

February 15, 2015, Adoration Chapel

Dearest Jesus ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, thank You for allowing us to be here with You today. Thank You for the great blessing of Holy Mass, for being present there with my daughter and my son. Lord, please heal my grandson who is sick again. Lord, I think there is a reason that he is so frequently ill, but I don't know if it is only spiritual in nature or if there is something more we should be doing for him. Lord, he has suffered so much at such a young age. Please allow his suffering to be of benefit to souls. He doesn't complain, Lord but I know it must be very difficult to be so young and to be sick so much. Help him to learn something more about You, Jesus and Your passion. Give him graces for compassion, Lord so that when he grows up, he will have the graces for mercy and compassion, love and forgiveness. Jesus this week was another difficult one and it was so for reasons I can't explain. The only thing I can say is that there seems to be a spirit of unrest, a spirit of disrespect, but this does not adequately describe what I seem to know interiorly but which I am unable to adequately articulate. Something seems to be going on beneath the surface that is not visible to me. Please protect us, Jesus. Open the hearts of those leaving this healthcare ministry and align their intentions with Your holy and perfect will. Bless, comfort, protect and console all those who have lost their jobs, Lord. Help those suffering from unemployment, illness, injury and most especially those who have sick hearts because they do not believe and have not yet experienced the love of God. Jesus, I do not know the number of times I disappointed You this week, only that I have. Please forgive me, Jesus for not being more loving. Help me to be love as You have asked on many occasions. I fall so short, my beautiful Savior and I am sorry. Please forgive me, Lord God of all. When I think of what You endured during Your passion, the cruel taunts of the crowds, the torturous blows from the Roman soldiers and how, with my sins, I add to these blows, I am very ashamed and disappointed. Forgive me, Jesus. I want to be one who consoles You, who offers loving words of encouragement to You in Your time of agony. I want to be one who defends You; who wipes Your brow, that is dripping with sweat and blood. I want to be like Simon who was summoned from the crowd to help You carry Your cross, only I want to come willingly, gladly, to volunteer for such an honor as helping the Savior who loves me to carry the heavy crossbeam that crushes You under its weight for You have already endured such agony, such torture, and have lost so much blood. You are the Holy One, the Innocent Victim. I, Lord am guilty, for I am a sinner. You took the sins of the world upon Yourself Jesus, though You are the one against whom we sin. You, our Creator took mankind's sin upon You because only You were and are a fitting, unblemished sacrifice, for You are without sin. You hung on the cross, Jesus, as the ultimate contradiction, for only You could die for mankind. Though we all deserve to die, it is impossible for any of us, Your creatures to be a worthy sacrifice. Thank You, Jesus for all You did and all You continue to do for us, Your children. Jesus, I am sorry that I do not show You my gratitude. Please heal me, Lord. Transform my heart into a heart of love, for if You do not give me graces for love, I am not capable of loving in the way You want me to love. Jesus, I do love You. Help me to love You more.

"My child, I understand the weakness of humanity. I understand the human condition, for I made you. I forgive you. I accept your request. This is what you must do. Lay all of your burdens at My feet, including and especially the burden of your sins for in this way I can lighten your load. I forgive you and I infuse you with My love. It is true, what you say for no one could love if it was not for the graces to love. No one can love the way the Father and I love and yet it is asked of you. You are to follow Your Jesus and to love others as I have loved you. This means you will love so much that if asked, you will lay down your life for others. Continue to ask for the graces to love heroically, My child for these graces for love are necessary for what is to come. You will need to love heroically. That is to say, you must love others, never counting the cost, and never expecting anything in return. You cannot love in this way without the graces from the Eternal Father. Ask My Mother to give you these graces for She is the dispenser of graces.”

Thank You, Jesus. Lord, have You anything more to say to me?

“Yes, My child, there is much to say. When you fall, bring your failures to Me. Do so right away so that I can provide you with forgiveness, healing and love. Do not allow these marks on your hearts to turn into sores or even worse yet, a festering wound. Bring each and every fall to Me and we will examine this together. I will provide direction to you so that you see clearly what it is I want you to learn, what to overcome, what it is in your nature or in your past that causes each temptation to be an occasion to sin. Once we have done this, you will see clearly what it is you must work on, or be aware of to avoid these traps and pitfalls set by either your own weaknesses alone or by the evil one’s minions. In this way, I will form you and teach you about yourself, and about My love for you. I would like all of My children of light to do the same. You will do well to gain a better understanding of yourself and of My mercy, in order to withstand the assault of the evil one. You cannot withstand the assault of evil My little children without My help, without My grace. I will help you, My children, but not without your consent. The gift of free will given you by God the Father will not allow Me to move in your soul without your permission. Yes, My children, I, the Lord your God, who created you from nothing will not violate your free will, for I endowed My children with this gift out of love and respect for you. I long for My children to love Me in freedom; to freely choose to love Me.”

Thank You, Jesus. Thank You for Your love, Your goodness, Your mercy. Thank You for Your forgiveness. Teach me to love, Lord as Your Holy Mother Mary loves, as You love, Jesus. Transform my cold, stony heart and infuse graces for love into it, Jesus. Lord, I don’t know how or when You will do this, but I trust in You to do so. Jesus, thank You for holy priests and bishops. May they be a light to others. Help all of Your priest sons to draw close to Your Holy Mother. Bless our shepherds, Lord. Infuse them with graces for courage, fortitude, prayer, love, mercy and compassion. Give them the courage to withstand the coming persecution.

“My daughter, today I will speak with you about the false lies the evil one speaks into the minds of My children. My children, who were created out of the great love of My Father, listen to Me. The adversary wants you to lose hope. The adversary wants you to despair. He leads you to believe that I will not forgive you, and that you are not worthy and therefore that I, your loving Savior, will not forgive you. Do not believe these malicious lies, My children. You were created for love. You were created to know Me. You were created to love Me, as I love you. All in Heaven pray for you. They pray that you will open your heart to the One who loves you for you. It is I, dearest children of the world. I am the One who loves you. I died for love of you, for I long to have you with Me in paradise. I long for you to live your earthly life, striving to know Me, striving to love Me. Everyone who lives on earth will experience doubts, My children for such is the way of humanity while you live out your earthly journey. This does not mean you will experience continual doubt, for that is not My will, however all people experience occasional doubt. If you are one who experiences constant doubt, it is because you are not trying to seek Me. Children of the world, if you are seeking Me, you will find Me if you seek Me with a purity of intention. Read Sacred Scripture My children and if you do not believe, ask Me to reveal Myself to you. Ask Me to reveal Myself to you and I will do so. I do not mean that you will see miraculous signs and wonders, My children, but if you ask with sincerity, I will reveal Myself to each of you. I will because I love you and I desire that you love Me in return. One cannot love another that they do not know or believe exists, so you must come to know Me. I already know each one of My children intimately, so it is you who must come to know Me. Once you seek Me, you will come to know Me, and regardless of the sins on your soul, you will come to know Me as your Savior, your God and Father, and yes, even as your friend.”

God the Father speaks; “This sounds foolish, some of you are thinking. I know what is on your minds for I created you and know you even more than you know yourselves. You see, when God created the first man, and the first woman, He created them to know Him as God, yes, but also as friend. This is what is meant by the passage in Scripture regarding the Garden, the place prepared for My children and the passage describing My relationship with My first creatures. They walked with Me. They talked with Me. Is that now what friends do? My children, those who are corrupt, and in power in the worldly sense, do not walk with people and talk with people. No, they do not for they ‘lord’ their positions over others. They approach their important schedule as if it was more important than those whom they are supposed to be serving. The worldly expression, ‘Walk with me,’ implies a different attitude; one of superiority. It is as if the important person is saying ‘I do not have time for the likes of you. My schedule is far too important and cannot be hindered in any way; however, if you wish to speak with me, you must ‘walk with me’ so you do not interfere with the many important places I must go.’ My children, this is the opposite of the meaning of the phrase, ‘They walked with God, for when the first man and woman walked with Me in the place I had prepared especially for them, they spoke with Me. I taught them as a good Father, for I was and am their Father. I am your Father, as well. They had My undivided attention and they had complete access to Me, for they were My entire focus, these first children of Mine. Now, do not be surprised when I tell you that you are also My entire focus. It is true, My children, for I love you so much that I created the world for you. I created a beautiful and wonderful place for you to live, and when your parents, the first of the human race, disobeyed, did not believe that I wanted only what was good for them and instead listened to a mere creature, a serpent at that, they lost many of the gifts I had bestowed upon mankind. They lost their ability to walk with Me physically, and to speak with Me in person. They lost their innocence. They lost access to the perfect place I had created for My children. They lost their complete trust in Me, for they had misplaced this trust by trusting the deceiver, the serpent more than they trusted Me, the One who created them out of love and gave them every good thing. This continued through the ages, My children, culminating in the current age of disobedience.

My children, your God did not turn His back on His children, even though most of My children have turned your backs to Me. What did I do, you may ask. I sent My only Son, who is the Son of God, the Christ, to redeem the world. You see, I did not banish My children forever. I provided a way for My children to live with dignity, with grace, with the support of the sacramental life of the church, and then when your earthly pilgrimage is complete, a way for you to come to My Kingdom to dwell with Me forever. This way, this avenue, was provided by My Son’s death on the cross, and His subsequent resurrection. This offering of My Son, atoned for the sins of each and every person ever created in the past, present and those who will come in the future. This atonement, this living sacrifice, was planned from the beginning, for I knew, even before I created your first parents, that they would sin against Me, for I am God and I know all. You see, My children, even though I knew man would fall from grace before I created the world, I created the world and mankind anyway. Why, you might ask would I do such a thing, knowing all that would occur? Because, even though I know you are not perfect, I love you. Even though you sin, and will sin time and again, I forgive you each and every time you seek forgiveness. I see your beauty. I see that you try to be good. I see the image of My Holy and Perfect Son within you, even though mankind is flawed. I, your God do not focus on your flaws My children, but on the beauty of your souls. Because I love you, I do not wish to leave you in your sins but I desire, you bring these sins to Me. Through the power of My Son’s death and resurrection, your sins are washed away, each time you seek My forgiveness with a pure, intention and sincere contrition. Some will say, 'How do I know if my contrition is out of love and is pure or if I am just afraid of your justice, God?' If your heart has been steeped in sin, My children you will not see this clearly. If you have been away from Me for a very long time, you will not see this clearly. My Son provided a way for you to come to the fountain, the well of mercy. This is the Sacrament of Reconciliation, the sacrament of confession and penance. In this way, your sins are completely forgiven by My Son, through the priest. You see, My children, I have provided the means for you. I have thought of everything needed to provide the avenue for you to approach Me, unafraid, to walk with Me in this life, to come to Me and join your heavenly family when your pilgrimage on earth has ended. This is why you must reject what My adversary says to you when he speaks lies of condemnation to you, for I do not condemn you. I love you and I accept your tears of repentance, with great love. I embrace you, My children. I have chosen to create you, for I need you. I have a purpose and a mission for each one of you, for your life is important to Me and it is important to the world. You must be about your Father God's work, just as My Son, Jesus was. You are to carry on with your Father's family business and that is the business of saving souls. Of course, you are not God and you cannot save a single soul, but you are needed in this work of saving souls, for I have chosen to need you. You are important to Me. You are so important to Me, that I do not wish to lose one single soul to the evil one, for his is a miserable, oppressive life, that is truly a living hell. You were not created to live in hell My children. You were created to live with me in the Heavenly Kingdom. You will not regret for one moment, choosing Me when you come to Heaven. You will only regret not choosing Me sooner. So, do not waste any more time, My beloved. Choose Me. Choose My Son. Follow Him. Turn your backs on the evil one and choose life. Choose love. You will not be disappointed in this wise choice. Do not fear your unworthiness. Fear only choosing evil over goodness and truth. I am that truth that you seek. I am the light. Choose life. Choose light. Choose truth. My children, the time for indecision has come to an end. You must make your choice now. To choose nothing is to choose death by 'default' so to speak. You will regret this forever. I want you to have no regrets and to have complete joy. Choose Me now, My children for to wait any longer is to assume the biggest risk known to mankind. Do not take these chances with your precious soul. Follow My Son, My children of the world, and become children of light.

I speak now to My children who love and follow Me. You are My children of light. You are very weary for the world has become steeped in evil and in darkness. Do not become slack because you are weary for you are coming to the end of the race. You have been 'training' for this race, My children of light and this is no time to slow down. Fortify yourselves with prayer, fasting, the sacraments, and the Word of God. In this way, you will receive the graces needed to sustain you. I am counting on you, My Children of the Renewal. You constitute My Mother's army and you must renew your prayers for your brothers and sisters who are not following My way. Refocus your energies and your prayers. Remain focused on the end goal which is Heaven and salvation of souls. Eliminate all that distracts you for these worldly distractions are passing. Ask me what it is you can do, and I will show you. Become like little children, for it is in the smallness that souls will be converted. Be humble, be love and allow My Son's light to shine through you to the world. All will be well, only live with passion for your Jesus. Now, My daughter, My son, go in peace serving your God and one another. I have heard your prayers for your grandson. He is already beginning to get well. Go in My name, in the name of My Son, and of Our Holy Spirit. I bless you in My Fatherly blessing, the blessing of God."

Thank You, Father God for Your love and mercy. Thank You for creating the world and the human race. Thank You for sending Your Son to die for our sins. Thank You that You do not abandon Your poor children. I love, my Lord and my God, my All.

“And I love you. Go in the peace of My Son.”

Thank You, Father. We love You.

February 8, 2015, Adoration Chapel

Hello, Jesus present in the Blessed Sacrament. All praise, glory and honor to You, my Lord and my God. I love You and am glad to be here with You today, Jesus. Thank You for making it possible to be with You in this chapel. I really appreciate this chapel, Jesus and I am grateful to those who built it. I will miss coming here when we are no longer able to get here. Jesus, it has been a difficult week for many reasons. Thank You for getting me through it. Be with me as I go to work this week. Please go before me and prepare the way. Lord, thank You for the conversation with (name withheld) this morning. I am so glad she called and that she wanted to share her concerns and trials with me. Thank You for the work You are doing in her life. Be with her Jesus as she goes through the next several weeks. Give her Your peace, Your love, Your wisdom. Please send graces for protection and love, Jesus to her and her family. Lord, please forgive me for the times I disappointed You this week; the times I sinned and did not show love to others. I am sorry, Lord and want to do better this week. Help me to be love as You ask.

“My child all is forgiven. Accept My forgiveness. Do not carry this burden into the remainder of the day as I have forgiven you. Put all actions or omissions behind you now and let us begin anew. We work together, perfecting your soul so that you can make your way to Me in Heaven. It is a joint project for you and for all of My children, so let us begin anew.”

Thank You, Jesus. It is wonderful that You give us the forgiveness, the mercy, the love to have such freedom to begin anew with You. Praise You, Lord.

“You are most welcome, My little one.”

Jesus, please move the hearts of those who are new to the organization. Work has become difficult again, for different reasons than before. The current leadership seems very different than those in the past, and the culture is shifting. I can already see the signs of this and it is not good. I don't mind change, Lord but I don't like this kind of change. We have a strong tradition of values, Lord and I think this is changing. Please touch hearts for conversion, Lord including my own.

“My child, what you say is true. While people are standing on shifting sand, you remain steadfast and hold firm to the values I have instilled in you. Do not compromise. I encourage you, My little lamb, for a time is coming that you will be asked to compromise. You will hold firmly to My hand and stand on the solid rock of My values for this is a time where principles are important. You will be a light, an example to others.”

Alright, Jesus. Thank You for telling me this. I had a feeling something was coming and that I might end up losing my job. I don't understand why You just don't give me the word to leave, but Your plan is perfect, Lord. It doesn't often appear that way but I trust in Your will, Lord.

“You are to carry this cross a while longer, My child. This is for your own purification and also to offer as a sacrifice for others, for all those you will be leaving behind, My little lamb. Do not fear, for I am with you. No harm will come to you, My daughter.”

Jesus, thank You that You are always with us, Your children. I feel a sense of dread now, Lord because I do so want to leave on good terms after having worked so long and so hard there. I have formed some very good relationships, thanks to You, Jesus and it will be another source of sadness to leave in this way, though I don't know specifically what You mean. Jesus, I see the signs that this is a place that I won't want to work for in the near future, and that makes me sad, as well. It's amazing how much of an impact a few people can have on an organization. It's especially difficult knowing this was founded to carry out Your ministry of healing by an order of sisters who love You and want to live according to Your gospels. This gives me the most sadness. It is so disappointing, Jesus, due to the deeper implications and far reaching consequences this loss of values will have on our community and the people we serve.

“Yes, My child. All you have said is true. I, too am disappointed. I will remove you from this environment soon, My child, and I will do so before you have to witness organizational compromises that would be disturbing to your little heart. My child, I know you are aware that I brought you to this place years ago, and that I, your Jesus have asked you to remain there during some very tumultuous times. You could have left on several occasions, but did not at My request. I am pleased that you weathered so many storms for Me, your Jesus. I understand that much of this does not appear to make sense to you. ‘Why would my Jesus keep me here this long, when he could have protected me from all of this’, you wonder. Yes, My little lamb, I could have protected you from each and every trial, every single cross you have been subjected to due to others’ agendas, due to their pride or need to control, but I did not for I wanted you to rely more heavily on Me. I wanted you to see many of the faults, the false agendas, the egos gone awry, so as to recognize traps when you see them. I wanted you to remain to show others there is a reason to hope, and to give witness to the love of Your Jesus. You have also learned to sit and wait until I show you the next path to take. You have learned much from this waiting, My child, though it has been painful. You have learned to be submissive, even when your superiors were incorrect about something. You spoke up to offer information, and when your advise was rejected you learned to accept this out of submission to your superiors. This, My child is the spirit of obedience. You have given witness to many children of mine and they have learned to respect you for your integrity and your honesty. My daughter I tell you this so you will understand that My plans have very little to do with the work you are doing for any organization, though this is part of the reason you are there, but much more to do with your spiritual growth and the growth of others. This is how I work, which is very different than the way your world works. My child, endure for a little while longer, knowing that your time in this job will soon end. I ask you to focus on your responses to others, praying for those who persecute you, and who do not know the love of God. Reach out to those you have come to love and meet with them so as to bring closure for yourself. I know how important that is to you. Trust in Me, My child. You have been a positive influence on others, and have allowed My light to shine through you. Contrary to what you have been told, My daughter; I know all about the conversation that occurred and the put down you accepted with humility. This was disarming to the person who was being critical of you, was it not?”

I think so, Lord. It is difficult for me to know as there are so many behaviors that contradict what is said. I don't think I can even trust my own instincts any longer, but I know that You prompt me with Your Holy Spirit and help me to discern by Your grace.

“My daughter, when one is being dishonest, or has ulterior motives and hidden agendas, you will see incongruent behavior. Things become unclear when you are dealing with people in darkness. It has nothing to do with not being able to trust your instincts and everything to do with not being able to trust those with whom you are dealing. There is more that I need you to do there, so remain steadfast, holding fast to My hand. When the time comes, I will lead you safely away and you will truly begin the new chapter in your life working for Me. All will be well in the long run, My daughter. All will be well. These lessons will serve you well in the future and that is My aim.”

Alright, Jesus. Your will be done. Help me, Jesus to remain loyal to You, no matter the cost. I love You, my God and my All! Jesus, please allow my daughter the time needed to have surgery while there are still health insurance benefits. Please, Jesus.

“Yes, My child. I will allow this, but she will need to be decisive in scheduling the needed procedures.”

Yes, Lord. Jesus, have You more to say to me?

“Yes, My child. You were discussing the sale of your home. All will go according to My plan. Trust in Me.”

Alright, Jesus. Lord, please help my husband. His health has suffered lately, Lord and I believe this is related to the stress he is under and the extremely physical nature of the work expended putting the house in order to sell. Please heal him, Jesus. Help him to get well, Lord. He is so devoted to You, my Jesus.

“Yes, My child. I am with My son. All will be well.”

Jesus, when You say this, I realize You are reassuring us and also inviting us to trust in You more. You also do not say one way or the other if You will heal him or that he will be fine in the near term. Jesus, I am asking You due to the serious nature of his condition. I do trust You that all will be well, because I know that one day, if we continue to love and serve You, keeping Your commandments, loving others, etc., all will be well. Still, You have asked that we, Your children bring each and every burden to You, and so I bring all of my burdens to You, Jesus and I lay them at Your feet. I also bring my love, my adoration and my little self and lay this at Your feet, as well. Jesus, I do not deserve the many blessings You have given me. I do not deserve the life You gave me, and yet I know that You love and bless all of Your children, because You are good, and You are love and mercy. I am grateful for being Your daughter, Lord and for the opportunity to serve You in any way I can, even though I often do not serve You as I should. I trust You with everything in my life, Lord. Thank You that You take each problem, each concern and use it for our good. Praise You, Jesus.

“My child, I thank You for trusting in Me. I, too am grateful for your love, your trust, your willingness to do My will. You and your husband, though not perfect as you know, are faithful to Me. I am a faithful God and I cannot be outdone by My children for I am God; I am perfect. This means that I will also return your human faithfulness for My faithfulness; will return your love with My love. Do not be concerned with what is passing. My love, will not pass away. When your earthly life ends, My love will remain. Take each day as it comes, knowing I have ordained your steps, your path. Walk with me, My child. Be consoled knowing that I your Jesus walk with you.”

Thank You, my sweet Savior. I love You. Lord, thank You for St. Padre Pio's assistance and for his prayers. Thank You that we have at our disposal the prayers of all of the saints in Heaven. We need their assistance very much during these difficult and dark days. I am grateful You allow all of Heaven to work with all of us in exile on the earth. You are truly wise and compassionate, Lord. Thank You.

"You are welcome, My child. My daughter, when you and your family begin My Mother's mission you will see that all of your life's experiences were valuable. You will begin to see a connection with several phases in your journey to that point, with the mission entrusted to you. This is true for all of My children of the community, and for all of My children who are part of My remnant. This time that is coming for you, will be a critical time in your life and in the life of your family as the culmination of everything you have learned and experienced previously. All has been preparation for your mission which is My mission and consequently My Mother's mission. I am not saying this is why you were created, for you were created out of love and for love; however your life's mission is ahead of you. This phase of your life will be the longest phase out of all the phases you have gone through. This statement is a mystery to you, I realize however one day it will be clear to you. I tell you this so that, as you endure trials to come, and there will be trials, you will recall the importance of the coming journey and mission. What I am saying My daughter and My son is to expect trials. When something is important to Me, your Jesus, you can begin to understand there will be trials for there are also attempts by My adversary to thwart My plans. He cannot stop My plans; however he continues to try to do so by erecting barriers, traps and creating any series of annoyances for My children who labor in My vineyard. Pay no attention to this, My children, only learn to recognize annoyances and obstacles for what they are. Pray to your guardian angels and to the saints I have assigned to you, for protection and simply go about your work for Me. I am with you, and I want My children who are serving Me to be more astute, and less distracted by satan and his minions, for they cannot harm you when you frequent the sacraments and remain close to Me in prayer. In this way, you will avoid the temptation to become angry, impatient, fearful, and any number of other traps he sets in your paths. Learn to see with spiritual eyes. Learn to see with the mind of Your Jesus, things you encounter as spiritual in nature, vs. physical. This is one way he will attempt to deceive you, by convincing you there is nothing more to your feelings than what you see in the physical world. In this way, My children rationalize their behavior. For example, when one gives way to temptations to impatience, or snaps at one's children, it is easy to believe you have a right to this behavior, for your children were misbehaving, or your spouse was rude, etc. In reality, My children I want you to treat everyone, especially your family members with the utmost respect and love, regardless of their behavior. Do you not see that they are being tempted, as well. The evil one and his followers prowl about the world, poking you in every wound inciting thoughts of anxiety, anger, impatience; telling you all sorts of lies about yourself and your family to create unrest and hostility. This is the root of his plan. Do not allow your peace to be disturbed, My children. When you feel a sense of disquiet or feel you are not recollected, go to a quiet place and pray. Ask Me for assistance. Pray for your guardian angel's assistance also. Pray to your family member's guardian angel. Ask the saints in Heaven for assistance. In short order, your peace will return and you will be able to respond in love. You will be able to direct your children in the right way, rather than lashing out in anger, further wounding your relationship which is harmful to family unity. I am asking for your cooperation in this regard, My children. It is very important to learn this spiritual practice now while there is still time. You do not realize how easily you fall prey to disunity and discord. Be humble, be meek as I am humble and meek. I do not ask anything of you that I have not already done while on your earth. I understand what you are going through, My children and this is why I make many, many graces available to you now. Ask My Mother for these graces. They are there for the asking. I love you, My daughter and My son. I walk with you. Thank you, My daughter for your work on my assignment regarding curriculum and home schooling lessons. Continue on as I have instructed. The next two years will be all that I require as we discussed earlier. I will send others to you who will have what is needed. I love you. I bless you and your entire family in My Father's name, in My name, and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Go in peace My children of light. Be light, be love, be mercy to all you encounter. That is all, and that is everything."

Thank You, Jesus. We love You!

February 1, 2015, Adoration Chapel

Hello my Jesus present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love, adore and praise You, my Lord and my God. Thank You that we are here with You. Jesus, I'm very grateful for the weather; that it wasn't as bad as predicted and we were able to arrive safely to be with You. Thank You for holy Mass this morning and for the grace of confession. I'm so thankful my husband and I were able to go to confession yesterday. Thank You for our priest, Jesus and for all priests. Please bring about an increase in vocations, Lord to the priesthood and to the religious life. Please open the hearts of Your children so they hear and accept Your invitation to the priesthood. We need more priests, Jesus. Lord, please bless all Bishops, our shepherds. Help them to follow You closely and to boldly proclaim the Gospel. Give them courage and graces to withstand persecution, Lord and to stand firm in their faith. Give them the words to speak, the love they need to love their enemies which are those who would see the Church as an enemy. Blessed Mother, put Your mantle of protection over our Bishops and priests and especially cover our Holy Father Francis. May our shepherds be living examples of the love of Jesus, speaking the truth (that is Christ Jesus) in the wisdom of the Holy Spirit. Lord God, set our hearts on fire with the zeal of the Lord and convert our hearts and the hearts of all Your people. Pour out Your Holy Spirit, Father and renew the face of the earth. We pray for this, Father and we wait, as Your Holy Mother Mary has told us at Medjugorje. Jesus, we await Your coming in joyful hope. Please give us renewed hearts and minds, Lord and give us the gifts needed to comprehend Our Lady's messages. Lord, please know that I am very grateful to You for our many blessings. Thank You for protecting my daughter and her baby when she was in a car accident on Thursday. Lord, I praise You and thank You that the baby seems to be fine. We will soon be able to hold her in our arms and see her beautiful face in a few weeks when she is born. Be with her. Protect them both during the labor and birth process. You know my heart, Lord and everything on my mind. Take all of my petitions, Jesus and spread them at Your feet like petals that line the pathway of the bride who walks down the aisle to join her groom. We are Your bride, Lord. We are Your church. Jesus bring us all to Your heavenly kingdom one day where we can love and worship You forever. Thank You, Lord for loving me. Thank You for loving my family. Thank You for loving all humanity. Jesus, have You anything You wish to say to me today?

"Yes, My daughter. There is much to say. Thank you, My son and daughter for being here with Me today. Thank you for taking your son to Mass this morning. I am glad he was able to receive Me today. I thank you for braving the snow and slick roads."

Thank You, Lord for holding back the snowstorm, so we could travel here. Lord, please be with my daughter as she recovers from the bumps, bruises, aches and pains of the accident. Please keep our new little grandchild safe. Please protect all of the preborn babies, Jesus and keep them safe from harm.

"You are most welcome, My daughter. I love you and all of your family."

Jesus, my husband listed the house yesterday. I realize we were behind schedule, but am so relieved that it is listed. I'm sorry we are a few weeks later than what You asked.

"I am grateful to My son for his hard work and preparations. Thank you, My son. I know this process has been difficult for you. Your Jesus is grateful. There is much more to do, but this major milestone is now behind you. Continue preparing and all that comes with this process of moving. I will direct you."

Thank You, Jesus!

"My child, I protected your daughter and the little one. I was with her and saved her from physical harm. She is aware of how fortunate she is and she prayed for her baby during the time in the hospital. Her heart is beginning to open to Me, so be grateful and continue to trust Me. You were praying for her on the night of the accident. Do you recall?"

Oh, Jesus. That's right. I remember. We were at (place withheld) praying the rosary. I do remember praying for my daughter. Thank You, Lord for reminding me of this. You are so good to protect my children and grandchildren, Lord! Thank You!

"You are most welcome, My child. Your prayers summoned the angels and I enfolded her in My Sacred Heart as you requested."

Thank You, Jesus. I didn't realize what would occur when I prayed this, Jesus. You are all merciful, my Lord and Savior.

"My daughter, your family is precious to Me. Rest in this knowledge and entrust all to Me. You are My friends, and your faithfulness and love is returned 100 fold. You struggle to write this, My little lamb, but I remind you that I, your Jesus am grateful to you and to all of My children who love and serve Me and who pledge to assist Me in bringing about My kingdom."

Thank You for Your kindness, Your love and Your mercy, Jesus. Lord, please bless the planning efforts underway at the community as (names withheld) meet to plan the permascape work and the layout of the community for best use of the land You have provided and blessed us with for Your community life. Blessed Mother, please shower graces upon the planning process. Guide these men who have courageously accepted Your gracious invitation and who lead us in preparing for our future. Blessed Mother, please tell St. Joseph 'thank you' from my husband and me for his assistance with preparing our house. He has been a calm, gentle presence to my husband, guiding him whenever called upon. Thank you, dear St. Joseph, protector of the Holy Family, the Church, and our family. We love you, St. Joseph.

Blessed Mother speaks: "I will tell him, my dear. Yes, he already knows of your gratitude. He offers his continual assistance as you prepare for your flight, much like that of our family the night we were called to flee to Egypt. You are not fleeing to the community, however you are going to prepare a place for others. A place My Son and I have selected with much thought and consideration for your needs and those of all who will make up our beautiful community. Please give your husband My motherly love. I give him My motherly blessing and assure him that I watch over him most tenderly as does St. Joseph. We are doing so for each member of your family, My child, even those who will not be moving to the community. I assure you, My Son's words can be trusted such that there should be no anxiety or concern troubling your little hearts. Your love, fidelity and obedience without question provides an added protection and many graces for your entire family including your extended family. You were correct when you told your husband that you were not worried about your aunt, for her faith is strong and her trust in My Son is unmovable. This is the most important aspect and My children should trust My Son in this way, for He is trustworthy. His will is perfect. He is worthy of your love and trust.”

Yes, Mother Mary. Thank You!

“My dearest little one, please assure (name withheld) that I also walk with him. I protect his family in the same way as I protect your husband and yours. He is undergoing the trial and this is building more and more trust in My son, in God’s will for his life. Assure him that I am guiding the plans for the community and remind him to continue to submit every decision to My Son for guidance. I will respond whenever he calls for Me. I will never abandon this mission for it is My Son’s mission and I am faithful even to the cross. I never desert My children. I am a good Mother and I love My children more than You can comprehend while you are spending your time loving and serving on earth. One day, you will feel the full extent of My love and that of the love of God, when you enter into the heavenly kingdom. Until then, you must accept our love by faith. Open your hearts My children and receive the great grace of My Son’s divine love. Take this love to others, for the world is in darkness and you are all children of the light, My beautiful children of the community. I stretch out My hands in the direction of this land of Ours so beautifully named (withheld) in My honor. Graces for love, unity, peace, courage, zeal for My Son, faithfulness, perseverance, fortitude and mercy flow from My Son, through Me and out to this land. My Son provides many graces to Me, His Mother which I lavish upon My children of light, the Children of the Renewal. Yes, My children your path to holiness, strewn with much prayer, love, hard work and faith will be the cause for many conversions. You must stand firm in the face of any and all adversity, My children, holding firmly to My hands and holding fast to the faith of your fathers. My Son will be with you in a very special way. He has allowed this time of preparation for you at My request, My children. See how much you are loved? We are counting on you to proceed in faith and trust, always, always united in prayer. I request of My new community a special commitment to prayer. Pray together before every major decision. That is, pray as a community. Yes, My children. I am asking that you pray in union to know and to do the will of God. In this way, My Son will direct you. He will guide you. My daughter, you are thinking about how small you are, how grateful you are to be a part of My Son’s plan and I smile at this. Yes, My little one, it is true. You are small You are all small in the eyes of the world, and this is how it must be, for this smallness is exactly what My Son requires of you. In this way, all will know that it is My Son working through each member of My community. In this way, by being small, like children, God’s glory can truly shine through. This is His plan. He asks only for your ‘yes’, for your acceptance, for your yes to His will. Give God your daily ‘yes’ to His will; to His plan for your life, and through your ‘yes’ He will begin the work of conversion in your own hearts and gradually through you, in the hearts of others. This is the power of My Son’s love for humanity. My community is vital to the plan of My Son and in fact it is critical to the Father’s plan, My daughter as Jesus has told you on many occasions. It is not necessary at this time to know all of the details; it is only necessary that you pray, fast and begin to follow His direction. Things will move quickly now, My dears and this is part of His plan. I tell you this so that as events seem to fall into place and corresponding decisions are made, you follow through with action to bring about God the Father’s plan. Do not fear. I am with you. My Son is with you as is His Holy Spirit. What do you have to fear? If you are tempted to fear or doubt, simply call on Me, your Mother who loves you and I will be with you without hesitation. This is My beautiful community that will come to fruition for it is My Son’s will. All will be well, My children of this community (name withheld). Remember what this name means. By accepting My personal invitation to community, you sparkle in the light of My Son. You will radiate love, joy, peace and protection to others who will be in deep need of these qualities that come directly from My Spouse, the Holy Spirit. Your days will be difficult, the work hard, but oh the joy you will have, the love. Be at peace, My children. This community will be a safe haven during the storms to come. I will navigate them with you, dearest children of My heart. I love you. Listen to My Son.”

Thank You, dearest Mother Mary. You are truly the gentle woman, clothed with the sun, with a crown of twelve stars. You are our Queen, our beautiful Mother Mary who is like the Star of Bethlehem guiding us all to Your Son Jesus. Be our Star, dearest Mother, like the North Star that guides those at sea safely home. We love You, dear Mother. Help us to do Your Son’s will. Help us to grow in love, unity and peace, dearest Mother Mary. Teach us in Your school, dear Mother. I will never grow weary of learning from You, the one who taught Jesus Himself, as a little boy. Thank You for Your love and Your prayers. Thank You for interceding for us before the throne of God. Help us to be good children of the Father. Help us to be like You someday, precious Mother Mary. Cover us with Your mantle so that when Jesus looks at me/us, You are all He will see. I love You. We love you!

“Thank You, My child. My Son would like to speak with you now and I am pleased with your prayers and your openness to Him.”

Jesus, I thank You for allowing me to hear Your beautiful Mother Mary’s words. She is a perfect Mother and Queen. How beautiful, how elegant Her voice, Her presence. Thank You, Lord. Have You more to say to me, Jesus?

“Yes, My daughter. Time continues to grow short. By this I mean, the evil one and his followers plot and plan and bring about much death and destruction, much of which goes unreported. My children are not aware of many violent events they perpetrate on the innocent. If My children knew, there would be many uprisings. Consequently, My adversary goes about the world, seeking the ruin of souls; seeking the death of precious innocents, and causing fractures in relationships without a firm foundation in faith. He seeks death and destruction in every place on the earth including the physical earth in which My children dwell. My child, I have been holding back the time of earthly purification for My children to prepare, but this also provides time for My adversary and yours to perpetrate his evil plans. The time will soon come, when I will no longer hold back My justice, for in doing so, too many souls perish. Too many of My children fall prey to evil or are innocent victims. If My children of light had acted sooner, had repented, converted, evangelized others in the early days of Medjugorje, many souls would have been converted and saved from the evil one’s snares. Since My children have been slow to respond, this has resulted in fewer conversions. The prayers and the holiness of a small number of My children, and through the pleading of My Mother, judgment has been delayed; the time for preparation lengthened, due to My Mother. My children, this cannot, nor will it, go on forever. The evil one is also allowed time to advance. So you see, there comes a time when all is hanging in the balance. This time is almost here. My Father will soon act, for if He doesn’t even more souls will be lost. The time of decision is now. My children, you must accept My will for your life, return to the sacraments and serve Me. If you sit back, and do not willingly choose Me, you are in fact choosing the adversary by default. There is no middle ground when it comes to the Kingdom of Heaven. You must be children of light and love to enter. Live this now, My children. I am now speaking to those who love, follow and serve Me. Children of the Renewal, you will soon see destruction. You will witness calamities and atrocities. In some places in the world you will witness things you have only heard about in other parts of the world. You will feel as though the land you knew was pulled out from under you. When this occurs, you are to say, 'Our Jesus told us it would be so.' You are to pray just as you do now. The Holy Rosary and the Divine Mercy Chaplet will be your mantra. Call on your angel guardians, the saints in Heaven and your Mother Mary for protection. Ask Me for guidance, and it will be yours. There is nothing I won't grant for your protection and for that of your families. I tell you this, because it is true. All will be well. You must trust in Me. Your community will be a source of protection for you and for all who dwell there. Weather the coming storms as My Mother has told you, for after the storm comes the beauty of the spring, the earth is refreshed and renewed. My son, My daughter, you were discussing the Era of Peace, the new springtime. My children it will be as you asked and all will be new. Do not be concerned with all of the details, for I am the God of surprises, and the God of new beginnings. All will be made new. Remember My words of sacred scripture 'Behold, I make all things new.' Ponder this, meditate upon these words allow yourself to hope and to be joyful for what is to come after the time of great trials. After one has experienced great difficulty, joy comes in the morning. You have endured much, and much more will be required. Yes, My little lamb, you are small, indeed you are weak, but your weakness will manifest My strength, My power, My love. Do not be concerned My little lamb, for I know you think of yourself as a cracked vessel. It is through such cracks that My light shines forth. The water from one such as you, My little cracked vessel, drips and waters many parched little souls, and flowers then spring forth. A new time is coming, children of the light. My children, a new day is dawning. Before the dawn comes, the night must fall. You are in the early evening and afterwards the darkest of nights will come. This is why My Mother is calling Her children to form communities. These communities will be communities of love, prayer and unity and will be the example to all of the way in which My Father desires His children to live and to be formed under My Mother's direction. Go now in haste, My children. Do not delay. The hour is short. There is little time, but do all in prayer. Be prayer. Be love. Be peace. Be joy. All will be well. My Mother and I are counting on you, but We do not leave you to the wolves, My little lambs. I am the Good Shepherd. Come follow Me. *My daughter, you sigh for you understand with a flicker of My light, the path before you, your family, and My Mother's Community. I allow you this glimmer as if a flash of light illuminated your dark path ever so briefly. I do not, reveal all, for I do not want you to fear. You are holding My Mother's hand and she ensures Her children's safe passage. Only you must not stand still on this dangerous path. You must continue walking until you reach the safety of Her community. Do you understand, My little lamb, My daughter? "

I think so, Lord. Yes, I understand. Thank You, Jesus for urging me forward in this rather large undertaking. Lord, I know there are many things to be done, which are outside of my area of control and which I have no knowledge of, but I trust all to Your capable and perfect hands. Guide, guard and direct us, Lord. Guide, guard and direct the leaders of the community as they lay the groundwork (literally) and enable the needed foundation to be laid, so that we can begin to build and move to Our Lady's community. I know the work is just beginning Lord, though to us it feels like we have already worked hard. We probably have no idea of what really hard work lies ahead. Jesus, I have never been afraid of hard work, though. Direct our steps, Jesus so that we are doing Your work and in the way You would have us proceed. We submit ourselves to Your holy will and into the capable hands of Our Lady. Show us the way we should go, and let us proceed together Jesus in the safety of Your Sacred Heart and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Jesus, I pray for those discerning community; for those who will soon travel to the community. Give them Your peace, Your confirmation of the Blessed Mother's invitation. Send those who will be willing to follow Our Blessed Mother without reserve, and those who are willing to give of their lives witnessing to Your love. Help us to be living examples of Christian living, and Christian love, just like Your Mother. Fill us with the graces we need to fulfill the mission you have for each one of us, Jesus. Lord, I also pray for the family who had a terrible accident. Many are hospitalized, Jesus, some in critical condition. Heal them, Lord. Give them Your peace, Your love, Your consolation. Be with all members of this amazing family, Jesus. Help us to know what we can do to assist them, during the coming weeks and months. Help us to bring Your light and Your love to them during this time of stress. Thank You, Jesus that You allow us to cooperate in Your plan of salvation. Transform my little heart, Jesus so that there is more room for You. I love You, Jesus. Jesus, I trust in You. Be with us, Jesus in this final phase of our time in (city and church names withheld). I love my homeland, my family and the many dear friends You have graced me with, Jesus. Bless them all, Lord for they have been such a blessing to me. I will miss them, Jesus. Part of my heart will remain here, Lord but as my heart is breaking You will repair it, and just as a broken bone heals and becomes even stronger than before it was broken, I believe You will do the same with my small heart. Enlarge it, sweet Jesus so that it has a greater capacity for love. Help me to love my new family (in community) in the ways Your Holy Mother Mary loved when She was on the earth. I know I am nothing like Her but I pray I will in some way, begin to love as She loves. Teach me to love, dearest Mother Mary, as You loved. Teach me to welcome strangers as my grandmother did, like they were long lost friends. Give me graces for hospitality, as You had during Your time on earth, when so many people flocked to Your Son Jesus and You welcomed each one as Your own child. Help me to be like You, dear Mother Mary. I want to see Jesus in each person just as You see Jesus in each one of Your children. I love You! Jesus, Mary, Joseph, I love You. Save souls.

“Thank you, My little lamb. You are growing in these ways, though you do not see this in yourself. When the time comes for these gifts to be unhidden, the graces will be there. Remember, I provide all that My children need to carry out their mission and purpose in life. All of My Children of the Renewal are being well equipped, for I never set My children up for failure, but with me, Jesus and through prayer all of My Father’s plans will come to fruition. All will be well My children. All will be well. Go in peace, My son and My daughter. I bless you in My Father’s name, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Be love, be joy, be peace, be prayer.”

Thank You, my Savior, my King. I love You.

“And I love you.”

*This is a description of the ‘path’ and the flicker of light Jesus described: Jesus showed me the following scene interiorly: I found myself standing outside on a dirt path, or so it seemed. It was pitch dark, nighttime, but I could make out what seemed to be the outline of trees or a thicket. Just then, a flicker of light illuminated my surroundings, as if a flash of lightening had struck somewhere far off in the distance. In an instant, the dark night sky turned grey (vs. black) and I could see that I was standing on a path in the middle of a forest. The trees were barren, as in winter, and “gnarly” looking. It seemed like a scene from a fairy tale, as it was a frightening looking forest. The light faded in an instant, as quickly as it had come. It was then I felt the presence of Our Blessed Mother. I don’t know how I knew it was Her only that it was She. She pressed my hand firmly, so as to reassure me of Her presence. Jesus then continued with His words.... “My daughter, you sigh, for you understand with a flicker of My light, the path before you, your family, and My Mother’s community...”

January 25, 2015, Adoration Chapel

Hello, Jesus ever present in the blessed Sacrament. It is good to be here with You today. I adore You and praise You my King and my God. Thank You for holy Mass this morning, Jesus! Thank You for the beautiful music of the children's choir and especially for being with my family at Mass. It is a blessing to be with my husband, children, and grandson. Jesus, I trust in You to pursue, (name withheld) until she returns to You and Your Church. Still, I pray that her heart is open and that she returns soon. I pray also for my grandchildren who have not yet been baptized. Please bring them into Your holy church soon, Lord. Jesus, I thank You for the gift of the Lay Apostolate and for our prayer group. Thank You, Jesus for the community of faith alive and vibrant in our parish. Lead us to a parish in (location withheld) where You would have us be and where we can serve You, Jesus. Lord, I pray for all of the families of the community for our firm decision just as Our Lady said in Her message of February 12, 1990* at Medjugorje. Please help all who are unsure to have a firm resolution to follow Our Lady's plan for communities**. Jesus, please open the hearts of all who are and who will be discerning regarding the community. Help them to know whether or not Our Lady is inviting them there and if so, give them the graces needed to accept Her invitation. Lord, help us to do Your will in all things. Jesus, I trust in You! Please be with (names withheld) in a special way, Lord and help (name withheld) find employment. Jesus, have You anything You wish to say to me?

"Yes, My child. Thank you for coming to visit Me in this chapel. I am grateful for your presence and that of your husband."

Thank You, Jesus that You wait for Your children in the Blessed Sacrament. You make Yourself available and provide many ways for us to be close to You, sweet Jesus. You are all merciful, my Lord and my God. I love You.

"And I love you, My little one. You have been more open this week to the movements of My Holy Spirit during times of reflection and introspection. You are able to see new insights into some of the ways in which I would like you to grow. Is this not true, My daughter?"

Yes, I think so, Lord.

"My child, it is true and this is directly related to the prayers I have given you to pray each morning. Your heart is more open and you have been reflecting more and more on being open to My love. You are learning how much love for others affects the situation and dynamics within groups, and you have noticed a direct correlation to changes in others' behavior (positive changes) as a result of My grace and My love."

Yes, Jesus. This is true and it has been amazing.

"My child amazing is an accurate description, and yet there are those who would say the changes in others are just coincidental, or related to some other variable. You know otherwise, My little lamb."

Yes, Lord. I do believe these changes are directly related to the many prayers of others, as there have been noticeable changes in one person in particular, that would be unbelievable for anyone who didn't know otherwise or for anyone who doesn't know You. You are amazing, Lord. I praise You for Your kindness and for answering the prayers for this intention. Thank You, Lord.

“My little one, trust in these changes and do not fear that they are temporary for I am protecting you. Go forward with confidence in Me and in My holy and perfect will.”

Yes, Lord. Thank You, Lord.

“I am with you always. Everything that occurs in your life, and in the lives of all of My children, occurs because I allow it for the good of your soul; everything, My child. This is why no matter what you may face, you may have confidence that all is in My plan, is in My will. This is especially important to remember when something occurs that seems to be very negative. Say to yourself, ‘My Jesus knows what has happened for He knows everything. If He allowed this it must be for the good of my soul, or another’s. Trust everything to Me, Your Savior.’”

Yes, Jesus. Thank You. Lord, I apologize for being drowsy. It is so very peaceful here. Lord, I know I need to get more sleep at night, also Jesus. I get so much accomplished late in the evening and feel I wouldn’t get much accomplished for You (due to my job) if I didn’t stay up late. Help me to get more rest as You have, asked. Lord, I am working on ordering the Home School supplies and teaching aids as You requested some time ago. It has been challenging and some of the things I ordered are poorly made and have to be returned. There is so much to choose from also. It would be very overwhelming if You hadn’t sent (name withheld) to me to help and guide me. Thank You for my friend, Lord. Jesus, I also thank You again for the love of my husband. I am most grateful to You for bringing such a faithful, devoted, and Godly man into my life those many years ago.

“You are welcome, My daughter. I did bring him into your life just as you were discussing this morning. I willed that you would be together for the work My Father has for you in My Mother’s and My community. As We have discussed previously, the mission in front of you and My Mother’s community is critical to the fulfillment of My Father’s plan for the future.”

Jesus, You have said this many times before, but I don’t recall You using the word “critical” with me. I believe You, of course. It just sounds much stronger than I recall.

“You are correct, My daughter. I have not used this most direct language in this context regarding My Mother’s community and My Father’s plan, however this is an accurate assessment. It is time, now that you are growing more in formation with me, and have more understanding of the situation and condition in the world to continue to give you greater clarity about what is to come. You see, My little lamb, the communities My Mother is forming all across the world all will have a unique mission or charism to bring about My plan and that of My Father’s for the salvation of the world. By this, I am referring to the salvation of so many souls living in darkness, in spite of the fact that I died for them, for all of My children, and rose again and opened the gates of Heaven. Many souls, especially in this age, do not accept the gift of salvation. Many still do not know about Me. Even more who do know of Me, reject Me and follow the evil one, My adversary. Because of this large group of lost ones, especially those who choose evil over Me, who knowingly follow My adversary either willfully or because of their slothfulness, and their attraction to worldly pursuits and sin, the Father has withdrawn His protection. As a result of His protection being withdrawn, evil is and will continue to prevail. Those who dwell under My Mother’s mantle of protection will be protected from the evil one to a large degree. I say this My child, and choose these words ‘to a large degree’ for there is no way to completely escape the affects of evil, for all who are alive will be impacted by what is to come. However, those in Her communities and those in Her refuges will remain protected so as to rebuild My Church. That does not mean that everyone will live, for some will still die of illness or 'natural causes' as you say, but they (those under Her mantle of protection) will not die the horrific deaths inflicted on many of My other children by the rampant evil that will be unleashed in the near future. I do not say this to give you a spirit of fear, My child, for nothing I say or do should bring fear to the hearts of My children of light. I say this to instill an even greater sense of trust in My Mother and in Me, for those who follow Me and who love My Holy Mother Mary will have salvation. Even if you lose your earthly life, your soul will be safe with Me in Heaven, for those who follow Me, love Me and obey My commandments of love. My child, the evil one wants to destroy the world My Father created. This will not occur, but as I have said on other occasions, there will be much headway made toward his hateful and destructive plan, due to the limited number of holy souls remaining to thwart his plan. Were it not for My Mother and Her holy, loving pleas for Her children, the world would have already been destroyed. You hesitate, My little one, to write something so terrible, and yet you know in your heart this is true. You who follow My Mother of Medjugorje already know this and again I say, for those who are not reading and following her words given to the world at Medjugorje because of My Father's great mercy and love of My Holy Mother Mary, begin to read Her words which are in perfect union with the one true God. If you only knew how much My Mother has done for mankind, (all of Our children) you would love and honor Her as I do. Yes, My children of light, I, the Savior of the world, the second person of the Trinity, love and honor My Mother. Would I, a good Jewish man, do anything less? No, of course not. For I am God and I issued the Ten Commandments and as a man and as God, I observe them perfectly. Honor your father and mother! I always have and always will, honor My Father in Heaven, My foster father St. Joseph and My Holy Mother Mary. Do the same, My children of light. Do the same. When you honor and show love and respect to My Mother, the blessed of all women, you imitate Me. It is said on earth that the greatest sign of love and respect is to imitate one's mentor. Imitate Me, My Children of the Renewal, and love and honor My Holy Mother Mary. I give you everything I have, yes even My very life, and I also share My Mother Mary with you so that you have Her as your Mother, also. Love your Mother Mary, for She loves you!"

Thank You, sweet Jesus. Thank You for sharing Your Holy Mother Mary with us, Your children. We are so desperately in need of Her and we are desperately in need of good mothers in this world that lives in darkness. The love of a holy mother is the difference between living a life of love, acceptance, understanding and peace, vs. a life of loneliness, lack of love, confidence, beauty and wisdom. I don't know how anyone learns to love without experiencing the love of a good mother, but especially without knowing the love of Our Lady.

"My child, that is one of the main issues in the world today, that has caused so many to go astray. The breakdown of the family, women working in such large numbers outside the home to support the family with little energy remaining to focus on their children. This, in addition to the large numbers of mothers with no faith in God contribute to a generation of people who have not experienced love in the way God the Father planned. You can imagine these children, unloved, also lacking good and holy fathers to ensure discipline and their safety grew to be self-centered, undisciplined, power seeking souls, ripe to be selected to do the evil one's bidding. My dear children, you are called upon to focus your efforts and your attention on raising good and holy children who must grow up in an environment of love and trust, belief in Me and exposure to a beautiful culture of faith. This is what was planned for all of Our children, and this is what you must rebuild within loving families and loving communities. My daughter, let us continue in our previous line of discourse about what is to come and the reason I used the word "critical" concerning My Mother's communities, and the fulfillment of the Father's Plan. My child, what has just been explained about holy families and the importance of raising children with love, respect, faith and hope within the safety and protection of loving families is the first and most important reason My Mother is establishing communities. She is instructing her children in a new way, that will involve a greater degree of holiness, simplicity, purpose and a deep sense of clarity regarding what is most important in the lives of My people, and that is walking closely with God and living in the light of My love. That sounds very simple to many reading these words and yet in the current age, this is almost impossible. It would be, without grace, and is impossible outside of community. Gone are the days when a family could live the mission of holy parents, who could protect their children from evil influences. Evil abounds and is resident in every culture in the world. Sadly, My children who are holy and work hard to raise holy children, suffer from the evil presence that has infiltrated everything from the music, the news, the business, to even the food that you eat. Even those raising food that is as close to what was planned, suffer from ground contamination, from chemicals, a decrease in the nutrients of the soil, and the tampering of crops and their seeds. I tell you, My little one, you could not begin to imagine how prevalent the dark, sinister plans of the evil one are, and how pervasive. Yet, life under My Mother's mantle, in Her communities will restore families to the way God intended families to live. My Mother's communities will show others the way and will be a light in this darkened world. After the coming calamities and the times of great trials, everyone will live in community, for that is the way life will be and must be lived in order to survive, to thrive and to grow in the wisdom and knowledge of God. This sounds too simple to those with no faith, but I tell you establishing holy communities will be most challenging given the current age of disobedience."

Jesus, (priest's name withheld) spoke about the meaning of the word 'obedience' today in his homily. He explained obedience as 'being under the mission of the one who is the object of our obedience.' This was a beautiful way of looking at the virtue of obedience. When we are obedient to You and to Your holy law, we are under this mission of God Almighty. When we are obedient to Your Holy Catholic Church and all it teaches and holds as true, we are under this mission of Your Church. The same holds true for priests, religious, lay people, etc., and this is such a beautiful truth. I understand so much more clearly why You call this evil age the 'Age of Disobedience', for we have lost sight of our love of God, our trust in You, and through our haughtiness, our strong wills full of self seeking pleasures, power, etc., we are disobedient to our calling in life. We are disobedient to God, to our vocations, and to Your Church. We are no longer under the mission of God, the mission of Your Church, the mission of our families, and therefore we are living in an Age of Disobedience. We are living in a pagan world, Lord. Jesus, Your Mother has said that through prayer we will find the solutions to problems with no exit (or words such as this), so through prayer we must find an exit to this Age of Disobedience.

"Yes, My child, through prayer, I can change hearts, minds and thereby souls. Through prayer, I can form My people into children of the living God. Through prayers individuals, then families, then parishes, then cities can be transformed. My child, prayer can and does change the world. My Mother's communities will all have a common purpose - to pray and to love. That is the common thread that is woven throughout. Though each community will live out the mission given specifically to each one in a different way, they will be united through prayer and through love in the same way. Prayer opens hearts to receive the love, mercy, and graces from God. Love and unity unleashes My Divine Power. Both prayer and love must be present in all of My Mother's communities, and in this way, all will see visible signs of My presence in the world. It will take much love, much prayer and a strong faith in Me and trust in Me and My Mother to survive what is coming, what the evil one plans to inflict on the world. I will be with you, My children. God is with you and He sends His Holy Mother Mary to give you the love and wisdom of a mother, My Mother. The adversary has great fear of My Mother. He will not come near Her, so you would do well, children of light, to invoke Her sweet intercession for you and invite Her to be present in your homes and in your communities; for one who is called blessed among women, all women, brings the blessing of God wherever She goes. Have no fear, My Mother will teach you in Her school of love, this new way of life. She will not leave those of you who are trying to accept Her invitation, those who love and listen to Her. She will not even desire to leave those children who refuse to follow Me, who refuse to love Me, though one day she will have to turn Her complete focus on those who follow Me and who love Me, for times will require such a focus. When a battle is raging, the focus must be on the battle or all would be lost. In spiritual terms, this is also true. The world is not at this point, yet, but soon will be. My children I have begged and pleaded for you who are far from Me to return to Me through repentance, conversion, acceptance of My love. I long for you to dwell in the safety and security of My Sacred Heart and in My Mother's Immaculate Heart. I am here for you, but today is the day of focusing on My children of light who need My direction, My counsel, for the persecution of the evil one is moving quickly ahead and the hour is very late. It is time to prepare My children of light, My Children of the Renewal, for time, were it not held back by My Father because of the love and tears of My Holy Mother Mary, would have found you in the midst of the times of great trials and so many of you would have been caught completely unaware. As it is, through My Holy Mother, through My many messengers, not to mention through Sacred Scripture, you have been warned, you have been invited, you have been called to conversion. Now, you must make your final decision and decide for Me, or decide for the evil one. There is no more time for being wishy washy as you say, for being noncommittal. This is a time of decision, and what follows will be the time of great trials. Be prepared by returning to the Sacraments, through prayer, fasting and penance. Feed your souls with My Holy Scripture and with the messages of My Mother. Be prepared every day, for you know not the hour. This is the most important preparation, followed by physical preparation and by that I mean community. Form small communities, My children. Pray and I will direct you. I love you and I do not wish to lose any of My children to the evil one. Heaven was created for you. Choose Heaven. Choose life. Choose Me."

Jesus, my husband requested I ask You for Your permission to read the message to (name withheld) that has the information about community and being protected in it. Is that alright with You, Lord?

"My daughter, My son is free to reach out to his brother with love and to read that message to him. I only advise that he pray to prepare for this and also to ask his guardian angel and that of his brother to protect them in the process. The battle against My Mother's community is raging, though unseen to human eyes. Removing oneself from this invitation of Hers is a small victory as perceived by My adversary and therefore one he is most unwilling to relinquish. I encourage My son in this, but I also issue him a caution; to proceed only after much prayer and fasting, for his protection and that of the entire community. Remember, though that I am much more powerful than the angel of darkness. I am the Creator and he is a creature."

Alright, Jesus. Lord, thank You for Your divine protection. Thank You for Your counsel, Your guidance, and most of all thank You for Your great love and mercy. Open (names withheld) hearts to You, Jesus and to Your will. I know they love You and they love Your Mother Mary. Please protect them Jesus, have You anything more to say to me?

"My child, tell (name withheld) that I am with him in a special way during the coming weeks. He knows this but remind him, for the evil one seeks to persecute and to destroy My Mother's plans. He will not; however he will try with a vengeance. This is why the message chosen for My Mother's community on Friday was given. It was given for the present, yes, but also for what is to come. You would do well to print this message and read it every day from today through the coming months and years for this is specific direction for My Mother's communities. It is a message to all that is true, as it is for anyone who heeds Her words, and yet it is a message specifically for these days and those to come for Her communities. Advise all, My son (name withheld) to read this message, so as to plant it firmly in your hearts. This can be considered your community message and in the days to come when the trials will be much more fierce from without, this message will bring grace, peace, hope and a renewed commitment to the plan of My Father which My Mother carries out through Her children, Her army. Dearest son of My Mother's heart, dearest children of Her heart, Her children of (community withheld) decide for Her and do not look back. Only go forward with peace, through prayer and faith in God, holding My Mother's hand. All will be well, but you must believe that this plan, this mission to which you have been called is one of critical importance to My Father's plan of salvation for the world. This is your mission, now. Continue to form Her community and let nothing discourage you. See all in the light of My plan and through prayer, trust and love, all will be accomplished. Fast, also for you are living in an Age of Disobedience and fasting will purify you and give you clarity to discern the Father's plan and direction for you. I love you, My Children of (community withheld) who are special children of My Mother. With humility, the plans of evil will be defeated. Who is more humble than My Most Holy Mother Mary? No one, I tell you and yet under Her mantle, She covers you in Her holiness, in Her love, in Her humility. Pray, pray, pray. All will be well but you must pray and follow My Mother. That is all, My Daughter. Go in peace now, to love and to serve. Be love. Be light. Be prayer. Be mercy."

Thank You, Lord for Your love and Your words of light and life. Thank You my sweet Jesus for loving us and for allowing us the privilege to cooperate in Your plan. We are Your poor children, but we love You. Jesus I offer myself to You. Use me as You will.

"Thank you, My little lamb. I accept your 'yes' in gratitude. I accept My son's 'yes', as well and that of My delightful daughter and My little warrior. Continue your commitment to family prayer and fasting. It is your husband's decision regarding your question of the Monday fast. He is the spiritual leader and head of your family and household and I defer to his decision. I trust he will decide what is best."

Thank You, my Lord, my God and my all!

"Go now, in the name of My Father, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit, who is with you (your marriage) in a special way."

I love You, My Jesus.

"And I love you, My daughter."
