have been with Me on this journey for many seasons, but for some this will be the first time they have heard these words from Me. Do not be impatient with writing My words for many souls are at stake.”

Lord, Jesus, I will write anything You ask of me and as many times as You dictate the same words. I am Your servant, Lord Jesus. I sigh only because of the heaviness I sense from Your beautiful, Sacred Heart. Your love is so tender, so vast, so deep and people choose something that is trash (in choosing worldliness) versus choosing the most beautiful valuable treasure known to mankind—God and salvation. I sigh because we should be worshipping at Your feet, adoring and praising You out of our deep gratitude and love for You and yet we turn our backs on the greatest good. Because of Your goodness, mercy and love, You are left to go as a beggar after Your spoiled disobedient, sinful children. You are the perfect Father who loves and protects His children and yet we prefer digging in the garbage to being in Your heavenly kingdom. This is why I sigh.

Jesus, I have been blind, myself and I am a sinner, also, I sigh at my own foolishness and especially the sins of my youth. You are perfection, beauty, truth, freedom and perfect love. How is it that Your creatures, created out of love could be so foolish to follow the evil one who only wants our death and destruction and yet I realize that when people wander away from You, it is so easy to be led astray. Help us, Jesus to open our hearts, see the error of our ways and return to the refuge of Your Sacred Heart. Help us to listen to Your Mother and ours who only wants what is best for us—You. Remove our blinders, Jesus and infuse us with knowledge of You, knowledge of truth. Jesus, I know we have free will, and it is a great gift. I can't help but think of how tainted we are from living in this valley of sin. Perhaps man's minds have become so tainted, so darkened from all that surrounds him, that he is unable to detect even the bright lights that come from Your merciful heart. Jesus, You can infuse mankind with knowledge of You so that at least we are confronted with the full knowledge of You. Many, I think multitudes will convert once they have full knowledge of Your love, Your light, Your truth. Please pour out Your Spirit Jesus and renew the face of the earth.

“My child, you have written your prayer which is holy and true and comes from My Spirit, for this is exactly what I will do when I illuminate the hearts of all mankind. All will have knowledge of Me and will see My light in the fullness, such that their sins, the state of each person’s soul as I see it will be revealed to them. I have heard your prayer for one of your family members uttered to me during Mass, My child. The answer will come. Trust in Me for I will pursue each of My Mother’s and My apostles’ children and family members in such a way that it will be difficult for them to refuse. I will not convince all, for that would require that I do violence to some people’s free will, but My child do not worry for those I pursue who have a faithful family member will receive graces from the prayers of their faithful family member. This is why it is very important to grow in holiness for the fragrance of each soul who is holy, spills out onto the world and specifically onto their family and friends. Decide for holiness, My children of light for you are benefitting many souls by your living example. My child do you begin to see how vital each person is to My Father’s plan for His kingdom and the life of the world?”

I think so, Jesus. At least in the way that I can with my limited human capacity to know what You tell me. I love You, my Jesus. I love You. Help me to do Your will; to love and serve others in the way You desire. Please forgive me my many faults, shortcomings and sins. Renew me Lord, with zeal for You. Make my little heart burn for love of You.

“All is forgiven, My little lamb. Begin anew and move forward with a sense of purpose for the mission which My Mother is leading is before you and your family. All will be in motion now, My child and you must prepare as I have asked you, for your family’s flight into Egypt. I know how very difficult this will be for all of you. Yes, My little darlings, your Jesus asks much of you and all of My (community name withheld) of Mary. I ask much of those I love and of those who give Me their ‘yes.’ I ask much, but I also give much. Do not be concerned if you believe you have little to offer for it is not the amount you have, nor the skills, nor the talents, but that you serve Me with all that you do have. Only give Me your daily ‘yes’ and My Mother and I will provide the rest. We will ‘fill in the gaps’ as you say. In fact, the less you have, the better, for in that case you rely more on Me, your Jesus and on My Mother Mary to supply all that is needed. So, you see this is why I usually call those who are very small in the world’s eyes. Take courage for your God goes before you and My Holy Mother Mary sees to each and every detail with loving perfection as only She can do.”

“My children (of the community), you must pray more, trust more and decide to love more for that is what is needed and with My Mother guiding you, it is all that is required. Strive now for the utmost unity. Strive now to put every difference and every wish for yourselves aside for the plan of My Father who is your Father in Heaven. What is most important is love, prayer (which fosters and builds the love), unity (which is built on a foundation of prayer and love) peace and trust. Trust in Me for all things. If there are any needs for families or for the community to be built and formed take all to My Mother who will add Her graces and present your petitions to God the Father. We will not resist the requests of our Mary. Take all to Her for anything that is needed, for in this way, whatever She requests will be granted. My children who do not know My Mother will wonder about this, and so for this reason I repeat: My holy and most pure Mother Mary is in the heart of the Blessed Trinity and everything that We will is what She wills.

Her will is in perfect unity with God's will. Yes, you may say, but all in Heaven are in union with God and so all are united with the perfect will of God; to which I will say, YES! However, She, My Holy and most pure Mother Mary is the only person created who lived Her life on earth in perfect union with the will of God. This is why She is the most holy, most pure, Immaculate Virgin Mary, Queen of all saints, Queen of Heaven and earth and Queen of the Church. So you see My doubting children who do not yet understand My Mother's role in salvation, this is why you must take all of your needs and requests to My Mother. Every Queen Mother in the Holy Scriptures pointed to the Woman, My Mother, the handmaiden of the Lord, who gave Her pure 'yes' to the Angel Gabriel, My archangel to become Mother of Me, the Messiah. She did so at the cost of Her life as stated when She asked Her most holy and innocent question, "How can this be when I have not known man?" since She understood the act of conception and Her state of perpetual virginity. She was not questioning the possibility only wondered how it would come to pass. This is the difference between Her question and that of Zechariah, who doubted the ability of God to bring about the conception of a child in his and his wife's old age. My Mother never doubted God and gave Her full 'yes' to God, but only wondered and reflected on how such a beautiful, amazing act of God would occur in Her state in life. She asked out of a pure innocence and wonderment, not at all out of distrust or doubt. My children who follow Me, but do not care to pay attention to My Mother, you must pray and ask for the grace to understand My Mother's role in salvation, for when you do, you will be more confident in asking for Her help which you will sorely need during the time of great trials."

"Enough said about this. Each one must pray to comprehend and must seek. I love each one of My children and I desire you unwrap the great gift given to My children, My Most Holy Mother Mary. You have much to be thankful for and should show your gratitude to the one human being on earth, the only one who opened the way for the incarnation, the Messiah to come into the world to redeem mankind. Yes, she is fully human, and yet her 'yes' gave you the Messiah, the Savior. Yes, My children, I gave My most precious gift to you even while I was dying for you, My Mother to be your Mother. I am God, and I know what I am doing, even from the cross, I had full use of My faculties and I gave My life for the world and also gave the world My Mother. Do not be too prideful to go to Mary, for if I deigned to need Her, who are you to say you do not? Ponder this. Reflect on this. Pray to Me for wisdom and I will bestow wisdom upon you to recognize the great gift of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. I tell you this, because it is most important for you to know. I give you every help and every grace needed to win the prize of Heaven. I gave My life to bring you the Holy Spirit, the Church, the Sacraments, the Body of Christ and your family in Heaven, the saints. I withhold nothing, not even My beautiful Mother. Which of you would give what I have given? Would I withhold My most prized possession? No, you know I would not and yet you decide what it is you will choose to accept? Many reject My Holy Church, all 7 of the Sacraments, or some of them, and reject My Mother. This is not fullness of truth. My children who strive to follow Me but remain in your personal comfort zone, pray to know the truth and I will answer you. Seek with a sincere heart. All of this is important My children. It is not a matter of picking and choosing your opinions for what you will wear, what you will eat, what type of car you will drive. This is a matter of salvation and the eternal life of your souls."

"You will need to be armed with every gift from Heaven for your spiritual weapons. In the battle forthcoming, your arsenals need to be full. I offer all to you. I offer everything that is best. I offer the choicest of wines. Do not settle for the cheap wine, for that will not fortify you for the war that the evil one wages for souls. Choose all. Say; 'Yes, Jesus I accept every gift You have wisely chosen for me for the good of my own soul and the good of my brothers and sisters whom I choose to serve out of love for You, my God, my love, my Creator, my all.' In this way, you will be well equipped for the war that wages. Follow Me. Take My Mother's hand and follow Me. She has navigated perfectly through the snares of the enemy lines. In choosing Her, you are choosing one who has already navigated the snares of the enemy and She did so with perfect love, peace, and charity, always putting Me, Her Lord first. This is what you will want to learn and so I give you the best teacher, your Mother and Mine.

"Now, My little lamb who is My faithful secretary, you may go. Go in peace My sweet daughter. Go in peace, My faithful son. Do not allow anxiety room in your hearts for I desire to fill you with the grace of My peace and My love and also My joy. You must make room for that which I desire to give you for your journey will be much more fruitful with the graces I desire for you. Cast off all fear, all anxiety and do the will of God. All else will fall into place for you serve the King of all nations, your Jesus Christ the Returning King. Bring about My Kingdom, My children of light by doing your small but important part."

"That is all: I bless you in the name of My Father, in My name, and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Go in peace. Be love. Be mercy. Be joy."

Thank You, Jesus for Your love and mercy, for Your kindness and for the gifts You give us in Your Word, the Sacraments and in Your Holy Mother Mary. Give us grateful and trusting hearts, Lord so that we can love You and Your Mother as You desire. I love You, Jesus!!

"And I love you. All will be well. Only trust."

Yes, Jesus. Thank You! Amen!

Palm Sunday, March 29, 2015, Adoration Chapel

Hello, Jesus ever present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love, adore and praise You, my King and my God. Thank You for the gift of holy Mass this morning, Jesus. Lord, I bring my sister-in-law to You and lay her at Your feet. Lord, she is so ill with breast cancer. Please help her, Jesus. Heal her, Lord if it be Your divine will. Be with her and give her Your peace, Lord. Comfort and console her as she begins the chemotherapy treatments. Be with her husband, also. Jesus have You anything to say to me today?

"Yes, My daughter. There is much unrest and discord in the world. More prayer is needed. More fasting is needed to prepare for what is to come. My Mother has asked for fasting on Wednesdays and Fridays for years and few are those who take Her seriously. There is a reason My Mother has asked for this and continues to ask for fasting, for the world has become a dangerous place. I do not wish to alarm My children, however if you are praying you will already know this."

Yes, Jesus. Thank You. Lord, my daughter asked me to seek direction from You regarding her job and to ask if You have advice for her regarding the interview tomorrow. Do You have anything to say, Jesus?

"Yes, My child. Tell her to stay true to Me, her Savior. She is My daughter and she has dignity as do all of My children. She is My ambassador and she is to take Me into the world, the lonely, destitute world. She is to be My light, My love, My peace. There are those who need Me and she will bring Me to them."

Thank You, Jesus. I think she wanted to know something specific regarding her current job. She is suffering physically, Lord with health problems, and she is also suffering from persecution at work. What should my sweet daughter do about this, Jesus. Do You wish her to remain where she is, Lord?

“My daughter, she is to remain where she is for awhile longer. Souls are at stake and if she leaves now, whom will I send to be My living witness of joy and love. It is not only about those who work there, but also about those I send, invite, inspire to walk through the doors of this establishment. I send those who are lonely, hurting, rejected, far away from Me, Jesus. I send those who have not experienced My love for their hearts are hardened, cold and unloved by mankind. Some have suffered abuse, some have been overlooked. The attention, the smile, the kindness from your daughter causes the warmth from the Son to begin to thaw their frosty hearts. This is what it is I need from you, My dearest daughter who is My delight.”

“My (name withheld) you are being persecuted, but nothing will harm you for I send angels to guard you as My dearest, little lamb. I will protect you. I guide you. The enemy despises the children of the light for he knows his days are growing short and there are many souls he wants to snatch from Me. You, My child are precious to Me. More precious than gold. He cannot harm you, therefore, he does try to make your life miserable to dissuade you from serving Me. Do not be concerned or anxious My darling for nothing can harm you, if you do not allow it to harm you. I say this because nothing from without can harm you for I will not allow it, but you must give Me each and every trial, issue, concern, obstacle and problem. Release it to me, for only when you give it to Me completely, trusting in Me with great confidence can I begin to act as your Lord and your God. You see, daughter of My heart when one focuses constantly on the many concerns of life, trying to analyze this solution and that, this outcome and that, one is giving power to the enemy. When one accepts life’s challenges, brings each one to Me and then trusts Me to guide, guard and direct, never worrying and fretting, one gives power to Me, God. I do not need power, for I am all power, however I will not act and engage My power, My life force until My children grant Me free reign for I respect the gift of free will that I created within you. Do you see, My child? It really is that simple. As to the interview, go where I open doors for these meetings (for there will be more) are also to bring My light to souls. Continue to trust Me, for that is essential. I will lead you. Have no fear. My angels surround you. My Mother keeps Her watchful eye on you for you have given your ‘yes’ to Her, as well. You are important to Her plan, My child. There is much work to do, My daughter and during this transition time, remain at peace. All will be well. I love you. My Mother loves you. You are surrounded by a loving family and friends. Bask in Our love. That is all and that, My dear is everything.”

Thank You, dearest Jesus for giving my daughter so much beautiful insight. You are most kind and loving. Thank You, Jesus!

“You are welcome, My child. I love you and all of My children more than you can possibly imagine. I am always available to My children. I invite all of My children to bring each and every difficulty in life to Me. I am the Savior of the world.”

Yes, Jesus. You certainly are. I love You, my Savior, my Lord and my God. Jesus, what should we do about our plans, Lord? (for the house) Should we continue working with the architect or should we stop now and ask for guidance from someone who works with the builder. It is becoming very expensive, Lord. What is the best path forward, Jesus. We are unable to see the future, and You know everything, Lord.

“My child, what you and your husband discussed this morning is for the best. Make the last few modifications and leave the rest for later decision. Time is of the essence now, so bring this to closure and begin the process of building.”

Alright. Thank You, Jesus.

“It is important to finalize the plans, getting what is needed to begin the build. Some things can be decided later. The structure is important for that will be more permanent. Other changes or decisions can occur later. Move forward as I have asked for all will begin to fall in place soon.”

Jesus, I have not been able to complete what (name withheld) has asked of me, for the retreat. Please intervene for us with regard to the initial steps.

“My daughter, you have done all that has been requested, have you not?”

I initiated, Lord but the tasks have not been accomplished.

“My child, completing your part is not the same as accomplishing the part of others. You did what you were asked. The others will need to follow through. You cannot control the actions of others, My daughter. You have followed through. Now you must let go and trust in Me. All will be well. Read the words I conveyed to you about this retreat and My Mother’s involvement. Allow Her the latitude to work.”

Yes, Lord. Thank You, Jesus. Lord as we begin this most holy of weeks, bring us close to You, Jesus. Help us enter into the events of holy week, and enfold us in Your sacred, merciful heart. We love You, Jesus. What can I do for You this week?

“Meditate on My passion and death. Stand by Me at the foot of My cross. Comfort My Mother. Comfort Me. Come with Me to the cross and be with Me.”

Yes, Jesus. I am here with You now. Give me the strength to remain with You in Your agony, Lord. It is difficult seeing someone you love suffer. It must have been excruciatingly painful for the Blessed Mother, St. John and St. Mary Magdalene. Help me to be like them, Lord. They not only gave You their ‘yesses’ but they stood firmly, rooted in You, at Your side during the most difficult time in history when God was murdered in the flesh. I don’t know how they did so, except by the graces poured out upon them. They love You well. The Blessed Mother loved (and loves) You perfectly. I love imperfectly and yet I do not want to abandon You, Jesus. I want to proclaim my love for You, to witness to Your goodness, Jesus even if the world abandons You. I am weak, though and I do not have the love, faith, courage and mercy that St. John, St. Mary Magdalene and the Blessed Mother have. Give me the graces to love heroically, Lord; to stand rooted in Your love and to be unmovable in the face of trials, persecutions and evil. Give me Your peace, Your love, Your mercy. I want to be like Your Holy Mother Mary. I cannot unless You grant me graces for holiness that come from and through Her.

“Yes, My daughter. I understand. I will that you stand with Me, My daughter and for this I will give you every grace needed to grow in My love. Your desire consoles Me, My child. This week will be a week of emotional suffering for you as you share in the events of My passion. Do not be concerned, My daughter for we will walk together toward Calvary. Remember that joy comes in the morning and with the Resurrection. Do not be afraid, for I am with you. When you feel alone and isolated as I did, I will send one to console you, to pray for you, My little St. John. He is a great saint now.”

Yes, Jesus. Thank You, Jesus. This is a great gift, Jesus. I do not deserve this, but I am grateful, Lord. Jesus, have You anymore to say to me today?

“My child, you are tired again and are not resting as I have asked. This week you will need to abide by the work schedule as I have outlined for you and all will go well. Join in the events that lead up to the death and Resurrection of the Savior of Mankind.”

Yes, Jesus. I will do better this week at leaving on time, Lord. Thank You for reminding me, Jesus. I will join in the sacred events this week, Jesus. I love You. Thank You, Jesus for the good people who come here to be with You in Adoration. They are so dear. Please help (name withheld) to recover fully from his surgery. Please be with (name withheld) and help her son to be more attentive and willing to help her. Lord, please continue to be with my family and protect them in the days ahead. I am concerned for those who will not be prepared, Jesus. Help them to get to a safe place, Jesus when the time comes. Please keep all of our family & friends (my husband’s and mine) safely under Your Holy Mother Mary’s mantle of protection.

“My daughter, you have heard recently about what is being planned by leaders of foreign nations, as well as your own country’s leader. This will come to pass, My little one. Trust in Me, your Jesus for all to go according to God’s plan. You are to remain at peace, trusting in Me. You will be in the community of My Mother’s prior to the most serious events, with time to prepare for those I send you. Continue to grow in holiness, reading and reflecting on My life, passion, death and resurrection. In this way, you will have the strength to endure. My Mother and I are with you.”

Thank You, Jesus. I love You, my Lord, my God and my all! Jesus, have You anything more to say to me?

“My child, tell My children to be alert for they do not know the hour I will call for them. Your lives are short, My children. Live for Me. Live for your neighbor, those in need. Follow Me. Time is passing and the days are growing short. Turn your backs on your sinful lives, you who live for the world and for worldly pursuits. Live for Me. Live for the Kingdom of Heaven. Be mercy.”

Jesus, forgive me of my sins and cleanse my heart, Lord. I want to live for You, my Jesus. I love You.

“And I love you, My daughter. I forgive you. I desire this Mercy Sunday be the feast in which the most children open their hearts to receive the ocean of mercy I pour out upon the world. This feast was given to the world for this period of history when so many souls are in danger of perishing. I am all goodness, love and mercy. Mankind is in need of Me, of My mercy and yet the majority are not open to receive the gift of My mercy. The majority of souls alive in the world do not love Me, do not love one another. My creatures lack faith in their Creator and they walk about as bodies devoid of souls.”

“You have souls, My children. Do not act as though you are the walking dead for I breathed life into you. All of My children were created in My image and were and are endowed with a soul. This is what you take when you go to Heaven; your soul. Cleanse and purify your souls, My children in the sacrament of My mercy, reconciliation. Go to the well frequently to draw the water of My mercy. This water is free for the asking. There are no strings attached, My children. I give this water of forgiveness to you, out of love, out of My merciful heart. Do not leave this gift of mercy unopened. Feast on this banquet of Mercy. Go now in peace, My daughter. You are My little lamb and for this, I give you My thanks.”

Jesus, we love You. We give You our gratitude for everything You have done and do for us, Lord. I love You. My husband and I love You, Lord. Help us to enter into this holy week with You in Your final hours before the Resurrection.

“Go now and be at peace My son and My daughter. I thank You for visiting Me in the Blessed Sacrament. I bless you in My Father’s name, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Trust in Me. Be at peace. All will be well.”

Thank You, Jesus. Amen!

March 22, 2015, Adoration Chapel

Hello my Jesus Christ ever present in the Blessed Sacrament of the altar. I love, adore and praise You, my God and my King. Thank You for inviting us to be here with You today. Thank You for holy Mass this morning, Lord, for the beautiful inspiring Women’s Conference yesterday. It was such a gift, Jesus. Thank You for all those who planned and worked so hard to bring about the conference. I am grateful for the sacramental nature of this beautiful holy event. Thank You for the priest who heard my confession and for the opportunity to be with You in Adoration yesterday. Two days in a row, Jesus! How good You are to me, Lord!

Thank You for the priest, Father (name withheld) who was with us during the conference, for his faithfulness, his great way of presenting the truths of our faith and for the spiritual gifts You have given him for Your church, Lord. Praise You, Jesus now and forever. I love You, Jesus. Thank You for Your love! Thank You for surrounding me with so many holy women yesterday, for (names withheld). Jesus, thank You for the grace of meeting (name withheld) today and sharing with her the Precious Blood Chaplet. You have given Your church so many gifts, Lord Jesus. Thank You!

“My daughter cast off your worries and leave them here with me. Your heart is burdened with many things, My child and though important and serious, I prefer you allow Me to carry these burdens and instead be filled with trust in Me.”

Thank You, Jesus for reminding me to give everything to You. Give me Your peace, Lord Jesus. Help me to remember that there is no need for worry, that what is needed is trust.

“You are welcome, My daughter. I am pleased that you answered My Mother’s invitation to attend the conference, for there were many graces made available to all who attended, and also for their families. Thank you for being with Me in Adoration yesterday, and for deciding to be with Me today, even though you spent time in Adoration yesterday. Many would have stayed home if they had been in Adoration the day before. “

“I love you, My daughter and appreciate the faithfulness and devotion to Me that you and your husband have. I am your friend and you are Mine. Friends spend time together. Friends talk with one another, and share their problems and joys. This is what I desire all My children to do and in this way souls can be formed. This is not the only way, My children but this is a most efficacious way. My daughter, you read the prophesies of Barnabus given to him to warn the world and also to give My children a powerful method of prayer. Do not be disturbed or troubled by what you read, My child. I grant you My peace and assure you of My protection and that of My Mother.”

Jesus, is it true what is reported to have been said by You to Barnabus (about the priests)?

“Yes, My child. All that I said to Barnabus is true and will come to pass. My child, My child, I have told you many of these things and so why are you allowing this to upset your peace?”

Jesus, how can it not disturb my peace? The part that is most upsetting is about the priests. Jesus, spare them. Protect them from harm, Jesus. Please, Jesus. We need Your priests. Jesus, please protect them; hide them under Your holy Mother Mary’s mantle. If there is a shortage of priests now, Jesus, what is to become of us when so many perish?

“My little lamb, I, the Good Shepherd will provide. I entrust many of My holy priest sons to you and your husband and this is why your mission is vital to the region where you are going. You will be responsible for those I send to you, as will your community in doing what they can to protect them. However, I remind you that My holy and most pure Mother Mary will cover Her community with Her all encompassing mantle of protection. All that is required is your ‘yes’ to My plan. I will always protect My church from the gates of hell and as you know this does mean that the gates of hell are trying and will continue to try to prevail against My one true holy and Apostolic church. My child, this has always been true since I established My church and it will be so until the end of time. I, however will not allow hell to triumph, for My Mother’s Immaculate Heart will triumph.”

“What is needed of My children of light? More rosaries; more Divine Mercy chaplets. This is what is needed, for these are the weapons in the hands of My little children who support My Mother Mary in the greatest war ever foretold in the history of the world, when My Mother and Her little army of Our children defeat My adversary. Little children of My heart; all of you, you are Her army and a great battle is being waged for souls. These are not merely hollow words, My children. This is a real battle and the evil one wages it for your souls. You must take up arms, and by that I mean the holy rosary and little Faustina’s chaplet which I gave to her for these times. Be sure to clean the homes of your souls through repentance, confession, Mass and seeking forgiveness from anyone you may have offended or harmed.”

“My little ones, My church has the answer to safeguard your souls, for I have given this answer to My church. The sacraments fill you with saving graces, which I obtained for you at Calvary. Through My death and resurrection, these graces were made available to all who believe in and follow Me. If you are one who is not within the walls of My church, I have provided a way for you, also. Pray to know the truth; the fullness of truth. If you seek Me, you shall find Me. Knock, My children, and the door of My heart will be open to you. I will not refuse anyone who earnestly seeks Me.”

“I love you, My children. I love all of you and I love each one infinitely more than you can imagine in your humanity, for only God can love you in this way. You will understand this more when you reach Heaven. For now I ask only that you say ‘yes’ to Me and I will provide all that is needed. I desire all come to the fullness of truth, that is found in My holy and Apostolic church. Do not be concerned that it is impossible for you to be in union with My splendid church or think there are too many obstacles to be in union with My church, for I am God and nothing is impossible for Me. Nothing. If you do not will to be united in the faith I left with the Apostles, so be it. I will continue to love you, regardless, however I want what is best for you. I provided what is best and for My children, I want nothing less than the best. Graces are still available to those who stand outside the church, for they flow out from My church and into the world. However, I desire My children to be carriers of My graces. I desire you have the protection that My church provides. If you are seeking My will for you, and are open to My direction in prayer that is all I need to lead you to My holy church.

To My children who doubt My church due to the weaknesses and sins of those who represent My church, I say this—all have sinned and fallen short of My glory and yet My church is holy, and by that I refer to the teachings handed down by My Apostles. Again, I say seek and you will find Me. My children who are not united with My church, earnestly seek with an open heart and return to Me. Come, My children and do not delay for I have invited you and I issue a standing invitation to you to My holy banquet, which is offered at each and every Mass. I pour out Myself to you in the Holy Eucharist and I give Myself to you so that you can be united with Me in a complete and substantial way.

A good and holy spouse is not stingy, picking and choosing which part of his life he will share with his bride. A good, holy, loving spouse holds nothing back, gives all, shares all and gives his entire self to his bride. You are My bride, My church and I am the Great Bridegroom who holds nothing back. I share everything, My entire person with you, My human and My divine nature and I did so at Calvary and have done so from the moment of Consecration on that first Holy Thursday with My Apostles, and at every Mass said throughout the world ever since. I withhold nothing from you, My children, but you must be present at the banquet at My table to receive. Come, My children. Explore the richness of the one true faith. My daughter, many are invited but few are chosen, and this is because so many refuse to answer My invitation. If the bride does not come to the wedding she cannot be united to the bridegroom. Do you see now My daughter?"

Yes, my Jesus. Thank You for explaining this. I never fully understood this scripture passage. It always seemed as if some were selected but not all, and that didn't seem like You, so I often wondered about this passage. Now, I understand that You invite everyone created to the wedding feast, to the table of the Lord to receive Your body, blood, soul and divinity in the Eucharist, but the ones who refuse to "come to You in the Eucharist" cannot be 'chosen' for they do not desire to be. They do not 'RSVP' so to speak, or they decline the invitation. Please inspire more people to seek the truth that is found in the Catholic Church. I long for all to come to know You in the Eucharist, Jesus. You are so beautiful, hidden in the bread of the altar. I love You, Jesus! Thank You for giving Yourself to the world in this way. You are all love and all love is You.

"My child, I draw your attention, yet again to the message you read earlier today given to My son Barnabus. You had a brief moment that deeply disturbed you, as My Spirit infused you instantly with the knowledge of what is to come as it pertains to My holy priest sons. I allowed this for you to remind you to take seriously what has been conveyed to you many months ago, so you will be reinvigorated in your zeal to pray for your shepherds, for My priests. These are special sons of My Mother's and She is pleading with Her children for more prayer. This prayer will provide protection for My church, for without My priest sons, there can be no sacraments available for My children. Do you see the importance I am placing in your prayers. I say this to all of the children of light, as well as to you, My little lamb. More rosaries prayed from the heart are needed. In battle, it is often true that reinforcements are needed. Often, supplies are depleted and more supplies are necessary, as are more weapons. This is the case now, My children and more rosaries are needed. I understand that you all feel you do not have time to add another rosary to your day. “

“I ask you then to examine what it is you could stop doing to allow time for another rosary. Perhaps you could rise 30 minutes earlier or go to bed 30 minutes later in order to do as your Jesus asks of you. Perhaps you will stop watching television or doing something else that is useless in order to save another soul for My Kingdom. Your time is precious, My children of light. The hour is dire indeed and yet many of My children are still using precious time to watch television, or to play games, or idly chat about unimportant things via the telephone.”

“Wake up My children of light. Your brothers and sisters are literally drowning in a cesspool of sin and evil while you sit idly by paying no attention. Pray and pray My children as never before. You do not see what is going on in your world for you are numb to the needs of your brothers and sisters. If you do not think others’ problems are your problems, think again. No man is an island unto himself, My children. All are connected. All are spiritually related through God the Father, the Creator of all. Do not act like the son of Adam who said, ‘Am I my brother’s keeper?’ Do not behave like one with no regard for his brother’s life. You are your brother’s keeper and you are your sister’s keeper. It is your responsibility to love your neighbor as yourself. Which one of you would ask a friend for prayer if you had a life threatening illness? Which one, My children of light? All of you! All of My believing children and even some of My unbelieving children would ask faithful friends to pray for them if they learned they had cancer or some other illness that consumes the flesh and life of the body. You cannot fool Me, for I know your hearts.”

“Again, I say you are to love your neighbor as yourself. Love your neighbor. Pray the holy rosary for conversion of those who do not know or have not been aware of My love. This is the mission of the baptized, to pray for conversion of your brothers and sisters. This is the least you can do, and I would like to ask you to do more as you are sent forth from prayer. However, without prayer the actions fall short and this is why, My children the evil one has gained so much ground. Pray, pray, pray and again I say, pray, pray, pray. This is why My Holy Mother Mary has said, ‘speak less and pray more’ for many souls are in danger of falling into the fires of hell. This is all I will speak of this subject today, My little one for nothing more can be said.”

Yes, Lord.

“My daughter, I return to the most disturbing topic for you of the violence and persecution that will be carried out against My church and My holy priest sons.”

Must we discuss this, Jesus?

“Yes, My child for it is My will that your family be as prepared as possible. You will provide for those I send you and you will be ambassadors of love, protection, provision and above all humility. You are to be humble servants to those in need. I call you all to be prepared to bind and dress wounds, wash feet, provide meals and clean clothes and to do all that is physically required to care for My sons. Without your family, without your community and those My Mother has personally selected throughout the world not even ¼ of their lives would be saved. My little lamb, you must not cry now, for I need you to write what your Jesus has to say, for this is a critical message to the world that is to My children of the Renewal. That is better little one. I have given you My peace, My graces. Are you feeling better now?”

Yes, Jesus, a little. This must be prevented, Jesus. I beg of You. Please, Jesus. We need our priests and they do not deserve to be treated in this way. We love You, Lord and we love Your priest sons.

“Yes, My little child. I understand more than you can know during your time on earth. My child, you have often meditated on My passion with a desire to console Me, your Jesus. I ask you to continue to meditate on your suffering Christ. See with what great love I poured out Myself for the life of the world?”

Yes, sweet Savior. You love like no other, for You are our Messiah, the Son of the Living God.

Yes, Jesus. That is so amazingly beautiful and why I love them so very much for saying ‘yes’ to Your invitation, to their vocation of love.

“Well said, My child. Now, who will the adversary attack first and with great violence? I will answer for you, My darling. My adversary will attack My church and this you have already begun to see and to witness in your lifetime. In order to attack My church, he attacks My priests, for by doing so he is attacking the closest ones who resemble Me, the high priest. When he inspired men to kill the first born sons of Bethlehem, he did so to kill Me, the Son of God, the Messiah sent to save all men. He wanted to take My life to prevent Me from laying it down to save all. He hates My holy priest sons more than anyone else, other than My Most Holy and Pure Mother Mary. He sees My priest sons as many, many little Christs, those who imitate Me and carry on the life of grace, the life of the church, for they are My hands, and My heart for My children of light. They are the ones who snatch souls from hell as they allow Me to absolve the sins of My children in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. They are on the front lines of the battlefield for souls, My daughter. You and My son, your husband, are to be the medics for My wounded warriors. My (name withheld) community will be their way station and your family will serve them directly. I intend to pour many graces out through the spotless hands of My Mother Mary; Graces of heroic love for which you pray, graces of hospitality, graces for courage, fortitude and perseverance, graces for protection and discernment of spirits. You will need each one of the graces dispensed by My Mother for Her community. You will all be well disposed to receive these graces for I am forming each one, even the youngest of the members within the (community name withheld) family for you must be prepared for what is to come, and I assure you, all will be prepared. I will never set My children up for failure and I do not ask of you that which you are ill-equipped to do.

You must increase your trust in the one true God for all life will be hanging in the balance. My Mother tips the scales for goodness, truth and beauty and the more children she has listening to Her and doing all that She asks, the quicker the enemy will be defeated. The enemy, of course will be defeated for this has been foretold from ages past and even before the creation of the world, was the plan of God the Father. The speed to which this occurs will depend on the strength of Her army and this army is constituted by Her children Her apostles. Have no fear, My children, children of My Most Holy, Most Pure Mother, the Immaculate One, for those who follow her will be protected under Her mantle. Do as She tells you, for She is perfectly united with Me, with the Most Holy Trinity. Her will resides within My will and is in union with the will of the Father. Do as She says, so it will go well for you. This is My plan. This is My will. Take Her hand and do not let go.

I encourage all of My children now to consecrate yourselves to Me through My Most Holy Mother Mary for this is the battle plan. Consecration is a powerful instrument of God and causes all who consecrate themselves to act with precision and in unity with Me. Have no fear My children. I am with you. Put Me in the first place well above the things of this world, for the hour is late and there will not be much time to prepare if you do not begin now. Begin by going to the sacrament of forgiveness. Begin by reading My Word, the Holy Scripture. Begin by praying for your brothers and sisters in need. Pray for your shepherds. Pray for the elderly and the pre-born. Be love to others. Be mercy. You are all in the trenches together and your survival depends on Me, My Mother and on one another. We are all in this together, My children of light and we go forward with you.

You have legions of angels protecting you and the saints in Heaven who love you and pray for you. Do not hesitate to call on the angels and saints for they are also working on your behalf. It is time now to realize you are children of the living God. You must begin to behave like the children of the King, for this is who you are. Care for one another. Share with one another. Trust in Me to provide for the needs you will have and which you do not know now. All will be well, but you must pray. I am counting on you, My children. Live the Gospel message now and live it when the times grow even darker, for many souls will turn to My children who follow Me and I am asking, and I am expecting those who love Me, to love their brothers and sisters in need. These are times like none other in the history of the world, and I have decided those who would say 'yes' to Me to be those who would learn of and come to understand the gravity of the state of the world. You are reading this, and have understood My word and My Holy Mother's appearances at Medjugorje, Lourdes, and Fatima and the preparation, formation, and warnings She has lovingly given to Her children. You, My Mother's Apostles, have been given much, and consequently much is expected of you. In order for you to respond to the needs of My lost children, I shower graces upon you and My Mother dispenses them to each one of Her children according to the need and to assist with each one's mission for My Kingdom.

So have no fear. You have and will have all that is needed as it is needed. I do not expect you to know what to do in all situations, but I do expect you to pray for direction. Follow My Mother. Follow the plan which I will reveal to you as time progresses and all will be well. I love you and I am counting on you to respond to My Mother's call to pray more and speak less. My children, I cannot overemphasize Her words for when you pray more and speak less, you are able to hear My whispers of love and direction. You are more sensitive and open to the promptings of My Holy Spirit. This is critical for your preservation, both spiritually and physically. Listen to My Mother for this is Her time and this is why I, Jesus Christ say, listen to Her. God the Father Himself has entrusted His creation to the daughter of His, the Mother of the Most High, the Queen of Heaven and earth, Mary of Nazareth. Do not be puzzled by this statement, you who have hardened hearts toward My Mother. Did I not trust Her completely to nurture Me in My humanity while I formed in Her womb? Did I not trust Her, I the Son of God, to nourish Me with Her milk, to shelter Me in the embrace of her arms, within Her cloak, keeping Me safe and warm? Did I not entrust Her with helping Me learn to walk, to speak, to change My soiled diapers? If I, your God, your Savior, your Lord decided to trust the Virgin Mary, who are you to distrust Her? Children, use your gift of reason and if this is being blocked by your intellect, than ask for the gift of faith.

If I needed a mother, do you think I would leave you motherless? I, who share all with you, who gave all to you including My life, who continues to see to all of your needs, share even My Mother with you. I am the perfect example for you. Imitate Me, and love My Mother.

Remember to call on St. Joseph, for he is the guardian of the Holy Family, the guardian of My church, and he will protect you. You have only to ask for the help of Mary and Joseph and they will hasten to your side.

Remember all I have taught you, for you will also need to teach others who are yet to be born or who are still young. You, My children will need to catechize those who convert to My church during the time of great trials for they will have no formal means of catechesis. All will be well. We will get through this together and My Mother's Immaculate Heart will triumph in the world. She will triumph over My adversary and Hers. Life will be beautiful after the triumph of Her heart and it will have been worth every sacrifice, every prayer, every suffering when you see what God has planned for the time of the renewal. My son, My daughter, continue on in faith, hope and love. Be encouraged knowing My Mother will work beside you and will walk beside you. Her community will come to fruition for this is My Father's plan. He wills this for My Mother and for Her children. Allow Her to guide you in everything, even in the smallest of details. Thank you for your love. Thank you for your sacrifices. Continue the fasting I requested of you, My son and My daughter, for in this way you are helping to open the hearts of My priest sons to receive graces of protection, graces for conversion, graces for love and this (love) is desperately needed at this time. Go now in My peace and in the Heart of My Immaculate Mother. I bless you in the name of My Father, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Go in peace. Be love. Be mercy. Be light."

Thank You, Jesus. We love You!

"And I love you."

March 15, 2015 Adoration Chapel

Dearest Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, I adore and praise You. Thank You that we are able to be here with You, Jesus. Thank You for holy Mass this morning and for making it possible to go to confession yesterday. Thank You for (priest name withheld) who is so good and merciful. He is truly a blessing to our parish, Jesus. Thank You for good and holy priests, who teach and speak the truth that is You, Jesus. Praise You, Lord God of all, maker of Heaven and earth. Thank You for the gift of life and the gift of salvation. You paid the highest price to give us this gift of redemption, Lord. Please keep me free from sin and enfold me in Your precious, Sacred Heart. I want to follow You and You alone my sweet Savior, my Jesus.

"My daughter, I am glad you and your husband are here, adoring Me in the Sacrament of the altar, My presence in the Eucharist. I also died and rose again to leave this Sacrament, the Sacrament of My body, blood, soul and divinity for you and all of My children. I leave My presence with you with each Consecration, as I am deposited into the holy dwelling place, the tabernacle. My presence among you is a living witness to My love for My people. Graces are present, yes even abundantly so for those who come to adore Me in My Eucharistic presence. All are invited to join Me, to visit with me, to pray and to receive My direction in My Eucharistic presence. I desire that My children come to Me in the sacrament of the altar. My heart thirsts for My children and burns with a holy desire for all who are distant from Me. Console Me, My children of light by visiting Me in Adoration, where I wait patiently for My children. Come, you will learn more about My love by sitting in silence with Me. Those who seek Me will find Me. Come, My children.

This world is full of distraction, noise, and clamors for your attention. It is in silence that you will find rest from all that makes you weary. It is in the silence that you will learn to hear My still small voice. I do not try to compete with the noise of this world My children, for I am not of this world, and yet I created the world in which you live. I do not need to compete with something I created, and yet the world I created was filled with beauty, stillness, peace and joy. Man has corrupted the earth and the skies with his pollution, noise, stench of power, greed and every sort of lewd conduct, materialism and hatred. Even the earth groans for My second coming. It is not yet time for this second coming of Mine, no. If I descended upon mankind at this time in history, too many souls would be lost forever. In this age of disobedience I am sending a tidal wave of graces for conversion. Conversion will be offered for all who are alive and in this final phase of the Age of Disobedience many souls will be converted. For those who refuse this final moment of incredible grace, they will discover they are left in the open during the darkest of nights. They will be filled with terror, while My children of light are filled with the greatest peace and serenity. My child, this is most difficult for you to write and yet this does not come as a surprise to you by now. My child, why does this still cause you to dread? Do you not have complete trust in Me, your Savior?"

Yes, Jesus. I trust in You. I shudder for those who will be caught unaware. Jesus, I am so much more aware of Your gentle love, Your tender heart and deep mercy. When You allow me a glimpse of Your justice, I do shudder. Your power is masked and I sometimes forget how terrifying it will be during the days of extreme darkness.

"Yes, My little lamb. I understand, and yet it is out of love that I warn My lost children. I do not want to lose one single soul to the enemy, and yet to watch what My children are doing to one another, to the poor and vulnerable, especially those in the womb, is an abomination to the Most High God.

First, My people will experience My mercy. Renew your hearts, children of the world. Repent and return to the Lord, your God. I will forgive you. I await your return with open arms. This is the season of My mercy. Open your hearts and receive My mercy which I long to pour out on you; each one of you. If you do not accept My mercy. You will soon experience My justice. My justice is also mercy; for those who live in My light and My love, experience My mercy, but also My children of light experience the sins of their brothers and sisters and the filth of the evil one who wages war on My Mother's children. For My children of light, My justice will also be Mercy for they do not deserve to live amongst such evil. I will purify the earth with My fire, which is the fire of My justice and the fire of My love. I will renew the face of the earth.

First, My children, I am coming to renew your hearts. I set your hearts on fire with the fire of My love and in this way, My renewal will occur. During this season of lent, reflect on My passion and death, the great love of the heavenly Father who sent Me, His only son to ransom the world. Meditate on My passion, children of My heart. Carry your crosses and follow Me, your Jesus. Many abandoned Me during My agony and death. Do not abandon Me now, My children. I, your Jesus need your love, for I will to need your love. I will this, because I first loved you, and a heart that loves as My heart, yearns to be loved in return. You are My bride, My holy church, My people. I love you. You are Mine and I am yours. We belong together, but only if you choose to follow Me. Only if you choose to love Me. I accept love only on these terms; for I respect the gift I have given you, that of your free will. If one does not love freely, then it isn't love at all, but a type of bondage. I created My children to love freely and I invite you to love Me as I love you. I laid down My life so that you could live; and live in the fullness of truth and love. I will not force My love on you, but I offer and I invite. I pursue you with My love.

I call you into a relationship with the Creator, with the Trinity; the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Walk with Me, My children and you will have My life within you.”

Jesus, I love You. Forgive me for the times I have not loved well. Forgive me for the times I have failed to show love to my neighbor. Jesus, our friend (name withheld), died. I know that You prompted me to call him and talk to him, and I did not follow through. I am very sorry, Jesus that I did not recognize these promptings as coming from Your Holy Spirit, or if I did, I did not take them seriously, but put this off thinking I could call him later. I didn't realize he was dying, Lord though I should have followed through regardless. I need to be more aware of Your 'Divine Directives', Jesus. Please forgive me and accept my prayers for the repose of his soul.

“My child, all is forgiven. I know of your love for My son and he does, also. It is not My will that you flog yourself with missed opportunities. I gave you these promptings so that you could be a blessing to (name withheld), and for your own sense of closure on a life well lived. My son knows you love him. Now, I ask that you pray for him and for (name withheld). That is what I desire.”

Yes, Jesus. I will pray for them. Please give him my love. Jesus, may I ask You for direction regarding something (name withheld) has asked?

“Yes, My child. Let's discuss this.”

Jesus, (name withheld) asked me if my husband and I would plan the retreat for the community. I think he wants to have something soon, and it seems we should say 'no' since we will be moving soon. There is so much, yet to do. I don't know how we can plan this and do it well with so much going on and when/if we do something like this, we want to give our full attention to it so that we are open to Your direction and Your Spirit. Jesus, it seems like the timing is wrong, but we do not want to say 'no' to him, either. Lord, You know my tendency to take on too much at one time. This is something I continuously struggle with. I also love planning events, so I am really unsure as to Your will. Jesus, what would You have us do in this situation?

“My daughter, I would like you to agree to plan the retreat for I desire to bestow many blessings on My Mother's community. I have already infused you with ideas for providing access to the Sacraments to further unite My Children of (community name withheld). You recognized these ideas as coming from Me and yet I know of your reservations. My child, I have prompted My son to invite you to do this. My daughter, what is needed is more trust in Me for I will assist you. My Mother will assist you and therefore it will be a grace filled, holy time. I desire this time for My children, for there is much in store for My Mother's communities and this is a time of purification and a time of preparation. I want My children to be fully prepared for the mission ahead of them. My child, I know that you will not refuse Me and yet you are free to say 'no'.”

My Jesus, I will not say 'no' to You. I give You my 'yes.' I also do not want to disappoint You, Lord or fall short when this is so important. I don't want to let You down or my brothers and sisters. Jesus, the timing is what concerns me most. How are we to plan this sacred event during our relocation?

“My little one, you are focusing on the wrong thing, the timing. Do not constrain yourself with timing. I am outside of time, for I created time. Trust in Me, My daughter. Everything is under My control, if you only give it to Me. Ask Me for direction in all things and I will give you direction.”

Yes, Jesus. Lord, my husband and I were talking about this and I wondered if we could hold the retreat in the fall instead of the summer. Summer may be what is best, though Jesus.

“You have only to give your ‘yes’, to seek My will in prayer and to trust Me to provide everything. It will work out and will be the best of all timing, My timing, when complete trust is given to Me.”

Alright, Jesus. Thank You, Lord.

“You are surprised by My reply?”

Not really, Jesus. I guess I was hoping You would tell me I was taking on too much or that I wanted to say yes to (name withheld) because I was doing ‘my will’ and not yours. There is a part of me that is happy but I have mixed feelings because of all that is going on in our lives. I also know that things will not slow down for a very long time, and we all really need this retreat to provide an open time to learn, pray, receive Your graces and to draw closer to Your Mother’s Immaculate Heart which will serve to unite us even more as a community. I look forward to this time together and ask You to help us to do all that You will, Jesus. My husband and I want to be open vessels for Your will, and to be more aware of what it is You and the Blessed Mother desire for this retreat. Above all things, Lord I want to please You. I want to provide everything You want for Your children, but am so limited in what I can do. Please guide (name withheld) in his role as founder of the community and help us to be humble followers of Yours, Jesus. Your plans are so much bigger than anything we can see or know, but we are so grateful to be part of Your plan in whatever way You allow us to participate. Give us graces to do Your will Jesus in all things.

“My little lamb, this is precisely why I have invited you and your husband to plan My retreat. You recognize this is My Mother’s plan, My plan and you are willing to do your small part without even knowing or considering what this ‘part’ is. This is what I desire for you; to follow Me though you do not know specifically where or what that will bring. This is trust, My child and you are growing in the area of trusting in Your Savior. This process is one of small steps, and yet you make progress even with small steps. This will be a time of great grace for My Mother’s community, as she is forming each one of Her children. The retreat will be a time of special closeness; closeness for all of you, to one another and also a special time of closeness to My Holy Mother Mary. She will guide everything that is to occur down to the smallest detail, for this is Her community and she is keeping a watchful eye on everything, even the smallest detail which goes unnoticed by everyone. All is going according to Her plan, to My plan and all is within the will of My Father.”

Knowing this, my Jesus takes much of the anxiety away. Lord, I am very grateful that You are giving us so much grace as a community and I thank You that Our Lady is keeping a watchful eye on us. She is the best Mother. All good mothers keep an eye on their children, not allowing them to stray too far, or venture into harm’s way. Our Lady does everything with excellence, so if She is going to guide everything that is to occur, as You say, then our part will be easy. Thank You, Jesus for reminding me that our ‘job’ is to say yes and to do our small part. You do the heavy lifting for us, Jesus when we allow it. Thank You, Lord. Praise You, Jesus!

“My child, all will be well and yes, all will be excellent since it will go according to My plan. One other thing I ask of you is to remember this. Remember that it is My plan, even when things seem challenging or do not work out in the way you had hoped or expected, for I have a better plan, one which will exceed your expectations. I am with you. I am with your husband. I will guide you, as will My Mother as you work with (name withheld) to plan this time of prayer and time of grace. I desire this be a sacramental time, as well for in that way, the closest unity will come to pass, for everything begins with and ends with Me. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. My child, what is at the center of everything?"

I'm not sure what You mean, Jesus. For me, the center of everything is the Sacred Heart and Your Mother's Immaculate Heart. I sometimes picture myself asking You to enfold me in Your heart and then somehow, in My heart I feel You taking me in, embracing me, and wrapping me closely with love. Everything is immediately peaceful, safe and secure. So, for Me, Your heart and the heart of Your Mother is the center of everything.

"Yes, My little one. This is precisely the answer. I am the center of all that is, and My Sacred, Merciful Heart is at the center of the center. It is at the core. This is truth, My child. My Mother's heart is perfectly united with My heart, for She is within the Blessed Trinity, within the very heart of Me, Her Son. If you enter into My Mother's Immaculate Heart, you are in essence dwelling within My heart and vice versa. So, this is why your answer that both of Our hearts are the center, is correct. I desire each child of Mine to take up residence in My Mother's Immaculate Heart. As each one does so, you are united, not only with Her and with Me, but with one another. This is why you must love your brothers and sisters for if one does not have love for one another, there is no place for them in My Mother's heart which is all love. My Mother's communities are to be a model of holiness, which is to say, a model of love. In order to love in the way I desire, you must be open to receive My love. I will shower you with graces for love when you open your hearts to Me, My children. My Mother will guide you in this. Ask Her to show you, to teach you how to love and She will do so. She is waiting for Her children to ask Her for Her motherly guidance. She is longing to form Her children, to guide you so that you become the most beautiful children of God. Take My Holy Mother Mary's hand and do not let go of Her. She is the sure way to Me, My children. She is the first disciple, and the first to be filled with My Spirit. She is the one and only spouse of the Holy Spirit. All others imitate this union as in the holy, consecrated children of Mine. My Mother is the model for all of My children. Emulate Her and ask for Her instruction and formation. My daughter, I desire that My children of the community continue to request this of My Holy Mother Mary. Remember, you belong to Her community. It is only proper to ask the one who leads you, to form you."

Yes, Jesus, of course. Are we falling short of this, Jesus?

"My child, I remind you and all of My children so that you continue to request this of My Mother. This is to keep you all within Her heart and under Her holy mantle. This is of the utmost importance for all that is to come, which will be impossible for My children of (name withheld) and all of My children, if you do not hold fast to My Mother. A time is coming, and for this I Prepare you, that will try My children as in fire. Through this trial of fire those, who are united with My Mother's Immaculate Heart, will come through this time, shining like the sun and in this way will be a holy example, a holy witness to the world."

Jesus, this seems far beyond me, but I believe You. The 'world' is certainly a big scope and yet I know Your Mother has said we cannot begin to comprehend how important our role is in Your plan. I am paraphrasing and I hope I am not misquoting Her, Lord but I know we are to pray more, for direction and guidance so that we are open to Your holy will and the plan You have for us.

“Yes, My daughter. Prepare yourselves completely now for your move. Finalize everything, for things will begin to move quickly for you. Soon the final requests will be made and approval granted for the community. Afterwards, things will move quickly as I have told you previously. All is going according to plan. My Mother is assembling the remaining families for the first phase of Her community. There is much work to do to build and form community. This is why there are others ahead of you, who can show you the way and who will help you and come to your assistance. This is why some of My refuges have been prepared, also. They are now in a waiting period and able to offer their assistance. The community will come together quickly now, according to My plan and unity is of the utmost importance. I urge all members to remain focused on Me, on why they have accepted My Mother’s invitation, during the busy times ahead so as not to lose sight that this is God’s will. This is My Mother’s community and you are Her children. Many eyes will be upon you and I desire all to see a community of believers, united in My Mother’s heart, a light for others to see what it is to love one another. Be love. Be mercy. Be forgiveness. Be light. Be salt. Be leaven for the world. All of My children would do well to follow My Mother.”

Thank You, Jesus! Lord, help us to do Your will, and not our will. Give us the graces we need so this is possible. Lord, my daughter is still suffering. Please help her to get well. Please heal her, Jesus. We love her, Lord and I beg You to help her. Give her graces, Jesus to carry this very heavy cross. Help her, console her, and encourage her, Jesus. She has had so much suffering in her young life, Lord. Please keep her within Your Sacred Heart. Protect her, and give her all that she needs to continue on in this most difficult journey. Help us to assist her, Jesus and to be open to what it is You want us to do to support her during this time of suffering. Thank you for her witness, for her joy and for her love. She touches many hearts for You, Lord. I am grateful for her, Lord. Thank You for my son, too and for the progress You have made in his life. Help him to continue to follow You, Lord and not to be discouraged. He is grateful for all You do for him, Jesus. Lord, I ask for Your blessing and protection for (name withheld) as she nears the time of her daughter’s birth. Keep them safe, Lord. Please heal her husband’s migraines, Jesus. He has suffered for so long with no end in sight, Jesus. Please give him relief from this lengthy ordeal. Thank You for protecting my husband and for keeping him free of a pulmonary embolism. Please heal him, also Lord. Jesus, I don’t know where we would be without my husband. Thank You, Lord for giving me such a devout, faithful husband, who is our spiritual leader. Lord, You have blessed me in countless ways. Thank You. Please keep all of my family, my dad and my siblings and all of my friends safe during the coming turbulent times. You have described these days ahead as the times of great trials. Hide us within Your Sacred Heart and keep us all hidden under Your Mother’s mantle of protection. Most of all, Lord help us to do Your holy will, no matter the cost. May I live for You, Jesus so that one day I can die for You. Thank You for St. Padre Pio’s assistance, Lord and his ever watchful presence in my life and in my family’s life. Thank You for reminding me to ask for the intercession of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton and St. Anne. Jesus, have You anything more to say to me today?

“My daughter, remember all that I have told you regarding your family’s mission which will unfold for you when you are safely embedded within My Mother’s community. I say this so that all you endure will serve to prepare you for the mission within a mission. Many lost little ones will be in need of an anchor and I desire your family to be this ‘port in a storm’ for them, as well as for My holy priest sons. Look at everything that occurs, no matter how large or how small as a preparation for My Father’s plan. Pray the prayers I have given you each day for they will serve to open you more fully to My direction and to My graces. All will work to prepare you and your family for your role in My plan. Go now in My peace. I am with you. My Mother is with you. Be of good cheer, regardless of the suffering, for all serves to form you into My Mother's apostles. Go now in peace, and in joy. Be love. Be light. Be mercy. Thank you for the mercy you showed yesterday when you witnessed to My forgiveness and the joy of My Sacrament of Reconciliation. I am pleased and I am grateful. Continue on the path I have laid out before you. I walk with you. I bless you in the name of My Father, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit."

Thank You, Lord Jesus. I love you!

"And I love you."
