

September 25, 2022 Adoration Chapel

Hello beautiful Lord hidden in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love, adore, glorify and praise You my Lord, God and King. Thank You for allowing me to be here with You today. Thank You for Holy Mass and Communion! I pray for (name withheld) and the other men on retreat that they will be renewed in their spiritual walk with You. Protect them and all who will travel, Jesus. Please help (names withheld) to recover quickly. Help them to rest and heal. Lord, be with Father (name withheld) and all who will be speaking and working at the conference this week. Protect all who travel to and from there and give them and their families special graces for holiness and evangelization. Mary, our Mother lead us all to Your Son, Jesus. Lord, bless those I come into contact with this week and all those I encounter in the cause of working. May Your love and light radiate through me and change hearts, Lord. So many souls need You, Jesus. Help me to be a sign pointing the way to You my Lord and God.

“My child, My child, My little child, this is what I desire all of My children to be, a signpost pointing the way to the Redeemer. This is why I invite you to become holy, set apart from the culture, in the world but not of the world. I will give you the graces needed. Pray for the world, your country and towns. Pray for conversion and protection. Remain close to Me and My Mother and all will go well for you.”

Thank You for the produce from our garden, Lord. You provided so much good food, Jesus. Thank You! Help me to get the food canned, dehydrated, etc. There is so much to do and too few hands, Lord. Send Your holy angels to help me, Lord. I know how important it is to have this for people when food becomes scarce. Thank You for all that You do for us, Your little children.

Jesus, I'm sad that You were here unattended until I arrived. I didn't realize this but now I wish I had hurried to get here after Mass. Lord, have You anything more to say! I will be still and listen, Jesus.

“My daughter, there is little time now to increase the prayers to storm Heaven in order to blind the evil one and put a stop to the wicked plan being fully implemented against My children and the world. My children, I implore you to increase your prayers. Not enough people are heeding the warnings from Heaven. Your spiritual life is much more important than the temporal, for without your soul to animate your body, life is dark, empty, void of the love and of truth. You must focus on God and on your own conversion. Seriously consider what you can do on an individual basis to grow closer to Me. Immerse yourselves in Scripture, prayer and reception of the Sacraments. Then look around you and notice what needs to be done for your neighbor, your family members, your friends. Live the Gospel, My children. You are not living the Gospel when you are focusing on the things of this world and putting God in third or fourth place. Put the Lord first, My children and I will see to everything for you. You will be filled with peace, hope and love when God is first in your lives. Do not worry about tomorrow. Dwell in the peace of My presence, here in Adoration, and in Holy Mass. I will fill you with all that you need so that you can be sent forth to be a witness to souls. Witness by your lives lived in holiness and love. Be love, be mercy, be joyful carriers of My message. You will be entering into the winter season soon. Just as you prepare for winter, prepare also for a winter time that is necessary before the spring time by growing ever closer to your Jesus. Ask My Holy Mother Mary to be with you and lead you to Me. She will help Her children and all who ask Her will come under Her protective mantle. My little ones, I have given humanity all that is needed to not only survive but thrive. Many have squandered the blessings given to them. It is not too late to begin anew, My children. When you see the skies growing darker, you know night is upon you. See also the spiritual darkness of the world and realize night time is upon you. Your holiness will illuminate the darkness and will be like a lantern for lost souls to help them find their way. I love you, My children and I invite you to love Me in return. The alternative is a life without love and devoid of peace. To live without the One who is truth is to walk around with spiritual blinders. Even common sense seems to be lacking in those who are far from Me. With so many challenges and dangers it is difficult, even seemingly impossible, to navigate safely in the world without your God and Savior to lead you. Many souls fall prey to temptations, to sin, and to a path that leads directly to hell. Do not continue to choose this path, My children. Follow Me. Choose the narrow path that leads to Heaven where you will be filled with love, joy and great peace.”

“My little lamb, cling to Me in the coming days and weeks. Remain very close to Me. Lean on Me, My child. Remember, I am your Savior and I am also your Father. I will provide for you. Rest in Me and be at peace. You are weary. Lift your mind and heart to Heaven more often to be temporarily lifted from the mire you see all around you. Remember sweet memories of your youth and the many times I have sent small favors and warm love through family members and friends. Recall special times together that we have experienced. These reflections will comfort and console your sensitive heart and soul. Bask in the warmth of My love. I am with you, My little one. Become even smaller and I will hide you completely in My heart. There is nothing to fear. I tell you this now for what is to come and I want you to remember this, My child. You will have not only what you need but what those I send you will need. Complete the projects you and (name withheld), My son need to do now. Time is growing shorter, My child. I say this not to cause you worry but so that you can complete this work and still have some time to rest before the souls you are anticipating arrive in so much need. Remember how I multiply and provide for My people. I will do this for your family, your household and all people who have consecrated their homes to Me for use in the coming days. Renew your consecration, My children. Renew the consecration of your homes and property. Recommit yourselves to the work I have asked you to do. Remain close to Me and I will guide and direct you. Pray for your priests and for all consecrated men and women. Be aware of their needs, also My children. They are under attack by the evil ones who want to destroy those who are Mine. They especially target My holy priest sons, the good shepherds. Pray for them. Protect them. Encourage them and let them know you love them. This is desperately needed, My children. Be aware of all I have told you and be alert. Live for Heaven, My children. Live for the Kingdom of God. Pray for Pope Francis and all Bishops. Do not neglect them in your prayers, My children. They are My sons. They are successors to the Apostles. If you love Me and love My Church, love them too. Pray for those who have left the narrow path to return. Pray for those who have been led astray. Pray for those who lead others astray. Pray, pray, pray.”

“This is all for now My child. Go in peace. I bless you in the name of My Father, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Be love; be mercy; be light and peace. All will be well.”

Thank You my Lord and my God. I love You!
