

August 28, 2022 Adoration Chapel

Hello my dearest Jesus ever present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar. I love You, praise You and give glory to You, Lord, God and King. Thank You for Mass and Holy Communion this morning, Jesus! Thank You that the Church was overflowing with people. It was glorious! May all our churches be overflowing every Sunday. Lord, thank You for the conversions occurring in many hearts. You continue to save souls, Lord and we are so very thankful for Your graces. I am very grateful that (name withheld) received the Sacraments and the Apostolic Pardon again. Praise You for Your great mercy, my Savior! Lord, please also help (name withheld) who has become exhausted caring for (name withheld). He has been tireless in his care for her. Give him an opportunity to rest, Lord and at the same time keep (name withheld) in good and capable hands when she goes to the hospice unit. Your Will be done, Lord Jesus. Lord, thank You for the prayer group message on Thursday. It was beautiful and reassuring. Thank You for the reminder to remain focused on You and at peace. I pray for all who are ill and for those who will die today or tonight. Hold them closely to Your heart and carry them to Heaven. Please bring all our children and grandchildren into Your Holy Church, Lord. May all come to You through the waters of Baptism. Lord, is there anything You wish to say to me today?

“Yes, My child. Continue to follow through in all I have asked you and My children to do so that you are prepared spiritually. Remember, My children, you know not the day nor the hour and you must always be prepared. Guard your hearts and your minds. Remain apart from the secular, the sinful acts occurring in the world. I am calling you to live holy lives, pleasing to God. These are times unlike other times in history, My children. Many of you want to live your lives as if nothing had changed. Things have changed, My little ones. This time in the history of the world calls for extraordinary holiness. You are all called to be living saints, holy and pleasing to God. In the past it was easier to participate in cultural events and even entertainment and remain holy, for the times were less corrupted by sin and evil. The majority of people loved God and followed God, kept the 10 Commandments and were good people. I say the majority, My children for there have always been those who were against God. Those who were working against God and His children operated under cover. They were clandestine in their evildoing and it was not to be found all around My Children of Light. These days, evil has become emboldened and has corrupted every institution, yes even My Church. This does not mean the Church is unholy, but that many in the Church want to dismantle it. They make war against My Holy Catholic, Apostolic Church as if it could be demolished and abolished. It will not be, My children for I am raising up a holy remnant who will remain loyal to the teachings of the Church, that I have handed down to you through My Apostles. The gates of hell will not prevail against My Church. My children, it may appear so and that is what the evil one wants you to think. He wants the world to believe this. You must resist every temptation to brand My Church as evil, My children. My Church is holy. It is the evil one and those employed in his service who are evil. They have entered into the Church to destroy her from within. This is why you must remain holy, prayerful and righteous, My children in spite of what goes on around you. Be at peace for you know that soon the final victory will come and all will bend their knees to the Almighty God, My Father, the Creator. Because the time fast approaches when My adversary will be bound and unable to tempt My children any longer, he is enraged. He is leveling every trick he has to lead My children astray. Frequent the Sacraments, My little ones so that you can remain holy and strong. Remember, I will never leave you. Pray that you do not leave Me. Do not compromise your little beautiful souls by coming close to the edge of the cliff, so as not to be in danger of falling into sin. Avoid large crowds of people who are assembled for events that are not of God. There are too many evil ones lurking about and it is not safe for you. There are special souls who are called to rescue souls in these places, and I give them unique gifts and graces for their mission. Not all are called to this, though and your roles are different.”

“Remain in the state of grace, My children and if you are not in this condition now, run to Confession at the first opportunity. Make this a high priority, My children. Continue frequenting the Sacrament of Reconciliation and remain in a state of grace. I desire your souls be spotless. Also, you must be sure to take every advantage of the times as they stand now (in most nations) where you are able to go to Confession. One day, you will no longer freely go to Mass and Confession. Go now while you are able. My children, you have nothing to fear. Do all I have asked and it will go well for you even in the midst of great adversity. Resist the temptation to be accepted by the world and by worldly people. Be pleasing to God and God alone. Love your neighbor, My child and by loving your neighbor you will also remember to give witness to others. You cannot be a light, My children if you fit in with those living in darkness. That is not light, My children but the absence of light which is darkness. Many of you yearn to be accepted by others. You will be accepted by all in Heaven when you stand for Me. Be at peace, My children. I am with you. My Mother intercedes for you and is ready to help, to guide, to love and to soothe for she is a perfect Mother. Ask for her intercession and direction. She will not refuse her children."

"My little lamb, I bless you in the name of My Father, in My name and in the name of the Holy Spirit. The Father, Son and Spirit are one and I bless you, one God but three persons. Be mercy, be peace, be love and light. Share My peace, My mercy with others."

Amen! Alleluia! Thank You, my Lord and my God.
